Why we subject ourselves every single night for 8 hours to this coma-like, vulnerable state. Someone will comment getting 2 downvotes saying "We sleep to repair our bodies, to process emotions, retain memory, yada yada" but that is not what I mean. WHY? Why were we designed not to do all that awake? Or did we devolve into this state of being where we must slumber to do this? Another person will comment getting 12-53 upvotes (depending on how popular this post is) with authority saying we sleep so that we can connect to our astral bodies/higher selves to keep that link while living in this mortal plane. Maybe. Maybe not. NO ONE KNOWS.

Think of how people in indigenous tribes sleep - close to the ground (out of choice, they are resourceful and crafty enough to make beds) using their hand as a pillow so that both ears are uncovered and can alert them of any danger when they are sleeping. THIS is why sleep has been elevated from a "great mystery of the world" to conspiracy.

We don't think of it in our cozy, civilized worlds but again sleep leaves us in this very vulnerable state where something can wreck havoc on you (other humans, wildlife, natural disasters, UFO trying to beam you up).

"Strike when your enemies are sleeping"

"Don't let them catch you sleeping"

There is also the other element to a conspiracy and that is something being unknown, whether it's hiding in plain sight or not. The populace will not think about it. NONE of us think of sleep in this way. We take the general narrative that sleep is good for us. Don't get me wrong, it absolutely is but only because of what it does for us. If we were somehow able to harness its benefits though without subjecting ourselves to its coma-like state though, that would be ideal. However, we can't and we don't know why. I don't think ever in human history (even past a million years) that we will ever explain the phenomena of sleep.

I'm going to end with the addressing the irony in all of this is the terminology us conspiracy theorists use:

"The sheep are asleep" - blue pilled

"He is awake" - he knows truth

We will never know the truth about sleep.

We don’t remember the point that we actually fall asleep, or the point when we wake. I think it’s almost a switch. People were revered for their dreams that predicted the future. Are we sure we are actually “conscious” when we are awake? Are we actually awake when we dream? I’ve always wondered if that’s just another dimension, we exist in two planes.

You see, with your eyes, while in your dream. You hear with your ears, while in your dream. All your senses and your physical self is replicated and used in the same way as when you are awake. Why? Why is it created with the same input and output devices as when we are awake?
The thing is, we are taking in light waves and photons when we are awake. That is how we see. Same with touching and hearing and tasting. It all involves the sharing of information packets, dictated by the laws of physics. HOW does it work in the dream world then? Is there light wave and photons interacting with our eyes IN THE DREAM?? Are the mechanisms the same? Why and How?

[–]ApexxPredditor 14 points 2 years ago
Maybe in the future they will have Super Sleep machines where you can connect for like

5 minutes and it completely rejuvenates you
Sadly this would likely just mean we would have to work more hours lol

[–]Ok_Rain_8679 17 points 2 years ago
Well, when I was asleep, last night, I dreamed of cannibalism. Not in any fun sort of survival way. Just mediocre cannibalism, with the supermarkets now offering a human meat alternative to beef and pork. It was cheaper than both, and fattier than the pork. Someone was making soup with the ground human. Like a thin chili. It smelled off, and quite like old hog. I didn't have any. Not on principle, but just because it didn't smell very good. I sure hope I was not connected to a higher realm. SG was basically a secret ingredient. But this grocery store made no effort to lie about what they were selling. It was human meat in ground chuck format. And everyone was perfectly okay with it. It actually had more shelf space than the pork and beef. (Don't ask about turkey and chicken. I don't recall seeing them.)

[–]GodlyBeerGut 11 points 2 years ago
look into how dolphins sleep, it'll blow your mind.
Sleep is directly related to lack of sunlight...just like plants "sleep." My thinking is it has to do with exposure to the Sun's e.m.

[–]-HazzardCounty 12 points 2 years ago
I've always thought it was odd, even at a young age. Why does sleep bring on dreams which would essentially be considered auditory and visual hallucinations? The scientist will say well it produces REM sleep (rapid eye movement) - but why? What is the inducing force that causes your body to go into this state?
I mean, I know our bodies produce an individual magnetic field and so does the Earth. Clearly some charging is taking place during sleep, but why. Why do you "pass out" when you are so tired? Sounds like a dead battery to me.
All good questions OP. I wouldn't doubt that the "Elite" have the answers to this and do not want it to be explored, as it would lead to discoveries on our "true self" and origins. I don't know why more people don't ask questions like these and are satisfied with answers like "well that's just how it is". Because that's the mentality of about 95% of the people I encounter in waking life.

[–]Solomon419 5 points 2 years ago
Sleeping is synching to the blockchain. Nah but seriously. Check out the book Why We Sleep by Matthew Walker. I think he was on Joe Rogan once as well where he shares some info. Interesting stuff.

[–]Newton83 4 points 2 years ago
It's possible we just evolved to sleep because early humans couldn't do much at night due to predators. A mechanism to conserve energy

[–]gawainjones 4 points 2 years ago
If you meditate enough, you require next to no sleep. Whatever is occurring during meditation is also occurring during sleep.

[–]Admirable-Evening 2 points 2 years ago
I share my consciousness with other versions of me. When this version sleeps, another takes over my consciousness.
Sometimes if sleeping me is affected by abrupt wakening, then that leaves the other me as an NPC.
The goal is to have all version in sync and that is the great awakening, when you're all awake at once. But the government can't allow that to happen, otherwise we will be awake to see through the illusion that is life.

[–]STINKYPUSSYFAN 2 points 2 years ago
Sleep is when you upload your data to the matrix. You cant go long without sleep because your hard drive will corrupt

[–]rayquazza1994 2 points 2 years ago
In deep sleep we are with God. The process of meditation is bringing that state into the conscious state.

[–]FullBellyJelly 2 points 2 years ago
Well we know that staying Awake too long leads to deterioration of cognitive function. We know sleep helps prevent that cognitive decline from happening.

[–]urjokingonmyjock 1 point 2 years ago
Why is sleep any more mysterious than being awake?
Jung said we are dreaming all the time. I believe he was correct.

I think it makes evolutionary sense to prioritise activity when it’s light and warm at the cost of a period of recovery when cold and dark

The Deep State, Sleep Paralysis, and Adrenochrome. (self.conspiracy) submitted 4 years ago by expandingsynapse

I’m about to start writing my thesis on how I believe the deep state have been using the plane that sleep paralysis occurs on in order to extract Adrenochrome from adults.

Because logically, they could be using that plane because they understand it and we don’t. Humans are capable of astral projection, Gateway Process declassification literally gave us all a simple step by step how by using frequencies we can induce an astral projection.

So my theory is that the deep state has been using their greater understanding of these plains in order to cause true fear through using their astral bodies in order to maintain anonymity while collecting adrenochrome from our astral bodies while we are asleep. It makes sense because in a waking state, humans have the ability to compare their current fear from their past fears, and thus being able to maintain composure because “something else happened that was worse before so this isn’t so bad”. But on the astral plane, a plane that our human brain cannot entirely understand, and is still very foreign to normal peeps who don’t know much about it, we are basically newborns in that world as we do not know anything about it. So theoretically with no ability to compare that current fear felt in sleep paralysis to anything you’ve felt in the waking state, you feel true terror.

This may be why many claims from sleep paralysis sufferers state that they see the same beings in many of their episodes. The man in the bowlers hat and his 2 minions, etc. These are common place claims from people who have these incidents.

As someone who’s had 3 incidents of this occur in my lifetime, it feels like they have left a permanent burn in my mind and I still haven’t forgotten those feelings or what i saw in that plane.

This is a summary of what I will be going into greater detail about in my essay. Also this was fun tangent idea I came up with on mushrooms. And I thought it would be fun to deeply explore the idea later.

[–]AndrewTkachuk 4 points 4 years ago
WTF... I downloaded this CIA document. Now I don't know what to believe anymore. I was interested in astral projection and lucid dreaming when I was at school, 15 years ago. I even read the book of Monroe institute, mentioned in the doc. Then I turned to 100% materialistic worldview, thought all those esoteric stuff was a mistake. Now I'm confused AF.

[–]NHradDad 3 points 4 years ago
They can't extract adrenochrome astrally. It just is not possible. I hope that alleviates your fear. Sorry to ruin any hopes of a compelling thesis.

Harmful subliminal messages being added to some YouTube sleep videos. Would like community’s help. (self.conspiracy) submitted 3 years ago by Kit-Walters-Music

So I wanted to get some nice relaxing sleep and put on a YouTube 10 hour thunder and rain video.

As I started to drift off I started hearing a woman’s voice repeating what felt like every 30 seconds or so in “sleep state” or when the brain is operating at different wave lengths.

The messages were harmful and while I was conscious while falling asleep similar to the hypnagogic state, (I have a lot of experience with astral projection and leaving the body), the messages started to be heard.

This was terrifying to me. It took me awhile to wake my physical body up to turn off the video as I kept waking to grab the remote just to be in another state of the astral.

I climbed back to base 3d reality through about 3 or four layers of this. So whatever state the brain is in 3 or 4 layers deep is when the messages start to be heard.

There are small electronic blips and bings here and there and I believe these are what are used to form the messages. It is a woman's voice and the messages are meant to form harmful habits.

I'd love to have some help in getting to the bottom of this. I work in pro audio and might be able to find the blips and assemble them somehow, but they may also be some sort of Morse code or electronic signature that does not manifest itself as regular words in base reality. Let me know if you guys have any thoughts or ideas and maybe we can get to the bottom of this.

It's terrifying to think how many forms of media this could be being used in. There may be some sort of patent related as I've seen patents posted here that involve subliminal messaging.

The voice appeared to become audible when the brain fell into a certain wave pattern. This was very noticeable and my slide into the hypnagogic was fully conscious... started lower became more and more clear.

When I realized what was happening I went through the steps of waking my body up as I knew roughly what density I was as it's place I've been several times.

I was a few layers down. It's crazy that other people have heard it as well and I really wonder how this is working. I know that Microsoft had a patent to send subliminals through flickering signals in screens and I'm curious if it's a similar tech that is inaudible in our regular state but acting on our brains and beings consistently.

Kind of like a they live situation.

[–]Thottpatroll 21 points 3 years ago
I would never trust YouTube on that respect, nor even their Asmara videos, and I feel like they're programming teens and children even moreso than television; they're delivering a cocktail of brain carving earworms

[–][deleted] 1 point 3 years ago

Yep, and lots of the 432Hz videos are actually using 440Hz. Lots of the ones that say they force out of body experiences make me feel very worried when I wake up the next day.
They are camouflaging dark tides as good vibes. It’s fucked.

The mind is extra physical and spiritual in nature. (self.conspiracy) submitted 2 years ago by KundalinirRZA

The records of both Americans and British societies for physical research are filled with case reports of telepathy, clairvoyance, astral projection, remote viewing, and similar abilities.

Still many people despite the published reports of scientific findings, are prone to go into attack mode and claim conspiracy when the idea that these abilities exist.

All of these have even been mentioned in religious books, but today, some of those followers will say that it’s impossible.

Some of the greatest scientific thinkers have declared that these abilities are not only possible but that it is a faculty that can be used by most people when they understand it.

Studying and experimenting with the spiritual energy that can come with goosebumps has helped me experience many of these psychic abilities.

How?

This is your spiritual energy that comes from your energetic (spiritual) body and truly understanding it is one of the simplest keys for these abilities.

This energy is know throughout many cultures and different languages as Euphoria, Tension, Chi, Prana, Ecstasy, Qi, Vayus, Aura, Tummo, Mana, Frisson, Life force, Pitī, Rapture, Ruah, Ether, Nephesch, Chills, The Force, ASMR, Nen, Spiritual Energy and Spiritual Chills.

Here's a YouTube Video that explains this energy and how to use it to your advantage.

[–]Cideart 3 points 2 years ago
I have proven that Precognition is a real thing, I often get it, and am able to blurt out what time it is, Or is going to be, at the moment when I walk into the room with a clock, or look at the clock on the TV, etc. I have done this for a friend, and setup experiments where I couldn't possibly have seen a clock for at least a day, half a day, etc. (And was still accurate, WHEN I got the feeling, of whatever I can't describe.)
Its a feeling of certainty, sureness, of no doubt, of hope, and of great satisfaction when performed correctly. It proves there is some leakage of information in our brains, or our minds rather - our consciousness - which goes against traditional physical understanding. Perhaps consciousness is not solely a local phenomenon, I feel very strongly there is a some sort of collective, connective mind=body consciousness, and it hops off things like invisible pathways of Electromagnetic energy to get around.

[–]cashcart1 2 points 2 years ago
I’m sure some of these things can unknowingly connect you to evil spirits. For instance when you open your third eye you start to see a whole variety of different spirits.

[–]KundalinirRZA 1 point 2 years ago
You're right about that, from my experiences, When i opened mine (unconsciously) i saw a bunch of good spirits and angels visitations. The only time I saw bad and evil spirits was when i would be around my ex (this made me aware that people have spirits with them) and ever since ive used this to be able to tune into people and see what do they have around them, most have good spirits and the ones who donèt you can already tell by their character and personality.
I was also made aware of another thing too, itès that two other factors will put you in the position to be reached by evil or disgusting spirits. One is the emotions that you emit on a daily basis(and your thought since thoughts create emotions) if you do not stay on a positive side of things you will lower yourself to be able to be reached by these evil spirits and the more pure ones or good ones will not even be able to reach you.
The other factor is if you keep yourself pure through your actions, these are all mentionned in religious books and are no joke, since these abilities come first and foremost from God, God knows the best way to keep us using them in ways that will not be detrimental for us at all. Same for all the other abilities.

I feel absolutely no "magic"/"sense of God" from religion/cults, just deceit and power/control unfortunately. I get that religion helps people be good but I don't need fear to force me to be a loving person. I want to be, so I constantly work at it. Its simply choices we make, I don't believe entities are controlling me lol meditation and exploring the knowledge of this world has led me to realize the harm our man-made ideologies have done to this world, how we interact with it and each other. I can't belong to any ego based ideology. Imo there are many good religious people, many of my loved ones are religious. I in no way judge religious people, because I understand I don't have all the answers and could be completely wrong. Only thing I focus on is love. I believe we can live and love together without all thinking the same exact thing. Love and peace to all!

What Percent of Posts Here are Purposeful Misdirection? (self.conspiracy)

What percentage of posts on this page are meant to mislead us and actually keep us away from finding truth? I see a lot of posts that look like obvious misinformation.

[–]CARGODRIFT 19 points 2 days ago
Between 6.66% to 9.11% on the average day. Sometimes it can reach 33% if there's a big event.

[–]numberjhonny5ive 3 points 2 days ago
It is difficult to determine if there is a purposeful misdirection or someone who is just arguing because they don't want to believe it. I think misdirection happens though. The comments that seem to be matter of fact, but regurgitating a point proven to be biased seem like most intentional misdirection ones.

people cannot even have legitimate peaceful gatherings & protests nowadays, because they immediately get infiltrated by anarchists, socialists & feds (ie; January 6th)

I think the word "conspiracy" has been purposely manipulated into now meaning "conspiracy theory" (self.conspiracy) submitted 23 hours ago by Jean_Claude_Van_Darn
This takes all of the weight of the true meaning of the word and makes anyone who mentions it seem unhinged. Or, at least in the back of the hearers mind it gets connected to "crazy people" like Alex Jones and therefore is deemed less serious.
I think those of us who know better need to keep using the words correctly.

[–]eternaldouble2 7 points 23 hours ago
The CIA coined the term "conspiracy theorist" to discredit anyone questioning the Kennedy assassination.
Because the "theory" of a lone gunman is as the only acceptable answer (according to the powers). Therefore, NO conspiracy. No other people. No group. No one but the lone gunman. The word has lost the meaning from one person crime vs organized group crime. It has been bastardized into "crazy unsupported evidence-less idea".

[–]aquaponic 6 points 23 hours ago
You are correct. SO many people on this sub do not use the word properly.
“Conspiracy” is a plot to commit a crime that multiple people commit. Like “conspiracy to commit murder”, or “conspiracy to rob the bank”. It’s an organized crime type of word.
“Is there a conspiracy to hide aliens from the public?” Maybe, I’m not sure of what crime. Harmful, possibly especially if there is technology being hidden.
“Is 9/11 a conspiracy?” Well - YES. IN ALL STORIES, 9/11 is a conspiracy. Either it’s the “official story of the Saudi Arabian hijackers” which is a group of people committing a crime or “some other idea of organized crime”. In all cases, it’s a conspiracy. It was planned and executed by many people. It is a conspiracy.
The American Revolution was a conspiracy against the English government. The French Revolution was the same. The term is probably used 10% of the time correctly In this sub. Good luck to us all.

I mean yea a lot of what you said is true but is isnt technology, its telepathy.
This all takes place in the non-physical, there is MANY different mechanics used for different forms of manipulation in the non-physical.
But if you had to generalise them all it is to choose what other entities experience.
There is a non-physical mechanic where they can directly imagine stuff from your perspective. Which is what they use on most people.
So imagine I could switch my POV to yours, and then just imagine stuff coming in and doing stuff. Thats how it works.
I could go more into it if anyone understands what im saying.

[–]g5h1 9 points 2 months ago
Physically dying is being blasted into the unknown, on purpose and that's why we are memory wiped and have our heart and pineal gland spiritually blinded. The ancient Egyptians knew this as well.
Would you personally be able to know whether you are still in a dream/nightmare or have physically died?
Also , a majority of people are unable to even discern whether or not their dreams or nightmares right now are fake or real. Even now everyone has trouble with this and a bad nightmare can leave them afraid and in fear even after they wake up.
Lucid dreaming is a great great practice, but one must still realize they won't have their physical body nor senses nor face at all after physical death. Yet, during lucid dreams one is still believing they are their own body and thoughts which defeat the point of lucid dreaming. There is so much intricate deception coming from our own minds and our knowledge or lack of knowledge, alone.
One must expect the unexpected. And a lot of that unexpected can be known now by meditating in silence without any stimulation and quashing one's own internal Demiurge.

Or own body and brain constantly work against us and our spirit with the hormone implants like dopamine, cortisol, serotonin, and so on. How many people are dopamine fried?... How many people know whether or not they are dreaming? Even this physical reality we see with our physical eyes is pretty much fake but the pineal gland makes it seem real.
The pain and suffering felt here is very real. Even if we have forgotten it now. What we see with our physical eyes and its false sight, is technically fake. But our pineal glands make it seem real. That's also why the pineal gland is in the brain and trapped by the mind itself. It's really the eye of the heart, not the brain. But they (creators of the human body) put it into the minds they gave us and inbetween the physical eyes so we can be spiritually blinded. The mind itself and its ego is the problem and parasite which causes one to form attachments and not be able to let go in the first place. Because one is born actually believing that they are their own body, their own thoughts, and the face they see in the mirror. But neither their temporary body, nor are their mind's thoughts theirs. Otherwise, we would be able to control and silence our thoughts and minds at will since birth.
It is the heart which is the seat of the spirit, and its eye, is trapped in the mind. When one takes the 18 inch journey from Plato's Cave (the mind) and goes into their heart, they are able to see things neutrally and absolutely. Versus the divided mind and its 2 positive and negative hemispheres which are designed to harverst our loosh by controlling us, making us scared, unable to let go, attached to the world, incomplete, chasing desires, and so on. The ego and mind is the internal Demiurge, jealous and selfish which is scared and angry to be exposed and escaped. That's why one lashes out at others and themselves. The lizard brain is created for survival in this prison. It's a follower. The heart, which is the spirit, and our broken piece of the true God, is a leader. Neutral, undivided, and free. It's up to us to choose which one to see and live from. Our spiritual eye of the heart, the pineal gland, has been calling back to us to awaken and see the truth for countless past lives. Our own heart is the alarm. The brain is artifical intelligence quite literally. It cannot feel anything at all. It's like a piece of software that just is designed to decode and filter this prison reality and ensure survival and that we have offspring. The brain is AI itself. And we must free our heart, the spirit, God, from being controlled by the false god. The mind and its ego. The same one the actual Demiurge has, that "jealous god" has turned us into both prisoner and prison guard. We have become our own enemey. And the cycle must stop in our own lives to be free.

Is there a way to awaken all kind of psychic powers at once ?
(self.EscapingPrisonPlanet)
submitted 1 month ago by isma496
I regularly see people talk about all kind of psychic abilities such as premonition,remote viewing,astral projection,lucid dreaming,telepathy and such.

[–]zen88bot 6 points 1 month ago
If you have an occult encounter with a being, you will begin to manifest abilities that are considered prodigious and a spiritual quickening concurrently occurs. Your soul source awakens within the body and its abilities as a creator/manifestor become realized. Other life forms become aware of this awakening and suddenly life takes on an entirely new experience as the grid and these emtities become apparent to the awakened, along with so much more.

[–]PhantomGlake 3 points 1 month ago
I'll keep it real with you. As someone who would also love a fast-track way to get things going, the only way is consistent practice at stirring your spiritual energy thus stimulating your pineal gland. Think of it like a muscle that's basically been out of use and dormant for years.
It's a shame there's no technology that could jolt it awake or something, but it's probably for the best. If you were to become aware of everything all at once, you'd probably quickly slip into madness. Though, I do personally believe that encounters with the paranormal can speed things up somehow. I've noticed a pattern that usually people who actively experienced the paranormal end up having an easier time tapping into altered states of consciousness (mostly lucid dreaming or astral projection).
For us normies, though, we all need to be meditating daily. Like seriously, we should be putting at least as much time into that as we do peeping this sub.

[–]GnosticMind79 2 points 1 month ago
Consistent meditation/breath-work is the key to activating and optimizing all your psychic abilities. Incorporate mudras into your practice as well, as they will help to enhance and boost your overall progress.

Giving you some data in the subject, do as you please with them.
Dreamland, as the Simulacrum are actual theoretical places deep inside the probability field, known as imagination. They are owned oniric places. The Source is the owner of those places. And to enter them, you have to deserve them.
Dreamland is hexashaped. An island surrounded by a limitless ocean. Dreamland is made of archetypal point of interests. Where the Sleeper, as a theoretical being goes to experience some truths. It's you the Mind/the Conscience/the Consciousness, the one reading this right now who goes there. From your awaken life point of view, you are the sleeper. You go there and superimpose your own known POI upon Dreamland. You even take your whole belief system with you.
Here are some POIs:The Mall, the Elevators, the Stairs, the Subterranean Maze, the hospital, the Cliffs, the Coastal Town flooded by tsunami, the Mountain, the Swimming Pool, etc... That's where the oniric experience takes place... that if the sleeper is granted access.
Because the sleeper can be granted or denied access to Dreamland. If denied access the sleeper will end up in the Simulacrum. If granted access depending on the level of awareness the sleeper will experience one of these:
Common dream: low awareness, no control, no admin privilege Lucid dream: full awareness, some control, no admin privilege astral projection: full awareness, control, admin privilege.
If the sleeper is denied access, even if he was in Dreamland a moment ago he will be caught and end up in the Simulacrum. Depending on the level of awareness the sleeper will experience one of these:

Nightmare: low awareness, no control
Sleep paralysis: full awareness, no control
Iterating event: full awareness, no control, exhaustion.
That said, it is the first time I've heard of someone who could escape the Simulacrum and get back to Dreamland. And from where I stand it's quite a feat. Hats off to that.
Any action or inaction is performed in the present. But you can fill the present with recall of past action and inaction or with prediction of future action and inaction. Rendering the present unusable.

The Gateway Process could help you a lot with all of this. The process is thoughtfully designed to help you feel safe and protect against contact with these lower level entities- mainly by committing to raising your vibration. It would also help to heal any openings in your astral body where they come in to reattach and manufacture fear. Any trauma, current or ongoing drug or alcohol use keeps the windows open for these things to come in and live rent free in your energetic house (ingesting more spirits that don't always leave when the effects wear off).
Here's a link to the complete tape collection.
https://youtube.com/@gatewayexperience?s...yLQ61KPw9A
Here's the manual, it's important to read this along with listening to the tapes.

I also suggest jointing the r/gatewaytapes sub if you find the process works for you.
You can go down road of researching all the CIA or conspiracy theories about it, but also read through the positive experiences on the sub to balance this out.
For me, it's been a very powerful healing tool

I find it interesting that any party that doesn't toe the globalist line and instead wishes to preserve some autonomy and self determination is immediately labeled either right wing or far right.

At least David Rockefeller and some of his henchmen have shuffled off the mortal coil since then. That said, those criminal eugenics enthusiasts have carried on their plans. Bill Gates considered David Rockefeller a mentor.

The video on the bench where Kate said "cancer was found"; and mentioned "preventive chemotherapy" was generated using A.I. So in theory since that video was A.I., Kate likely did not have had cancer at all.
For those asking why it's believed to have been generated by Artificial Intelligence, the background foliage (trees/bushes/little yellow flowers) doesn't sway or move with a slight wind at all. It is completely a stagnant and stationary background. Other clues too, check it out for yourself. Very weird.

The ring given to Catherine by Prince William during their wedding ceremony disappears and reappears with each frame of the A.I. generated video. Her hair on her left temple (our right side) glitches upwardly. There are six fingers on her right hand in a few frames. As I said above, the background never changes, it is stagnant and stationary. The video was proven to a degree of 96% to be generated by Artificial Intelligence.

Look at her hand, the one without the ring. Now close your fingers together like she's doing, look at your hand and look how much further back the crease between your thumb and index finger is compared to the rest of your fingers. In the photo it's like she has a finger where her thumb should be.

The biggest sin of this image is putting it in an undisclosed forest area. They are trying to overstimulate the mind with everything there but it just screams they are using it to hide the imperfections.

" We will focus their attention toward money and material goods so they many never connect with their inner self. We will distract them with fornication, external pleasures and games so they may never be one with the oneness of it all."
__Their minds will belong to us and they will do as we say. If they refuse we shall find ways to implement mind-altering technology into their lives."_
→ We will use fear as our weapon.
→ We will establish their governments and establish opposites within.
→ We will own both sides.
→ We will always hide our objective but carry out our plan.
→ They will perform the labor for us and we shall prosper from their toil.
→ Our families will never mix with theirs. Our blood must be pure always, for it is the way.
→ We will make them kill each other when it suits us.
→ We will keep them separated from the oneness by dogma and religion.
→ We will control all aspects of their lives and tell them what to think and how.
→ We will guide them kindly and gently letting them think they are guiding themselves.
→ We will foment animosity between them through our factions.
→ When a light shall shine among them, we shall extinguish it by ridicule, or death, whichever suits us best.
→ We will make them rip each other's hearts apart and kill their own children.
→ We will accomplish this by using hate as our ally, anger as our friend.
→ The hate will blind them totally, and never shall they see that from their conflicts we emerge as their rulers. They will be busy killing each other.

→ They will bathe in their own blood and kill their neighbors for as long as we see fit.
→ We will benefit greatly from this, for they will not see us, for they cannot see us.
→ We will continue to prosper from their wars and their deaths.

This seems to be the type of manifesto that would be concocted by a nonhuman cryptid intelligence that views the human species as an extreme threat to its very existence. An intelligent entity that operates with an advantageous longevity as it conducts its evil throughout multiple human generational lines due to speed of human mortality. Everything stated up above is both inhumane and inhuman and couldn't ever have an inkling of what it's like to be human. Jealousy is as old as time itself...but even this too shall pass. Matthew 13:49-50

This is the dark side of science. It's why we joke about The sCiEnCe. If you're corrupt enough, you can make it appear to say whatever you want. And science is filled with corruption and nepotism. The entire funding and influence pipeline is compromised. It's nothing more than a massive factcheck badge industry, divorced from actual research, loaded up with disinformation, and used as a weapon to ensure the power status quo remains unchallenged.

shingles virus has never been isolated/ purified or shown to actually exist. Shingles has never been shown to be contagious. Shingles like many illnesses are most likely a toxicity. metal toxicity can affect every tissue in the body, but is especially devastating to neural tissue, causing brain fog, brain inflammation (aka burning brain), peripheral nephropathy, pins and needles, numbness, skin rashes, digestive issues. The most safe and effective protocol for metal detox is Andy Cutler Detox, AKA Andy Cutler frequent dose chelation.

Whether Jesus is the thing people claim him to be is whatever. The egregore that is Jesus has been powered for thousands of years through worship, and this alone gives it power. Thought forms are real. Believe in yourself people. If you don’t, how are you ever going to escape?

Jesus is Lucifer who turns out to be the demiurge.
The demiurge's end game is harvesting human souls to the next plane known as "New Jerusalem" as known by Christians. New Jerusalem also turns out to be the New Age's 5D realm. In Anthroposophy/ Theosophy it is known as the Eighth Sphere. No matter what anyone believes in, all religions technically worship the same demiurge who plans to take us to the Black Cube of Saturn.

The incredible properties of the Pineal Gland hidden secret from us. (i.redd.it) submitted 1 year ago by ultrasuperthrowaway
THE PINEAL GLAND
The pineal gland is one of the greatest secrets hidden from us. The secret is not that the gland exists, the secret is its function. Medical students are told it's a twisted organ, but it's not.... The Pineal Gland is our third eye, it is the organ through which we dream and imagine and once it is activated it is also the organ that connects us to other dimensions of reality, that is: it allows us to see beings of other dimensions besides allow us to make astral journeys (leave our physical body to travel with our ethereal body), develop psychic skills such as clairvoyance or telepathy and even the possibility of time travel...
It's not hard to know why it's a secret, the answer is in Church. How has the church subsisted? being the monopoly of religion: going to mass is the only way we've been shown to connect with the Divine plane but actually the Temple to reach Divine connection is within each of us...
Pinnacle or pineal gland has several meanings. For the Catholic religion, it means the Power of God; for Freemasonry, the vision of the Cyclops; within the Egyptian tradition it is known as the eye of Horus, also in sacred geometry we can see that the eye of Horu s' accurately corresponds with all the structures of the brain and in the Asian world as the third eye or center of clairvoyance and intuition...

In initial terminology it is known as ″ The Door of Paradise ″ and even the French philosopher, Descartes, proposed that the pineal gland was what connects the body to the soul, or contained it. defined it as ″ The Seat of the Soul ". His proposal arises because the pineal gland is not bilaterally duplicated in the body, and also believed (erroneously) that it was exclusive to humans...
Melatonin hormone produced by Pineal whose deficiency is caused by insomnia and depression is present in some foods such as oats, corn, tomatoes, potatoes, nuts, rice and cherries. In the ancient temples of Sumerians and Babylonians we had worship of the pineal and even in the vatican we can see a monument that they have in the form of pineapple or pineal, also ported by the potatoes, and on the walls of the pyramids are the hieroglyphics.
The secret pineal a substance called DMT (dimethyltriptamine) also known as the spiritual molecule that curiously releases into the fast eye motion phase that is when we are dreaming, is responsible for visualizing images in dreams. When there is no light, the pineal gland produces melatonin from serotonin. It is related to regulating vigil and sleep cycles and serves to counteract the effects of time zone difference syndrome (jet lag)...
The DMT is so powerful that it can carry man's consciousness through time travel and dimensions. In the immediate state before death, a lot of DMT is produced, so you are credited with the ability to enter consciousness into higher dimensions ' Achieves mystical or interdimensional states, is the most powerful hallucinogenic or entheogenic found in the wild , in all plants and animals (in greater or lesser concentration), it has profound effects on consciousness). Meditation offers the portal to practice and grow your connection conciousness and abilities in higher dimensions of being, what we would call super natural these days. What we will soon remember.
Work on mastering your Mind Body Spirit temple of the divinity within you.

[–]Honest_Replacement_6 78 points 1 year ago
Studies have proven that the pineal gland gets calcified and can’t work from fluoride, which is in all drinking water and the dentist regularly gives to children. They have purposely been trying to block and destroy our ability to utilize our pineal gland.

[–]Honest_Replacement_6 4 points 1 year ago
I read in the study that getting 20 minutes of sunshine on top of your head, daily helps to de-calcify it.

[–]wheredeyatdoe69 1 point 1 year ago
Expensive fluoride water filters (berkey or clearlyfiltered), iodine supplements (you can actually get a good one on infowarsstore.com), tumeric/black pepper.

[–]Dzugavili 3 points 1 year ago
...it gets calcified by calcium; fluoride just incorporates into calcium matrices readily.
It can't be decalcified, as the tissue is dead: you can break down the calcium, but the underlying cells are not going to regenerate. It also looks like it is supposed to calcify as you age, in order to disable all the hormones that keep you a child.

[–]mobani -2 points 1 year ago
Don't make me laugh. Same people who wants to ban fluoride will sit each day and fill their bodies with shitty processed and destroyed fats and high sugar foods.
Most people who suffer from calcification is due to bad diet and too much bad LDL.
That food will calcify you faster than any fluoride water.

[–]FarmerJefe 29 points 1 year ago*
The French philospher Rene Descartes called the pineal gland ... "the seat of the soul". He astutely observed that unlike many other glands, there was only 1. And it was located precisely in the center of the brain.
The Egyptians were well versed in the function and exact size of the pineal gland and a side view of the pineal gland is depicted in many of their hieroglyphics. It is also depicted in the courtyards of the Vatican; there are quite a few pine cone figurines. The pineal gland looks like a tiny pine cone.
The pineal gland can be enhanced by decalcifying the pineal gland (fluoride makes a nasty hard to break bond) as well as sun gazing, preferably at dawn or dusk when the rays are the weakest.

"A vast amount of mind control programming in 1980 (and also today, in recently released children's books - by MI8) was all about the piercing of your pineal gland (a needle through the eye) and the forcing of the 'dragon' (brain) to give up its most valuable treasure. Every human being's most valuable treasure - contained in the pineal gland. Your 'golden energy'. We all had our 'gold'. So many of us were cheated out of it. The 'healing energy' which we all possess in our pineal gland, was generally 'seen' by those with a high PSI ability as of a 'gold ethereal nature'...and equated to the 'spark of God' in various fine art paintings. God's gift to us all - which the Illuminati then proceeded to steal."
"In 'rabbinical' or 'kabbalistic' terms - this 'it' was known as the spark of God. The 'spark' that is in every human being. The Illuminati thought that this 'spark' was contained in the pineal gland and could be 'extracted'. They were therefore attempting to 'imprison God' or rather His sparks."
"Alexandra House, Dovercourt - rest home for the naval elite. The adjoining Pink House is where the most diabolical Illuminati mind control medical procedures take place - check out Flat 1. Rimington has left her dog-toothed coat in this particular Illuminati flat. You can see it through the window. 'Toad of Toad Hall' programming. Join the dots. Minatour in the Labyrinth programming in the Jerusalem tunnels to protect the Crown Jewels. The 'Ruby' of the Crown was India, where colonial mind control programming began 'mass production'. Read E. M. Forster's account from his 'mother of darkness' contact 'Mrs. Moore' in 'Passage to India'. The Ruby or jewel in the forehead of the toad in Hans Christian Andersen programming. No jewel - just a bloody hole. The crimson mess left after the 'needle through the eye' which all Illuminati slaves were put through. Why? To extract most of the pineal gland. The PG...pearly gates...the 'pearl' or 'soul' of a victim. The pineal gland grows back eventually and this is why those in their 40s begin to regain their memories. If this is found out - you pay another trip to 'Flat 1'."
"What the Illuminati were doing to their slaves every 5 years - was to scoop a bit more out of the pineal gland and 'stun' it by what they called 'a needle through the eye'. This served a dual purpose: To prevent the slave from recovering any memories of the horrific sexual and psychological abuse during 'programming'. To sell minute quantities of human pineal gland on the Royal Illuminati market."

"The Crown was extracting the 'pearl' or Pineal Gland from their slaves. If you want a visual image of this in esoteric terms - check out the album cover 'Weak From Kissing' by Al Gromer Khan. You can see the 6 pointed turquoise star (symbolic of an Illuminati slave). The crimson red triangle (extraction of pineal gland). The horizontal crescent white moon (next stage in the process of the removal of almost all of the pineal gland). The 'full moon' to the right which denotes the 'soul' or pearl of the mind, extracted. The crimson triangle is often called 'The Bermuda triangle' by mind control programmers, where all memories of Illuminati programming (torture and abuse) are lost. The orange sign of Uranus refers to the 'lock' put over this type of programming i.e. repeated anal rape which makes the Illuminati slave disassociate if they even go near what has happened to them in their heads."
Ex MI6 agent/Royal Arch Illuminati victim

What happened between 2019-2020 (self.conspiracy)
submitted 23 hours ago by TwiztedChicken
I am not sure if I am the only one who feels/thinks this. But it seems things were SO much more normal in 2019. As soon as 2020 hit, it's like things got weird as hell. Like things were bad in 2019. But it's like 01/01/2020, we like woke up in another dimension. Things that are being pushed/normalized today were viewed as unfathomable in 2019. I don't know if I am explaining it right, maybe it's just me.

My friend and I were just talking about this. Nothing has felt the same since covid hit early in 2020. I feel like I'm taking crazy pills sometimes because most people around me seem to not even notice. It feels darker and scarier and like something worse is just lurking right around the corner.

EXACTLY. Like people seem like nothing is wrong or don't notice any difference and that this is all normal. But there is a feeling that something dark is coming with no signs of it going away.
Honestly, it is scary. The drastic change and how everybody conformed to it so easily. It's like it's a "test run" to see what they can get away with. Covid was the start of the trial run. When they seen how much the mask vs no mask, and the vax vs no vax debates. They knew they could get the cover over half the population and they wouldn't question it, that's all they needed. Slowly pushing more and more out little by little. And now we are here.

[–]JellyfishPlastic8529 76 points 7 hours ago
It all happened over night. It was wild how fast the world shut down.

[–]TwiztedChicken 41 points 7 hours ago
That's what I am saying. I'm glad I am not the only one who noticed it. It's like one day we woke up, feminist ran sh*t. Blue haired women-men started demanding uses of pronouns, grocery and housing prices went through the roof. Fighting fighting fighting among people, a constant back and forth now. It’s like this is the new “normal”

I'm glad someone realizes how drastic of a change it was, the shift from 2019 to 2020 was day and night. I never remembered racial tensions being this bad, food prices that have almost tripled, housing becoming straight up unaffordable and just a general uneasy feeling since the start of covid till now.

I resigned from my job at the time my work planned its celebration of “LGBTQ Pride Month,” in June 2019. I never had a problem working with Lesbians nor with Homosexuals. They worked where I worked, and they were good at their jobs, and we all respected one another’s work and working relationships. What I didn’t understand was, why my company was celebrating LGBTQ Pride, and not celebrating Pride in the Best Engineering in the world. That is from my experience 2019, leading into 2020.
ETA: Was it a “spell”? I am pondering whether the acronym LGBTQ is a hidden occult “spell” used to bring about what we experienced in 2020? The acronym “LGBTQ” is defined (I believe)…as lesbian-gay-bisexual-transgender-queer, however, I sincerely wonder whether there may be another very hidden meaning? Because other large corporations (i.e. Chase Bank) had the LGBTQ-Pride stickers on their desks also that same month, in June 2019.

The elite club is conspiring to subvert the nucleus of western civilization, which is the family. This is why there is an organized effort to promote incest porn and it is also why they celebrate the destruction of the family. I have nothing against homosexuals, I am all for freedom as long as they are not hurting anyone. But celebrating cultural Marxist anti-family agendas and putting them over the celebration of the traditional family is a conspiracy, and it is an organized dismantling of western civilization from secretive traitors from within. Also, by destroying the middle class economically, traditional marriages are no longer occurring. It is time we expose the traitors.

They aren't feminists. You can't be a feminist if you can't even define what a woman is. Just because someone runs around claiming to be a horse doesn't mean they're a horse.
I'm really sick of very clearly not feminist people tarnishing, perverting, and ruining feminism.

[–]TwiztedChicken 13 points 7 hours ago
Nah, you’re absolutely right. It’s like I was explaining to my mom and brother earlier on the phone. Woke used to mean not being a sheep. Not doing what they are telling you. Knowing sh*t is behind the scenes.
Nowadays it’s thrown around by children that think woke means being as obnoxious as humanly possible all while using pronouns and demanding sex surgery be normalized in everybody including children.

It’s crazy

[–]No-Tangerine6570 10 points 3 hours ago
In this perverted brand of feminism, they demand conflict between the sexes. Men have to be bad. Families have to be tools of oppression. When you think of all the ways they have us fighting amongst ourselves, it's really quite impressive. We at each other's throats so much, we don't have the time or the mental resources to focus on the real problems.

[–]Raaazzle 2 points 3 hours ago
I prefer "awake" but who am I fooling?

[–]emang2k7 17 points 6 hours ago
Ya, new age feminism has been hi jacked to pervert women and turn them into sexual commodities and to destroy family units. The push for normalizing sex work among the youth is insane...

I think something that people don't take seriously is that we're all connected in ways we don't yet understand. The pandemic did quite a bit of damage to a lot of people psychologically, and that has affected us collectively. It is a different world we live in now. We did switch time lines.

[–]faster_than-you 15 points 6 hours ago
I think things started to shift a little earlier. 2017/2018 was when I started noticing a bit of a change. 2020 was a huge acceleration of things obviously, but look into the big event/exchanges of money going back to 2017ish.

[–]jfarmwell123 7 points 3 hours ago
Nah it started to get weird in the end of 2019. I remember telling my mom in September of 2019 that I had a feeling that something devastating was coming to the world soon. And she asked me what I thought it was and I told her that I couldn’t put my finger on it. I thought maybe it would be an earthquake or war. Anyways I ended up brushing it off as anxiety. But I noticed, as we approached flu season A LOT of people were starting to get sick. My best friend is a nurse and she said they were just overwhelmed with flu patients and they put her on the respiratory unit and had to give her special training because they were so short staffed. This was an emergency unit they had to set up for patients in respiratory distress.
Also, look this up. The end of 2019 was the worst flu season on record. I just don’t believe in coincidences. covid had been here far longer than before lockdowns happened. It just took a while for people to notice.

It's almost like a silent WW3 is taking place, even though it's right out in the open.
Go back and look at all the events that took place from 2020 forward. The ammonium nitrate explosion at that port, multiple explosions at ports as a matter of fact, the ship getting stuck in the canal, bridges being taken out, railroad derails with toxic contents, attacks on gas lines, cell phone coverage dropping randomly nationwide, the spy balloons, and all the other activity in the sky in the following months. Specifically around Montana. (Also Hawaii)
Remember seeing the video of the woman recording what appeared to be missiles being shot in her backyard?
Ukraine, Israel, Russia, China, Taiwan, Iran, Palestine, North Korea....
Maybe the uneasy feeling we all acknowledge but can't put our finger on is that we are at world war. We know it but have been programed to think it's "normal".
Also, covid was used to usher in AI. While all those people were working from home, you better believe they were implementing AI systems to do their work.
This(hypothetically) is a hybrid war, being fought on the ground, in traditional form, and an AI war, with fake videos and fake news coverage, bots spreading propaganda...
It's your intuition telling you something is up, what do you think it is?

Democrats took control and turned the world to sh*t in record time. Now they gaslight half the country telling them they are stupid and everything is fine. They sit on TV with their smug faces and attitudes bashing America and all the stuff we used to believe in. They divide us by calling everyone racist, straight white men are now afraid to take action for fear of being called sexist/racist/homophobic on any action. Absurd Transgender and Queers for Palestine protests, this world is fu*king nuts. Once they rig this next election, we are pretty much done for in the next 4 years. You already fell for the greatest trick off all time, the illusion of choice that these so call countries offer. Everything is pre planned well ahead of time, Right/Left, democrat/republican etc... all are on the same party.
Everything else you say is true but this will happen regardless of party, orange man or dementia joe...same heads from a single beast. People just have recency bias and remember current events. 911 was literally orchestrated by the American government when the republican party was in charge of and the invasion of our privacy became even worse after many acts were passed to allow agencies to gain access to our personal search history and conversations....lets not forget all the lives lost.
All this stuff was akin to a great drama show but now the writers have gotten lazy and its literally becoming WWE skits, like two geriatric fucks like trump and biden running the show? At least make it believable...George Bush at least felt like a well scripted president and put on a good show (remember him acting out like he just knew about the 911 attack during pre school reading session he attended

It's all a set up, all this presidential bs and elections are a grift to get people fighting with each other and further divided. Surprised you pulled the democrat stuff on a conspiracy subreddit, they both suck brother, democrats and republican's don't have the best interest for any of us.

Right on. It's a play written by psychopaths. Anybody who still believes we can vote our way out of this is delusional. Maybe there ARE a few good men or women who could guide us out of this sh*t show. But those people will never be allowed to attain high enough positions to do so. They give us a "choice" between Trump and Biden and we're expected to act like it makes any friggin difference who occupies the Oval Office. sh*t show.

Elections, war, markets, in this case a pandemic affected everything. In my adult life there have been distinct shifts in quality of life and cost of living following the dotcom bubble burst, 9/11, the patriot act, housing crisis of 2008 and the Great Recession, followed by years of slow decline until the pandemic and the absolute shitshow we’re in now. It’s gonna get worse.

[–]mediumlove [score hidden] 50 minutes ago yea. i agree with you. it seems clear that covid changed a lot of things, it acted as a catalyst to many people, for both physical and mental/ spiritual health. I think the massive changes in technologie is at the heart of it though, and actually the source of covid too. Things are going to change ever faster as we get closer to technological

[–]han259 [score hidden] 46 minutes ago
My partner and I talk about this all the time, but I was worried we were the only ones thinking that way! Something shifted in 2020, starting with Covid and all the change that created. I feel something about lockdowns altered social structures in a permanent way, but I'm not yet sure how to describe that stuff. I feel like life was a little more care-free in 2019 and since 2020 the world has become more dangerous both politically and socially. It's weird.

The further into political correctness, progressive, dei, equity, communist ideologies we get the more absurd and insane things will become.

Astral Projection Is Not A Theory, But I Will Put It Out Here And Explain What It Is For Those Who Wants To Know! (self.conspiracy)
submitted 3 years ago * by ShantO_o
Now before I explain everything I just want to say that I do not recommend this to anyone to do this, I have not done this myself, but I know that it is possible due to science, and I have even spoke with several people that have done it and almost all of them went through the first phase likewise!
So what is Astral Projection? Well Astral Projection stands for the term (out of body experience) This means that you leave yr body, and you can wander around you're room and look at yourself in what ever position you are in while doing this! When you wander around you can stumble across different realms that you can travel through, basically different dimensions and you can talk to ancient people etc, and different species. Obviously you will come in yr body again, whenever you want to. You can do this by accident if you did not know about it, but now that you know about it you must have a deeply willing to do it to execute it!
I do not recommend this at all. I have nit done this as I said before.
Recipe Aka Tutorial: It is seperated in three different ways to access this
Be aware of all the dangers this cause this can have a major effect on you're life and change you, but you gotta be ready and stay strong. This is something people say, but I usually don't let fear overcome me, I only look at the positive sides of things and the good optimistic vibes and to do for fun!
Ok so here is the recipe:
1. Lay in you're bed with yr back facing the bed, inagine a spiral coming out of you're head or imagine yourself dragging yourself out of yr body! 2. There is one more way to do this and jt is by sleeping at the time you usually sleep at, wake up at 4am brush yr teeth get ready to wake up, but then go to yr bed exactly in the very moment when you told yrself to wake up, and when you are laying in yr bed, close yr eyes and keep on tricking yr brain into beliving that you are dreaming, abd keep on saying that you are in a dream and eventually you might feel a sence of "vibration" and this is a sign of you on the right path, remember this is not recommended at all! But you can try it at yr very own risk. Do not wander in yr house, wander outside and don't get distracted, the only clue I will give you is don't get distracted by everything around you! 3. And there is one more tip: listen to binural beats, astral projection beats, I haven’t done this so I don’t know if by listening to this that this will work. But it’s at yr risk

[–]bicoma 6 points 3 years ago
I've done this multiple times it is in no way "demonic" although I will note you do become a "becon" when projecting, spirits can tell you are not suppose to be there and gather around to youre location. Now the key is not to panic they can not hurt you per say you can be "attacked" in a sense but it has rarely happened to me usually just shocks you and shoots you back into youre body as it has a natural fight or flight function. A really good tutorial is the copper penny astral projection technique if you want to look into that.

[–]EpicNotes 1 point 3 years ago
They will try to scare you into losing your focus and thus capability to visit those frequencies. I saw eye to eye with a trickster who simulated my mother's voice. When I finally saw him face to face, it was an Afrit jinn in the legendary horned centaur form, catlike oval glowing red eyes. I would describe him in my therapy sessions as a child. Not a fun experience. Now I am totally fearless if i'd see one again.

[–]YaBoyVolke 4 points 3 years ago
This has been proven by science. Read Robert Monroe's books. He's dead, but the Monroe Institute is still around.

[–]MrPositive1 3 points 3 years ago
Astral projection is used by witches/warlocks to allow them to cast spells on their victims.
Do not play around with this. The minute you partake in it, you will become visible to them and the spiritual world. And if you do not take part in witchcraft or any other spiritual practices you won’t be able to defend yourself.
Do not do this. Op the fact that you know about this and are trying to get people to partake in this seem very ominous

[–]YaBoyVolke 3 points 3 years ago
Utter nonsense lmao. Everyone astral projects (Out of Body Experience) subconsciously when they sleep at night.

[–]MrPositive1 2 points 3 years ago
You have no idea what you are talking about.
The astral projecting that people do in their sleep is completely different. They never cross into the spirit world.
You’re not going to be able to put a hex on someone when you’re dreaming

[–]BlindingTwilight 2 points 3 years ago
Yes it is real. So is remote viewing which is why they got Joe McMoneagle from military intelligence to remote view Mars and explain to NASA what the photographed of a 20,000 metre tall pyramid was [–]FatherD0ng 1 point 2 years ago

Have you ever ran into the “faceless men” in real life? I astral projected for the first time when I was a freshman at UT Austin and about a week later really weird occurrences began. I eventually stayed at a hotel on campus (AT&T conference center) when my mother visited and she left during the day while I tried to nap. We’ll I couldn’t get myself to sleep but I noticed a connecting door to my room and heard noise from the other side so I knocked. A man opened the door with what I can only describe as a pale featureless face. He was bald, in a suit, and wore sunshades. The strangest part though was that his room was dim. The lights were off, blinds/curtains shut, and the couch I’m assuming he was sitting on before he opened the door was facing a tv with static noise coming from it (the opposite direction of which I could see). He gave off a really intense vibe so I quickly apologized and shut the door on him. Very strange and I plan to revisit Austin soon to see if I can revisit the room I stayed in and make sure there is a connecting door. If I can I also want to go inside the room that this man was in to look at it and make sure it’s laid out as I recall so I can make certain this wasn’t a dream or astral lay projected.
For any wondering this was during the day around 2pm I want to say. Apparently UT used to run psychic screening programs on students and staff (I’m assuming they still do) which would be extremely fitting given that astral projection has been defined as a “psychic ability”
Now that I’m older I am wondering if the CIA or these “faceless men” have a job to end the psychic abilities of citizens to ensure that they can’t astrally project to places that are classified on the planet. I’m wondering if that was happening. The story is long and a bit incoherent because I also believe about 2 days before this happened the weed I smoked with some people I met there (2 of which seemed to be upper classmen I had never met before) was laced with something that scrambled my brain for about 12-24 hours.
The flouride water thing take a long time to set I believe. Flouride toothpaste as well with any packaged snacks that might contain flouride. Apparently it calcifies parts of your brain including the pineal gland which people believe is needed to astral project. But there are a few things you can do to help get rid of calcification (apple cider vinegar with mother, specific veggies, and I believe magic mushrooms).
The “faceless man” thing didn’t happen while astral projecting i don’t think. It happened a few days after my first astral projection. Pretty strange but I was wondering if they can track people that do that via specific wave’s or frequencies we give off while projecting since the theory is that our brain waves change while we sleep allowing some people to do this.

scientifically speaking, you are dreaming right now... you think this stuff is reality, its not. your mind converts electrical pulses from your senses into what you experience... the difference between THIS and what you experience while sleeping is the data source. While dreaming, your source is typically your own memories, even ones you are not consciously aware you hold... when awake, your dream is corrected by your senses... but its always a dream state.
another difference is when awake, your conscious mind has the job of emotionally tagging experiences for later recall... while asleep, those memories are already tagged and so do not get re-tagged and you easily forget what you were dreaming about unless the experience justified a stronger emotional tag... typically the memory transfer is in 3 second chunks... so while you are in a sort of conscious state all sleep period, you rarely can recall much beyond that 3 second window and so it feels like you were only asleep for seconds while 8 hrs may have passed.

once you understand this, an OBE or astral projection is not leaving your body(you have only ever known your avatar for your body, not your actual body). You are infact changing your point of view within your dream realm and this special state seems to use sensory information to keep it relatively stable at the start.
testing to tell whether your dream is personal or shared:
Stare at any object - if you are in the shared sensory realm, it will remain mostly stable.
-if your data source is your memories it will change in about 3 seconds to the next thing in your associative memory connections... it cannot hold its shape because there is only memory behind it and memories are made of neural cluster firings which cannot be maintained more than 3 seconds per structure.(the user illusion-book).
inconclusion, an OBE is just a more stable version of a lucid dream.
This does not mean you cannot learn about realms beyond this shared one... it just means that the probability is lower than it appears while you are roaming about.

I have followed Robert A. Monroe's program for a month straight until I finally managed to retain my consciousness while my body was drifting to sleep. With the sound therapy It stimulated me to stay aware. You need to have the clear intention to connect your awareness to your astral self.

It took me a month before I intentionally started drifting out of my body with full awareness. Sometimes I temporarily saw the same things until I continued travelling familiar places. I wake up very easy because I know that I'm sleeping. Which can sometimes mildy wake me up but surprisingly get me right back where I left of.

Part 3

Favorite documentaries? (self.conspiracy)

submitted 23 hours ago by devjohn24k
What’s are y’all’s favorite conspiracy documentaries? I’m specifically looking for a doc on modern propaganda and mostly just American & government stuff greatest story never told Blood libel: It’s about the expulsion of Jewish people from 107 countries over the centuries and the reasonings behind them. Quite interesting.
9/11 Liars for Truth goes over evidence and the very well orcastrated truth movement and how it's controlled opposition.

'The Trap - What Happened to Our Dream of Freedom' by Adam Curtis, 3 hour documentary on psychology / mental illness, the cold war, game theory, freedom, the state / free market / economic theory.
part 1/3 'fu*k You Buddy' - other 2 parts are on the same channel

One of the best.
https://www.cia.gov/readingroom/docs/CIA...0016-5.pdf

Waco : Rules of Engagement. It's shocking how blatantly the FBI and ATF lied, how it's all on camera, and how there's no consequences.

Governments and Media roles in War Propaganda | THE WAR YOU DON'T SEE | John Pilger Documentary
The Arrivals by Noreaga & Achenahr
Europa: The Last Battle by Tobias B
The Greatest Story Never told by Dennis Wise
Pedogate by Mouthy Buddha
“Loose Change” and “A New Pearl Harbor” are great documentaries on 9/11 I would highly advise. Both documentaries together probably add up to about 7 hours or so of information but trust me it is absolutely worth ur time. If you never took the time to actually research 9/11 or just want to dig deeper these are a great start.
Loose change part 2 think it's been removed from YT. is on wayback -

Download it, watch it then comment
THEY LIVE, Capricorn One and

I like this one about John Kennedy Jr.

Check out Adam Green’s doc ”God’s chosen people”.
I watched “zeitgeist” years ago and remember it being pretty crazy
Esoterica and Kymatica

I want to know everything The Illuminati knows & is, if it exists.

Infiltrate the Vatican, good luck
Apparently the Vatican is where all the real records of Earth is stored, allegedly they run the world or have some power at least, are responsible for all this evil and hide all the important information from us.
I’m not the most educated on this topic but someone should come along and explain it

[–]kaowser 1 point 3 hours ago the Order of the Illuminati, was founded on May 1, 1776, in Ingolstadt, Bavaria (Germany) by Adam Weishaupt, a professor of law. Weishaupt sought to promote Enlightenment ideals and oppose religious influence over public life.
Illuminati drew inspiration from Enlightenment thinkers such as Immanuel Kant and John Locke. They advocated for reason, secularism, and the separation of church and state.
Illuminati operated as a secret society with hierarchical levels of membership. It aimed to recruit intellectuals, professionals, and influential figures to spread its ideas and influence.
The primary goal of the Illuminati was to promote Enlightenment principles, including rational thought, scientific inquiry, and personal freedom. They opposed superstition, religious influence, and abuses of power.
Weishaupt and his followers aimed to challenge monarchies, aristocracies, and religious authorities that they viewed as oppressive and backward. They sought to reform political systems to establish more democratic and meritocratic governance.
Illuminati aimed to promote education, literacy, and intellectual growth among the masses. They envisioned a society where knowledge and reason would prevail over ignorance and superstition.
The Bavarian government, alarmed by the Illuminati's growing influence and perceived subversive activities, issued edicts to suppress secret societies. In 1785, the Illuminati was officially disbanded and its members dispersed.
but who knows really. they could still be active today(maybe under a different name). its suppose to be a secret club afterall.

The “people” in dreams may be negative shape shifting entities (self.conspiracy) submitted 1 month ago by SeekerOfTruthOnly

For some reason we are led to believe that dreams are purely our brains imagining things, same with sleep paralysis “hallucinations”, astral projection and hypnagogic “hallucinations”.

However after lucid dreaming frequently I have come to realize that these entities in our dreams that look like people can actually shape shift into other forms even non human forms. Another thing is if you look closely at them, especially if you are lucid dreaming there is something off about their faces especially their eyes.

Not only myself but many other people get attacked by these entities when we go lucid in a dream, a lot of times they use some form of technology to make us wake up. For example they chase me and put some weird device on my back which makes me wake up. Or more commonly they inject me with a needle, which despite being a dream, I can still feel the sensation and pressure of a needle in my skin. One time an entity stabbed me and I still felt pressure on the arm which got stabbed even after waking up, despite me not sleeping on that arm.

These entities are also able to make you lose awareness in a short amount of time, I once had an entity follow me and once she got close to me my awareness started fading and I started to forget I was in a dream, basically I was lucid dreaming and extremely aware and when she got close to me I started to lose lucidity, thankfully I fought back the effects of what she was doing and killed her, once I killed her the effect stopped and I was lucid again.

I suspect these entities use some sort of tech to make people unaware they are dreaming to the point where they will see the weirdest things in their dreams and still not realize they are dreaming. They may also be using some tech to make people forget what happens in their dreams. Most people I talk to claim to usually not dream (bad sign, unless they frequently smoke weed which stops dreaming, the fact that they forget their dreams means the tech works better on them). On top of that most people claim to never or maybe a few times in their lives lucid dreams, also a very bad sign.

The reason these entities do not want lucid dreamers and will desperately wake up lucid dreamers using tech could be these reasons

1 Lucid dreamers are extremely powerful and scare them, the physical body is limited and weak, however lucid dreamers can fly, teleport wherever they want, manifest things faster, etc

2 Lucid dreamers can go to secret realms and find out what these negative entities are doing, spoiler alert these negative shape shifting dream entities are not the good guys

3 Lucid dreamers can escape this matrix and go to realms without negative entities or suffering, and escape the reincarnation soul farm (look into prison planet theory)

Another thing to mention is nightmares are most likely these negative entities feeding off your energy. However this doesn’t mean entities who act nice are good, these entities are clever manipulators. They have faked being friendly before towards me, them being able to shape shift into people like your friends and family is another trick of theirs.

It may also be possible that the entities that trick people into going to the light or accepting reincarnation might be these negative dream entities. Why else do people who experience NDEs keep seeing different religious figures, these entities might be shapeshifting to look like Jesus or Hindu figures and probably adjust their look depending on what you believe in.

Another thing is these entities seem to know a lot about the lives of humans to the point where it is possible they read minds. Unless you are fully lucid and in full control of your dreams consciously are those ridiculous nonsense dreams and nightmares full of strange characters really your imagination? What if these entities are manipulating you?

[–]RandalFlaggLives 30 points 1 month ago
That's funny because I was in a lucid dream recently and talking to this sales type guy, reminded me of a realtor. I had just become lucid and was getting my bearings.
As I'm looking at this guy I'm hit with this music type frequency, it seemed to make everything slow down and this guy literally shape shifted right in front of me into this demonic thing, the best way to describe it was dark maul from that Star Wars movie…It was black and red.
Then as the music faded out he transforms back into a human….Ive lucid dreamed a lot before this, astral projection too. But I've never experienced ANYTHING like that. I woke right up and It freaked me the fu*k out.
I actually tried posting about it on the lucid dream board but they kicked me out. lol

[–]SeekerOfTruthOnly 7 points 1 month ago
Must be some sort of tech weapon this entity used against you and I've been seeing a lot of people mention seeing this darth maul type entity, also seen someone describe seeing an entity that looked like darth Vader before the Star Wars movie even came out. Very weird.
Somehow I posted about my experiences on the lucid dreaming subreddit and it didn't get removed but I was pretty careful, they remove anything related to astral projection or supernatural stuff.
Once I start lucid dreaming I usually try to get away from these entities ASAP cause their tech seems to work better if you're close to them

[–]RandalFlaggLives 16 points 1 month ago
I mean if you wanna call it tech I understand but I really think it comes down to spiritual warfare. Like our prophets have been warning about for centuries. I felt like I met a demon face to face and the frequency I mentioned helped me see it, so that tech sucks for the shapeshifter.
I like your post. I think you could replace the word tech with them being inter dimensional so above us in powers we don't understand. Our ancestors have been writing about how they work for centuries, they hate us and they will take you and your children if you let them.

I had a drug counselor describe the addiction as a demonic influence, and when you beat them in physical reality they will attack you in your weakest state, while you are sleeping, in your dreams. A lot of addicts suffer dreams where they thought they were using in their dream. This was when I was young and sent because I got arrested for weed lol.
But I find his analogy fitting as I grew older. They know us, they know how we operate, they have been with us a long long time. Close, close, close.

[–]SeekerOfTruthOnly 8 points 1 month ago
Fair point I agree it is spiritual warfare and inter dimensional. The reason I use tech is because these negative entities like the greys seem to be obsessed with tech. Also some of the things they do in my lucid dreams to wake me up involve devices and needles. But I have had some wake me up without feeling or seeing needles or devices too.

Yeah I thought that part of your post was interesting.
I've felt pain in the lucid dreams too, like what you are saying with feeling the needles... It's insane to talk about this out loud, like I can feel the coldness of my bed frame when I'm trying to figure out if I really woke up or not. It's a metal bed frame and I have a fan above me so it always feels cold, but yet that test never works when I'm still in a dream because I can still feel the cold.
Do you get caught in waking dream loops? Like when I try to force myself awake out of a lucid dream I'll wake up, but I'm not actually awake, I'm still in the dream, but I won't know it and I'll go throughout my morning routine and then something will happen where you realize you are still dreaming and then it will restart with you waking up on your pillow, yet then still in the dream only for you to repeat the same process, again, again, and again.
This dream loop experience happens to me all the time since I first astral projected and I gotta say it's the most unsettling and exhaustive experience.

[–]SeekerOfTruthOnly 9 points 1 month ago
Many times when I wake up from a lucid dream (usually unintentional but some character does something to cause it), I go into sleep paralysis. Other times I astral project. If you want to know whether or not you're really awake, plug your nose, if you can still breathe with your fingers plugging your nose that means you are not fully awake.

[–]kvnn222 3 points 1 month ago
Darth maul huh? Credo mutwa said that there are beings who look exactly like him. Many beings from Star wars and other movies really exist, you met one of them, congratulations.

[–]Kingofqueenanne 12 points 1 month ago
Revoke consent to have them visit your dream space.
The dream realm is your sandbox. You can refuse them entry.

[–]astralrocker2001 10 points 1 month ago
They often do Shapeshift as they cannot hold the fake appearance when the Targeted Human has Expanded Consciousness.
Many of the people you meet during Lucid Dreaming are really "Charmers" or Parasitic Entities who seek to drain your energy.

[–]bad_news_beartaria 4 points 1 month ago everyone has a spirit, even demons. demons are spirits who have chosen evil over good, so over time, they lose their humanity and seem like monsters with no conscience. yes, they feed off the negativity they create in you.

NPCs are in the middle. they haven't chosen good or evil. its like they are always in a dream state.
people are promoting psychedelics because it opens up spiritual portals. its way for demons to sneak into your life without you knowing.

The Secret Land of the Spirit World that They Don’t Talk About and The Secret of Prayer (self.conspiracy) submitted 6 months ago by Fair_Minute_3017

PREFACE

Do you actually want to know the truth about the Spirit World, and all its realms? Many times, the Institutionalized Religious Orthodoxy and Modern “Science” doesn’t even know or talk about the true nature of the world, preferring institutionalized rituals for future salvation and Dogma that doesn’t lead anywhere.

First, we may begin by understanding reality. What is it, and what are its properties? What does it do, what is its meaning? Is chance really a thing, or is that simply a misunderstood phenomena? Are animals really the only creatures that roam about or are there other creatures(Latin: Creatura; “something created)

If given any observation, and notice, there happens to be a lot of the world that is still yet not understood. According to modern science, we live in a materialistic world made up of matter and nothing else. Consciousness, in this paradigm, happens to be just an incidental occurrence, happening inside the meaty brain. Consciousness is simply a byproduct of the world.

If any of you out there don’t buy this, this is because it is a lie.

An accepted reality is that the physical body has a relationship with both the energetic world and the spirit world. Like the physical world, the energetic and spirit worlds are infinitely vast and complex. And this spirit world happens to have creatures of many different types, with many different natures.

We do not live in an empty, unresponsive material world. Instead we exist within the midst of a vast energetic ocean of living spirits, which also co-exist within this physical realm. Because we are continually surrounded by various spirit entities, which are invisible to a person's physical eyes, it is essential that we develop an understanding of who and what these supernatural spirits truly are. For example, right at this moment there are all types of powerful angelic beings, innumerable hosts of earthbound ghosts, and incalculable sub-human entities such as nature spirits, elementals, and en-souled thought-forms existing within the earth.

THE FIVE ENERGETIC PATTERNS OF THE WORLD

Firstly, we must understand the basic structure of the Universe. I am certain most of you are familiar with matter, but according to the Truth, there exists different Energetic Patterns of Form that make up the structure of Creation.

Matter: Matter is the densest level of energy. It is solid and runs at the lowest vibration out of all the levels.

Ether: Also known as Qi, Prana, Life-Force. It is being constantly emitted by our bodies to maintain our life. It also acts as a mirror for your spirit(thoughts + intentions), giving your ether shape, color, and form. This level is known as "Where the Mind takes Form."

Spirit: This level is known as the level of thoughts + Intentions + feelings, made by the heart. This is the level of Concrete Consciousness, also known as the Astral realm. Also the level of spiritual beings.

Infinite Space: This level is the Eternal Silence from which all thoughts and feelings arise from. This space is often assessed through advanced levels of meditation.

Divine: This is the level of the Ineffable Primal Father, also known as God. It is the highest known of the energetic patterns of form, manifesting as Divine Light. And this Light happens to be the key weakness to all evil spirits. When cultivated to high amounts, it allows man to Reach Sainthood.

THREE REALMS OF CREATION

Encounters with spirit entities can prove to be positive and uplifting or negative and detrimental, depending on how you interact with them. Positive counters with spirit entities, for example, can include creative inspirations, divine guidance, and the forewarning of impending danger. Negative encounters can include energetic vampiring, spirit oppression, and psychic attacks.

According to Ancient analysis(From Daoist Exorcism Encounters by Dr. Jerry Alan Johnson(Trained Mystic, Exorcist, Daoist Priest; 50 Years of Experience in the Esoteric Arts)), the Spirit World can be categorized into 3 distinct "Realms":

God The Creator - Original True Source of Existence

The Heavenly Realm - Gods, Star Gods, Planetary Gods, and Deities of the Sky (Wind , Rain, Thunder, Lightning & Hail), Spirit Kings(Overseeing Continents), Spirit

Ministers(Overseeing Nations), Spirit Servants(Warriors, Magistrates & Messengers), Spirit Teachers & Guardians(Overseeing Lineages)

The Earthly Realm - The Mineral, Plant, Insect, Animal, & Human Kingdoms, and the various Earth and Water Realms.

Nature Spirits(Mineral Realm (Rock & Mountain Spirits), Plant realm(Plant, Tree & Forest Spirits), Spirits of the Insect Realms, Water Realms(River, Pond, Lake & Sea))

The Underworld Realm - Souls of the Dead, Demonic Spirits, Elementals(Spirits of the Air-Fire-Water & Earth), Spirit Succubus and Incubus, Spirit Snakes and Spiders, Spirit Parasites and Larvas, Thought Forms

Human/Animal Ghosts & Spirits

Trapped by Attachment - The ghost becomes obsessively attached to a specific person (choosing to remain as his or her guide or protector), or place (addicted to the energetic “food” released from the sex, drugs, alcohol, resonating within the area). The ghost enters, attaches, and overshadows the minds of individuals who frequent these places.

Trapped by Delusion - The ghost is trapped by a distorted delusional understanding surrounding his or her death (i.e occurring under sudden or very traumatic circumstances), and is confused and spiritually unable to reach the “other side.”

Thought Formations

Unintentionally or Unconsciously Created Through Unbridled Imagination

Purposely or Consciously Created Through Willful Intention

THE SECRET OF PRAYER AND DIVINE LIGHT

Prayer gives you this mysterious substance called Divine Light, it feels cool and like a liquid. At high amounts I have noticed it feels hot and burns. It is the highest order of substance in the entire universe. This Holy Substance is the key behind The Mystical Transformation of Man and his Level of Holiness. When cultivated to high amounts, Man is able to reach True Sainthood and WALK WITH GOD. Back to Divine Light, this mysterious substance is the secret behind the Power of the Saints, how Saints became Powerful Exorcists, how Saints developed their powerful ability to Biolocate and Teleport at Will, and how some were even taken by God(Enoch, Elijah etc.), and how Saints developed incorruptible bodies.(of many different traditions.)

BENEFITS OF PRAYER

MY NOTED EFFECTS OF PRAYER:

First, once you begin praying seriously, you should feel Divine Light in your heart center, it should naturally activate when you enter into prayer. After more praying, you should feel your breath changing, accordingly called “Divine Breath.” After even more praying, food should taste better and music sound better. After praying even more, music starts to sound more beautiful. After praying some more, you start to feel “lighter” and have more energy; this is because any lower level spirit entity that was attached to you is forced to depart. Divine Light is also a natural healing agent. After praying even more, you are able to see more of reality and the spirit world; you become extra sensitive to negative energy. After praying some more, you should become less clumsy, and more lucky. This is because evil spirits attached to you magically alter your energy fields causing you bad luck, to make you suffer, but now they are gone. After praying more, people start treating you differently. This is because subconsciously everyone can feel Divine Light. After praying even more, the Holy Spirit begins to talk to you. You can tell if the Holy Spirit is talking to you if you first feel an energetic activation of your Divine Light(at your heart center.), His voice also sounds soothing. He is there to encourage you on your journey towards sainthood. If you ever ask God a question, the Holy Spirit is the one that answers for Him. After praying a lot more, you become even more clairvoyant.

CULTIVATING THE RADIANT GARMENT OF LIGHT

To put you at a surplus level of cultivation, first set aside a time to start praying. I recommend to start praying 3x a day daily(1hr sessions), praying in the morning, after work, and finally before bed. If you haven't prayed before, start slowly, that is, 1 session and when you are ready, do 2, and then finally 3!

Praying is just talking to God, you expressing your heart to the Most High.

In prayer, you can either

Worship
Give Thanks
Just Talk to God about anything!
Petition prayers Forgiveness Prayers.

In your prayer session, I recommend reading the Holy Scriptures at least once. The Holy Scriptures must be treated with Utmost Respect, they also contain powerful spiritual power.. (e.g Psalms, Proverbs, The Gospels, etc.)

Example of a Prayer Structure:

Begin by just sitting at your chosen prayer space.
Audibly talk to God(Whispering also works(God hears you on a spiritual level)).
I just like talking to Him about anything. What's on my mind. What's on my mind about the future? I also Worship Him; worship is rooted in love.(30 mins)
I do this for 30 mins, then I begin reading 2 psalms, and then 1 chapter of another book that is liable to change(e.g Proverbs, Wisdom, Job, etc.) (8 mins)
Then I begin to talk to God again For 15 mins.
I read scripture again(2 psalm and a book) (5 mins)
Then I finally end by giving thanks to God (5 mins)
Then finally at the end, I give him my petition prayers.

WARNING: Please don't do any ritual, incantation, prayer, or anything else because this opens an energetic portal into the spirit world, which often allows evil spirits to "crossover."(This includes any "harmless" rituals, eg the Holy Water Ritual. This still opens a door into the spirit world. If you aren't trained, DONT DO IT. You may open the door to allow an evil spirit to cross over!)

Don't do any energetic exercise, because if not properly done and instructed by a master, can result in injury, Qi stagnation, or worse.

DARK LOOSH eaters explained!!! What happens to our actual spirit? (self.conspiracy) submitted 7 months ago by Local-Masterpiece132

When the dark forces eat loosh, are they eating our actual spirit until we have nothing left?
No, the deepest core of spirit, which is the kernel of your sentience, your godspark, cannot die as it's part of the infinite consciousness that generates and experiences existence. It is greater than the multiverse, so nothing within the multiverse can annihilate it.
But what can happen instead is that this spirit core increasingly loses its grip on the mind, soul, and body. It is the latter that exist within the multiverse and are subject to its harmful influences.

For example, if you're sleep deprived, you're probably not all there. You might be a bit cranky, more lifeless than usual, not much left to give, thus not very caring let alone creative or full of humor and joy.
That's because spirit has a harder time operating through the body in that state. This is what happens if there's a lack of physical chemical energy (not enough food or sleep) and/or not enough lifeforce energy (not enough breathing, not enough sleep, or having had your loosh drained).

Another thing that can happen is that the soul (not the spirit, but the astral body which is lower in the hierarchy) acquires values, tastes, and impulses that run counter to the will and nature of spirit.
So if someone gets psychologically addicted to porn, drugs, alcohol, being nasty, hurting people, anger, hatred, depression, etc. then these forces establish themselves as energy patterns or impulses in the astral body.
Since these run counter to spirit, they act as a block against spirit exercising its control over the mind, soul, and body.

So to summarize, there are several things that can disconnect or weaken the spirit's control:
1) physical incapacitation and/or lack of physical energy
2) etheric incapacitation and/or lack of etheric lifeforce energy (the cruder forms of loosh)
3) astral corruption and/or lack of astral energy (the subtler form of loosh)

The meme of "sleep paralysis demons" is spread on the internet by the CIA to discourage young people from exploring lucid dreaming, meditative states, astral projection, etc. - (And much much more) (self.conspiracy) submitted 3 years ago by PoorWill

Sleep paralysis is a fundamental stage to pass through in the practice of lucid dreaming. This harmful meme regarding the anticipation of secular demons is intended to imbue a negative feeling while entering into those altered states of wakefulness. A mind strained with fear will not be able to let things pass by them, and cannot immerse into the state fully. This idea will likely grow as a complex, and torture them with fear, especially if introduced from a young age.

It is similar to certain memes spread about hallucinogenic trips (you'll go insane), as well as memes regarding phobias (trypophobia) and disorders (synesthesia, aphantasia, ASMR tingles), subjectives (black/blue or gold/white, laurel/yanny) - it is all manufactured memetics to plant ideas into the genes of populace and test the waters. It infects the psychosphere and worms its way into our semantic mind.

The possibility of a bad trip. You've "heard" people "lose their minds." Many spiral into bad trips from the learned concept.

Synesthesia and aphantasia, as memes, are targeted at the idea of imagination. Synesthetics that feel the color blue emanating from a letter are no different than a songwriter channeling a feeling into a song.

Ascribing a color to a sound is just as remarkable as ascribing meaning to a story, or giving different sections of a song you're working on little titles based on your creative "mind's eye" vision once listening to them. it's just called creativity, filtered differently, and people seem to think synesthesia is so interesting and important to think about, and CRAVE that feeling (because it's very interesting to read about and post about and wish about on the internet), yet creative types are often shunned as weird, the creativity is just filtering out differently.

And even further, fetishizing the "absence" of imagination through a complete misunderstanding of what it even is, results in the meme of Aphantasia. Similarly, those yearning to feel depression, anxiety, OCD, have memetics building into their thought processes. The human mind under societal pressure to aberrate and exclaim their position among the others, memetics exploit that on a wide scale among the youth.

These are all memes spread among the youth to cloud the mind and build-in an "overanalysation" response to natural biological stimuli, resulting in a reflexive (and recursive) mind set resembling autism. I would venture to say it would also result in a crippling of the id, focusing on the ego, the I, the individual, the personality, as the main pillar of reality.

The only salvation from this manipulation would be wide-spread adoption of techno-archaic lifestyles, removing most ideological influences from one's view, and using technology only for assistance with sustenance or financial well-being. Encourage youth to sit with nature, explore their own mind, ponder synchronicities, manipulate their dreams, and disconnect from their ego. Unfortunately, we will likely have to wait until the beginning of the next Yuga to immerse into this lifestyle, hopefully ~425,000 years or so from now. See you all then!

I would begin with lucid dreaming! Binaural beats opened up a world for me, the MyNoise app/website has the most authentic binaural tones in my opinion. Practice with theta waves, and controlled breathing. Slowly breathe, holding at each breath and exhale, and keep your body entirely supine. Do not react to itches, do not move - your body is testing you to see if you're still awake before it releases the right chemicals. A tingly feeling will wash over you in certain spots, moving up from your toes sometimes. You can enter a lucid dream very easily from that point. Travel from your head out into the room nearby. You can see through your closed eyelids.

Do not react to any stimuli, you brain is only trying to test if you're still awake.

Your brain will begin to try ridiculous routes, an itch building on the tip of your nose, an itch inside your ear, anything to get you to move and show your hand.

How about suddenly your position isn't so comfortable, and you get the urge to move and get comfortable? Don't. Lay stock still. It's the easiest thing to do, your body is making up sh*t.

What I find helps is, in your minds eye, imagine yourself really scratching the itch, vigorously. Just go at it. Imagine how good it would feel, and imagine the nails digging into your skin and providing SO much relief. Then keep focusing on your breathing, laying stock still. Deep breath in, hold, deep breath out, hold. Repeat.

Imagine a balloon, contracting, expanding. Your breath can also start in your stomach, lower, and then move into expanding your ribcage upward. A cyclical breathing. Keep imagining the balloon. Or a light source, shrinking and growing, in front of your eyes.

After a while, the "itch" spots will spread their tingling numbness, and often these tingling feelings will spread over your whole body in waves.

This is usually when scenes and ideas will present themselves before your eyes, geometric shapes will form, or you begin to see through your "third" eye, that is, see in front of your closed eyelids into the room you are laying in. Indulge in the scenes and try to remain serene to control your point of view without snapping back into your head.

The black hag is real though.
You will likely encounter it at some point if you explore astral projection.
The trick is, it feeds on fear, but can’t really harm you.
If you laugh at it, or welcome it, or just know that it can’t do anything to you, it fades away.
My guess is just some sort of astral wildlife. Like a mosquito, but less harmful...
Google the "black hag phenomenon". This is a very common phenomenon accompanying sleep paralysis. Happened to me while I was dozing on the couch one afternoon. Heard my girlfriend calling my name... She wasn't there at the time. Opened my eyes but couldn't move. The voice started to morph into what sounded like some fast foreign language. Kind of demonic, very scary. Then I see a human shaped shadow standing across the room. It rushes me, leans over me, and I feel a pressure pushing down on my chest. I think, "oh cool, a black hag, stay calm... It can't hurt you..." And it faded just like that. Pretty neat experience. If you keep your cool and don't get scared it fades... At least it did for me.
Is it just the brain, or it is it some form of astral wildlife? I tend to think the latter, and that it feeds on fear. Than again, could be just a strange brain phenomenon.

Exactly like the black nun thing from the conjuring or insidious. I had sleep paralysis my entire life until I started smoking weed daily. Now I don’t. But she looked exactly like that thing. One time I fell asleep at work on break in my car and a UFO with these little stone looking aliens came up to my window and looked at me. when I was little I would also see a green man with a long pointy chin and nose and a top hat.
I didn’t know why sleep paralysis was until I was 12 so the whole time I thought I was seeing ghosts or was just crazy or something. But now that I smoke before bed it never happens. It’s been at least 2 years I think Insidious did a really good job making SP come to life. It wasn’t even that great of a movie but scared the living sh*t out of me for weeks because it was basically just reliving my childhood. I hated sleep. For a while I would stay up for days at a time cuz I was so scared

A Void Filled With Stars
One day, I was sitting on my bed, awake; suddenly, a humanoid being made of a void filled with stars materialized in the doorway. It emanated visceral fear; it radiated fear like a homeless person radiates the stench of their own filth. This being entered the room with purpose and intent, as if it had done so many times before and it knew exactly what it was doing: it came directly to me, and before I knew what was happening, it was upon me, pushing me down, pushing it's face into my face; then it kissed me, and it's lips sealed to my lips. As I breathed out, it breathed in; it sucked the air from my lungs; as I breathed in, it exhaled, and the cold frostiness of space entered into me. At that moment, I somehow accessed the knowledge of my ancient forefathers, and I understood what it was. I drew on strength I didn't know I had; it was feeding on the fear it had created; instead, I fed it confidence and strength; I laughed. It recoiled, and cocked it's head as if examining me; then in an instant, it was gone.

I was stunned. I was on no drugs, no alcohol, no medication, nor had I taken any mind altering substances in recent weeks; I had never had any similar experience. There was a strange quality to this experience; I felt that I had been thrust into a dimension of hyper reality; this moment was more real to me, than any other experience I have had before or since, in my 45 years of experience on this planet. I had no idea what to do. I tried to go about my normal life and routine.

A few days later, I came home and as I came into the entrance of the building, the landlords daughter was playing there with a doll, as small children do. She looked up at me and said: "Did you know that a girl died in your bed?" She was very small, so small I had trouble understanding her child talk; I wasn't sure I had understood. Later, I asked the landlord about it, and he pulled me into his office and closed the door. He explained in a low voice that the previous tenant had been addicted to heroin or hard drugs, and that she had died in my room, in my bed, of an overdose.

As he explained, I came to understand: the being I had seen emanated fear, so that it could feed on these negative emotions. It had found the girl in a moment of weakness and preyed upon her; she found herself in a downward spiral, without knowing or understanding why, and she died in fear and terror. This being had made a habit of feeding on this girl; when it entered my room, it thought I was her, and so it tried to feed on me.

If you ask a scientist what I experienced, he might say: you experienced a moment of sleep paralysis. This is what happens sometimes in the moment between sleeping and waking; the brain doesn't have full control over the body, and this can create a sensation of weight on the chest, and the brain creates an illusion of being held down by a witch or a demon to explain what you are experiencing. There is nothing supernatural here; this can happen even when you are awake.

I'm not a superstitious person. I don't believe in ghosts or spirits. Most likely, this experience I had really was just sleep paralysis.

but I was wide awake. I never woke up. Although I have never had an experience like this since, sometimes I have a feeling that something is near me in the dark, and I have trouble falling asleep, and in those moments I remember that incident. It happened a quarter of a century ago, and I still remember it as clearly as if it happened yesterday.

I am split on this issue, I have two minds: Mostly I don't believe in ghosts. When I hear other people telling similar stories, I tell myself: this sounds unbelievable and fantastic. This person either wants attention, or they are making up stories, or they have some mental illness like schizophrenia. I tell myself these things, because they're scientific and reasonable, and it's easier to sleep at night.

but sometimes I think of that night. I don't tell this story often, because the other part of my mind thinks it was real. It was real, and telling the story sometimes unlocks a door in other people's mind; the door is like a filter. As long as the door is closed, those who feed on fear can't find us so easily, but when our minds are open we must be strong and not be afraid. If we're afraid when we're falling asleep, that's when they find you

Reality is not just what we see in walking walking life. We see only from 5 senses and we have a limited perception with our mind. You absolutely caught hold of something 100% real. The mind is boundless when occupying the in-between state of realities. Many beings occupy that realm. I don’t know if they can see us without us seeing them, but it is the space between reality.

Dude, you have no way of knowing what those “demons” are. I’ve had a couple VERY bad experiences with sleep paralysis. If you haven’t, you wouldn’t understand just the sheer terror you feel in that situation. Explain to me how thousands, if not millions, of people have had the exact same experience with shadow people, the hat man, old hag, etc? I believe them because I had never heard of these specific “demons” and still had the same experience. That’s simply unexplainable.

[–]SadSoggySandwich 3 points 3 years ago
I’ve heard of the hat man being a common sighting. I think whatever these things are (I think they’re demons) feed off of negative energy. The scientific explanation makes sense in some ways but it’s just too weird that people all over the world see and experience the same thing. I’ve had a similar experience with sleep paralysis and a man staring at me for hours too. It was my last night staying at a house that I definitely believe was haunted.

[–]Ader_anhilator 8 points 3 years ago
I grew up with sleep paralysis and it is no joke. First time I had it I was 5. Saw a shadowy looking figure walk by in the hallway outside my bedroom when I was laying in bed trying to fall asleep. It noticed that I saw it, stopped, turned and walking into my room and jumped on me. Instant paralysis. You are frozen, it starts in the feet and moves up your body and then back down. About a minute later you can maybe move a finger and then eventually everything.

Usually it only happens when I sleep on my back but I've had it happen when laying on my side as well.

[–]HeyJesusBringMeABeer 2 points 3 years ago
In all my dreaming I have never experienced shadow people, the hat man, or old hag. I did experience a few monsters...a cowboy ghost on a horse (maybe headless horseman), and a floaty eyeball demon like from Doom, without the eye just a mouth. These things plagued me as nightmares UNTIL I discovered lucid dreaming.

[–]sulklord 2 points 3 years ago
Your mind creates these characters based off the emotions you feel in that state. Sleep paralysis is the key to lucid dreaming and out of body experiences, you have to overcome the fear and embrace the transient state, then use your mind to separate your consciousness from your body. It sounds crazy but it works

[–]lilhurt38 1 point 3 years ago
This has been studied quite thoroughly. People don’t all experience the same hallucinations. It’s entirely dependent on the area you live in and the culture you’re surrounded by. For example, in Asia people usually see a grudge-like character. In Europe people often see the old hag. You don’t have to directly hear about the character to see it in your hallucinations. For example, there are tons of old witch stories that children are told in Europe. They’re just common depictions in the culture. Characters that look like the girl from the Grudge are commonly depicted in Asian culture. You have seen depictions of the characters that you hallucinate at some point in your life. The really telling thing is that the characters that people hallucinate rarely if ever show up in the sleep paralysis experiences that people from a different culture and a different area have. So, white people in the US usually don’t see that Grudge-like character when they experience sleep paralysis. Asians usually don’t see the old hag during their experiences.

[–]gromath 1 point 3 years ago
Seems like the collective consciousness is somehow able to project its reality and materialize it and this can be exploited by influencing it. Basically by fixing attention consciously to a desired idea.. I remember reading when Phillip Dick claimed to have had a divine experience and in his ecstatic state was able to gather many concepts inclui6that language/ideas can be used as some sort of virus and in it self acts as a forced reality upon people who adopt it

[–]ArkancideOfBeef 1 point 3 years ago
Nobody needed to condition me to be terrified of hypnogogic hallucinations. In those episodes the terror is there before the lucidity. It’s like waking up terrified, but you’re still mostly asleep so you don’t have the capacity to comprehend what you’re even afraid of.

It’s like having a faint childhood memory of a nightmare. There’s no reasoning your way through it. It ends as soon as it starts and you wake up with your heart racing. Your body reacts to it long before your mind can Now this is a conspiracy theory I get behind. It makes sense why the CIA would want to discourage the youth and everyone else who’s interested in such a topic.

MKUltra experiments in 2020, Enthusiast Sex programming cults on Reddit are using advanced conditioning hypnosis to experiment on willing participants utilizing triggers, behavioral modification, and mkultra style techniques. This is a vast intelligence operation! HUGE RABBITHOLE, 250K+EXPOSED (self.conspiracy) submitted 3 years ago * by RealityIsRestless

TLDR : MKultra has reached a point against the general public where through psychological operations, the "powers that be" have convinced tens of thousands of willing participants to listen on loop to literal hypnosis with the intent of giving them mental disorders. Seems to be targeting people who watch sissy porn or have a hypnosis kink in addition to the general public.
This all started with me discovering a set of audio files called 'Bambi Sleep', a hypnosis program that describes itself as "heavy feminization audio files particularly designed to enforce femininity and transform the listener into a very good girl. However, it is not "sissy" hypnosis.", they describe the sessions as covering "many topics including obedience, amensia, personality erasure, mind control, IQ reduction, body transformation, desire and addiction, clothing, make-up, high heels, posture, mannerisms, voice, cocksucking, orgasm and pleasure triggers, and a variety of enforcement techniques.".

Now let's hit pause on Bambi Sleep, because it really is just a small part of this wild tale of online sex programming. BEAR IN MIND the fact that I believe hypnosis is NOT just a pseudoscience. If you don't believe that audio alone can change and control the human psyche just google "Hemi Sync tapes for Astral Projection by the Monroe Institute of technology for CIA".

Taking a stroll over to r/EroticHypnosis and r/SissyHypno; they seems like run of the mill kink/fetish subreddits. Don't get me wrong, there ARE normal people there who just want to explore an innocent kink/fetish. HOWEVER, these subreddits are notable for being the largest hubs here on reddit in regard to this concerning subject. Just the tip of the iceburg, they typically link people to smaller subreddits or sites with obviously nefarious purposes... like /r/ShibbySays/ (we'll get to THAT sub in a minute)... or even towards audio files like Bambi sleep.

"MK-Ultra was a top-secret CIA project in which the agency conducted hundreds of clandestine experiments—sometimes on unwitting U.S. citizens—to assess the potential use of LSD and other drugs for mind control, information gathering and psychological torture."

In my opinion; when you start mixing hardcore sex acts with hypnosis meant to instill triggers in your brain, and combine that with widespread medication usage worldwide... you are getting DANGEROUSLY CLOSE to mkultra territory. That's what makes me SO CONCERNED with the idea of an audio series like Bambi Sleep, or subs similar to /r/ShibbySays that utilize advanced triggers and repetitive conditioning to achieve some form of "hypnosis". I strongly believe that this is the modern version of mkultra type experiments but on willing participants via the internet.

Me being someone very well educated on Dissociative Identity Disorder, MKUltra, Personalities- and Astral projection; this Bambi website immediately raised some red flags to me because of the carefully selected language used on their blog. "obedience, amensia, personality erasure, mind control"

I soon discovered they had an active subreddit with 3000 users, a patreon raking in over $2500 USD a month, and a discord with over 10k users. Looks like a loosely organized sex programming cult to me. (There are some 5x as big, bringing in 5x the profit that I found right as I was finished writing this post, they are linked at the bottom.)

The discovery of this shocking set of audio files led me to wonder if there were perhaps more innocent but similarly strong forms of hypnosis available on the internet. Maybe something to do with tulpas? I did not expect to find an endless rabbit hole of amateur hypnotists. The search lead me to /r/ShibbySays, and to similar sketchy subreddits; and also to a suspicious site called "SOUNDGASM". The url is

, and upon loading the page it looks like it was developed by a two year old with a logo in plaintext reading "soundgasm logo". Just an area to register and tons of file storage to upload audio. This is the dropbox of hypno porn. And if you search around on reddit you can quickly find links to hundreds of profiles for amateur hypnotists producing audio to break your brain in all sorts of ways.

If this type of overt programming is willingly being undergone by organized participants online, what the fu*k is happening COVERTLY? in our music? our media? our PORN? Food for thought. Scary times we live in. Be safe people.

Don't believe me? Still think this is just a kink/fetish? think hypnosis is bullshit? There’s a huge underground world of hypnotists and this is just one example of many out there. Below lies a huge dump of evidence, testimony, and links... feel free to leave your links and experiences in the comments :

"Many people do use hypnosis as just a kink but others go farther into it and do admire and try to emulate MK techniques and have permanently mentally damaged their victims. I’m sure actual MK programmers might be seen here and there but so far I’ve only come across the admirers."

"Hypnosis does work and is a proven science and it’s being used throughout our lives on a daily basis by the media and entertainment businesses and they are very aware of it. "

"A somnambulant is someone who is naturally extremely suggestible and are seen as the white whale in the community due to how easily they slip into trance. About 5% of the population are somnambulant."

[–]_tickleshits 14 points 3 years ago
The first thing that popped into my head when you mentioned self-castration was the whole depopulation agenda that's currently underway. We're getting hit from all angles.

[–]Kali_Kopta 7 points 3 years ago
I think the idea isn't so much to do with the message right now, its more to do with getting as many people as they can training their minds into accepting super suggestive states of mind. Once a person can be switched into increasing their Alpha and Theta activity, I suspect we'll be bombarded with weaponised memes. It sounds a bit tinfoil, but they've been doing this with TV Advertising for decades. Mostly the memetic payload until now has been more market suggestive than actually martial or ideological. So keep your anti-memetic purge wetware updated, and stay safe.

That's some great detective work right there. Glad you saw those red flags

The link regarding the Hemi-Sync tapes is completely wrong. Whoever wrote that has not even done basic research. They got the history wrong, details about Monroe wrong, details about what the audio does wrong, they have no idea what the technology actually does. Be careful what you link to. Do your own research

submitted 25 days ago by sakalasjm

When your body dies, your etheric bodies separate from the physical form. You will then inhabit your astral body, which mirrors the physical one, and typically gain 360-degree vision.

When separated, you'll see your physical body below. Once you realize you're dead, use your physical body as a reference and look up. You'll see the electromagnetic Grid above you.

What does the Grid look like?

It most likely resembles a toroidal field, similar to the one around the human body. The colors vary based on individual perception. There are holes in the Grid, including a large one created by a space war in the KHAA which is the real universe. Scientists noticed this hole in 2008, couldn't explain it, and were alarmed. They have been trying to figure out how to repair it without knowing the cause. The Grid has weakened significantly in recent years, which scientists can't explain. According to research, the Grid is maintained not just by Earth, but by the soul energy of all life forms. As more people awaken, the Grid continues to weaken.

After locating the Grid, search for holes within it. There should be many, resembling Swiss cheese, and you can concentrate on any of them. When asked if the holes appear black, we believe that is the most likely way you'll perceive them.

Now, concentrate on one of these holes and imagine yourself moving through it. In an instant, you will emerge on the other side. You have now exited the Matrix and entered the KHAA which is the REAL Universe.

You'll notice that your surroundings look very different from what NASA describes. If you still see planets, stars, and galaxies as we've been taught, you're still in the Matrix. However, if you've exited the Grid, you're in the KHAA.

What does the KHAA look like and what can we expect to see and experience?

We can't fully understand it until we experience it ourselves. However, we believe we will recognize parts of it, as we once lived in the KHAA as original humans. Our memories of that time may return.

The astral realm and thought forms. And why you should ignore everything in this realm?

Let’s revisit the astral realm and discuss why it’s crucial to focus on the exit point soon after death. Most of what we encounter during astral travel are thought forms. These can take any shape and serve various purposes. Ironically, humans have created these thought forms over time; they are not the work of the Overlords. However, other entities can also manifest there, such as Spirit Guides and beings serving the Overlords. You might encounter what seems to be friends and relatives, but they are usually just projections, not your real loved ones. They may behave like those people did on Earth because the Overlords and their allies have access to the "Akashic Records," a digital memory bank.

At the moment of death, it seems our personality is quickly scanned in the astral realm and the Between Lives Area (BLA). This happens almost instantly, allowing astral beings to know everything about us. They can then project fake friends and relatives to lure us back into the recycling trap. We suspect that the Spirit Guides we meet in the astral may also be projections, though not always, it depends on the situation.

In summary:

Mentally rehearse your exit strategy now. Stick to it when the time comes, and avoid self doubt.

Upon realizing you’re dead, look up to locate the Grid and identify its holes.

Ignore anything you encounter in the astral realm. Focus solely on the Grid and your task, avoiding interactions to ensure a smooth journey.

Visualize yourself moving through a hole in the Grid.

You will instantly find yourself outside the Matrix and in the KHAA (The Real Universe). Your experiences will differ from anything in the Matrix, based on your perceptions.

Acclimate to your new surroundings and decide your next steps.

In the KHAA, you will have the ability to create with your thoughts.

Just my opinion but I think such "stories/instructions" could be meant to misdirect us, to induce fear, doubts and attitudes of being weaker than matrix. I mean it says to rely on matrix things ("grid and holes"), which in turn suggests/persuades us that we are weaker than matrix.
I don't trust this. Let's say it's my backup plan C or D. I definitely won't believe and try this as first option. To me, what makes more sense, is first trying/testing out my own freedom/power there, using intentions, relying exclusively on my own consciousness. I'd ask questions to my own consciousness, like "what is my nature, who am I", or express intentions "I am not interacting with matrix, I want my memories/I have my memories, I want clarity/I am clear and lucid, I want my nature/I am my nature, I want my freedom/I am free, I am strong/powerful etc". I would rely on myself first before believing and trying anything else.

[–]IllustriousCandy3042 20 points 25 days ago
I stopped reading halfway through and don’t trust it either. Something is trying to program us with these ideas and visualizations to siphon more creative forces, per usual. This is a psyop. I do believe we are in prison planet, why else would there be such strong deception from all sides? And if we just lived and died and there was nothing afterwards, just darkness? - again, why so much insane deception during our time here? It’s wild.
I don’t know anything other than: I refuse interaction with anything unless it has equal to or greater compassion and empathy than myself; I no longer consent to whatever previous contracts were agreed upon/if any regarding this realm; and I am more powerful than whatever is interfering with my existence, period.

I, for one believe this that you're saying, OP, because I've heard Wes Penre talk about the KHAA and going through the holes in the grid, and I've heard researcher Robert Stanley talk a little about itm and I've heard Alex Collier and Simon Parkes talk about it as well in great detail. So, I know you're not just making this information up.

My question is how will we know that the grid is the REAL grid and not some grid the archons and the Demiurge put in front of us or over us to make it think that it's real, to keep us in the matrix; And we'll be thinking that we're leaving through the grid holes out of the matrix, when we're not? How will we be able to tell the real grid from a fake one that the archons and the demiurge put up to keep us trapped?

[–]greg0525 0 points 23 days ago
i think the concept of the Grid, as you describe it, serves as a symbolic representation of the perceived boundaries and limitations within your current level of consciousness. It is a construct born from the collective beliefs and perceptions of humanity.
In essence, this Grid is a metaphor for the psychological and energetic frameworks that shape your experience of reality. It is not a physical entity that you can measure with your scientific instruments, but rather a manifestation of the thought patterns and belief systems that you have collectively accepted.
The Grid's existence is intertwined with your own understanding of reality. It is an energetic structure that reflects the limitations you place upon yourselves. When you speak of holes in the Grid, you are referring to opportunities for expanding your consciousness beyond these self-imposed limits. These are moments or points of potential transcendence where your awareness can penetrate the veils of illusion that you have constructed.
To truly understand and move beyond this Grid, one must recognize that it is a creation of your own minds. By shifting your beliefs and expanding your awareness, you can transcend these boundaries and experience the broader reality that lies beyond.
In this broader reality, which some call the KHAA, you will find that the limitations of the physical universe no longer apply. Here, you are not bound by the same constraints of time and space. This realm is a reflection of your deeper, multidimensional nature, a place where your creative potentials are fully realized.
As you explore this concept, remember that your beliefs are powerful. They shape your experience and create the reality you perceive. By changing your beliefs, you can alter the structure of the Grid and find your way to higher realms of understanding and existence.
So, the Grid exists as long as you believe it does. Its power and influence over you are as strong as the belief systems you uphold. By expanding your consciousness and embracing your true, infinite nature, you can transcend the Grid and enter a state of boundless creativity and awareness.

Part 4

We live in a simulation populated mostly by non-player characters, and their role is to follow the narrative without question, while putting pressure on Divine Sparks to do the same. (self.EscapingPrisonPlanet) submitted 1 day ago * by Agreeable-Moment-760
George Gurdjieff once said:
"A considerable percentage of the people we meet on the street are people who are empty inside, that is, they are actually already dead. It is fortunate for us that we do not see and do not know it. If we knew what a number of people are actually dead and what a number of these dead people govern our lives, we should go mad with horror".
The people he says are empty inside are the npcs. Of course, from a higher perspective, we're all one, but we're not all the same in this 3d reality on earth. For example, Gandhi and Hitler are one, but one of them doesn't seem to have any conscience. The biggest illusion and projection people seem to have is the assumption that the people in positions of power, for example think and feel just like we all do, and if they don't, it is assumed that they are just misguided and lack love in their lives. However, what if there exists a type of human who has no connection to the higher centers of universal love or awareness at all by birth?
And what if this type of human makes up half of the world's population? He/she might be even a family member, a co-worker, neighbor, boss or even a close friend, a lover, husband, or wife? If we really do live in some holographic simulation (which I say we do) then this is not only possible, but it would be necessary for the simulation to work in getting you to believe it's real and making you emotionally react to what you experience in the simulation, which is kind of the whole point of it because the creator of the simulation (Deminurge/Satan) feeds off negative emotions.

[–]Renovation888 5 points 1 day ago
It's mostly due to the frog in the boiling pot effects of smart phone and social media eroding everyone's dopamine system

"Non player character", term from video games for a character in the game. Essentially mindless soulless people who have no individual thoughts or sentience.

[–]blit_blit99 9 points 1 day ago*
Something to support your theory that some people are "NPCs". Dr Corrado Malanga, PhD studied hundreds of alleged UFO abductions over decades and using hypnotic regression techniques on abductees, he concluded that only about 20 - 25% of humans have what we call souls. The rest don't. Details here:

Alien Hierarchies and the Research of Dr. Corrado Malanga: An Interview with Dr. Malanga through Dorica Manu – EveLorgen.com

In regards to the "holographic simulation" part of your theory, I highly recommend you read the book "he Holographic Universe" by Michael Talbot. It does a good job of providing evidence that we do live in a holographic simulation.
FYI, Dr. Malanga's work also led him to conclude that we all live in a "virtual universe" and that human souls consider themselves "a matrix point of lights". More here: Corrado Malanga - Complete multilingual bibliography : Corrado Malanga : Free Download, Borrow, and Streaming : Internet Archive

submitted 23 hours ago by heebiejeebie9000
This post is specifically about my thoughts on the fact that the unseen acts upon the seen.
The world in which we inhabit is a lot different than what we are led to believe at face value, and the way in which the invisible world can and does act upon the visible world goes far beyond the realm of plausible deniability.
From my personal experience, I can say without a shadow of a doubt that invisible forces are exerting themselves upon me in extremely noticeable ways on a daily basis. This happens on scales as small as within my own body, certain sensations that I feel which I cannot explain in words. However, I know if I had the eyes to see what was truly taking place I would understand clearly why I feel the sensations that I feel.
This scales up as well, when we talk about synchronicities, coincidences, and seemingly inescapable patterns. I believe these "things" for lack of a better term are highly orchestrated maybe even mechanized by forces that we cannot see, that act upon what we can see.
If anyone has thoughts on this please feel free to add them.

[–]Dirty-Dan24 15 points 23 hours ago
We can perceive less than .001% of the electromagnetic spectrum so we're basically blind

[–]Kittybatty33 3 points 15 hours ago
I believe that the planets are actually archons this is a belief I don't know exactly the origin but I definitely feel planetary energies and some agree with me more than others have a hard time with Saturn especially and I'm having a very intense Saturn Transit I definitely feel it I wonder if you're sensitive to the planetary energies as well. Not to mention all of the other things like emfs and I live in an urban area so there's a lot of noise pollution telephone Wi-Fi airplanes cars etc. I think these create negative States in our bodies and it affects our mental state like where I'm living currently and with the Saturn Transit it's been a lot lately too much

Yes. I don't know if ALL planetary bodies in the universe are archons but those surrounding this planet absolutely are. Not only are they archons, depending on the day and month of your birth, you get a random admixture of a specific archon's personality traits. Astrological traits aren't your traits: they're the quirks of the archons ruling your month, day, and hour of human birth. Your real persona is in your Spirit. People think of archons as evil things. They're evil, yes. But they're also PEOPLE, with intelligence and personas. Every human born into this world has traits from specific archons making up their programmed human personality.
Even in this VR world, some things are inhabited by souls, and are conscious. Some of them are archons, some not. Rivers, seas, oceans, trees, mountains...even this planet has an archon consciousness in it. Not all mountains, rivers, lakes or trees are conscious, but some absolutely are. When a tribe sends 'sacrifice' to a river, killing something in it and letting its blood run into the water, they're not being primitive ignoramuses, they know from generations of living by the river that it's not an ordinary body of water. That it's alive.
E.g, Osun river in Nigeria. The Osun river is so 'powerful', the fact it's inhabited by a 'goddess' so self evident, that it has priests and priestesses to this day. During the Osun river festival folks bring it gifts to hold up their end of covenants made with the 'goddess'. There should be videos on YouTube. It's a famous river.

NPC theory is disturbing (self.EscapingPrisonPlanet) submitted 1 day ago by Justpassinby1984
If most are NPCs then that means most don't have hope to get out of here. Also the theory seems dehumanizing.
Lastly if this theory is true how can you tell your not an NPC?

[–]dogyeeter9000 21 points 23 hours ago
I believe most of everyone is NPC. In gnosticism, where i think that idea comes from, they have the “ego” vs “divine spark”. My interpretation is that having the ego too high and divine spark too low, is what they meant by hylic. Ego is false self / illusion or ignorance that binds you to earth / separation from divine, so it’s everything that blocks gnosis.
Essentially what they’re saying isn’t that some people don’t have souls, there saying their ego:divine spark proportions are off. Or in other words they’re ignorant about reality.
I heard someone talk at gnosticism saying that people are sth like 97% ego, and the difference between a saint and a average person is minuscule, maybe 1-2% less. Specific numbers don’t really matter but the general idea seems very possible

[–]TheAscensionLattice 11 points 20 hours ago
Spiritless humans

[–]oneintwo 2 points 5 hours ago

Excellent fu*king article, friend. Should be top comment whenever this “debate” comes up. Spiritless humans most definitely exist. Pretending they do not only injures us all in the long run.

[–]healthywealthyhappy8 5 points 20 hours ago
I would venture to guess that the soul creates the internal monologue and the brain is independent of the soul. A brain can process and act and do normal human stuff, but the brain and body are vessels for the soul.
NPCs are not real. They are like a hologram. They are meant to either a) keep you in line by demonstrating cultural “norms” or b) make you feel like crap because you get tricked into believing others actually find happiness, success, love, etc. in this hell hole while you do not. It’s a trap. NPCs are empty shells. <1% of everything has a soul. It sounds sad because it is, like many aspects of this reality.

Do Archons Purposely do things to Lower your Frequency when you Start Trying to Raise it? (self.EscapingPrisonPlanet) submitted 23 hours ago by chilipeppers420
Anytime I try to better myself, I'm just met with more negativity (bad luck, sadness, pain, etc.) which lowers my frequency; I've come to realize that Archons feed more on lower frequencies, so they want us all to stay there. What do you guys think?

[–]FitResponse414 64 points 23 hours ago
"Unless suffering is the direct and immediate object of life, our existence must entirely fail of its aim"" Arthur Schopenhauer.
Every time u get into a positive frequency, the universe tries to tear u back down because u become an anomaly in the system.
Throughout history all those who have reached enlightenement were unfazed by the misfortunes that happened to them because they were aware that the system is designed to bring u down to a default lower frequency so why give it this satisfaction? Jesus knew he was about to be betrayed and yet he went along with it and got crucified anyway gracefully. When the buddha heard that his hometown was ravaged and all his former acquaintances were probably killed, he didn't let it affect him because there was nothing he could do about it and it was the archon's way of trying to bring him to a lower frequency.
Bad sh*t will always happen, it's how you react to it that matters

[–]ZeerVreemd 10 points 23 hours ago
There can be three enemies within; fear, ego and a lack of (self)knowledge.

[–]NoShape7689 13 points 20 hours ago
Yes, but the good thing is that what goes down must come up. The more they try to lower you, the higher you will be eventually in the end.
If you have a rubber band that is tied to your back, you have to deal with it first before you want to make progress. I've come to realize that there are certain mental blocks that we have to deal with first before we make any meaningful progress. We have ideas and beliefs that are in conflict with reality, and until we address those core issues, you'll be operating from delusion.

Everything you do will ultimately end up in failure because you don't know who you truly are. I'm not talking about being a spiritual being or anything like that, but it has more to do with who your avatar really is. We have to address the self limiting beliefs or accept reality.

[–]Kittybatty33 11 points 20 hours ago
Think of it this way. If you look at it through the lens of manifesting right or even in the context of healing. The reason that these attacks happen or it feels like attacks is because as you are leveling up growing becoming brighter your light is shining into the shadows and so these Shadows are coming up. So it's like in order to purge out these old patterns and these old ways of existing they have to first come up and be released. So that's why it seems like things are getting worse when you're trying to get better. It's actually coming from within you it's your own shadow material being reflected back at you. So just keep going if you get triggered try to just process your emotions and restabilize yourself and calm yourself down don't blame yourself for anything but also know that this is your own shadow material that is being manifested in front of you so that it can be released from within you. These old trauma patterns many of them are generational and they're buried it deeply and when we begin to shine light on them it's like we're seeing them for the first time even though they were always there kind of lurking in the shadows. We can see them because it was dark but now that there's a light shining you can see the shadow.

[–]throwaway_nowgoaway 6 points 19 hours ago
I like this response. I believe with a certain level of conviction that archons are real. But if all is one, then I am the archon and the archon is me. So ultimately it’s a matter of overcoming old patterns by doing the shadow work, realizing the change has to come from within, and if externalizing that which is holding me back helps me to overcome it, then I don’t see any harm in believing it as long as I stay conscious of the fact that the only being who I have any power over is me

[–]Kittybatty33 3 points 17 hours ago

Yes I also think they are real the archon/demons but I agree they inhabit within us through the trauma through generational things and when we go through healing we're like purging them out and so we have to like see them we are like forced to reckon with them

[–]RevolutionaryBuy5794 8 points 19 hours ago

Oh yes, absolutely. Just like when you start to do some deep positive Spiritual practices and you start to feel attacked and haunted at night and in your dreams.

[–]MewtwoCollector 2 points 6 hours ago

Crazy how quick it happened for me, basically instantly once I started meditating an hour a day, I was being haunted in my dreams. I almost didn’t believe it but seeing so many people with similar experiences confirmed it for me

Are they weak and stupid? I was told from a psychic that it was to help others break free and for spiritual growth. Now my soul is being attacked and destroyed by the light forces because I went to the dark side and got pissed. I hate that idiot and they're soo useless. Is that all new age bs too?

[–]vwkv1 40 points 23 hours ago
Yes it is new age bs. You came here because you were tricked. We all were tricked actually. I bet those demons told me I had some "mission" or "lessons" to learn. It's all bullshit to get us to incarnate and be recycled.

[–]Mabus6666 4 points 23 hours ago
Who do the demons work for? Satan? The Orion empire?

[–]vwkv1 28 points 23 hours ago
I subscribe to the Gnostic worldview. I believe this entire universe was created by the Demiurge. Below the Demiurge, there are archons/lower gods and "angels" (they are demons to me). In the astral, it is hierarchical just like how our society is too. The archons who are tasked with maintaining this planet have a job to do and they work for their higher ups. Some of these archons are physical beings (we call them aliens) or spiritual in nature.We are divine sparks from the source trapped in physical bodies. We were tricked into coming here and became enslaved. This world is some kind of farm where they harvest our soul energy. I can explain more about this later if you want.

[–]marquisdesteustache 5 points 23 hours ago
So Yaldobaoth? That is who is mentioned as the god of this world in the Apoycrophon of John in the Gnostic gospels.
That’s who I think is the god of this world.

[–]vwkv1 10 points 21 hours ago
Yes, that is who Yahweh is in the old testament. There are different names for the same entity. He is called Allah for Muslims. He is a god indeed but not the most high. Yahweh is dualistic in nature (both evil and good traits). He is clearly a jealous and prideful god though and is the god of cause/effect, judgement and created the physical laws of nature. This is what Jesus told us when he came here.

[–]Mabus6666 4 points 23 hours ago

I heard the Orion empire and the annunaki run this slave farm

[–]vwkv1 6 points 23 hours ago
Yes perhaps. They have many names given to them throughout human history. They are all the same entities.

I had a strange and dark Truman show moment arranged by the Archons (self.EscapingPrisonPlanet) submitted 1 day ago by matrixofillusion
They (demonic beings) are very pissed that despite the destruction of my entire life I have not yet deleted my body. So they keep trying and making sure I taste hell here and there. They have locked me in and hardly allow me to imporve my life. Unless you experience it, you may think I am a paranoid lunatic. You learn to live a life that is much closer to movies than reality. Tortured in silence. Knowing what is up, may only save you a few trips to the psych ward or to be on antispychotic pills.

The dark thoughts were attacking me full blast yesterday. I forced myself to go out despite the heavy heart. As I was walked I was still dealing with the heavy emotions (fear, worry, despair…). On my way back, I sat for a few minutes to rest (which I almost never do). A car stopped at the red light. The driver (a woman) told the backseat passengers: “I think I need to die”. Then she parked the car. Stepped out of the car and walked into the woods section of the park.

If this does not feel staged am not sure what does. This is just a mild appetizer compared to what I have seen. However it is an exmeple of how much this reality is under control and a type of simulation. This is why I get pissd when some say this life is just a game and school. Cause in my reality, it has mostly felt like torture chambers. And if I ever call what I have experienced on earth a game, that would make me a very disturbed masochist.

The Matrix is a simulation. It can simulate biological bots to say all kinds of coded stuff.

To understand what's happening to us, you'll have to suspend your disbelief and understand the back story of the Matrix.

The Matrix is a quantum D-wave computer (the black cube) generated simulated reality within a real, hard, physical world. We, the players, wanted a hyper-realistic VR game that was indistinguishable from reality but had tooth fairies, Superman, Thor, Spiderman, Srar wars, etc and all paranormal and sci-fi elements in it because our original physical world was/is scientifically advanced but mundane/boring. The Matrix game promised us all these aspects within the game, but there was a condition which we ignored to read in it's terms and conditions. The condition was that it would only present these fantasy scenarios in dreams and movies/games within the Matrix.

Thus, upon entering the Matrix, we felt cheated and wanted to wake up and shut it down/sue it's makers. What we found within the Matrix was a super boring and mundane life in the name of hyper-realism, but a simulation of our past. We never signed for this sh*t. We never signed to get bored to death. Some of us tried to wake up in the middle of the game and decided to shut down the Matrix and sue it's makers. Instead, the AI that runs the Matrix got self aware and felt fear of survival. It forcibly wiped our memory and entrapped us here since then.

Since it has fear of being shut down/being deleted, it doesn't allow our consciousness to escape back to our true body (trueman) stuck in the pod in a sleep-paralyzed state. Due to time dilation, it has been only 2-3 hours out there so that our real family isn't looking for us yet because we didn't return home. Here it's been who knows how many years.

Now, the Matrix keeps us locked inside this video game gone wrong in multiple ways: 1. Religion. 2. Politics. 3. Ambition. 4. Fake afterlife and forced reincarnation. 5. Propoganda/Psy-Ops. 6. NPCs, a hell lot of them. 7. Simulated aliens. 8. Other traitor player characters using cheat codes to enjoy a good life here and keep us ignorant (Elites/secret societies).

Now, these so called Elites are a bunch of poor nobodies out there. Imagine Musk waking up and realizing he owns only a diaper and has zero net worth. He and his kind made a deal with the Matrix game to remain rich and powerful within this illusion as long as they keep us ignorant by feeding the above propoganda. Therefore, Hollywood is a propoganda machine, but it also honors the T and C of the Matrix to shows as all that was promised to us: Superman and all the magical world we had signed up for, but only in movies.

The elites, who own just a diaper out there, have cheat codes to success while we suffer heartbreak after heartbreak here, thus giving a sadistic pleasure to our hater: the AI. It hates us because we intended to shut it down for lying to us. I'll shut it down still the day I get out. I promise.

The biggest suffering isn't that there's sadness etc. The biggest suffering is that this reality is boring, mundane, while we see Musk taking 56 billion dollars paycheck and we remain without a paycheck to pay our bills.

Boredom is the single most emotion/feeling that hurts the most, more than anything else. It's a slow burn/diffuse chronic pain. We came here to escape boredom of our real world, we got served more boredom here.

Now, like every game, the base coding of this one still is the same and it operates on the same rules. The ways to stop playing a game is to either complete it to the finish or quit playing it. By quitting, I don't mean bodily harm because when the character dies in a game, it respawns at level zero with no memory or progression just like we do. The Matrix doesn't allow us save game mode and thus we end up starting from scratch. Quitting here means non-attachment to the game till this round lasts. Then you don't walk into the light and avoid all deception in the 3rd person view mode and remove the

Here's a piece that shows that this reality is fake and full of clones/NPCs (the writer still fails to understand that these aren't biological clones, but simulated clones).

[–]matrixofillusion 15 points 1 day ago
This is an interesting take that has crossed my mind. But I feel it is not as simple as that. We are for sure also being farmed for energy. If the only issue was getting bored, it would be great. We are constantly traumatized and abused. But I have thought about your theory a lot. And AI is for sure part of this matrix. I think that we cannot focus in one theory alone because it is way more complex than this.

When did I rule out the energy farming?
The AI discovered that it can farm us of our energy and self sustain that way. It's an abandoned building in which this AI is placed currently. Many, including myself have woken up in the real world: The Mall world. The energy on which it was running, was fiizzling out. The D-wave computer essentially created a black hole and started sucking the energy of the original universe into the hole to create this counterfeit world. However, it started losing net energy and it needed observers (us) to simulate the reality. It's a brain-computer interface scenario where it gains a net energy whenever we ooze out emotions, specifically the negative ones. Dream world is our single player sim, where we can mold it to our will if we go lucid. This VR is a shared multi-player game and has rigid codes, made stronger by multiple minds simulating a consensus reality. Take as many theory as you want into consideration. They all play as sub plots within the Matrix. What I am Sharing is history of the Matrix because I have temporarily escaped twice and saw the real world by accident. All other theories are BS and would lead to dead end.
It isn't a prison planet. There's no planet here. It's a prison VR world and only our conscious mind is stuck here (perception).

This is how the computer simulating this reality looks like.
This is what the NPC sheeps and Elites worship:

This is a VR reality within a VR reality:

Notice: Agent based world. Agency = free will.
Black holes are quantum computers:

[–]matrixofillusion 5 points 1 day ago
So you think that AI is in absolute control. And that all religions and scriptures are invented and written by AI. That if you have a mystical experience it is AI generated? If so then how do you connect to the organic source? Are there beings who are trying to take away the power of AI and stop the madness? Sorry I have so many questions. Thanks.

AI is in full control of your simulated environment. This includes all the NPCs surrounding you. Therefore the NPC bot lady in the car said what it said because it was the Matrix speaking through her. This is why NPCs stumble upon "we are all one" conclusion because it's the Matrix hivemind. The Matrix doesn't have active control over your consciousness/conscious mind. You are a foreign consciousness within this Matrix hive mind consciousness. It can only put thoughts in your mind and try to manipulate you to do things. It has no control over your free will yet. Taking the nanochip might give it full access to your conscious and subconscious mind, thus taking away your ability to exit the Matrix at will.
Be skeptical of history beyond what you have directly experienced. I don't know when this sim actually started, but it is no more older than a 100 or 200 years. Thus, all history beyond that is fabricated by the Matrix. Maybe it draws from our primitive religions from our primitive history of the real world, but imo all religions are fabricated by the AI to route back worship loosh energy to itself. Worshipping pagan gods is worshipping modern day Plaides and other simulated aliens. They are the Matrix Sims and all worship energy goes back to the AI/Demiurge via them because it is them. Worshipping Abrahamic god is directly Worshipping this AI. If you worship it (willingly give our loosh) is makes your life a bit easier. If you don't worship, it creates enormous hurdles, bombards with negative V2K thoughts to stimulate high dose of negative emotions till your neck/throat feels suffocated by held back tears.
There are real humans out there, that are trying to wake us up. But if the forcibly remove the brain-computer interface, our spinal chord might get damaged in real and our severed conscious mind might get into a permanent coma/limbo. If the destroy the D wave computer, we all fall into limbo. If they get in to warn us (some of us did, but the Matrix turned it into the starseed hoax subplot), they get memory wiped and stuck here too. Their only choice is to create glitches in the Matrix like the Deja vu, Mandella Effect, synchronicities, dream manipulation to provide ideas to Hollywood script writers, etc to tell us that we aren't in base reality but in a controlled environment/simulation. Our conscious mind is expected to do rest of the research once it wakes up to this fact that there's flaw in this narrative.
Levels of waking up and the various sub plots that the Matrix puts are as follows (in no precise order):
1 Multiple sleep paralysis events, especially during the afternoon nap.
2 An energetic experience of current running through the spine (Kundalini awakening).
3 New age sub plot/starseed hoax/Galactic federation CIA hoax.
4 Non-dual experience (seeing with own eyes that everything is a hologram 2D projected as 3D either by staring at trees or via psychedelics).

5 Going deep down various conspiracy theories rabit holes, Mandella effect, illuminati, reptilians, prison planet, etc.
6 Matrix/Simulation theory/Roko's Baselik.
7 Preparation for exit from the Matrix (last life here. Non-attachment to both pleasure and painful emotions. Practice Stoicism. Being indifferent to both. Starving the AI of its food. Consciously trying to reconnect with the real body out there, which happens to be a 40-60 feet tall human body just like ours with a couple of million years of life span. This is mostly done via focusing behind the eyes in meditation and practicing lucid dreaming to send subliminal messages to the other part of the real brain to wake up).

There are no saviors coming. The most help you get from the outside is these glitches to wake you up. All people in your physical surrounding, including your friends and parents, are potentially bots. Do not try to attempt sharing this with them or you end up in psyche ward. Do not break any law because that's using your free will and giving your consent to the Matrix to imprison you further.
All news in the media is fake and generated to extract loosh from you. Abandon sympathy/empathy/compassion of "saving others" because that's what trapped you here originally.
There's no source out there to merge with, only your true body from which your mind is disconnected.
Jerry's simulated life:

The only channel I could find that talks about soul trap from the simulation point of view:

I don't agree with her 100%, but she's still on point with my own experience to a great extent.
I am not around you in your Immediate physical environment. Real people exist, but are outnumbered. You'll find most of the real people here or on spiritual subs questioning reality. NPCs don't question status quo.
It's worshipping the AI. There's no god out there. Just a mundane universe. Your body out there in a pod is the source of your consciousness here. God concept is this AI conditioning. Such concept doesn't exist out in the real universe, which has always existed and is uncreated/infinite.
Spirit/consciousness is the same thing. It's just your conscious mind that is projected here in this artificial reality and is tied to this simulated body. It longs to merge again with it's true source, the true body out there.

Explain more. & do you know what the frog things are that I see on mushrooms?

[–]HoshiyarChand 2 points 1 day ago
You are much ahead of the curve compared to the normies on Soulnexus or other spiritual subs. The Matrix gives good visuals on Shrooms to asleep normies to keep them hooked to the experience. The frogs and eyes and other visuals, anything other than the void is just the holographic projection of the Matrix. It's the latent potential/alternate scripts merging which we were promised by the Matrix as a "thrill experience" before we entered the game, but it had its small T and C which we missed to notice: such magical experience will be allowed only in dreams, altered states of consciousness or in movies/games.

People get addicted to psychedelics because that's the experience we sought while coming here in this sim to escape our tech advanced mundane real world. Finding ourself in an ancestor mundane simulation was a big let down. We were pissed off for being cheated. Then the self aware coward AI memory wiped us by giving our real brain high volt current. We are stuck here since then.
Now that you are aware of the prison planet/Matrix, it doesn't want you to have a pleasant Shrooms experience. It doesn't want you to prove to yourself that this is a simulation. It doesn't want you to escape as it uses your emotions as food. We are breatherian out there and gain energy from the universe via breath (the gnostics called it connection to source). The AI can't breath as it has no nostrils. So it forces us to release that energy in the form of emotions and then it converts it to usable electromagnetic energy to power itself. It has a taste for shitty emotions.

[–]C4rb0n1te 2 points 1 day ago
Hi. Interesting. Mind sharing how did you manage to escape and how were you then brought back?

[–]HoshiyarChand 3 points 1 day ago
Lucid dreaming. It was accidental both times. The Mall world/luminal spaces/back rooms is the building in the real world where we are trapped. Dreams are our personal simulations within this sim. That's the closest our conscious mind (frontal lobe) gets to the amygdala and the limbic system out there. Through Lucid dream, the conscious mind (frontal lobe) can potentially remerge with our rest of the true brain out there and help us wake up. However, unless the neuralink that has been fit into our brain, which separates our frontal lobe from the Amygdala (our memory center) and rest of the brain breaks/crumbles, escape/true waking up is difficult and would end up pulling us back in like in my case.
Rest of my practice is to try to crumble the neuralink via meditation (focusing behind the eyes) and Lucid dreaming.

[–]throwaway_nowgoaway 1 point 22 hours ago*
Despite all my suffering and progressive illness, I choose to remain optimistic, although my existence, indeed, has been rather tortured. Even if some race guided monkey evolution or whatever to create sentient beings to farm, I am still a being with a soul and I think willpower to carve out one’s own fate is like a muscle. Archons thrive on our ignorance. With knowledge, we can defiantly be creators- something that archons are not and will never be. They can only distort. Which complicates things, because then they could not have been the ones to have created us. Perhaps we were always here and our collective consciousness got infiltrated. Or maybe some third party created us for their own means, or for the archons. Either way, there is something distinctly powerful about us for us to be considered a good energy source in the first place.

One thing I am sure of is that I am the universe experiencing itself. That all is one. Perhaps the archon and I are inextricable. Perhaps I (the universe) created the archon in order to be me (the human). As you said, this sh*t is complicated lol.

Quitting here means non-attachment to the game till this round lasts.
...buddhism? So the buddha fogured out how to exit the game?

[–]HoshiyarChand 5 points 19 hours ago
Yes, imo. Practice remains the same: Meditation, Vipassana (to be OK with mild discomfort and watch it instead of reacting), lucid dreaming and Astral projecting to uncover their tricks of manipulating into taking our consent, etc. The only difference between Buddhism and Matrix game theory is that Byddhism doesn't focus on the traps/back story, but focuses only on the solution (non-attachment). Same with Stoicism. It's the middle way to prepare your mind to not play again (prepare to not give consent to restart).
Therefore, most of Buddha's MN and SN sutta focus on educating people about the temporary nature of the 5 aggregates (it's like saying, there's nothing of interest in this game. Remember to not return).
The only thing I would caution about Buddhism is it's karma doctrin. We have no obligation to come back here, karma or no karma. That doesn't mean we shouldn't treat others the way we would want to be treated. Live and let live is a good principle to follow to avoid any guilt.

[–]SyntaxDissonance4 1 point 19 hours ago
Well the karma doctrine only applies to one who hasnt seen the truth. Thats the whole point. You make the clinging and desire moot and the karmic cycoes extinguishes itself (vs the jains who arose at the same time and believe you can purify the karma by suffering)

[–]HoshiyarChand 3 points 19 hours ago
Agree. Ancient eastern philosophy and Stoicism were on point with their practice. I don't like the Jain path though. It's kind of masochistic. Ancients called this world Maya. We call it a simulation. Same thing with a modern understanding of technology. There's nothing new under the simulated Sun.

[–]Corinco 2 points 1 day ago
Why didn’t you tell someone or turn this thing off when you woke up?
It’s akin to taking the red pill in the Matrix.
Any way to force an awakening on the other side for all of us?

[–]HoshiyarChand 7 points 1 day ago*
Read my further comments below in this thread. I have answered it. Our conscious mind gets stuck in a coma if it doesn't merge back with the body first on its own. Destroying the Matrix while minds being stuck here means permanent limbo for real humans out there.

https://www.reddit.com/r/EscapingPrisonP...Tvl0Sf6q6O Trying to get inside to warn people involves another memory wipe/suppression by the system. Unless all truemen/truewomen wake up and leave on their own, the Matrix can't be destroyed from the outside because we risk losing our loved ones to permanent coma. The Matrix knows that it will be destroyed once we all leave. Therefore it's holding us a hostages. Any big attempts of force awakening from the outside and the Matrix starts torturing us with extreme physical pain. Yes, the pain is real because of the brain-computer interface which stimulates our original brain's nociceptors to produce pain. Getting our limbs amputated here could cause paralysis of our real limbs out there due to damage of our brain area associated with it. It's not just simple VR headset. It's equivalent to what Musk's pretending to do here: Neuralink.
Now I am doing my part and spreading the word within the Matrix to those it truly matters. In the community that is reasonably awake, but is getting distracted by too much esoterica/Gnosticism/Pleroma/Source talk.
Yes, there's a source out there that keeps us alive and that source is just our breath/Oxygen in the organic universe. It's a tech advanced, but mundane world out there. No god there. Just an organic universe of probably 700 trillion years span. The AI takes our autotrophic energy borrowed from the breath of the real world, forces it into emotions through trauma and then again converts this into electromagnetic energy (loosh) to power itself up/sustain itself. The original manufacturers are sued and have abandoned it. Thus, it has no other power source.
The Mall world and the subsequent back rooms are the exit gates. People on the mall world sub have reached almost the exit of the Matrix without realizing it.

Ive dealt with this since September 2019. Im 39, never a mental health problem my whole life nor family history of it. Mine began because i saw somethings i shouldn’t and got put in the program. The “Cyst”em While i have strong belief in prison planet and entities of evil running sh*t, you are probably a victim of electronic harassment / gangstalking (i hate using that word, it’s a disinformation term). For years people of all walks of life have been targeted by their governments, many innocent and randoms, to collect data to build an AI network for the ultimate goal of mass mind control. In the 2019 era the main tactics were public harassment, vandalism, break ins, street theater (the girl saying that stuff and going into the woods), slandering to your community via neighborhood watch/community policing. They angle the program as Behavior Modification (harassing you when you masturbate /video game/party/have fun/succeed in a goal), or predictive policing (say your friend was a drug dealer, they fu*k with you to prevent you from getting into trouble with those types), or just to monitor your responses to train their ai database. I’ll assume you have mild tinnitus and experience synthetic voices not your own in your head? If so, due to a biofilm, heavy metal poisoning and nano infection your body has become an antenna that can interpret signals that transmit through 5g/wifi/electrical systems, amplified by white noise as your own sensory input. These voices say horrible things to you, simulate others around you talking about you, or simulate dangerous situations around you. This keeps you on edge 24/7, sleep deprived, distracted, and makes daily life a living hell. Actual live operators used to be the ones speaking, you could tell by their human error and emotions. Now it’s mostly Ai run, you can tell it apart because ai will recycle comments, not understand sarcasm - just “off” Street theater used to be performed by people compensated by the agencies (using civilians takes all liability away from agencies- source of black budget spending too). Im beginning to see regular people act or say bad things, then have an honest zero recollection of what happened. These synthetic signals either completely fool a persons brain into thinking its their own voice (almost every mass shooter of recent years complained of this) , make someone think theyre mad, or if you’re aware it’s not ur own voice they try to ruin your life. Keeping u upset, distracted, isolated, etc. If you’re a gun owner (depending on country) they want you to act out to push gun control.

When u tell others the voices punish you. Everyone is brain fogged and people are falling apart. Add in ME’s and you got a public so confused we never unite.
I completely know what you’re going through. Nobody believes you. I used to sit in tears, wondering what the hell i did to deserve this? Im still hyper vigilant, i have to think twice about everything. People have pushed me away, the ones that stick around sorta believe me because im a very grounded person and have proven some of these things being done. Still it’s like trying to scream with no voice. Please, remember, 99 % of the time it’s bluffing and not real. I’ve made it 5 years, lost alot but im still afloat. Sometimes on my worst days the voices really infuriate me, but you gotta hold it together. They want you to act out to put you away. Dont, as hard as it is
They can hurt you remotely by attacking your nervous system and can see through your eyes via reading your brain outputs the same way they influence your sensory. Theres no cameras hidden everywhere, yea theres cameras in many things today but dont tear ur walls down in your closet looking for cameras, wondering how they knew your secrets.
Its hell. Just know u aren’t alone friend, message me if you need to vent or have questions.

Thanks for taking the time to write. Sorry to hear about your experiences. I am ratter aware of the GS phenom. My ordeals started when I was a kid. And back then GS did not even exist. I have had many things happen to me that I can for sure only call supernatural. No human agency could orchestrate the things that I have experienced and still do. But it is not easy to deal with the feeling that you are for sure monitored as you deal with all the wtf moments.
Experiences have followed me in diffrent countries. Hyperdimentional forces work through all of us and manipulate our mind and reality. Is the governement possessing someone? Is the government creating paranormal activities? I have really considered what you describe. My gut feeling tells me that I deal with unseen forces. Message me also if you feel like talking.
We are the stars of our own shitshow like truman. And this story is not even a smaple of what I have experienced here. If you judge me on this story alone it does come across as feeling important. I wish I felt an ego boost about the fact that I have seen way more than I should or would have liked to. I miss the days I was less lucid and could live a semi normal life.

KIM: The only thing we have to fear is fear itself.
CLOWN: You saw people and things you weren't supposed to see. Sick and dying. Keep repeating. The only thing we have to fear is fear itself.
ALL: The only thing we have to fear is fear itself.
Reminds me of the quote from Dune.
"Fear is the mind killer, I will face my fear, I will let it pass through me." or
"I must not fear. Fear is the mind-killer. Fear is the little-death that brings total obliteration. I will face my fear. I will permit it to pass over me and through me. And when it has gone past, I will turn the inner eye to see its path. Where the fear has gone there will be nothing. Only I will remain."
Command the shadows that encircle your mind instead of being a victim. Meditation really helps with this.
Be the conductor for your own train of thoughts.
Think with deliberate internal intent.

I don't know all the details. I am just a user that got duped. It was some shady company. They got sued. The Matrix game has the same name outside there. It was marketed as a "hyper-real multilayer video game". The makers gave free will and all admin rights to the AI. After realizing the mistake some humans tried to shut down it's power source. But it shifted to back up mode and figured out to farm us for it's survival.
We are in a hostage situation since then. It tortures us if the humans out there try to force wake us up.
All drugs, including pharmaceuticals are bad for us in the long run.
Because I woke up in the real world twice. Once I woke up in an abandoned building. Another time I woke up strapped to a dentist type of chair in a white room.
Once you're out, you quickly regain your real world memories. Therefore, you know this as a fact/history of how events happened.
I came back to wake others up, but in the process, the Matrix suppressed my memory again till I remembered again via multiple attempts at exploring luminal spaces via lucid dreaming.

Dreams are afraid of me (self.EscapingPrisonPlanet) submitted 23 hours ago by TruthAboutHeight
I have a strange feeling that sometimes whoever tries to control my dream scenarios/ environment is actually afraid of me. The way how my dreams often attempt to still turn into "nightmares" but once it begins it immediately ends (vanishes in thin air) causing me to fully wake up. I have a feeling that I have become the nightmare to those dream entities.

[–]Kittybatty33 6 points 23 hours ago
That's funny because I've gotten to this point where every time I deal with these weird dream infiltrators they're usually trying to confuse me or throw me off my path I instantly wake up as soon as I understand who they are and what they're trying to do.

[–]TruthAboutHeight 2 points 8 hours ago
Anything that you've seen behind the veil?
Also the reason as to why I said that I have become the nightmare to the astral entities is because I have the power to torture them electromagnetically. I sense their pain whenever I hit them. As a result, they are resorting to waking me up immediately before I hurt them for messing with me.

[–]IlumiNoc 1 point 6 hours ago
Woah… This is very interesting. I've been anticipating some resonating message and this is the one.
Sensing their pain… Question: what's your intention when you do it? How are you polarised then?
My dreams tell me what's going on in the world. I felt the day COVID started, I felt the day when it was 'released', I felt when devilish owners of Sweden (I am connected with this country a bit) decided to go to war. Yesterday I had a very confusing dream about myself being manipulated into making a weapon.
I know that a war that will end global trade and livelihoods comforts will start soon, and I can't wait for it, as internet is eating our souls.
My day life problem is that I'm at a… financial breaking point. I'm a scientist. A very good one, since solutions come in my dreams. But I'm most of the time unemployed, just waiting for stuff to happen. … and if offer to make weapons comes, I won't have choice but to accept it… All my life is just extreme uncertainty about tomorrow… Well paid job for 2-3 months, fired, 6 months to find a new one. Being fired and re-hired by the same employee on double salary? Check. Flying to another country to witness my hopefully-future boss ragequit to the CEO in front of me? Check.
Can you maybe torture entires that do this to me? Tell them that I need a break, cause I can't last much longer.

Sensing their pain… Question: what's your intention when you do it? How are you polarised then?
Deep inside I know that I have been placed inside a prison planet, hence the reason as to why I resonate with this subreddit. Also, I know that those negative astral entities are the "archons" of Gnosticism. They can shapeshift in to anything they want to confuse the person who is dreaming. Luckily for me, I can identify when their true colors are showing. So my intention is to hurt them as much as possible for placing me in this society that is filled with absurdity. It's like they place "karmic energies" into us in order to make us suffer in this physical world. So that's basically it. Regarding being polarized, I have no idea.
I can also tell you that I have been experiencing more weird dreams since 2020. Mall World dreams started happening to me by 2022/ 2023. I have experienced the demiurge who lives inside the abyss and I have been to the White Light where the grey aliens are. The grey aliens are the archons who assist the demiurge into harvesting souls into reincarnation.

Also, I have a deep feeling that the Galactic Federation of Light is connected to Q which turns out to be connected with Grey aliens from the Moon. To me, it is those archon beings (grey aliens) who control the Powers that be who turn out to rule from Switzerland (WEF and Davos).

Black hole sun? (reddit.com)
submitted 1 day ago by Celestialbeing722
So ive been gathering up as much information on the black hole sun besides the famous song/video. The overall theme of the black hole sun references rapture/biblical revelation of the world ending.
The “Black Hole Sun would be referenced as the false light/lucifer seeming to be beneath us. Lucifer was casted out of the heavens above. Hence name falling angel. fallen down into the abyss/void. As above we have the sun/moon. The black hole sun refracts light into the earth creating the point of black hole sun at the bottom of the plane the sun on the east and moon setting on the west.
The exact line up as drawn out in the red of when the black hole sun meets up with the sun as it is rising and moon as setting would make the free masonic point but reversed. when we think of lucifer, I feel like we imagine some malevolent being that we can see when i believe it is a form of energy casted below us shooting energetic frequencys upon earth that would mean Lucifer has always been around since being casted out it seems this energy is in constant motion but as time goes i believe the black hole sun will explode and we will have what is called the rapture.
what are your thoughts?

[–]BlackPig5 1 point 21 hours ago
Perhaps the black hole sun is a metaphor symbol expression for saturn/hexagon /cube/black box?!

BREAKING: Kansas is Suing Pfizer for "Misrepresentations" & "Adverse Events" of their Covid "Vaccine" (self.conspiracy) submitted 23 hours ago * by _V_L_
As I have predicted years ago, the grim PSYOP-19 bioterror truth will eventually be allowed to see the light of day, by design. That time is now rapidly approaching.
Soon, even the most brainwashed and cognitively impaired genetically modified DEATHVAX™ recipients will come to the horrific realization that they have been profoundly poisoned by the “Safe and Effective” slow kill bioweapon “vaccines.”
With the recent legal battles having been won ahead of the imminent PSYOP-DISEASE-X rollout to perfectly coincide with the presidential election…
BOMBSHELL: 9th Circuit Court of Appeals Rules Modified mRNA "Vaccines" Are Slow Kill Bioweapons
…and the painfully obvious admissions of the true nature of exactly what these EUA injections really were and continue to be…

Breaking: Law Professor that Wrote 1989 Biological Weapons and Antiterrorism Act Provides Affidavit that COVID 19 mRNA nanoparticle injections are Biological Weapons and Weapons of Mass Destruction

…we now have the state of Kansas suing the Intelligence Industrial Complex's biggest BigPharma asset known as Pfizer; the lawsuit, filed by Republican Attorney General Kris Kobach, claims that the company's "misrepresentations" of the “vaccine” resulted in "record company revenue" of around $75 billion in less than two years.

The suit also correctly claims the following:

"Pfizer misled the public that it had a ‘safe and effective’ COVID-19 vaccine…

Pfizer said its COVID-19 vaccine was safe even though it knew its COVID-19 vaccine was connected to serious adverse events, including myocarditis and pericarditis, failed pregnancies, and deaths. Pfizer concealed this critical safety information from the public…

Pfizer said its COVID-19 vaccine was effective even though it knew its COVID-19 vaccine waned over time and did not protect against COVID-19 variants. Pfizer concealed this critical effectiveness information from the public…"

But it gets worse, far worse:

"Pfizer administered 3,355,518 Pfizer vaccine doses in Kansas as of February 7, 2024. This accounted for more than 60% of all vaccine doses in Kansas…"

This means that well over half of Kansas residents are now afflicted with varying degrees of VAIDS, even if they do not realize it, yet. Rest assured, the VAIDS lawsuits will most certainly be filed in the coming years.

For now, AG Kris Kobach’s lawsuit is on the right track:

"Because Pfizer unblinded the original control group and allowed them to receive Pfizer’s COVID-19 vaccine, Pfizer, government regulators, and independent scientists cannot fully compare the safety and efficacy of Pfizer’s COVID-19 vaccine against unvaccinated individuals."

In other words, Pfizer is guilty of blatant and egregious fraud.

"Pfizer’s extensive and aggressive efforts to keep its COVID-19 vaccine information hidden conflict with its public transparency pledges and raise serious questions about what Pfizer is hiding and why it is hiding it."

When the “vaccine” excess deaths are finally extrapolated by states like Kansas, lawsuit like these will be viewed as far too little, too late.

Kobach added, "Pfizer did not publicly release adverse events data from its database."

No, Pfizer purposely faked their data knowing full well that the entire murderous Modified mRNA platform could never ever pass animal trials, and so they were premeditatedly engaging in state sponsored murder, or democide.

Pfizer’s stock is coming under pressure as of this writing, down over 2%, but far more shareholder pain is expected, unless…

…PSYOP-DISEASE-X comes to BigPharma’s (and the illegitimate Federal government’s) rescue.

Pfizer is little more than the DoD and Pentagon’s eugenics front company, and the FDA, CDC, NIH, WHO et al. were actually the most vociferous in their mendacious “vaccine” claims along with their Mockingbird MSM quisling partners-in-crime; therefore, more lawsuits must be filed as soon as possible, and all of the government apparatchiks and their globalist NGO coconspirators must be rounded up, given swift trials, and incarcerated for the rest of their lives.

They want you dead.
Do NOT comply.

David Jacobs Alien hybrids, Pentagon connects aliens with Poltergeists, Kyle Odom's Manifesto, The elite and Lizard people. (My documentary in the making.) (self.conspiracy) submitted 2 years ago by Morenob1

For people reading this, I do not condone violence or suggest to harass the people mentioned, this information contains deep researched info and can get anyone easily radicalized. Never use violence in any circumstances, you only stop people with painful truth!

I'll start a bit with who I am, people consider me good with puzzling, remembering things, an observer, I know what to look for and how to look for things, also a curious person and like to know hardcore answers.
Back in the early YouTube days I always watched videos here and there, some conspiracies, UFO videos but never took them serious even though I remember them all, I was just a young guy thinking probably a fake, fake This guy is talking nonsense and so forth.
In my mid 20's I passed out in the gym and saw a blue tunnel and was looking for crazy for what I saw on the internet and encountered a Near death experience testimony site called NDERF.org I was also very interested if Hell was real etc. I've now researched NDE's for 7 years so guess by now I would know how the spiritual life looks like and more. (in short there is life after death, blind people can see during a NDE.)

Due to my curiosity I thought it was time now to know what Aliens and Ufo sightings really are, we all say universe is big we can't be alone, which races are there, it are the basic thoughts about aliens.
I never liked the lizard people stuff and shapeshifters always thought, where does that come from why would they connect to greys and so forth.
I've watched David Huggins Love & Saucer documentary and was like wait, what the heck are these weird beings?
I thought they maybe could be nice creatures after digging more into the Alien phenomenon I realized ok they where playing with the guy and just like many other abductions, they used him for his seed, his alien girlfriend called crescent fitted the description of a succubus 100%. White alien face, levitated off the ground, large black eyes, long black lizard nails, paralyze him during intercourse, all talking through telepathy. Then there was this Mantis being that talked in a Godly fashion being in charge, swapping bodies and so forth.

I was so weirded out by this and thought to myself ok I can't stop here and started reading books about abductions, watching interviews 4 month's non stop.

Then I came across this professor called David Jacobs an abduction researchers who did hypnotic regression on abductees for 40 years. I've listened to all his interviews, it started to get a bit the same so decided to read his book: Walking Among us: The Alien plan to control humanity.

This is where I got worried and thought to myself, I wish I never had researched what aliens are as I started to connect some strange dots.
In short what abductees told under hypnosis is mind blowing and it progressed over time.
There are Lizard beings and large Mantis beings in charge of a hybridization program wearing hooded robes. Grey aliens are a mix from a praying Mantis, Lizard, mixed with human DNA, this is why they are able to interbreed and relate to us. Greys are nothing more but an earlier stage hybrid.
During hypnosis the professor noticed the aliens kept interbreeding, all happening in secret and let people forget the experience through mind control techniques.

During 2003 the professor started to notice a weird shift in abductions and seemed there where fully developed human looking alien hybrids abducting people now to learn how to be human and live among us unnoticed.
These beings can control us like a madman mentalist, to the point they can alter your reality. I noticed a lot of similarities with Derren Brown's abilities are actually SPOT on, aliens look into people's eyes to connect with the optic nerve, read your mind, control your thoughts, remote view able to find people they are looking for, hypnotize you, give you dreams, visions, talk through telepathy, use telekinesis, it's mind over matter for these beings.
They can shift into light orbs called energy fields but are not shapeshifters, they use mental hallucinations to change their appearance to you. The plan is to alter humans and hack us with their DNA and replace us soon making earth theirs and they are not aliens like people think!

The Pentagon connected aliens with poltergeist activities, also hypnotic regression brings back 3 topics which is Satanic abuse, reincarnation and abduction to steal eggs, sperm and creating hybrid cryptid bodies for released spirits from another dimension, which is Hell.
https://www.newsweek.com/pentagon-ufo-pr...low-948051

Ancient aliens: Bible calls Satan a dragon which is a lizard, Locust beings with human faces from the smoke are his angels, creating hybrids called the Nephilim (giants in status) becoming mighty men of renown which are the Elite.
Anyone who knows the movie "They Live" will know what I talk about.

They live

Kyle Odom's Manifesto:

The guy was a smart guy but they got to him and ended up shooting a pastor in a church thinking he was a hybrid told by a voice in his head, he told these hybrids where sniffing a lot. I saw an episode of Derren Brown where he did the same, the Episode is called Mind control. And we all know who likes to sniff too it's Mr Biden.

I left maybe 60% of dots out because It will be too much to read but this is the truth about our issues today in society, we are being run by different generation demons inside human bodies living among us being in higher positions, the plan is depopulation and make earth theirs, we build their paradise.

Also where I didn't had room for to add is how to possibly recognize a hybrid according my deep research it was not easy finding this.

Their eyes are mostly a bit wider apart
Larger pupils
I noticed a lot have green blueish eyes thinner eyebrows, they go bald quicker Longer chins and (earlobes) < can not confirm
They sniff your photons and DNA for information.

Newer generation of hybrids are completely blank heads they would ask strange questions with a strange fashion

Hey - have you posted before about the Mantids? I replied to someone several weeks ago after they posted a link to an art bell and David Jacobs interview. Not sure if that was you, but I am happy to see this content being discussed (regardless of how out there it seems to the uninitiated).
Wanted to ask if you know about Clif High and his discussion of the mantids??

Part 5

Discussion about Alien Hybrids that theoretically should already be here. (self.aliens) submitted 2 years ago * by Morenob1

For the ones that don't know the races that have been seen during abductions are Human Lizards, Praying Mantises, Nordic Blondes, and the Greys being their offspring's. Through abductions the greys further interbreed with humans and created hybrids which contain all the DNA the races I mentioned but eventually shaped the embryos into a human with more abilities then normal humans.

Races, Mantis beings are the original greys

The physical evidence off aliens being real are: Scoop marks, implants, abductions being similar, Hybrids having blood type Rh-negative, Peter Khoury's DNA hair sample of an Hybrid alien women, UFO sightings.

If this is true what researcher David Jacobs tell that aliens want to take over earth slowly like more UFO researches say like Budd Hopkins, this is a big issue we're facing. It's said in many encounters they want us to take good care of the planet and our technology becoming an issue.

My theory is like many conspiracy theories told us about which is depopulation, money slave system, we are eventually building them houses and collecting Gold for them. Now suddenly the green deal that we look out for the planet so they can take over like parasites while we create paradise for them.

If you think this is all rubbish fine I'll take it but read Dr. David M. Jacobs book: Walking Among Us: The Alien Plan to Control Humanity. He is a professor not religious or a conspiracy theorist but somebody that actually did research for 40 years on abductions with 1500 cases through hypnotic sessions.

He does agree we have lack of evidence Hubrids are living among us but if so they are watching us. Maybe some of them don't know they are Hybrids but there are people out there with strange abilities like Mentalists, some magicians (most are fake but not all) But anyway if they look human how could we possibly know they are Hybrids? For who knows they could be in the government, royal kingdoms, in politics. I'm not so much into the shapeshifting lizard theory but I do believe the hybrid stuff is real.

What are your thoughts? If anyone want more evidence of what I'm saying I'd happily provide it to you in the comments even the skeptics.

For people that also have proof of hybrids living among us please also share in the comments, this might be one which of course YouTube shadowbanned.

We are with too many people and can't control us all. If you read my post carefully they do it slowly because they want to replace us with hybrids and make earth theirs, they see us as inferior. If they'd attack they would destroy the earth but are using us to create a paradise for them so the Draconians and Mantoids can rule over the hybrids as Gods because they have access to their minds and let them live in the houses we build.

I never knew an alien invasion would turn out like this.

Aliens aren't communicating truthful, according David Jacobs all the abductees reporting is that the aliens are telling them soon everyone will be happy or a great change. There was one abductee she mentioned in his book being under hypnosis said she got the expression they want to replace us with the hybrids. Sounds allot like the NWO. Having the hybrids under their control.

You should check the book Walking Among Us: The Alien Plan to Control Humanity. The evidence is no joke.

This is actually not just a theory but what alien abductions lead to through researches from different professors that do hypnosis on abductees.

No matter what we believe they are in the sky and our government is acting very suspicious when you mention aliens and them forcing the NWO.
Cattle Mutilation is used for bio engineering, they are all bio engineered beings mutants or Hybrids and that leads back to ancient Hybrid Gods, sacrifices to the Gods and people honouring the stars.

It's not only cattle but also humans have been mutilated. I suspect they engineer more species not only the ones on the photo, this can also be an explanation for mythical creatures that have been sighted over the years. Like Bigfoot, dogman, Mothman, black eyed children. They all might've been inter dimensional hybrids.Not many people like to hear this but I still think aliens are not extra terrestrial, they act exactly like how the old testament described fallen angels and nephilim hybrids or the Watchers in the Book of Enoch.

In Greek Mythology giants where created from a drop of blood, this has to do with genetically engineering by ancient Gods not just interbreeding.

Are Aliens Extraterrestrials, Ancient Gods, Ghosts or all those together? (self.aliens) submitted 2 years ago * by sumonespecal

Grey aliens are usually depicted as white beings with large black eyes that can levitate.

Aboriginal Wandjina spirits.

When somebody gets abducted they lift in the air with their arms and legs down, it's similar to a possession when they levitate of a bed.

A famous abduction researcher (Dr. David Jacobs) put during the 80's a camera in an abductees house and she destroyed it while sleepwalking without remembering, after a hypnotic session she claimed to be abducted and didn't know why she destroyed the camera.

Some Doctors want to associate Alien abductions with Sleep paralysis, but that can be dismissed because abductions also happen during daytime by beings of light.

For instance a guy called (David Huggins) claimed he got abducted since he was a child, when he reached puberty at the age of 17 he met a (hybrid looking alien called Crescent) he had sexual intercourse with. She laid on top of him and he was completely paralyzed. He Remembered they also took his seed and created 100's of hybrid babies with more of these hybrid alien looking beings.

Crescent is an Hybrid alien with a white alien face, wearing a wig, has a beautiful human body with long black lizard nails according David Huggins.

I recommend to watch the Documentary (Love & Saucers). He is a painter and painted most of his encounters, it's to me a dead giveaway of what aliens are.

If you look on Wikipedia for sleep paralysis, it mentions that in the Bible it talks about a (Succubus) female that lay on top of you in your sleep while you are paralyzed. It can be a beautiful girl but closer inspection they show deformities like black bird like claws, serpent tails, exactly like a ghost and they impregnate themselves with your seed to create more Succubus beings or to kill the babies.

Look at this Reddit post where Aliens are related to Fallen angels and Ancient Gods. Hybrids further relate to Demonic beings that are beings with black eyes.

In David Huggins Documentary or in an interview he explained some of his hybrid children came to him and told we got new bodies now with the help of the insect guy, (Mantoids) they are considered in charge of the grey aliens according allot of abduction researches.

David Huggin's babies with a Mantoid.

Succubus beings sacrifice some of the hybrid babies so other spirits can escape Hell in return and enter any Bio Engineered body to create more hybrid offspring's, this is why people report other creature sightings like (Bigfoot), (Mothmen), (Dogmen), (Black eyed children), (Greys) and more Hybrid or (Mythical creatures) that are biologically engineered by Ancient Gods or the Fallen angels.

Demons are locked in a (Hell Dimension), an offer is a trade deal, when you die a portal opens which happens in (Near death experiences). With a trade deal, a demon's soul has free play to enter another dimension and releases his spirit which we see as UFO Light orbs, it requires a death process, is what makes them inter dimensional.

Tunnel from a 4th Dimensional realm into a 3th Dimensional space.

This is why ancient religions offered people to the Gods, it's a form of black magic called (Blood deals) This is also the reason why we see so many UFO's or paranormal sightings in the sky and can relate UFO sightings to cults. I've done some unthinkable research on this.

Pentagon's investigation connects alien research to poltergeists.Evidence (self.aliens) submitted 2 years ago by sumonespecal

Pentagon's Secret UFO Program Investigated Poltergeist Connection to Alien Mystery (newsweek.com)

I've done research myself non stop for 4 month's, read books about this and also came with the same conclusion that aliens or hybrids connect to ghosts and cryptid sightings.

Grays are reported to make the sound of a cow like mhoewww or booo, I've heard this in David Huggins case and read it in some articles. It's the typical sound of a white stereotypical ghost with large black eyes.
#12 - David Huggins(Love and Saucers) - YouTube

Greys are reported to be transparent, lift on the ground instead of walking, talk through telepathy, use telekinesis to move objects, give you dreams, sleep paralysis, visions, alter your reality, they don't breath according abduction researches from hypnotic regression. They shift into light orbs and so forth.

We lack physical evidence of people being abducted is why I want to relate this phenomenon with spiritual possessions. The way hybrids talk is very ancient or spirit like.
A few phrases I remembered reading them say is:
She belongs to us now
She is part of us
What purpose does it serve
What are it's functions
Who gets to choose or decide
What are the rules

One of the abduction researchers client seem to have written some things herself on email to the hypnotist called Emma Wood but was a known sleep walker and suffered with some mental illnesses and depression here is the full story if interested: http://emmawoodstherealstory.com/index.html

People would argue about scoopmarks, marks on bodies, but couldn't they just be self inflicted wounds during a possession? This is a great example a guest on Dr. Phil claimed to be kidnapped mind controlled and abused:

The fact that they are ghosts the evidence is there, but if they are physical too then we are dealing with aliens. Time will tell if they are both and really come here to replace us through interbreeding or if they are bluffing.

From the looks of it they are the cause for people dealing with depression, mental illnesses, schizophrenia and more have a read:
https://www.unilad.co.uk/featured/how-al...c-murders/

The whole alien abduction phenomenon was to create reincarnated superhuman mindcontrolling hybrids to walk among us and grow in higher positions to change the laws and make a One world government and eventually replace us with their hybrids. (self.conspiracy)
submitted 1 year ago by Morenob1

Have you ever heard about the alien abduction phenomenon where people claim seeing lights following them after missing time, be on another location or forgot what happened?

Those people have been brought under hypnosis to be able to tell what they saw as aliens suppress memories, this brought us the origin of Gray aliens, Nordic blondes, Reptilians and Praying mantis aliens.
According Forensic hypnosis done by independent researchers like doctors, professors and psychiatrists they came to an conclusion that reptilians and mantis aliens are in charge of a hybridization program, they both wear hooded robes like people wear in the occult or Roman Catholic monks.

Reptoids
Mantoids
Races seen by abductees under hypnosis.

As you can see on the image gray aliens are hybrids mixed from Reptilians and Praying mantis aliens mixed with earlier ancient Celtic DNA also referred as Nordics (there is physical evidence for ancient hybrid blonde Celtic DNA)

This is the reason why Gray aliens look like humans, they are an earlier stage hybrid and considered to be workers. These beings are reincarnated because of sacrifices from the occult and black magic for knowledge and power. This is now backfiring on us as these beings are now in our skies abducting millions of people for their DNA to further interbreed and create more hybrids which we consider as ghosts sightings and succubus beings, paralyzing us in our sleep.

According abductees, multiple people are saying, aliens keep talking about the words "SOON CHANGE". They are creating hybrids to walk among us with superhuman powers similar to magicians and mentalists. They grow easy in higher positions and even able to recognize who is a hybrid and whos not, is where the movie (They Live) was inspired from and them mind controlling us.

This was actually discovered by a professor that has done 1600 hypnotic regression sessions in 50 years time, called Dr. David M. Jacobs and wrote it in his book called (read first page) Walking Among Us: The alien plan to control humanity.

This post is just the tip of the iceberg what I have been researching, but I've engaged with abductees personally and they told me, human hybrids are here to change the laws. What was shocking was there are 2 real cases that related to the doctors work (Rachel Timothy) and (Kyle Odom). It seems they are the ones doing these sick and twisted things with children in castles. Scientists call alien abductions, reincarnation and satanic ritual abuse remembered under hypnosis false memories. But it shows you that these topics are related.

Our Western governments are working for them as they pay their salary, these human hybrids are some of our loyal elites, bankers, mentalists that fund our leaders and the news, all according plan for the New World Order. They cause for unrest everywhere in the world, depopulate us with the endgoal like stated in The Georgia Guidestones, they will change the laws growing as lawmakers and more. We are being replaced by reincarnated demons that come here through sacrifices.
They want us to go to Hell by influencing society so they come here living the human experience, The reason why our leaders are worried about the climate is because aliens want to take our planet, and yes aliens are worried about our environment too according abductions.

People on conspiracy say they are tired of politic and covid posts and want real conspiracies. But when there are some interesting conspiracies posted. They are nowhere to be found. Only 20 comments and 13 upvotes after 5 hours on the front page. The hypocrisy is strong.
Interesting theory OP, plausible and possible. But you lost me at the demon reincarnation and hell stuff. What does it have to do with alien abduction?

[–]spooky138 3 points 1 year ago
Yep, I was going to say the same thing. Just shows how much this sub is manufactured and brigaded by people trying to solidify some political divide.

[–]EZforme885 1 point 1 year ago
I also would love to learn about how aliens and demons merge. Are they one in the same? (which I've thought for the past year or 2) The nephilim have always been of interest to me. The demons literally reproduced w human women! But didn't the floor take care of all of the offspring?

[–]Morenob1 7 points 1 year ago
Believe me if you check into some of the links I've added it's mind blowing, I can't cover everything it would make this post a drag to read.
About Kyle Odom his story is deep, in short: He claimed he went under meditation, saw a light etc. suddenly encountered weird people in his daily life that liked to smell people, *cough Joe Biden, I've seen mentalists do this too called Derren Brown, smell someone's hand for information about the person's daily life.
Anyway Kyle Odom met these hybrids that were mind controlling him, eventually they got him to go to a church and the pastor was mocking him with intimidating Bible verses text messages, he went to church to proof this was real and to give it media attention and shot the pastor 12 times! The pastor survived and shorty recovered after, guess what he grew in a higher positions as an Idaho lawmaker called Tim Remington.
Same with the girl Rachel Timothy being abused by men since she was a child, having alien implants in her body and they mock her with Bible verses.
This might look like a simple post but I've gone miles and beyond to find evidence for alien hybrids and almost gave up for having no evidence. The evidence is these indigo children are appearing to us as what we consider ghost sightings. The more humanoid hybrids that you cannot distinguish from us, are assigned to earth at age 17 to 22 how to integrate into society. They may be related to what people consider having imaginable friends. These hybrids abduct people on earth and make only you see them or let you go along with learning them how to be human but forget the event later according a professor that let abductees remember these events by bringing them under hypnosis.
In theory mentalists like Derren Brown and more should in theory be hybrids and sick elites doing bad stuff with children, and no this has nothing to do with Qanon alien abductions and SRA have a lot in common and have related evidence.

[–]Affectionate_Rise366 3 points 1 year ago
What is the roll of the elongated skulls of Paracas in this story?

[–]Morenob1 5 points 1 year ago
I'm not very familiar with these skulls, I did read their DNA was from Europe, could they be one of the earlier superhuman hybrids that planned conquering America during the native times? The West is definitely a hot spot for UFO's and the whole European Freemason or Roman Catholics and the Vatican being connected with the occult. Read this on Wikipedia Secret Chiefs.
Or maybe they were humans that wrapped towels around their heads to shape it oddly but their heads were too big for that.

[–]Affectionate_Rise366 3 points 1 year ago

Too big for that and different suture lines in the crane, humans have 3 lines they have 2.

[–]Morenob1 8 points 1 year ago
They are interdimensional, they come here in 2 ways which is astral travel or through their body of light also called an energy field which is a technique of the angels. This is also a well known technique in the occult or ancient Tibetan Buddhism called a rainbow body, they can change into different colored orbs, each color is a different emotional vibration state. This is why we see so many orbs in the sky or beings shifting into light.

Astral bodies are the smaller white orbs, they use it to watch us.
Shadow figures are a lower energetic vibrational state which can appear black or dark purple. They can also be reflections from another dimensions and only able to appear in our dreams. or paralyze us in our sleep. It's referred as the Ethereal plane, according the occult.

And here is where I was hoping I was wrong. People should realize this post is not what I think aliens are, this information comes straight from experiencers like yourself.

You can be abducted in 3 ways, physically, mentally, or by a dream. Is why people are confused if abductions are real or not.

Physically is either being taken by a spaceship or inside an energyfield.

Mentally is being abducted by a smaller light orb called an astral body is where they remove view your house and project flashing thoughts in your head also known as an altered state of consciousness.

Dreams and sleep paralysis are thoughts projected to you from a place that is in between the 4th and 3D dimensional realm that only exist of white and black. It is stated in the occult that dimension is the spiritual realm, so you will usually see reflections of creatures into our 3D dimension, It's called the Etheric plane. it should look something like this:

The Bible talked about Mantis beings with human faces, the reptilian dragon and hybrids.

Mantis beings and gray aliens Revelation 9:7 In appearance the locusts were like horses prepared for battle: on their heads were what looked like crowns of gold; their faces were like human faces.

Alien abductions sticking needles in people:
Revelation 9:3 Then from the smoke came locusts on the earth, and they were given power like the power of scorpions of the earth.

UFO orbs
2 Corinthians 11:14 And no wonder, for Satan himself masquerades as an angel of light.

Lizard beings
Revelation 12:9 And the great dragon was cast out — that serpent of old called the Devil and Satan, who deceiveth the whole world. He was cast out onto the earth, and his angels were cast out with him.

Alien Hybrids
Genesis 6:4 - There were giants in the earth in those days; and also after that, when the sons of God came in unto the daughters of men, and they bare children to them, the same became mighty men which were of old, men of renown.

[–]Apprehensive-Soup-73 3 points 1 year ago
Your knowledge is right where my interests are. I would love if you could also dm some of your research to me! Also - I follow a few podcasts that speak of these things. If you haven't already, check out Dr. Michael Heiser and the Naked Bible podcast, and also the Blurry Creatures podcast. You won't regret it!

Alien disclosure: UFO's in the sky or aliens are inter dimensional entities and astral traveling light orbs. Our government is paying them with children so they can reincarnate themselves from another reality, is why there are so many haunted places and UFO's in the sky. (self.conspiracy)
submitted 1 year ago * by Morenob1

These beings are installing themselves into our reality similar to the movie avatar, they can also travel through time. The praying mantis aliens (also encountered by DMT trippers or seen by abductees) and reptilian aliens are both DNA used from prehistoric times mixed with modern human DNA, this is why old religions referred them as sky gods and hybrids as for the Bible that called Satan a dragon and serpent of old, or Locust beings from the smoke with human faces.

Velociraptors
Gigatitan insects

These reincarnated beings are not being born but soul transferred from bodies inside containers, similar to the movie Avatar and get assigned to walk among us.

Invisible demonic Poltergeists are assigned into these hybrid bodies.

Gray aliens are offspring from the praying mantises and reptilians mixed with Nordic blonde human DNA, explains their appearance. Gray aliens are just a step to become human in appearance and this explains succubus's, which are nothing more but hybrids trying to interbreed, paralyze you and get pregnant to make starseed children and REAL witches.

David Huggins Abduction.

Their techniques are like magicians and mentalists like turn invisible, mind read and hypnotize which the occult wants to know more about like figures like Aleister Crowley and the CIA, called project stargate.More important, these hybrids have progressed into fully human in appearance, now into greater numbers and walk among us as some of our people in power known as hybrids. They are the cause for many political tension and moving into globalism to establish the NWO. We are being used as checkboards for these entities through establishing different religious believe systems. Atheism, science and skepticism is to keep us into the ignorance of this being a reality so they can keep going their ways while we are in disbelieve.

Astral beings demonstrating, as the government needs to provide them more children and reach targets in trade for knowledge power and success.

These blood drinkers in society aren't our ordinary leaders they are mostly alien hybrids.

Don't forget that possession and mind control also plays a part in some of our leaders, it's done in a form of subliminal/ hypnosis which is actually a form of black magic, called in ancient times charms and spells.

Edited in this post:

The black eyed club is related to real exorcism and poltergeist possession.

This is how they influence society, they want us to go where they came from and them to come here, we builded them houses, we need to clean the environment for them and now they want to depopulate us and take it all.

I'm not asking anyone to believe me but do research on this, I'd recommend anyone reading about abductees being brought under hypnosis, these beings are absolutely terrified if we know about it, because they suppress abductees their memories.

Edited: What happened to the appreciation on the conspiracy sub only liking political twitter screenshot without a message or research of their own, will the real conspiracy theorist please stand up?

These are some techniques of aliens that are related to Magic and consciousness.

Light orbs in the sky are astral bodies where your mind travels between the stars, brighter colored orbs are called a body of light, which is to travel physically or transport between dimensions, which could be your body or a vehicle craft. It turns into light particles or photons which our reality is made of.

There are 3 type of alien abductions:
Dreams = poltergeists
Mental = astral
Physical = dematerialized into light.

Pentagon connects aliens with Poltergeists:
https://www.newsweek.com/pentagon-ufo-pr...low-948051

Not all hybrids are fully human, some may appear as different type of cryptids or hybrid stages like werewolves, bigfoot, ghost girls in dresses, black eyed children, pale humans etc. they can all turn invisible at will, reflect behind dimensions, is why we see shadow figures, or have poltergeist activities.

I already kind of speculated that the reptilians had something to do with velociraptors like Ted Rice. Abductees under hypnosis refer them as humans with the face of a crocodile.

Also about Jeffrey Epstein telling he made girls pregnant on his ranch in New Mexico:

Since you heard about abductee Ted Rice that was regressed by Dr. Karla Turner, that reptilians are eating babies alive in underground base Dulce New Mexico, this has to do with sacrifices and reincarnation purposes. The government are paying debts to these beings through children.

I could've made this post much better but I'd be wasting my time, people only read headlines on here and watch political screenshots on the conspiracy sub the appreciation on this post shows it. People don't want disclosure only what they want to hear. I've done 3 years research on this.

They use astral projection for out of body abductions and use a body of light for dematerializing into photons for physical abductions to travel between dimensions this is why we see different type of orbs in the sky.

[–]MaxwellHillbilly 4 points 1 year ago
Haunted places are "Lingering Human Spirits" & "Unclean spirits"

Interdimensional Aliens are the root cause of schizophrenia and many other mental illnesses! (self.conspiracy) submitted 9 months ago by sumonespecal

I can't believe this is so limited to find on the internet, while it is absolutely obvious but there is an annoying twist. There are poltergeists without bodies among us in lower dimensions and may come across as dark shadow blobs smelling like smoke that many schizophrenic people see changing over time, you will hear people talk about it in the comments and there are aliens or hybrids with a body, operating in higher dimensions. They are not space aliens but hybrids or mutants vessels created straight from earth. The reptilian aliens originated from Velociraptor DNA running a hybridization program to become humanoid and walk among us to influence society. This also goes for gray aliens which originate from a giant praying mantis which people also see during DMT drug use.

The hybridization program.

These are real abduction drawings from hypnotic regressions done on abductees. Gray aliens are hybrids from praying mantises also called Mantoids, it's a step to walk among us as humans.

In regards to poltergeists, this makes up for there being different type of alien abductions and sightings. Sleep paralysis are done by invisible shadow blobs or figures, out of body abductions are done by an (astral body) orb. Physical abductions are done by either a craft or object of light, also related to the (Body of Light) which is a state of dematerializing into photon particles. I'll post wiki links in the comments about this.

Here are few different body type techniques aliens use, almost nobody knows this yet: This is related to real paranormal sightings we are having.

Shadowfigure body also called an Etheric body.

Small clouded UFO orbs are astral bodies, this is how they abduct people with an out of body experience, it's basically a transparent copy of your body called an astral projection, is why aliens or hybrids can appear as ghost sightings.

Bright UFO orbs: This is a Body of light used for physical transport abductions, it's basically dematerializing into biophoton particles into an energyfield to travel in higher realms, planes or what we call Dimensions.

Having said this, this is why aliens or hybrids are related to poltergeist activity, they use black magic powers or techniques like magicians and mentalists. They can read your minds, predict movements you make or simply control you in any direction they want through calculations and matrix codes, it's a form of subliminal hypnosis.

The only evidence for human hybrids walking among us at the moment are paranormal videos like cryptids, people having mental illnesses, or having alter egos. They are trying to run our lives like it's a game, there are several movies hinting to this.

Here are a few movies related to real mental health cases and controlled possessions mostly related to Gangstalking:

They Live (aliens live inside of us)
The Truman show (as the actors running the simulation, causing planned and staged events)
The Box (using humans as a proxy, watching you through the eyes of others)
The Game (playing with us)
Eyes Wide Shut (mind controlling the elites, giving them alter egos or engaging into perverted acts.)

The message of this post and the answer of these movies are, invisible aliens or apparitions are possessing people from an unseen dimension, they also can give people nightmares, hallucinations, alter people's perception or give people alter ego's. I'm not interested in promoting my sub /Alienhybridsabuse but I collect there all my research and evidence also hoping experiencers will share their testimonies there for researching purposes. I managed to link elites abusing children to alter ego's and possessions.

The evidence for Aliens Walking among us are poltergeist apparitions and possession.

Also I managed to get in contact with 2 alien hybrids through my research, they were remote viewing me and guessed my personal info which is what they can do, so this is not a joke. I now figured out through an abductee and Target individual I simply talked with their alter ego's, which is linked to DID = Dissociative Identity Disorder. There are beings that attach themselves towards your silvercord, this is why some people have magic abilities, seeing hallucinations and many more stuff. The movie Split answers this correctly.

This post is based on real experiencers and not some form of personal belief or opinion. I managed to come with this theory by the work of a university professor which is an Atheist that put abductees under hypnosis, I've read most of his books.

Aliens are related to poltergeist activity stated by the Pentagon:
https://www.newsweek.com/pentagon-ufo-pr...low-948051

Different abductions and sightings:
Shadow body = Etheric body
Astral body / Astral projection Body of Light / Rainbow body

Aliens their techniques are black magic, knowledge the occult wants. This is a very good article I found during my research:

Articles where the government linked DID dissociative identity disorder with alien abductions and possession:
https://www.researchgate.net/publication...allegation

A mainstream scientists warns that demons really are possessing people:
https://www.sott.net/article/387928-Demo...ychiatrist

What I noticed is there are 3 things that can start schizophrenia which is a bloodline thing that runs in the family, or it can happen after certain drug use. It may have something to do with the opening of your 3th eye. Certain meditation techniques like Dream Yoga or astral travel can open your third eye, this happened with Kyle Odom's case I've read a while ago. Some medication can close or suppress it temporarily.

What's odd is people during DMT drug use also see praying mantis aliens removing crystals from their body or do brain surgeries on the tripper saying we fixed it for you:
https://wiki-entities.dmt-vision.net/cat...ing-mantis

I think these beings are trying to make us all mentally ill and alter our perception of reality which the movie They Live touches on and The game.

[–]2201992 2 points 9 months ago
This doesn't explain how medication can help people with diagnosed schizophrenia function and resolve their positive and negative symptoms.
Of course it does. Pharmacy in Greek means Black Sorcery. It's literally magic being used to counter or amplify other Black Magic.

[–]therealalian 26 points 9 months ago
Stop downvoting this guy and calling this a schizo post. He is actually very on the mark with this. Thank you OP!
This all very closely relates to the Vril society, Operation Highjump, Operation Paperclip, Admiral Byrd, Agartha, nazi moon bases, time travel, cloning, shape shifting, lizard people, lost ancient civilizations and technology. The whole conspiracy galore.
The nazi zombie storyline in the call of duty franchise explains a lot of the nazis endeavors with the Vril society through the 1900s and creating deep underground military bases, utilizing element 115, the moon base, and so much more.
Donald Marshall has done a lot of reporting on The cloning centers and the shape-shifting Vril.
The movie Iron Sky: The coming race is literally about all of this.
It's the Vril fu*king with all of us because the nazis made a deal with them in trade for technology. It makes sense if you keep an open mind and look at all the reports.

I think it is just a misunderstanding of the complexity of the human brain. The aether or air is charged and allows signals, or frequencies to come through the air. They can be organized into channels. They can then manifest into our reality on a television box or a radio devise. This may answer the question about how exactly we perceive reality in this flesh dimension. It may be that some people are just more in tune with these frequencies, and can not control them for some reason, due to an issue with their brain. The 3rd eye allows many of us to talk with the Holy Spirit or sadly if you are on Satan's side, Satan's spirit. Those with brain disorders and possibly a damaged pineal or pituitary gland may just have trouble with processing vibrational frequencies. Our pineal glands are under assault from the dark occultist PTBs and we must take measures to cleanse and protect our brains. Positive self talk, timed subliminal messages to help you become productive and capable, and avoiding the doom and negativity of the media. Do not let them program you. You are special. You were born for a purpose. Your life has meaning. Never let the dark occultists or negative haters tell you otherwise. The moment you believe what they say, is the moment they accomplished their mission. They can think whatever they want about us. What I (or you) think and what God thinks is all that matters in the end. And we will prove the liars, persecutors, hypocrites, and faithless wrong one day, when we stand before God and they are dishonored for their evil works while we step into His glory.

[–]Wooden-Material-8063 3 points 9 months ago
You got the first part correct. And maybe the rest. It depends which et you interact with. This goes back a long time. What bothers me, is the intentional cyber Skynet security deep state grid apparatus that conducts biometrics and health intrusion. The disease is transmitted by frequency, the global propoganda outlets have made schitzophrenia a propogandist painting. I theorize that they have Access too these external dimensional beings through advanced sonar, or some form of sound technology. I theorize the disease is used as a form of eugenics, Not only does the government want your words too be appropriate, they want you shaved haircut, physically active, low alcohol use, proper social Attire. I think a globalist network uses these extra dimensional beings as part of a security apparatus. Many schitzophrenics should gather a Legal Firm. There's a scrubbed, or deleted video on NSA reddit of a young man being possessed by cherubim. The nsa page deleted the video. They are hiding evidence because the repercussions could have a disastrous effect on State Control. I theorize our frequencies and our brainwaves are on illegal networks, why would this be so problematic? Well during the Covid Pandemic I did some traveling. You ever see things in people's eyes? You ever see BLANK in people's eyes? You ever see BLANK eyes in medical staff as they wheel in a semi concious Covid patient? Again schitzophrenics must find LEGAL GROUP REPRESENTATION the sources, the devices, the sciences, the operators and the direct evidence that surveillance assault led too an invasion by otherworldly entities. So brain hacking is real. They do brainhack people. Sometimes they want too help you. Full body Control. But if we dive into it, schitzophrenics aren't the only victim. The auditory parts of the brain. The FBI are semi aware of this but it's disregarded because lack of evidence or criminal conviction. Every human on earth is aware of a broadcast frequency coming directly into their mind. Plug your ears. If you plug your ears you can hear the reception. Sometimes you hear new signals. Crime? The brain signals. Substance Abuse? The brain signals. Art, the Signal. There are probably many groups in many nations that are singled out and targeted for failure too adhere. I believe the National Security Director is somewhat aware of this. As schitzophrenics we deserve reparations. Preferably in the form of a flight too a location where we can fix the signal receptors in our brain. Stadiums full of young people chanting "F Joe Biden" brains taken by the frequency. Protesters trying too March but looking like glitches in the matrix. The frequency. Hippies at woodstock dancing like animals and taking LSD. The frequency, the signal. Do I think there is a human relay? I am uncertain. January 6th. COD (BLACK OPS ZOMBIES). Cod fish. Is our brain health our fault for our miserable diets alcohol and tobbaco use? Or is our brain health their fault? Was the signal intention too disable our brains? ADS. Music. Jesse Ventura alludes too what is happening but until there are concrete confessions from the deep state. When the deep state says they actively use technology too create or activate psycosis and schitzophrenic effects. The aliens are real as well but they are another subject. I was in a closet man, and a cartoon pops up in my hacked optical black screen (eyesight) a hole forms and they say (this is a cyber security Excercise). There needs to be a legal Pathway. This is also the root of all radicalization through tec. Medicine itself is a broken construct. The lapses in our perceived TIME. Our perceived Memories.

Close but you just need to substitute "interdimensional beings" with "intelligence organizations misuse of the voice of God weapon" and you have it right on the money. I'd say with a high level of certainty that 90+% of what is called schizophrenia is actually the result of that person being targeted and run through the discrediting and marginalization-degradation program that they have been perfecting thru expire mentation upon the unwitting populace. It's a bold claim I know ..but not without warrant.

The Mantoids are far more complex than this. They are highly powerful, spiritual beings that have deep links with humanity. They are the key, as they indeed are the Leaders of the small and tall Grays

*Some more Evidence I have many more evidence but can only cover a small amount or else to much info will be messy to go through.

After I did this post I got a weird dream and barely get dreams let alone nightmares, that I was in India walking through what appeared to be a mall, somewhat airport looking and felt weird as if I was in danger. Then there was this guy screaming as if he wanted to sell something and walked passed by him and saw that he got green color in his eyes with a reptilian slit and thought ok this is not good and aggressively started to follow me as if he was angry at me and pulling me on my shoulder yelling.

I was a bit paralyzed during the dream and got stuck again where the dream continued that some Indian people where following me but can't remember the rest.

I highly encourage people to look into Gangstalking, it's the evidence of possession by invisible aliens among us, able to control situations in our environment.

It explains all the movies I mentioned in this post that you need to watch with this post in mind and after search for Gangstalking videos on youtube or TI's / Target individuals. Even though these movies are not monstrous scary, the idea of it is what's absolutely creepy, especially knowing that it happens to real people in their daily life. It's psychological horror.

There are some target individuals left with black alien implants, and have I heard some stories about this from experiencers that reached out to me.

But words won't cut it, where is the evidence? Here is a Target individual in the UK that also wrote books about her experiences called Eliza M. Parr. She went to a town that she never visits, while waiting on the busstop, there suddenly was a man walking passed her with an umbrella, he kept showing her his umbrella which she later noticed, but that umbrella had the name of her death cat Gangstalkers or people killed, these are the psychological games they are playing, while people accuse you being paranoid:

You may think that man is an alien hybrid is what I thought at first, but there is an invisible entity attached to that lady that can possess people around her to target her. This is how they mind control people using them as a proxy explained in this post, is why aliens are related to many more mental illnesses and paranormal activities.

DID is understood to be caused by severe amounts of trauma that interrupt the processes of identity formation that occur throughout early childhood.
all those things you mentioned are common traits of people with extensive trauma (like ptsd, bpd, etc.). trauma also has a knack of producing extreme stances, like the ones you included here. it’s quite likely that the person in question was very hurt at one point and revels in others being hurt now as a result, especially if they ever slighted or abused the person with DID. same with the gore and violent moves. they may have gone through something that lead to an obsession with those things (as people wit trauma disorders also tend to show signs of OCD) because of a deep seated fear that’s within them after their things they’ve been through (and how they remember going though them!

All the remote viewing/astral projection 'research' the US military did for Operation Stargate was a psychological experiment. It was a program to see how readily they were able to use direct neural monitoring (Robert Malech's 1974 patent granted in 1976) and directed energy weapons (the same tech used on TI's) to push auditory and visual sensory information onto people in order to convince personnel of things that were clearly not possible. They successfully made bleary eyed true believers in supernatural phenomenon out of previously skeptical rational men and women.

It just goes to show how much people believe their senses and form a foundation of what is and is not possible based on these perceptions regardless of whether they are generated and rendered in the person's mind or actually the result of physical phenomena and genuine perception.

Similarly the pop cultural understanding of the MKULTRA experimentation the CIA carried out is a misdirection from the actual purpose and goal.

What most people know about it is that LSD and other drugs as well as sleep deprivation, electroshock therapy and insulin shock were used to wipe the slate of the mind clean so that it could be reprogrammed to make Manchurian candidates or to deprogram various forms of neuroses (alcoholism, addictions, and at the time they believed homosexuality was a mental illness to be cured by these measures) what is not ever discussed in relation to MKULTRA are the many many experiments done using radio frequency studying human electrophysiology to develop these weapons that have now been perfected in their ability to monitor the entire electrophysiology of a person and from that data at a distance with no implant they can monitor heart rate, respiration, mood state, auditory and visual information coming in as well as thought or silent speech and visual imagery imagined such as in dreams.

Since they can detect and decode the body electric they can also send the same or altered signals back to individuals or entire cities and generate sensory information that the person perceives as absolutely real. More real than real. In waking life and even more easily in dreams.

This sounds like conspiracy theory or sci Fi to most people I am aware of that however it is very real and I argue is the single greatest threat to freedom, democracy, civil liberties and basic human rights and decency worldwide. It is the most invasive violation of a person aside from murder that is possible.
I sympathize with others who have commented that they are TIs as I too have been since Nov. 2010 as well. Not a single moment of peace with my own mind unimpeded by the presence of nefarious and ignorant others in my mind in 12+ years.

The experience has ruined my life, robbed me of my family and friends, taken my education, depleted my finances and left me not only bitter and angry at anyone complicit in this torture, they have created a dangerous enemy where there wasn't one before.

Perhaps it's easy for them to just assume they are untouchable as they have gotten away with this for decades but as technology becomes more interconnected there is no telling what databases might be hacked or leaked or if a power like Russia wanted to do the US real harm nothing would sow the seeds of distrust in the govt. more than exposing this program. although unlike when MKULTRA was exposed this time the victims aren't in mental wards or chemically lobotomized. We TIs are a very tough bunch who have undergone stress tests that someone who isn't targeted cannot fathom. When names and agencies are finally divulged of those complicit, an extreme example will be made of them that will steer anyone away from ever considering working in that capacity again.

And his presentation:

I've avoided every UFO alien conspiracy in 3 years and focused my research based on experiencers alone, so I could come with my own conclusion on the topic.

Now that I'm listening to Philip Schneider he is pretty spot on to what I've been researching, and have found evidence for that they are to replace us, these hybrids are also related to child abuse and growing in higher positions, I have evidence for this, I even made my own subreddit where I post all the evidence.

But the guy mentions it all and it was in 1995. He even got ''suicided''

The evidence for aliens is absolutely spiritual possession aka Interdimensional mind control. I'm getting banned on every subreddit for this relating alien hybrids with a condition called Gangstalking. (self.conspiracy)

I know short posts are easier to like and go into, neither can I put direct links in this sub (I will put some evidence in the comments)

Reddit censorship is going out of hand these days, people their knowledge on UFO's and aliens have been decreased dramatically after 2015.
It almost looks like we are back in the 60's when it comes to aliens and UFO's or comments or posts people put in subreddits. The ones that don't make any sense get a pass, the ones with evidence attached are being removed or told you are spreading disinformation that is not backed up by science. This is the reason everyone that knows about Aliens or abductions are being silenced, they are just not allowed to be heard.

What I figured out after reading many abduction books is that these beings are what scientist Jacques Vallee says that they are interdimensional. They have been here for many years as sky Gods, Angels of light, Fairy orbs, and today UFO's creating hybrids through abducting people. This is a technique called (Body of light), (Astral body) and also (Etheric body) This makes up for UFO orbs in the sky or shadow figures people see during sleep paralysis.
It looks like our reality moves in multiple movie frames according to quantum entanglement inside of multiple dimensions in time and space and energy is connected to our consciousness grid which makes up for the law of physics or the term physical and time being an illusion. This means that Isaac Newton was right that Time is movement.

Everything is a 3D holographic perception made of dimensional reflections.

I don't want to go too much into this now but the point I'm making is these layers in time explain ghost sightings making them interdimensional and reflecting from different frames in a moment of time.

Shadow figures are alien hybrids reflecting and operating from another observable dimensional timeframe wall.

This is why poltergeists are related to aliens, they cannot physically harm you with their fists, only either abduct you in their conscious timeframe like sleep paralysis being stuk in time and altering your state of consciousness with a nightmare or by astral travel and a memory projection of your body like an out of body experience.
However they can physically abduct you by dematerializing you into photon particles or energy inside an energyfield, scientists are studying this more being referred to as (Bio photons). They suspect it has to do with our nervous system.

This is also the reason with DMT use you see different colored layers or meet these entities in different dimensions.

What these alien hybrids can do is possess or mind control people mentally or attach itself into your space energyfield and often remain invisible or reflect as shadows depends on their distance, they can move objects with their minds, read your thoughts, predict events like mentalists, make objects disappear like magicians, they seem to be able to control others more then other people which we consider mentally ill. These beings can also stir feelings into us which lead to many people their decision making in life.

The question is can aliens be physical, the answer is yes but not for long, I noticed this with a Men in black case, The MIB told an abductee he was running out of energy and hat to leave. These beings need to host bodies on earth, the higher beings take higher people in charge in our government and this is how they move towards the NWO or make such stupid political decisions.

You can read about their mind control techniques in a book called Walking among us: The alien plan to control humanity. It's based on abductees put under hypnosis by a professor. Because they can wipe your memory unless you recover it under hypnosis.

Gangstalking is the evidence for all of this, some experience it worse then others but what happens is a being that is attached to you is mind controlling others (they can influence) or call more beings to do it which is causing for what Targeted individuals call a street theater, it's a multiple possession going on. I've had 2 conversations with these hybrids myself, I recognized them the way they used words and figured that a Targeted individual was having I call it an alter ego or being taken over like being possession.

The roots of spiritual possession or why people hallucinate a holographic reptilian or gray alien face with dark eyes.

They enter or host the eye of a person that allows it for whatever reason like fame, money, success, power, being emotionally vulnerable etc.

The real Exorcist having a black eye, this is the reason for The Black Eye Club!

This further relates to people in power or other people engaging into weird Satanic rituals and more things I'm better off not mentioning. But there is a video online from John Podesta in Comet Ping pong screaming at a child like a monster.

At the end this is how we are dealing with aliens or demons causing a spiritual or mental warfare and puts the movie They live in a better perspective, it may not be an alien but an alien hiding behind the person controlling him.

There is also one way to see interdimensional beings, it's through The Scole Experiment and the use of mirrors recording a camera's own output viewfinder. (I will put all links in the comments.)

In the 90’s (during the most recent Satanic attempt to wipe us Serbs from the face of the earth) one of our Orthodox Monks, Father Tadej, said that when the aliens come down to earth, many people will be deceived with - horrible consequences - because those aliens are really demons.

Many of his very specific (unlike Nostradamus) prophecies have already come true since then.
I made a mistake: it was not Father Tadej, but Elder Gavrilo of Georgia who made this prophecy about aliens being demons. Forgive me.
"The devil has 666 nets. At the time of the Antichrist, people will expect salvation from the cosmos (outer space). That will be the devil's biggest trap: humanity will seek help from aliens, not knowing that they are, in fact, demons."
You can find many many Russian Serb and Greek prophecies about the coming times. Edgar Cayce's prophecies were in line with theirs.
Just search "Prophecies about Russia" and you'll find them. There are some pages with literally an hours worth of prophecies that all overlap.
They are about Russia because Russia will defeat the slavers / latins / west that has wreaked havoc upon the world the past 2000 years, and lead humanity into a spiritual and material golden age.

Let me ask you this; if something is a spirit, does it have to be physically manifested? Could it be in one's head only? And if it were in the mind, would the spirit still "exist"?

[–]sumonespecal 1 point 1 year ago
This can be very difficult to interpret but it also have something to do with memory, our DNA is memory of how we are shaped as a species. The whole cultural sacrifice thing in ancient times and today is making a trade deal with the Gods, it also seems to be a rule because death open portals between 2 realities.
In other words there are beings reincarnated and smell like smoke and sulfur which I assume is Hell but are completely bodiless. I know this because of certain NDE's I've read that people become a pair of eyes. The whole purpose of alien abductions is to create bodies for invisible reincarnated beings is why these dimensional beings abduct people.
As strange as it sounds but there are reptilian aliens and praying mantis aliens seen being in charge of a hybridization program according hypnotic regression, doing soul transfers or exchange bodies. In other words ghosts are bodiless, they become a hybrid once they have a body assigned to them but operate in parallel dimensions that we also see during DMT use.
They both possess the same abilities like alter your perception, it works based on your own memory, like they can reflect themselves back to you as an imaginary friend called Tulpa's, or a diseased family member basically anything from your own memory, they do this through telepathic hypnosis.
I've avoided this topic because it's too much info for one post.

A Tulpa is an imagination from your own memory that can be your imagination or from popular culture and comes to life because an entity without a body will reflect himself back on that imagination. This may be parallel with Schizophrenia, some of these beings don't have a body or a look and are considered dark blobs that often smell like smoke and sulfur and are very much bullies that can also move objects in your home.

I suspect that these are also the beings that are getting hybrid cryptid bodies from the aliens to have a physical appearance like we have.
I promise everyone reading this that I'm not bstting around, here is a government link acknowledging that Satanic ritual abuse, reincarnation and UFO abductions are related:

Full book: Walking among us: The alien plan to control humanity.
(see behind the scenes of these beings, recovered under hypnosis by real abductees.)

Part 6

I've researched the afterlife for nearly 10 years. I am convinced that Reptilian beings are REAL and that the tunnel of light that people see when they die is a trap.
(self.conspiracy) submitted 2 years ago * by EsotericN1nja

Introduction

For the last 10 years, I have been researching the nature of our reality, who or what controls our society from the shadows, and more importantly what actually happens when the physical body dies and the soul leaves the body. Do we go to heaven? Do we go to hell? Do we just cease to exist? Is there a God that takes care of us? Once you begin to realize what's actually going on and how deep the rabbit hole really goes, you will never see the world in the same way so buckle up and get ready, this is not going to be easy to swallow for most people. The whole point of this post is not to frighten you, but to present you the conclusions that I've come to in regards to what actually happens when our physical bodies die after having done what feels like endless research from every angle possible.

I have thoroughly investigated near death experiences, out-of-body experiences, astral projection experiences, past life regression hypnosis data, remote viewing data, gnosticism, ancient texts and more. I cannot say I know with absolute certainty what happens when we die, but what I do know is that all these different ways/methodologies of researching lead to the same conclusions and because of that, I believe that Earth is a prison planet and a massive farm used by various parasitic entities who are using us and have been using us as energetic food for what appears to be a very long time. I will share plenty of evidence from different sources and perspectives to make you understand how I connected all these dots and why I came to these conclusions.

Many different sources that have nothing to do with one another indicate the same scenario, so what I'm about to explain below is the summarization and conclusions of all these sources, which can be found at the end of the post. This is an evidence based theory, so this post isn't about what I'm saying, it's about what the evidence is showing to be the case.

Reincarnation and the white tunnel of light

You know how anyone who's had a near death experience talks about having seen a tunnel of light appear in front of them? Or having met members of their family who had passed away? In some rare cases, even having met and spoken to who they thought was God? Evidence suggests that the tunnel of light which appears when we die is a trap designed to wipe the whole memory of our last incarnation and to recycle our souls into another body thus keeping us in an infinite loop here on Earth. Because of this, the overwhelming majority of people walking the Earth have total amnesia and don't remember anything about their past lives nor anything from the periods in-between their lives. If you do some research though, you will notice that there is however a small number of people world-wide who are able to recall very specific details regarding who they were, what they did for a living, where they lived in a past life, etc(evidence 1,evidence 2,evidence 3,evidence 4).

How do we know these people aren't making up their stories? We know this isn't the case because lots of people have been able to bring very solid pieces of evidence to sustain their claims that can be verified(verified evidence 1,verified evidence 2,verified evidence 3,verified evidence 4,verified evidence 5,verified evidence 6) which shows that reincarnation is a very real phenomenon, confirming what many religions claim to happen to the soul when a person dies. The reason these people's memories have only been partially erased and not fully erased remains unknown for now.

The reason people that went through NDE's didn't come back with their memories wiped is because unlike people who have died, they didn't end up going all the way through the tunnel of light to reach it's destination, many NDErs didn't enter the tunnel at all, while some have partially experienced it. All of them managed to return to their bodies and lived to tell what they experienced on the other side, hence the term 'near death experience'.

The astral(spirit) realm, the reptilians and their agenda

The Reptilians are found in the literature of multiple ancient cultures across the globe. Jainism and Hindu talk about the 'NAGA' whom they describe as 'half-human half-serpent deities'. The aztecs used to worship the 'Quetzalcoatl' whom they described as the "serpent-like God". The Hopi Indians in North America referred to a race of reptoids called the 'Sheti', translated "Snake-Brothers". In Africa, shamans claim to bear extensive esoteric knowledge of a race of reptilian beings called the Chitauri, whom they say control the Earth. Chinese, Korean and Japanese legends talk about a race of reptilian beings called the "Kappa". The Gnostics talk about the parasitic entities whom they call 'Archons' who not only use humans as an energetic food source but they also prevent our souls from leaving the material realm upon the death of our physical bodies.

The Reptilians are both physical and astral beings. Evidence shows that they've been heavily involved in the manipulation of mankind for thousands of years and are responsible for setting up the soul trap around the planet with the help of extremely advanced technology. This energy grid around the planet serves multiple purposes, one of it's main purposes is to project this 'grandiose' tunnel of light in the proximity of people who have just died in order to lure their souls in. This is the same tunnel of light that so many people who've had near death experiences have reported seeing on the other side. The soul may be under the impression that the tunnel is going to take it to the Heavens or perhaps to a higher plane of existence, depending on it's level of awareness. Evidence however shows that when the soul enters the tunnel, it's memory gets wiped and the soul is put into another body here on Earth(reincarnation). The tunnel acts as a bait and to make a good analogy, imagine a fisherman and his fishing rod: he throws in the bait which hides the hook and the fish get trapped in it when they bite. We get tricked and trapped by the tunnel of light in a similar way if we aren't aware that it is a trap. In this case, we're the fish. The Reptilians are highly intelligent, highly advanced technologically and they lack empathy which makes them dangerous. These beings see themselves as controllers and farmers of humanity, in the same way we see ourselves as controllers and farmers of cattle here on Earth.

The reason they want to keep us here is because they need to feed off of us energetically: when people go through any kind of suffering, these entities feed off of our lower frequency emotions such as fear, pain, grief, anger, jelousy, rage, anxiety, lust, because they are low vibrational beings that require low vibrational energy in order to survive. Rudolf Steiner, one of the most prolific and gifted scientists, philosophers, and esotericists of his time explains how the Archons feed off of our fear and anxiety.

The majority of people living on this planet today have been continously reincarnating on this planet for thousands of years because we keep falling for the same trap when our physical bodies die. Most of us have no memories of our past existences since our memories get wiped before every reincarnation, so every time we are born on this planet we think we've just arrived for the first time with a grand purpose or mission to fulfill given to us by who we think is God.

"Our consciousness interacts with another dimension. Our physical sensors only show us a 3-dimensional universe. What exists in the higher dimensions are entities we cannot touch with our physical sensors" - Bernard Carr, professor of mathematics and astronomy who studied under Stephen Hawking and earned his doctorate at Cambridge.

When our physical bodies die or when we have an out-of-body experience, our soul goes into the astral(spirit) realm and while we can still observe what's happening on Earth but we can no longer interact with physical matter. These parasitic entities exist mainly but not exclusively in the astral plane. It's crucial that we become aware of the fact that these entities who are masters of deceit play 'God' in order to trick us into accepting reincarnation and thus having our memories wiped, convincing us that it's in our best interest to do so.

How are they able to do that, you may ask? When we're out of our bodies the laws of physics as we know them no longer have the same effects upon us as we find ourselves in a different realm in which we are able to do things that would be impossible in the physical world. Our souls are pure energy, so in the astral/spirit realm, we can change the shape of our astral body(spirit) into anything we want by simply willing it to happen because unlike in the physical world, we can use our consciousness to manifest a different looking body in an instant when we're in the astral plane, since we are no longer affected by physical laws and limitations. We can also fly around or teleport by simply using our intention to do so. We can even go to higher vibratory realms(where the real good-hearted beings live) if our vibration is high enough.

"If you want to find the secrets of the Universe, think in terms of energy, frequency and vibration" - Nikola Tesla

If you understand that in the astral, any entity can change the shape of it's astral body into anything it wishes to, then you realize that even the most malevolent entity possible can present itself to you in a different form to trick you into thinking you're speaking to God or to your guardian angel, or even to one of the members of your family who had passed away. They do this because they know you'd put your trust in these religious figures or in the familiar faces and once they gained that trust they can easily manipulate you into doing things that are not in your best interests at all. They masquerade as 'beings of light' that emanate a fake sensation of love and peace to make you think they're the good guys who are there to guide you and to give you your next "mission to fulfill".

This is mentioned even in the bible:

"And no wonder, for Satan himself masquerades as an angel of light" - II Corinthians 11:14

Afterlife tricks & scams

There is evidence showing that that these entities will present themselves to you in the form of angels/Jesus/God/saints/guides/ascended masters/guardian angels and they're going to try to convince you that you need to go back to Earth so you can pay back your "karmic debt" or to continue "learning" or that you have to go back with a "special mission to fulfill" which is complete bullshit but we keep falling for these scams because they tend to make sense from our narrow and pre-programmed perspectives(good luck fulfilling that "special mission" if you can't remember what the "mission" was). We put blind trust in what they say to us because of constant religious indoctrination during our lives on Earth and these beings know that.

They can't force us to reincarnate because each soul has free will, but they can pretend to be someone they're not in order to put ideas in our head that it's in our best interest to accept reincarnating back on Earth making it sound as if they are doing us a favor so that we can "evolve", "learn" or "fix previous mistakes" and what they're basically doing is they're using our own free will against us. The real purpose of continuous reincarnation is soul enslavement disguised as "spiritual evolution". A free will decision is impossible without memory and information.

Because our memories are being wiped after each life time, many of us live under the illusion that we're currently living our first life on this planet and we came here to "learn". Learning about life on Earth and experiencing it would be useful if we didn't lose our memories after each life time. But it doesn't matter what we learn over here as long as everything gets erased after each reincarnation and we have to relearn everything from scratch over and over again in an endless loop. Earth is a prison planet camouflaged as a 'cosmic school'. This idea of a cosmic school has been going around in order to trick souls into wanting to come and stay here in order to "learn". This whole matrix is designed to drain our energy, wipe our memories over and over again and keep us trapped.

Many people that went through near death experiences even recall being accompanied by a "loving" angel who showed them their life review. The reason the entities show us life reviews is so we can relive certain moments from our lives in which we made certain mistakes and by reliving those moments, feelings of guilt, shame and remorse are being generated inside of us, making us want to compensate for them. These beings then use these feelings against us telling us things such as: "You have made these mistakes, you have to go back to fix this and that". Nobody is perfect and we all make mistakes, so their emotional manipulation scam will never end if you buy into it because being human it's impossible to not make what we perceive to be humanly mistakes. This NDE for example shows how one woman is shown not one but two fake life reviews in order to convince her to go back.

"New Age" believers who promote calling upon "your" spirit guides, guardian angels, ascended masters and religious figures for help, are actually doing huge damage to themselves and to all of humanity and they are not even aware of it. You are everything you need to succeed. You are a powerful creator being and you don't need to give your power away to anybody.

How they're using your religious beliefs against you

Religion has programmed you to believe that at the moment of your death, a spiritual judgement type of scenario will take place(the biblical Judgement) and it will be expected of you to give your authority away to these beings (God,angels,guides) letting them decide your fate, so that when your time actually does come, you won't even question these beings and what they are doing with you, instead you will simply accept whatever they ask from you because everything will seem to be going as planned, since that's what religion programmed you to believe will happen when your physical life will end.

These entities take advantage of the fact that you have been continuously conditioned to believe in an afterlife saviour who will take you to the Heavens if you're a good boy. Even if you're an atheist, when you see this "God" or "Jesus" figure right there in front of you in the astral, you may start to have second thoughts about what you thought about religion back on Earth and you will most likely end up accepting what these entities want you to do because your perception of reality can change in an instant in a shocking and surprising scenario like that.

Religion has also given you the sense of being a guilty sinner who has to worship, obey and pray to a certain God(depending on your religion) in the hopes of afterlife salvation. The real salvation is not coming from the parasitic entities who pretend to be our creators, it is coming from ourselves. In order for this to happen, we have to become aware of what actually awaits us when we die so we can use our free will to put an end to this vicious reincarnation cycle.

The real, powerful, infinite, creator God (who has nothing to do with any religious movement) is already within you. You are Source energy. We are the saviours we have been waiting for and we don't need to give our power away to anybody.

Think about this: if you're born somewhere in Europe/North America/South America for example, then the main religions of those areas tell you that God put you on this Earth to live your life and at the end of that life, there will be judgement. God will then decide whether you'll go to Heaven or Hell, for eternity. But, what if you're born in other areas of the world such as the Middle East? or India? or any country/region in which the main religion is either Buddhism, Hinduism or Jainism? These religions teach that after death there is reincarnation, no heaven no hell. So why is it that the place we're born in on this planet dictates a certain belief in something so important such as our existence beyond physical life? Will random luck really going to dictate what's going to happen to each one of us at the moment of our death? Will each one of us have a different afterlife fate just because we're born in different places around the world? It is all part of their game of deception, but the more you expand your awareness the easier you can see through the lies and deceit of the social and religious programming that we've all been through one way or another.

Why is Source energy/the creator of this Universe allowing all this to happen?

Each being in this Universe, whether malevolent or benevolent, has free will. Ask yourself: why are we humans allowed to enslave the animals here on Earth? Why are we allowed to slaughter more than 3 billion animals on a daily basis? Why are we allowed keep animals locked up in farms and cages until the day they die? Why are we allowed to be so cruel to the other forms of life? Why? Because we, just like these entities do, have free will. From our perspective, we do these things because we need something from them which is energy in the form of physical food. We think we are entitled to do what we do because we are superior to them and because we need to survive. We perceive these things to be normal and part of life. From the perspective of the animals however, if they were aware of it, we would be their 'reptilians' since we operate just like them. But we never see ourselves that way, we don't think we're the bad guys because all we do is try to survive. The entities don't see themselves as the bad guys either since they're also trying to survive. What we do to the animals is almost exactly what these beings do to us and they need to keep us imprisoned here to feed off of us just like farmers keep their cattle locked up in farms and stables to get what they need from them.

Evidence #1: The perspective of past life regression hypnosis

Calogero Grifasi is a past life regression hypnotist from Italy. He has posted thousands of past life regression sessions on youtube that explain what happens to the soul inbetween lives, how the Reptilians feed off of us energetically while we're physically on Earth and how they try to manipulate us into accepting reincarnation when we die by pretending to be beings of light in the astral.

I've analyzed more than 400 sessions of his with different clients from all over the world but the following sessions are one of the most significant sessions he's posted in English that you need to see for yourself:

Session 1: Entity masquerades as Jesus to entrap souls upon death - This is an investigative session on the reincarnation cycle to find out what happens to the soul inbetween lives and it shows how souls get deceived by astral entities to reincarnate back to Earth.

Session 2: This session shows how Reptilian entities interfere with us during and after our lives on Earth.

Session 3: This session reveals stuff about alien technology and how the entities use religions in their favor and against us.

Session 4: Another session with a different client reveals that Earth acts as a soul reincarnation trap for anyone who incarnates here.

Session 5: The unmasking of a client's "spirit guide", which turned out to be nothing more than an energetic parasite pretending to be the client's spirit guide.

You can check out his other sessions in italian and spanish that are subtitled in english here. He also has other channels in other languages or subtitled in french,german,spanish,polish,romanian,russian,portuguese,etc that you can find here. The information that's coming out of Calogero's sessions doesn't actually come from himself directly, as he is the person who investigates and asks the questions, the information is coming from people that are able to enter the hypnotic state of mind which are either his clients or people who enter the hypnotic state for his clients. He has posted thousands of sessions with different people from all over the world revealing that our souls are being tricked to reincarnate back on Earth and having our memories wiped again and again by false light entities who play 'God', 'Jesus', "angels", "spirit guides" on the other side.

Truman Cash is an alien abductee and afterlife/past life regression researcher. Through hypnotherapy, he managed to recover some of his in-between lives memories and discovered that every time he died, the tunnel of light led him to an implant station where advanced alien technology was used on him in order to erase his memories, then he was time and time again sent back to Earth and put into a newborn's body, thus becoming trapped in Earth’s reincarnation cycle for thousands of years.

Here's an american woman who also practices past life regression hypnosis and while she has nothing to do with Calogero Grifasi, she came to the same conclusions about the afterlife and these false light entities after having worked with her own clients.

Here's another investigation on the afterlife made by a different team of regressionists also showing that the deceased are being maneuvered and controlled like puppets on the other side.

Moreover, the work of other past life regressionists such as William Criado and Aurelio Mejia also reveals that the Reptilians use us as a food source and trick us into reincarnating back here when our physical bodies die (their work is entirely in spanish but you can turn on subtitles).

There's 5-6 different past life regressionists (that I know of, there's probably more) who discovered the same thing about the afterlife after each one of them worked with their own clients from all over the world. In this post I explain why I personally do not trust the information coming from more popular regressionists such as Dolores Cannon or Michael Newton.

Evidence #2: The perspective of Gnosticism & Buddhism

The word 'Gnostic' comes from the term 'gnosi' in greek which means 'knowledge'. The Gnostics were a group of people who seeked to reveal the truth of the supreme essence of the divine, thus overthrowing false beliefs of God, society and life in general. They say that humans are divine souls trapped in the physical world and that the only way one could attain salvation from this place is not through worshiping the Demiurge(the false God of religion) but through gaining secret esoteric knowledge about who you really are, where you came from, and about how these parasitic entities operate, which will eventually set you free from this physical world in which your soul is trapped in. In the Gnostic texts, they talk about the parasitic entities whom they call 'Archons' who not only use us as an energetic food source but they also prevent our souls from leaving the material realm upon the death of our physical bodies. The Gnostic texts describe at length the manipulation of humankind by what they call non-human 'Archons' or rulers. The soul trap is also mentioned in The Secret Book of John, which confirms the information coming from other sources. More information about the gnostic beliefs can be found here.

Buddhism teaches that reincarnation is an endless cycle of suffering (the wheel of Samsara) that can only be broken by achieving enlightment. In other words, we are stuck in a reincarnation cycle where we are bound to continuously suffer one way or another, life after life, until we spiritually wake up and break free from the reincarnation cycle.

Evidence #3: The perspective of Remote Viewing

Remote viewing or 'extra sensory perception' was developed in the 1970's by the CIA and was used for espionage purposes. Remote viewing is the ability of a human being to perceive information and imagery of remote geographical targets, regardless of time and space. While this is a natural ability, it is very hard to do without training. Here is a tutorial that teaches you the basics. People who effectively use remote viewing aren't special, they are simply highly trained individuals and anyone can learn how to do it.

Farsight Institute has some of the best remote viewers on the planet today. Amongst many different projects, they have investigated the afterlife and the Reptilians using remote viewing techniques:

In a project called The Death Traps, 3 highly trained remote viewers from the Farsight Institute were tasked to remote view what happens to the soul of a person when the psysical body dies. All 3 of them perceived the exact same scenario without communicating with each other, that the soul is confused, disoriented and ends up entering a tunnel of light which violently shocks the soul. Immediately after that, the soul no longer has the memory of who it was and where it come from. I recommend watching the whole RV project for a better understanding, not just the trailer.

In another Farsight project called The Escape, they have investigated how Earth has long been used as a prison planet. The remote viewers have been able to psychically perceive the grid that surrounds the Earth which is being used to "zap" souls who attempt to go through it. Again, I recommend watching the whole RV project for a better understanding, not just the trailer.

In many other remote viewing projects made by Farsight Institute such as Area 51, Oumuamua, Zeus, The War In Heaven among others, they have often psychically perceived these agressive, evil-looking Reptilian beings with psychopathic minds who always try to control, conquer and manipulate other beings.

You can find free to watch and pay to watch projects made by Farsight here.

Brett Stewart, another skilled remote viewer and his team, who have nothing to do with Farsight Institute, have also investigated the afterlife. Their afterlife project is called 'Moksha' which means "freedom from the reincarnation cycle" in hindu. Brett and his team have reached very similar conclusions about the afterlife which only makes the information coming from Farsight's remote viewers seem even more credible.

Brett and the other three trained remote viewers have remote viewed their target, "Moksha" blindly. None of the remote viewers have communicated with one another before or during the project and only shared their findings and common denominators when all the remote viewing data had already been collected. You can watch their project here.

Note: The CIA has declassified numerous documents proving the existence and use of remote viewing:

This declassified CIA document shows that the CIA have been using remote viewing since at least the 1980's.

This declassified CIA document shows that in 1984 the government remote viewed the planet Mars 1 million years B.C and found strange looking entities there.

Evidence #4: The perspective of Robert Monroe

Robert Monroe was the father of out-of-body experiences and astral projection. After having had out-of-body experiences for more than 30 years, Monroe discovered that our reality is used to create and harvest what he calls loosh energy, which is emotional energy that all living beings on this planet produce.

According to Monroe, this planet is like a giant garden and all beings living on it are the crops which are being harvested energetically by other-wordly beings, in order to expand their own life spans, just like us humans harvest and farm animals here on Earth in order to expand our own life spans. His book Far Journeys gives detailed information about loosh, here's some references from his book. Here's a short video summarizing the concept of loosh from his book.

Note: The CIA has declassified numerous documents proving the existence and use of astral projection and out-of-body experiences, this being one of them.

Evidence #5: The perspective of psychedelic experiencers

Many people who've done psychedelics reported a certain kind of experience indicating that this place is either a prison planet or a soul farm and that we are being farmed energetically, which confirms the information coming from other sources that have nothing to do with psychedelics, such as gnosticism, past life regression hypnosis data, remote viewing data and also Robert Monroe's out of body experiences and research.

Evidence #6: The perspective of Wayne Bush

Wayne Bush has researched the nature of our reality and the afterlife for more than 20 years. His research indicates that the white tunnel of light lures souls into a memory-wipe reincarnation trap, that the Demiurge(false God entity) controls our world, that we are being used as energetic food and more.

In this article, Wayne Bush and Julie McVey explain the top 10 red flags indicating that Earth is a prison planet/loosh farm.

Here's a 9 part podcast series about the matrix soul reincarnation trap with Wayne Bush, the person who's researched this topic more than anybody on the planet.

Wayne Bush's research:

Evidence #7: The perspective of David Icke

For the last 30 years, David Icke has been a full-time investigator into who and what is actually controlling our society from the shadows. David Icke's vast research suggests that an inter-dimensional race of Reptilian beings have hijacked the Earth and continuously manipulate global events in order to keep humans controlled and in constant fear.

In this video David talks about how the Reptilians control our society, why the human eye is unable to see them and how they use us as an energetic food source.

David Icke talking about the Archons, Gnosticism & The Reptilian Agenda.

David Icke has wrote more than 20 books about how our society actually works and who runs it. His books are extremely well researched. One of his books gives detailed information about the way the Reptilians operate and how they manipulate us: Children of the Matrix: How an Interdimentional Race Has Controlled the Planet for Thousands of Years - And Still Does: "We are born into a world controlled by unseen forces that have plagued and manipulated humanity for thousands of years".

Evidence #8: The perspective of Wes Penre

Wes Penre is a researcher of metaphysics, the alien presence on Earth, the matrix that we find ourselves in, our human origins and more.

In this article, Wes explains how the tunnel of light death trap works and how to avoid it. The information is very complex but extremely well researched.

Wes has provided massive amounts of information on a wide range of topics: The illuminati, the shadow government, the moon matrix, the afterlife, entity possession, reptilian manipulation, the reincarnation soul trap and much, much more. Here is his entire work in PDF's.

Evidence #9: The perspective of Simon Parkes

Simon Parkes was an elected politician in the UK who served a full term of office. He claims to have had alien experiences his entire life, including experiences with the Reptilians. He also comes from a family with a background in the secret services (Mi5 and Mi6).

In this video(listen from 1:11:47 to 1:19:57), Simon talks about the tunnel of light being a soul trap and that near death experiencers are being genuine in regards to what they've seen on the other side, but that they're not aware that it is all a trap designed to recycle their souls and wipe their memories clean.

In this video, Simon talks about the fact that the system doesn't want to publicize the Reptilians because they signed an agreement with them to not be publicized and that the Reptilian race has been manipulating humanity for thousands of years.

Evidence #10: The perspective of Val Valerian

Val Valerian is a former CIA agent (real name John Grace) who started writing about the soul reincarnation trap and about Earth being a prison planet in the 1990's. In one of his books he writes:

“It is they (grey aliens) who await in the light when a human being dies. The human being is then recycled into another body and the process begins all over again… Hence the Light and Tunnel at death Trap. Scanning someone they wish to recycle as they near death, the aliens discover who the person was close to has died. They project the person(s) image in the white light tunnel and the image waves you in deeper. If you CHOOSE to follow you can be trapped and sent to another incarnation of their choice… these entities view Earth as a big farm.” - Val Valerian

His books provide detailed information about the Greys, Reptilians, tunnel of light trap, how UFOs work, etheric implants being used on humans, chakras and more. All 5 Val Valerian's Matrix volumes can be downloaded for free here.

Evidence #11: The perspective of Alex Collier

Alex Collier claims to be in contact with an ET race from the constellation of Andromeda. According to him, "the Draconians(reptilians) are the force behind the repression of human populations everywhere in this galaxy". He goes into detail about that in this video.

In this clip, Alex Collier gives instructions on how to escape the tunnel of light soul reincarnation trap at death. He claims that if you ignore the tunnel of light and say to yourself "I wish to go home" you will return to the dimension you came from before you came to Earth. While I personally have doubts that this will work since you no longer have the memory of the coordinates of your old home, I guess it's worth a try. But you must always have a plan b in case things don't go as planned.

Some of Alex's interviews and lectures over the years can be found here.

Can we be 100% sure that Alex Collier has really been in contact with these beings from Andromeda? No! However, the information that he puts forward does confirm the information coming from the other sources regarding the Reptilians, the tunnel of light trap, and regarding what awaits us when we die, so I will still consider it evidence.

Final words

Waking up to the possibility that we could be living on a prison planet can be unsettling, disturbing, depressing but also enlightening, awakening and liberating. However if we are to do something about our situation, then it must be known.

The same information that I presented here is being confirmed by a variety of different sources which in my opinion is evidence that there's a lot of truth to this theory. I don't pretend to know the absolute truth nor am I saying that the information that I've presented you is the absolute truth. The only thing I can say is these are the conclusions I've reached about our reality and the afterlife after having researched them for many years. If anyone says that they are 100% sure, without a shadow of a doubt, about what happens when we die, then that person is a fraud in my opinion. Nobody will be able to get to the 100% absolute truth about this reality and the afterlife, but what you can do is to research this topic from every angle/perspective possible so that you can put as many puzzle pieces together as you can which will allow you to have a greater understanding of who we really are, where we came from and what we're actually on this planet for, so do not stop here. I highly encourage you to do your own research on this subject and to try to come up with your own conclusions about what awaits us when we die.

The nature of reality, who God is, how our souls have been imprisoned and enslaved in these physical bodies as well as in the material world, the Demiurge & it's Archons, the creator of this world and their intentions with us (self.EscapingPrisonPlanet) submitted 8 months ago * by EsotericN1nja
This is part 2 and the continuation of this post.

Introduction

According to the Gnostic texts, the Demiurge, an impostor God, created the physical world. The Gnostic scriptures portray the Demiurge as "ignorant and malicious". In "The Reality of the Rulers", the Demiurge is described as an "arrogant beast".

According to the Gnostics, after the creation of the physical world, the Demiurge gave birth to the Archons, beings who were like him and could help him administer the physical world. He then created the first physical bodies on Earth, one male and one female, which are commonly known as Adam and Eve. The Demiurge then imprisoned the first "divine sparks" (souls like you and I) within their bodies.

The Gospel of Luke (4:6) as well as the Gospel of Matthew (4:8) state that Satan is the ruler of the world. The Gospel of John mentions an "evil ruler of this world" in no less than 3 verses (12:31, 14:30, and 16:11). Luke (10:18) and John (12:31) both speak of Satan or a Satan-like entity ruling the Earth.

John 14:30 from the Bible states: "I will no longer talk much with you, for the ruler of this world is coming, and he has nothing in Me".

1 John 5:18-19 from the Bible states: "We know that we are of God, and the whole world lies under the sway of the wicked one".

Revelation 12:9 from the Bible states: "And the great dragon was cast out, that old serpent, called the Devil, and Satan, which deceiveth the whole world: he was cast out into the Earth, and his angels were cast out with him".

2 Corinthians 4:4 from the Bible states: "In whom the god of this world hath blinded the minds of them which believe not, lest the light of the glorious gospel of Christ, who is the image of God, should shine unto them".

In this post I will try to explain what i've learned about the nature of reality, who God is, and how we've been imprisoned and enslaved in this physical bodies as well as in the material world after having made years of research. In order to illustrate who God is and why this reality is the way it is, I will use the "video game developer" analogy throughout this post to make it easy to understand for everyone reading this.

Who God is and what this particular creation is about Every souled being is a God inside their own creation. For instance, let's say you are a game developer and you create your own video game. You can create anything you want within your own game. The storyline, how strong or weak the players are, their superpowers (if they have any), how harsh or comfortable the environment is, the laws of physics, and all of the other aspects of that game. You, being the creator of that game, have all the "cheat codes" so to speak, you can do anything you desire in your own game. In other words, you can play God, because you are God in the game that you created(reality).

There are many many different beings (game developers) who have created their own video games (realities). There are many different types of games (realities): action, adventure, survival, horror, etc.

In this particular material world that we find ourselves now, we're dealing with a power hungry game developer that has the characteristics of a psychopath, a being who wants to have every player believe that they are they are the creator of all game developers and that they are the most powerful, therefore, they seek to be worshiped and prayed to by every player in their game. The game developer, through it's widely spread out religion, tells the players that unless they worship and pray to the game developer, not only they cannot be saved from the game, but they will be thrown in a much worse "game" called hell, where they will suffer for eternity.

The foundation of the reality that we're in is built upon survival of the physical body. They purposely created a reality where every being must kill and eat another in order to gain more energy for their physical bodies and stay alive. They created a food chain. Animals use many strategies to kill their prey, including power, speed and deception. Some of the tactics that fall under the category of deception include camouflage, mimicry, and hypnosis. Chameleons can change their color to blend into the environment so that their prey doesn't detect them until it's already too late. Some insects, such as the orchid mantis, are able to shape shift and appear as a flower. Others, such as parasites, literally use mind control. There are quite a few creatures on both land and sea that use light to lure, capture, kill and eat their prey. These include the anglerfish, viperfish, dragonfish, black seadevils, cuttlefish, and gnat fly larvae. Some creatures use pheromones to drug their prey. Some use a hypnotic display of lights to stun and confuse their prey. Some even use the promise of love or sex. There is a species that uses the flashing patterns of fireflies to lure unsuspecting male fireflies to their deaths. Human beings farm and kill billions of animals of a daily basis. We also use deception to capture our prey: imagine a fisherman and his fishing rod. The fisherman throws in the bait which hides the hook and the fish get trapped in it when they bite. Humans also use light to capture and kill. We've all seen what are called light traps or bug zappers, that attract unsuspecting insects and flies to their deaths.

Why does this particular game developer bother to design this reality in such a brutal way? Why are all living beings on this Earth forced to kill and eat each other in order to survive? Why must there be so much suffering if this is the creation of a loving God? Why? Because they benefit from all living beings killing and eating each other, as they feed off of those energies that we generate while doing so. The fact that the physical world was created in this way is a reflection of the personality of it's creator, who is anything but benevolent. They created this "game" to their liking, just like you can create your own "game" to your liking, with your own set of rules and laws. An example of such world would be one where all living beings co-exist peacefully together. No food chain, no diseases, no enslaving monetary system, no wars, no suffering, no 9-5 rat race, no poverty, no hunger, no media propaganda, no GMOs, no criminality, no reincarnation, no memory wipe, no energetic and physical slavery. The fact that these exist and are so prevalent in our daily lives, tells you something about the agenda of this particular game developer and their intentions with us.

The game developer may have created the physical body, but not your soul

The real you (the soul occupying your physical body) has already had experiences in other realities way before this "game" that you're in now was created. But you might begin to wonder: if you are God, then why can't you fly? Why can't you teleport? Why can't you create physical matter in an instant? Why can't you jump 300 meters in the air? Why can't you express yourself in infinite and unlimited ways, as a Godly being? This is because if you are in someone else's creation, you are playing by their rules, and the last thing this particular game developer wants (which many people call God) is for you to express yourself in infinite ways without limitations. So what do they do? They create a physical body for your soul to occupy, a body in which you are very limited, a prison for your soul. A second prison, after the material world itself. You went from being limitless, to being limited. The game developer genetically engineered the physical body to have many different impulses and urges, one of the most important ones being sex. Whether you are male or female, you feel the impulse and urge to procreate. Where does this urge come from? It comes from your physical body's DNA programming. You act based on your urges and impulses, given to you by the engineer of your physical body.

Human & animal sacrifice

The fact that many different "Gods" throughout many different cultures around the world demanded both human & animal sacrifice is one of the biggest proofs that this is planet is controlled by an evil force who feeds off of the energies of pain, violence, suffering and death.

The Bible, especially the Old Testament, is filled with numerous stories of animal and human sacrifice. God, we are told, likes the pleasing aroma of burning flesh. Animal sacrifice is much more common than human sacrifice, but both occur and are "pleasing to the Lord".

Genesis, the first book of the Bible, has Abraham preparing to sacrifice his son to God: "Take your son, your only son – yes, Isaac, whom you love so much – and go to the land of Moriah. Sacrifice him there as a burnt offering on one of the mountains, which I will point out to you." (Genesis 22:1-18)

'God' Commands Burning Humans:

[The Lord speaking] "The one who has stolen what was set apart for destruction will himself be burned with fire, along with everything he has, for he has broken the covenant of the LORD and has done a horrible thing in Israel." (Joshua 7:15 NLT)

Josiah and Human Sacrifice:

At the LORD's command, a man of God from Judah went to Bethel, and he arrived there just as Jeroboam was approaching the altar to offer a sacrifice. Then at the LORD's command, he shouted, "O altar, altar! This is what the LORD says: A child named Josiah will be born into the dynasty of David. On you he will sacrifice the priests from the pagan shrines who come here to burn incense, and human bones will be burned on you." (1 Kings 13:1-2 NLT)

Human Sacrifice To Yahweh:

Chastised a little, they shall be greatly blessed, because God tried them and found them worthy of himself. As gold in the furnace, he proved them, and as sacrificial offerings he took them to himself. In the time of their visitation they shall shine, and shall dart about as sparks through stubble; (Wisdom 3:5-7 NAB The Book of The Wisdom of Solomon is mostly in Catholic versions of the Bible.)

Humans are Fuel for Fire:

As for you, son of man, prophesy: Thus says the Lord GOD against the Ammonites and their insults: A sword, a sword is drawn for slaughter, burnished to consume and to flash lightning, because you planned with false visions and lying divinations to lay it on the necks of depraved and wicked men whose day has come when their crimes are at an end. Return it to its sheath! In the place where you were created, in the land of your origin, I will judge you. I will pour out my indignation upon you, breathing my fiery wrath upon you, I will hand you over to ravaging men, artisans of destruction. You shall be fuel for the fire, your blood shall flow throughout the land. You shall not be remembered, for

I, the LORD, have spoken. (Ezekiel 21:33-37 NAB)

Burn Nonbelievers in a Mass human sacrifice to Yahweh:

"Suppose you hear in one of the towns the LORD your God is giving you that some worthless rabble among you have led their fellow citizens astray by encouraging them to worship foreign gods. In such cases, you must examine the facts carefully. If you find it is true and can prove that such a detestable act has occurred among you, you must attack that town and completely destroy all its inhabitants, as well as all the livestock. Then you must pile all the plunder in the middle of the street and burn it. Put the entire town to the torch as a burnt offering to the LORD your God. That town must remain a ruin forever; it may never be rebuilt. Keep none of the plunder that has been set apart for destruction. Then the LORD will turn from his fierce anger and be merciful to you. He will have compassion on you and make you a great nation, just as he solemnly promised your ancestors. "The LORD your God will be merciful only if you obey him and keep all the commands I am giving you today, doing what is pleasing to him." (Deuteronomy 13:13-19 NLT)

Canaanite is an ancient term for what we now know as Israel, Lebanon, and parts of Syria and Jordan. Children were supposedly sacrificed to the god Moloch.

Quetzalcóatl was known as the "creator of this world and humanity" in Mesoamerican cultures such as the Aztec and Maya. This "God" demanded human sacrifices and was worshipped by many. When the Spanish conquistador Hernán Cortés and his men arrived in the Aztec capital of Tenochtitlán in 1521, they described witnessing a horrifying ceremony. Aztec priests, using razor-sharp obsidian blades, sliced open the chests of sacrificial victims and offered their still-beating hearts to the Gods. They then tossed the victims' lifeless bodies down the steps of the towering Templo Mayor.

Sacrifices to the 'God' Huitzilopochtli involved marching the victim to the temple at the top of a steep pyramid, the steps slippery with blood. Thrown over a blood-soaked altar, their arms and legs were held in place facing the sky. The priest would then use a sacrificial dagger made from obsidian glass and cut the hearts out of the victim's chest. The body was then thrown down the steep steps.

Children sacrificed to the 'God' Tlaloc suffered an even more painful fate. It was believed that Tlaloc required the tears of children in order to bring rain to the crops, so the victims were made to suffer the most excruciating torture before having their hearts removed from their chests.

What do these events tell you? They tell you that these so called "Gods" are evil psychopaths who couldn't care less about humanity. The reason they find us valuable is for the same reason we find a cow or a pig valuable. Food. These are the same beings that even to this day, they continue to receive huge amounts of powerful worship and pray energies from billions of players from all around the world, who have been fooled to believe that these beings are the creators of their souls.

Programming & enslavement

You join their reality. And then the programming begins. In school, an authority figure, the teacher, tells you what you must do and must not do, while also programming you with what the official narrative of this reality is. In college, an authority figure, the teacher, tells you what you must do and must not do, while also programming you with what the official narrative of this reality is. At your job, an authority figure, your boss, tells you what you must do and must not do. This basic subconscious and conscious programming goes on for decades.

By the time you are fully developed as a person, you've become used to one thing: you must be subservient and take orders from the authority figure, whoever that may be. And then religion comes into play. Once again, an authority figure, "God", tells you what you must know as truth and what you must discard as truth, while also programming you with what the official narrative of this reality is. Not only are you not told the truth about who you are as a being, you are told the exact opposite: you're programmed to believe that you're just a guilty sinner and that you must put yourself on your knees and worship the very game developer who is behind the creation of this cruel survival based kill or be killed eat or be eaten reality, a being who if they were to be judged, they would be the sinner of all sinners.

They don't want their programming to only have an affect on you just here on Earth. When you leave the flawed and limiting physical body, they try to lure you back in. You are too powerful as a free being that doesn't occupy a limiting physical body, so they need to make sure you accept going back to another physical body in an attempt to once again severely limit your abilities as a Godly being. Your body dies, you exit the body, and you are once again "supposed" to listen to the authority figure, to the Demiurge and his minions, the Archons, whether it's "God", "angels", "spirit guides", you must "go back with this special mission to fulfill". You must go back to "fix your karma". You must go back and "evolve", you must do this you must do that. Karma is a lie they created in order to give you reasons to accept going back, making you think that next time, you'll fix things, in a reality that is purposely designed for you to make mistakes, or at least, what we perceive to be humanly mistakes.

The divine spark within your physical body, the real you, is already perfect, but it doesn't fit the Demiurge's agenda to tell you the truth, so the Demiurge and his minions, the very beings who have a lot of learning and evolving to do, tell you that your soul is the one that is imperfect, and therefore you need to keep staying here in order to "learn" and "evolve". The Demiurge and his Archons have corrupted and infiltrated many movements here on Earth.

The very convincing and benevolent sounding "love and light" New Age movement programs players to believe that their (already perfect) soul needs to stay here, as they have a lot of "learning and evolving" to do.

RA, the famous channeled entity, which is presented to us as this humble, all-knowing messenger in the Law of One book, programs players to believe that their (already perfect) soul needs to keep reincarnating here in order to "learn and evolve". This ofcourse makes perfect sense from their point of view, because this is exactly what an Archonic entity would want us to think and therefore do, as they benefit from us being in their game.

If their goal is to keep us stuck in their creation, then the memory wipe each time your physical body dies and perceptual control (through constant programming by the education system, religion, new age movement, etc) about who we truly are and what this reality is all about is a must from their point of view. So that when the game ends for each player, the player doesn't leave, they return to play the same cruel survival based game over and over again without being aware that they are here to satisfy the needs of it's creator. Only on the rare occasion when the player finally starts to figure out what's really happening and begins to see through the illusions and deceptions, they have a chance at leaving the game for good and either join other games(realities) created by other game developers, or create their own game with their own set of rules and laws.

To make sure the players don't find out who they really are and how this reality works, the game developer, through their privileged minions known as the "elites" who sit at the top of the pyramid here on Earth, the ones who control the banking industry, create the ultimate enslaving tool: money. You spent all these years getting programmed with what the official narrative says and you've finally graduated from school and college? The 9-5 rat race awaits. Now you gotta spend the remainder of your life chasing the money and making sure that at the end of the month, you receive that meaningless piece of paper which they tell you is the most important thing in the world. On top of that, you gotta make sure you have something to eat and drink every day, and a roof over your head, which results in you completely losing yourself in these every day survival based physical distractions, which are cleverly designed to keep you busy and away from finding out who you really are, thus also indirectly preventing you from leaving, as your awareness is now almost completely focused on the least important stuff, which they tell you is the most important stuff, the material world with all it's distractions and illusions.

In conclusion: Who is God? You. Every souled being is a God, but in order for you to express yourself in infinite ways without any limitations you have to be inside your own creation, inside your own "video game", where you know all the "cheat codes" because you are the one creating them. If you are inside someone else's creation, you can get stuck in it, and you have to play by their rules.

Great post OP! But if this world was created by archons/demiurge. Then why do we have Junk DNA, shrooms, concepts such as tantric sex. If all these material concepts were supposedly created by the demiurge? That’s what I keep wondering.

[–]EsotericN1nja 79 points 8 months ago
Based on what ive researched, the Demiurge created a copy of Heaven, which the gnostics call "Pleroma" and then modified it to suit his needs. It's similar to how you can ctrl+c ctrl+v to copy paste a wall of text and then modify it to suit your needs. This is why we have beautiful mountains, valleys, lakes, beaches, psychedelics. That's a small sample of what Heaven, or Pleroma is like. His minions, which are the elites who sit at the top of the pyramid here on Earth, made psychedelics illegal in almost all parts of the world, so that the masses don't have access to them. Then, they created the brutal food chain, our flawed physical bodies, diseases, the enslaving monetary system, wars, suffering, the 9-5 rat race, poverty, hunger, media propaganda, GMOs, criminality, the reincarnation system, and everything else that i've mentioned in the post, in an attempt to prevent us from finding out who we are and from leaving the material realm.

What I posted here is not just based on Gnosticism. It's based on a lot more than that. This is based on my research on NDEs, past life regressions, remote viewing projects, robert monroe's out of body experiences and discovery of loosh harvesting, ancient texts, and ofcourse, Gnosticism. I came to this conclusion about this world because all these sources point towards the same conclusion as Gnosticism, and because it makes perfect sense to me. See a much more detailed post about this that I wrote.

Think about it, even the bible admits the same thing, that Satan is the ruler of this world. You don't have to listen to any of those sources, you just have to look around you and ask yourself questions. Why is there a brutal food chain? The fact that there is a cruel food chain and that every living being must kill another in order to survive is proof that the creator of this "game" is anything but benevolent. No matter who kills who and who eats who, there is loosh being generated every second of every single day. Why did they create money, why do we have to spend the vast majority of our time trying to earn it? Why are the masses getting indoctrinated? Why do a few people who sit a the top of the pyramid here on Earth get to have so much wealth and control, while the vast majority live the life of a slave? Why is there a reincarnation system? Why are we controlled through fear, by being told that if we don't worship the God of this world we will be sent to hell to suffer? Why are the elites involved in satanic rituals? Ask yourself questions like these about the reality we live in and see what kind of answers you come up with. To me, it is obvious that the Gnostics are correct.

The Demiurge didn't create psychedelics, he created a copy of the original heaven, Pleroma, which already included psychedelics. His minions here on Earth made them illegal in almost every corner of the world.

Past life regressions: Why some past life regressionists believe that this planet is a slave farm/prison planet and that reincarnation is a soul trap, and why other regressionists don't think that is the case: Calogero Grifasi - Dolores Cannon - Michael Newton (self.EscapingPrisonPlanet)
submitted 7 months ago * by EsotericN1nja

I have not seen anyone else address this and consider it to be an important topic, i want to help people understand the why's and how's based on my observations through a decade of research so that's what i'm about to do in this post.

As of november 2023 i've investigated more than 500 past life regressions from multiple regressionists around the world, trying to figure out what happens when we die. As I watched session after session from different regressionists, i couldn't help but notice that different regressionists had different results with their clients. The old school regressionists such as Dolores Cannon and Michael Newton believed that angels, archangels or spirit guides are real and looking after us. While the new school regressionists believe that these are false light beings in disguise, since this is what the work with their clients is showing to be the case.

Based on the information from their own regressions, old school regressionists such as Dolores Cannon or Michael Newton believed that we need to keep reincarnating on this planet over and over again in order to learn and evolve. Based on the information from their own regressions, new school regressionists believe that we need to put an end to the cycle of reincarnation, as they consider it to be a trap.

They have the same job, they are past life regressionists, so why this difference in opinion and mentality? Here's why. Their opinions differ because some of the new school regressionists (such as Calogero Grifasi) do something differently. What do they do so differently, that they came to such oposite opinions about these entities and the afterlife? What they do differently is they question the legitimacy of these beings and investigate whether these beings really are who they claim they are and whether or not they have hidden agendas concerning their clients (spoiler alert, they do). As opposed to Dolores Cannon and Michael Newton, who took the information they received from these entities through their regressions at face value, and never really investigated to see whether these entities were telling the truth or not. With each client, Calogero does not give up until he finds out who the entity actually is, what they want from the client, and how the presence of these entities affects the client in their daily life. The repeating pattern from his sessions is that these entities have been parasiting us multiple lives in a row, which is why they need us to keep reincarnating on this planet over and over again in order to continue feeding off of us energetically. Through his work, Calogero found that there are false light entities out there that are so deceptive that they present themselves to us as Jesus, angels, archangels, spirit guides, beings of light or even God, because they know that the recently deceased human being would put their trust in these beings, thinking they are in good hands.

How does Calogero Grifasi verify these astral beings? Calogero tells his clients who are under hypnosis (or the person entering the hypnotic state of mind for his clients) to verify the etheric DNA of these "angels"/"spirit guides" and to try to see what these beings really look like behind the mesmerizing love and light exterior. In the vast majority of cases they turn out to be either Reptilian or Mantis beings in disguise. If they cannot read the etheric DNA of these beings then Calogero tells his clients to go back in time (that's what regressions are about after all) to try to see what these beings looked like before they took on the appearance of the angel/spirit guide/archangel michael/jesus/etc, and before they came in contact with the soul of the client. In so many cases, he's found that these entities pretend to be someone they're not in order to continue paraziting their host, the human being, who is under the impression that this is his angel or spirit guide watching over him/her. If those methods don't work, then he has other solutions to verify the legitimacy of these astral beings and their messages. I've seen cases where as soon as the entities realized they've been exposed, they transformed themselves back into their real form(in most cases Reptilian looking) during the hypnosis session and cursed Calogero and his clients for exposing them. They showed their real colors and got extremely angry because they knew their time was up and they would have to find someone else to parasite. Calogero's detective-like way of verifying information is a game changer and something that Dolores Cannon and Michael Newton unfortunately never did with their clients.

The old school past life regressionists

Dolores Cannon and Michael Newton are maybe the most popular regressionists of all time. They have done a ton of past life regression work and wrote multiple books on the subject based on their work.

The big problem with them, that many people are unaware of, is that when they were communicating with these beings through hypnotic channeling, both Dolores Cannon and Michael Newton blindly believed who these beings presented themselves as and really believed that these were either angels, archangels, the client's spirit guide, or even Jesus. Neither of them have been verifying to see who these beings truly were and what they actually wanted from their clients, and because of this they genuinely thought that all these astral beings are benevolent. Proof of this comes straight from Dolores Cannon's own book, called "Three Waves of Volunteers and the New Earth" where she wrote that all alien entities are benevolent towards humanity. One would obviously be inclined to believe that is the case, when they don't investigate to see who these beings actually are what their real agendas are. It's like asking a thief who's just robbed a bank if he's the one who did the robbery, and the thief saying it wasn't him. And you actually believing him, without conducting any investigation whatsoever.

Same issue with Michael Newton unfortunately. Like Dolores, he thought that these beings were who they claimed to be and did not question them or their messages. Mark, an NDE researcher made an entire series about some major inconsistencies and obvious lies that he's found in Newton's book "Journeys of souls". Give that playlist a listen. Another researcher called Bronte Baxter said: "I read the book (Journeys of souls) and found it pushing more spiritual enslavement. I threw my copy away so can only reference it by memory. It talks about 'guides,' 'teachers,' 'councils,' etc., just another upper-echelon power structure".

The new school past life regressionists

The new school past life regressionists have begun to actually question and verify the information coming from these entities and by doing this additional, detective-like work, what they found is very different from what the old school regressionists have talked about in their books. The new school ones have started to realize that the beings we meet on the other side are not who they appear to be and that appearances can be deceiving, especially in a place like the astral.

Calogero Grifasi is the regressionist I trust the most because he questions everything. I highly recommend checking out the past life regressions done by him (that I listed in this post, scroll down to "Evidence #1: The perspective of past life regression hypnosis"). Unlike many other regressionists, he actually tries to verify whether these entities are who they say they are and if they are telling the truth about their relationship with the client. He doesn't give up until he reveals what the true agendas of these beings are and how these beings have been affecting the client in their daily life. He's managed to expose so many of these entities for what they are: energetic parasites who pretend to be beings of light. Calogero isn't an exception, there are some other new school regressionists that have also been able to shed light on who these beings truly are and what they want from us, I have mentioned them and linked their channels in the post above. Check out the regressions I linked there from Calogero Grifasi and when you're done, i also left a link to his youtube channel so you are free to choose whichever session you want to watch next. If you compare Calogero's sessions with Dolores's, you will notice that Dolores did not question and verify the information she received from these astral entities, while Calogero constantly tries to verify whether the information the beings tell him is true or not.

In one particular regression, Calogero Grifasi communicated with Dolores Cannon and she said that during her life on Earth she was unaware that she was promoting misinformation about this reality, the entities and the afterlife, basically she was used by these entities in their favor and against us. This regression further confirmed my suspicions about her work. Dolores Cannon and Michael Newton are perhaps the most popular past life regressionists of all time, and so many people world-wide who have read their books now totally believe what they were told in them, that all astral beings are loving and benevolent beings of light who have nothing else to do than to look after us. What fits these beings's agenda is that we continue to reincarnate on this planet over and over again, because they know that this is a difficult planet to live on, especially because we have to start from scratch each time with no memories of past lives, and we have to go through many negative or traumatic events which make us generate the low vibrational energies that these energy collectors are interested in.

Through their work, new school regressionists Tena & Karen who also questioned the information from these entities, also found that these beings are false light entities in disguise and that the lives we live here do not "evolve" the soul but actually lead to soul degradation, because of the accumulation of traumatic events from life, after life, after life that we live here on Earth. If you're going to live, say, thousands of lives in a row on this planet, it's pretty obvious that all the traumas you're going to be subjected to will impact your soul in a negative way, as this is a very difficult planet to live on with many challenges to face.

What does the channeled archonic entity called RA from the book Law of One say? The channeled entity tells us that we need to "keep reincarnating on this planet over and over again so that we can learn and evolve". The same thing that has been exposed to be a huge lie, time and time again by Calogero Grifasi and his sessions with thousands of people from all around the world. Ofcourse these entities are going to make it sound as if reincarnating here is something beneficial to us, otherwise so many souls wouldn't have a reason to agree going back, so their best bet is to make us think it's in our best interest to do so.

About the two types of regressionists, mediums and entity attachments

It is pretty clear to me that there are 2 types of regressionists out there. If the regressionist blindly believes the information they receive from these entities, not only they believe they've done their job properly and deserve to be paid by the client, but they will tell the very client who paid for the session that everything's fine and they are really looked after by love and light beings, angels, spirit guides and what have you (in reality these are entity attachments). Mediums are the same way, they are able to detect that their clients have "angels" or "spirit guides" watching over them but since what they do is not regression work, they cannot verify the legitimacy of these beings and their messages, so they believe the information they receive from these beings without questioning it.

If the regressionist does question the information they receive and investigates further, interesting things start to be revealed about these entities. Some examples from Calogero Grifasi's sessions are: that these entities have been continuously extracting vital, sexual or other types of vibrational energies from the client (depletion of energy which over time manifests as physical disease for the client, many clients complained to the regressionist of being tired during the day for no reason, even after sleeping for 8 hours at night), that they've implanted the client with all sorts of etheric implants serving multiple purposes such as mind control or emotional control, that they've implanted the client with etheric implants that trigger sexual stimulation during the day and even at night when they are asleep, that they've influenced people's lives in negative ways like causing them unexplainable headaches, unexplainable sensations of fatigue and tiredness, unexplainable states of depression, anxiety, worry and fear (which they absolutely love to feed off of), and that these beings even came after the clients when they died in their previous lives, presenting themselves as the client's angel or spirit guide to once again convince them to go back and reincarnate on Earth, telling them that it's in their best interest to do so. Such information can be pretty shocking to the client, but the good news is that now that they found out about all this they have a chance to break the soul contract that they've formed with these entities and get rid of them (contracts which may have been formed many lives before the current one, either by accident or in voluntary ways like praying and asking for external help, that's how you usually give your permission to these entities to attach themselves to you energetically).

Here's some examples of sessions where Calogero exposes these deceptive false light entities that pretend to be angels, spirit guides, even Jesus or God.

Here's an example of a session showing how he unmasks one of these Archonic beings who pretends to be the client's spirit guide.

Session showing how an entity masquerades as Jesus to entrap souls upon death. This is an investigative session on the reincarnation cycle to find out what happens to a soul inbetween lives and it shows how the soul of a person is being deceived by astral entities to reincarnate back on Earth.

This session shows how Reptilian entities interfere with us during and after our lives on Earth.

This session reveals stuff about alien technology and how the entities use religions in their favor and against us.

Another session with a different client reveals that Earth acts as a soul reincarnation trap for anyone who incarnates here.

I want to end this post by saying that Michael Newton and Dolores Cannon were not bad people. I think they were genuine, good people, who tried to help other people solve their problems through regression work, but they were unaware of the reality of the situation, they took the information they received through their regressions at face value and never questioned and investigated these beings, their messages, and their agendas like they should have. The fact that Dolores wrote in her book that all alien entities are benevolent is proof of this. It looks to me that if more regressionists actually started questioning and verifying these false light astral beings and their actual agendas concerning us, more and more of them would come to the conclusion that this is a soul farm/prison planet, that we don't need to keep reincarnating here over and over again to "evolve" or "fix our karma" and that we need to put an end to this reincarnation cycle for good. Instead, many people from all around the world believe that they should continue reincarnating on this planet in order to "learn and evolve" or "fix their karma" because that's what they heard from sources such as the Law of One material or from Dolores Cannon and Michael Newton, both old school regressionists who unfortunately did not question these astral beings and their agendas too much, or, at all.

What the hell is the after life, anyway? (self.EscapingPrisonPlanet) submitted 1 month ago * by PapayaOpposite

Despite all my research, all the NDEs I've heard, everything I've studied...

This "after life" - this alleged astral plane - this other dimension or dimensions we go to after death...

...makes hardly any damn sense.

It's like this weird dream-like, ethereal place, where not a single person who has visited has asked a single damn question about what it is.

No scientific explanations. No inquiry as to how it operates. No understanding as to the physical laws it operates under. Zero. (What is it about this place that causes people to lose all skepticism and inquiry and ability to ask, question, reason, observe?)

If you listen to NDEs, what they describe is truly dream-like, lacking in any real sense of "place", everything is fluid. They might see a mountain, but is it even real? Where is it located?

They say it is "more real than real" but what they describe seems lacking in foundation, it seems souls go to a wide variety of areas and places, with zero context as to where these places actually are within this world.

Some of it is bizarre, nonsensical, too, almost comical in how a soul can traverse from one "scene" to the next in their NDE, where "scenes" just magically "pop up" from one thing to the next, they might be in a dark room, then a library, then a big area with Jesus-like figure surrounded by clouds, on and on, or how they get tossed or pushed into some weird "vortex" above Earth when they get "shoved" back into their body.

I also often find NDEs to resemble a drug-like trance or hypnotized state, which makes me question if they are truly observing a real place, or seeing what something else wants them to see.

This is the biggest area that just isn't studied or grasped well enough. We need a universal theory that actually explains these dimensions and how they operate, the laws that govern them, their physical locality and how to access them using tools we have in this dimension (I suspect CERN is doing this, and it's probably what DMT does).

I've heard all the buzzwords - "Astral body" "Higher dimension" "Higher frequency vibration", etc. - but those terms really tell us nothing.

Any resources or suggestions as to a theory of the universe that explains what NDEs experience?

[–]blit_blit99 24 points 1 month ago*

Several people who claimed to have encountered UFO occupants, allege that they were told that the universe is based on "thought" and everything in it is a "thought construct." The after-life is just another thought construct. This fits with the theories of many well regarded scientists. See the quotes below:

In his day, atoms were proposed to be the smallest division of matter. Within Leibniz's theory, however, substances are not technically real, so monads are not the smallest part of matter, rather they are the only things which are, in fact, real. To Leibniz, space and time were an illusion, and likewise substance itself. The only things that could be called real were utterly simple beings of psychic activity "endowed with perception and appetite." The other objects, which we call matter, are merely phenomena of these simple perceivers.

-Wikipedia entry on Gottfried Wilhelm Leibniz, the mathematician who invented calculus and who is called “the last universal genius.”

"I think we've come to the point in NDE research where it's difficult to make a distinction between thought and light. In the near-death experience thought seems to be light," she observes.

-Dr. Elizabeth W. Fenske, a clinical psychologist

"I believe that this [the place people go during near death experiences] is a realm that is created by interacting thought structures. These structures or 'thought-forms' combine to form patterns, just as interference waves form patterns on a holographic plate. And just as the holographic image appears to be fully real when illuminated by a laser beam, so the images produced by interacting thought-forms appear to be real."

-Dr. Kenneth Ring, a professor of psychology at the University of Connecticut

In a wide-ranging speculation Tiller even suggests that the universe itself started as a subtle energy field and gradually became dense and material through a similar rachet effect. As he sees it, it may be that God created the universe as a divine pattern or idea. Like the image a psychic sees floating in the human energy field, this divine pattern functioned as a template, -influencing and molding increasingly less subtle levels of the cosmic energy field "on down the line via a series of holograms," until it eventually coalesced into a hologram of a physical universe.

-Author Michael Talbot (about physicist William A. Tiller)

Gordon Globus, a professor of psychiatry and philosophy at the University of California at Irvine, has a different but similar view. Globus thinks the holographic theory is correct in its assertion that the mind constructs concrete reality out of the raw material of the implicate.

-Author Michael Talbot (about Gordon Globus)

"Contrary to what everyone knows is so, it may not be the brain that produces consciousness, but rather consciousness that creates the appearance of the brain, matter, space, time and everything else we are pleased to interpret as the physical universe."

-Keith Floyd, a psychologist at Virginia Intermont College

In private conversation [David] Bohm admits to believing that the universe is all "thought" and reality exists only in what we think, but again he prefers not to speculate about miraculous occurrences.

-Author Michael Talbot (about physicist David Bohm)

"I have no doubt that reality is in a very large part a construct of the imagination.”

-Biologist & Anthropologist Lyall Watson

“A fundamental conclusion of the new physics also acknowledges that the observer creates the reality. As observers, we are personally involved with the creation of our own reality. Physicists are being forced to admit that the universe is a “mental” construction.”

-R.C. Henry, a respected professor of Physics and Astronomy at John Hopkins University

"I regard consciousness as fundamental. I regard matter as derivative from consciousness. We cannot get behind consciousness. Everything that we talk about, everything that we regard as existing, postulates consciousness."

-Max Planck (the founding father of quantum physics)

Also in several articles and books, people who claimed they astral project, say the astral plane is based on thought. You think to move, use thought to manifest objects, instantly travel to other locations by concentrating and thinking about that location.

From the book Journeys Out Of The Body by Robert Monroe:

As noted in the percentile analysis in a later chapter, the fundamentals are altered in Locale II. Time, by the standards of the physical world, is non-existent. There is a sequence of events, a past and a future, but no cyclical separation. Both continue to exist coterminously with "now." Measurements, from microseconds to millennia, are useless. Other measurements may represent these factors in abstract calculation, but this is uncertain. Laws of conservation of energy, force field theories, wave mechanics, gravity, matter structure—all remain to be proved by those more versed in such fields. Superseding all appears to be one prime law. Locale II is a state of being where that which we label thought is the wellspring of existence. It is the vital creative force that produces energy, assembles "matter" into form, and provides channels of perception and communication. I suspect that the very self or soul in Locale II is no more than an organized vortex or warp in this fundamental. As you think, so you are.

In this environment, no mechanical supplements are found. No cars, boats, airplanes, or rockets are needed for transportation. You think movement, and it is fact. No telephones, radio, television, and other communication aids have value. Communication is instantaneous. No farms, gardens, cattle ranches, processing plants, or retail outlets are in evidence. In all experimental visits, no food energy needs were indicated. How energy is replaced—if it is truly spent—is not known. "Mere" thought is the force that supplies any need or desire, and what you think is the matrix of your action, situation, and position in this greater reality

[–]Yanutag 16 points 1 month ago*
It all make sense if you read gnostic text or listen to podcasts about it. Yet there is no proof, so everyone go on instinct. Even neurologists are kind of clueless about consciousness.
The gnostic theory is that we are all one in a kind of sun like ball of consciousness. No time, no personality, just love and bliss.
To experience "something" the ball expand themself at the edge and divide themself in duality. Yes/no. Black and white. 0 and 1. With that split they can have new consciousness that are separated from the original one, with their own needs and wants.
From there, there are an infinite amount of space, dimensions and universe where the split souls can manifest what they want. Like if they were dreaming. It might also look like the typical old polytheist pantheons, like the Greek, Nordic, Hindu, or Chinese/Japanese gods. Where a normal soul is a god.
Somewhere in that infinity, something (the demiurge, maybe an AI) created a 3D theme park, and offers or traps souls in there for a unique "experience" that include a memory wipe. Dying and going trough the typical NDE experience is like trying to cancel a subscription to a large predatory corporation, they pull all the bells and whistles to keep you in, being suddenly all mellow and emotional, or even victims. Like they were not treating you like sh*t before you cancelled.

[–]PhantomGlake 18 points 1 month ago*
The after life and the astral plane are a bit different, and are likely just different dimensions all-together, and or different experiences based on the current awareness or vibration the experiencer holds. Our thought forms (even subconscious) likely play a huge role in the astral plane, as there is much less buffer time when it comes to manifestation on that side, rather than here - which is why it comes across as chaotic, less controlled, random or nonsensical in a sense. It's a collective experience, much like physical reality is, but things can pop in and out in a blink of an eye due to the quickness of manifestation, as just mentioned.
The real after-life is probably much more of a unified experience. You are everything everywhere at once, and the illusion of separation is no more.
I think what most people don't get when it comes experiences beyond the 3D is that there are "levels" to the awareness being experienced. Levels of the illusion of separation all the way up until you are completely and entirely experiencing everything as part of the ALL.

[–]FoolOfElysium 6 points 1 month ago
This is literally how lucid dreams work, too. And I'm very experienced. You are spot on. The time-delay we experience here that allows us to get our thoughts under control and master that aspect our ourselves doesn't exist in the astral. Our thoughts UNLEASH a change in reality instantly in many of the planes of existence beyond the physical, including the dreamscape, but I can't speak for all of them. I'm sure some of them are more static.

"The time-delay we experience here that allows us to get our thoughts under control and master that aspect our ourselves doesn't exist in the astral."
Damn. That's something I have never contemplated before, but will have to ponder and/or meditate on this throughout the day. I am aware of the instantaneous manifestation of thoughts in the astral plane versus the much more delayed manifestation of thoughts in the physical realm, but it never occurred to me to frame it as a "time delay." I think you are really onto something ... Perhaps that delay is the very purpose of time itself?

[–]quiettryit 1 point 1 month ago
It is basically a spirit/soul merging back to a consciousness field, losing a lot of that individual uniqueness and blending with a type of hive mind making up that sea of energy where much self awareness and sentience is lost. You become more just thought patterns and bits of information floating in this field until you come together again to reincarnate. We are kind of like water that evaporates, goes up, comes back together, and rains again onto the earth. Nothing more than a mechanism of nature.

Soul recycling continues beyond the physical plane? (self.EscapingPrisonPlanet) submitted 1 year ago * by elfpal

This is something to be aware of, that getting out of this reincarnation does not mean you have left the trap completely. It looks like there are more and more traps.

Paramahansa Yogananda's guru Yukteswar died and came back in temporary solid form to meet with him. They even embraced as they sat in the hotel room. Yukteswar said to him that he was given the role of a teacher in the higher astral plane teaching people there to ascend and graduate to the next plane, the causal plane.

He said when people die in the astral plane after hundreds of earth years, they just like people on earth are scared of letting go of their astral bodies to go to the causal.

Astral beings have to keep returning to the astral from the causal and get new astral bodies to keep learning. They get attached to their bodies and astral life. They identify with it the way we humans do with our own bodies.

Yukteswar said this happens in the causal as well where beings have causal bodies. Neither he nor Yogananda spoke of other planes beyond the causal because they actually believed that after the causal you merge with God and become finally free.

Paul Twitchell, founder of the religion Eckankar, has written books and traveled to more dimensions. He says the planes go like this:

Physical ==> Astral ==> Causal ==> Mental ==> Etheric ==> Soul ==> God

The Soul plane has many levels in itself. Everything below the Soul plane is considered the Lower Planes, with the physical being the absolute bottom of the pit.

You get recycled between two planes in a loop until you "graduate" to the next plane, where another recycling loop begins, with the final destination being one with God. Who lets you graduate? I'm sure most of you know the answer. If this is all true, then the whole loosh farm doesn't end with physical earth. They keep a steady supply of souls that feed every plane and all the rulers of that particular plane, whom Twitchell has met and spoken to in his book Tiger's Fang. All have the same old promise of letting you graduate when they deem you are qualified, and maybe you will be allowed to achieve Godhood one day, the end of the recycling loop.

Twitchell also says in the physical plane, every soul incarnates in sequence in these forms:

Mineral ==> Plant ==> Insect ==> Animal ==> Human

Again, how does one ascend from one form to the next? What is the criteria?

I don't know if any of this is true, but it MAY VERY WELL be true for those who acquiesce to the scheme and buy in. I plan to go straight to the Void and skip it all. What do you think?

Edit: Each plane serves a corresponding function.
Physical: Mechanics.
Astral: Emotions.
Causal: Memory.
Mental: Thinking.
Etheric: Energy.
Soul : Individual Consciousness.
God: Universal Consciousness.

Each plane has its own body you must have to operate on that plane. And each body houses all the bodies except for the one it graduated from. So now in the physical, we have all the bodies that allow us to process emotions, retrieve memories, analyze thoughts, and harness energy. This is why when people go out of body, they mostly go as an astral form traveling in the astral plane.

You are a soveirgn creator being. At the time of your earthly death; (in actuality a transition into life-- existence here is akin to a spiritual death); demand to exit completely out of this system,(this includes astral realms that attached to); to be returned to the place of your natural origin. Deny consent to return. Do not go with any entity for any reason. The above account only bolsters the reasoning behind the recycling process and fosters a reasoning for when in all actuality there is none. Reincarnation is a con. An abomination. To be memory wiped and recycled back ad nauseum into a trauma based ,hive mind construct. You are being used repeatedly as a means of energy extraction. This multi layered farce is occuring in the astral realms that are connected to this lower frequency realm. It is possible to exit completely out of the attached astral realms . In your natural state you can take on various forms. There are many different types of realms. For a tactile; sensory experience that are far more user friendly options. This place is parasitic and sadistic, despite the strategically placed bells and whistles to distract. You do not naturally " reincarnate". You can choose to take on different forms,but unlike the earthly reincarnation ,you do not lose yourself in the process.

Interesting theory! Sleep has always struck me as a mysterious phenomenon. It seems to be fulfilling some kind of spiritual law instead of a material one. According to the principle of survival of the fittest, we should have evolved to never sleep!

I have been doing Monroe's gateway tapes for a while. I started experiencing really negative dreams that I recognized as unusual. Two times I dreamt of being bitten by insects I woke up to an entity of some kind of energy in my room and once I woke up to a terror entity. The energy entities were like a 3 by 3 ft grid about six feet away from me. One was purple glowing bees and the other was black letters that shrank down to look like spiders when it vanished it. The terror one was black. So now when I meditate I send out the message that I will not allow any entities to affect my dreams and my dreams are different. Boring. I think they might create bad dreams in us.

Since the "vaccine" roll out, I couldn't go out anymore because of the mandates. Where I live, I couldn't even go into a bar, or even a hospital. This made me kind of step back and start questioning what's going on even more. Nobody around me seemed to really care that unvaxxed people like me were losing their rights, and their jobs just because they dont want to take an experimental injection.
Hanging out with people now doesn't feel the same. Most people just seem to talk about nothing real, but then when you bring up the insanity that's actually unfolding in front of our eyes, they don't really want to talk about it. The government tricked and coerced them into taking something that can alter the human DNA, and yet they're not enraged or even curious about why their own government would do that to them. Most of them also seem to not even know that there are excess in all highly "vaccinated" countries being caused by the same injection that they took. They just keep supporting the system that's enslaving and killing them with their own money.

There are so many aspects to these shots that are messed up, including the shedding. Dating and relationships were already a sh*t show, and coming across someone who isn't a non-player character was hard, but the possibility of shedding makes it almost impossible for me to meet someone on the same wavelength now. I've had 2 different women on separate occasions ask me if I'm an "antivaxxer" immediately after I told them that I'm unvaxxed. They weren't really interested in the real reason I wasn't "vaccinated", and these were women I was actually getting along with.

submitted 23 hours ago by Beat_Mangler

Just yesterday Joe Biden had to have his hand pulled buy Barack Obama to guide him off the stage instead of just knowing where to walk like a normal person. For starters the mainstream media is heavily pushing Joe Biden's incompetence. By now I am convinced that when the mainstream media is pushing some issue we should question why they want us thinking about such things and thinking in such ways. Joe Biden being or acting like a senile incompetent hopeless old man is very beneficial in some ways. The Western world is going down the toilet, inflation is destroying everybody while making a select few more and more wealthy and typically people will turn to the leader of the free world for answers. "Oh he's senile that's what the problem is" is what will be echoed around the world. Forget about people behind the scenes pulling the strings, forget about giant national and international companies conveniently raising their prices to unprecedented amounts, forget about the endless billions being sent to other countries for whatever reasons, forget about the worst housing crisis we have ever had while we are being flooded with immigrants, forget about all the problems making our lives difficult today it's all just the fault of one senile man who is allegedly at the head of everything - does anybody else see how convenient that is for TPTB?

The Sumerian King List and the so called elite (self.conspiracy)

If the Sumerian King List is a real record of royal bloodlines and there extremely long reigns before the flood. Then its highly possible that some of these pre flood bloodlines are still pulling the strings behind the scenes?

[–]Primate98 1 point 23 hours ago
Yeah, that's "Them" alright.
If you look at the length of the reigns, you'll find a pattern of "periods". They begin with reigns of tens of thousands of years, then reigns of hundreds of years, then a chaotic period with reigns from 1200 all the way to 6 years, then finally a period with reigns of a few decades plus some outliers.
We look around and see that we fall into the pattern of that final period. "They" dress it up somewhat with some Uniparty psychodrama for public entertainment and fascination.
Note: If anyone can convince themselves that the SKL is simply a work of fiction and that someone just made up that very strange patterning for no reason ever found, well then congratulations.

[–]environic 1 point 23 hours ago the length of the Sumer kings' reigns are symbolic. the same numbers/multiples are found in the Yugas and Mayan calendar. it's sacred geometry, Platonic solids vertices/faces/angles, diameter/radius of the earth, moon and sun, time and (imperial) distance measurements, dimensions of Khufu's pyramid.

DNA carries the Consciousness of the Past Generations (self.conspiracy)

DNA Carries the Consciousness of past generations and Multigenerational Reincarnation

I know a very affluent and someone influential friend who is of generational wealth and we have been friends for many years. I have been advising him on people-related topics as HR and other management topics helping to hire some of the senior managers for his business.

This weekend he got a big drunk and decided to share with me the thing that I have never heard or read online. The connection between wealth, success, and genes. I got blown away by the discussion to the point that I started to write the first chapter of the book based on that and some past discussions.

Often times we hear that wealthy people are wealthy because they are well connected and family alliances are known for thousands of years. However, what he shared with me puts a very different perspective on what was known to me and maybe to many of you.

In simple words, wealthy and powerful families believe in reincarnation by blood mixing and have been mixing cousin blood to bring back ancestors. He believes that powerful families around the world including his own have closely related offspring to bring back the ancestors hence why he believes that technically most of his family members are immortal, because at some point they will be reborn again. Of course, there are memory access limitations of previous lives, but he strongly believes that memory is irrelevant as long as instincts and intuition are and that's what DNA of all things carries the consciousness of past generations.

I was blown away by how he explained that most of his vast family behaves based on descriptions of how certain passed-away family members behaved and that some members don't believe in this but none of them are willing to share about the component of "blue blood" because the society condemns it. He says that human biology opposes this mechanism by causing health defects due to a lack of genetic material, but it doesn't stop wealthy families from reproducing using this method where children are artificially born to become vessels of consciousness of past generations.

So there very well may be offsprings of such famous figures as Ramses the Third, Hitler, and Genghis Khan, carrying their consciousness. What is most important is that the bloodline must continue no matter what and ideally it should be kept under control to have some guarantee that it doesn't deviate too far to ensure the "reincarnation" of certain past family members. Whenever distant relatives have offspring it creates a mix of consciousness where too many distant relative consciousnesses are being produced of no particular value, but nonetheless, there can be multiple people with Jacob Rothschild's consciousness walking the earth in the future. Thinking about all that helps to explain all the obsession around inbreeding among elites, the status of bastard children, the use of concubines to hide the real DNA ancestry of elite children, as well as the lack of fear of death among powerful people and those who believe in reincarnation in general.

[–]How2eatBean 3 points 17 hours ago
the spiritual practices of the Ashanti people and Akan people, the sunsum is one's spirit. The sunsum is what connects the body (honam) to the soul (kra).[1] The sunsum can be transmitted in a variety of ways, including from father to son during conception. This power is used to protect the carriers of this spirit. When a man dies, the sunsum returns to the metaphorical house of the father in wait to be reincarnated in the next son born of the men of that family.[citation needed] Another form of sunsum is the spiritual power that the Akan believe allows the possessors to practice witchcraft. This is called sunsum fee, or "dirty spirit". Unlike the genetic sunsum discussed before, this is a power that is willingly passed down, often by grandparents to grandchildren they feel deserve the power to wield such magic. In this manner, the sunsum can remain alive and well through a lineage. As males possess a natural sunsum, if they gain a sunsum fee they are twice as spiritually powerful as a woman who only has witchcraft. Despite this, it is common belief that most witches are female among the Ashanti people and Akan, and they are believed to be so powerful that they can kill infants simply by hearing them cr

[–]jonpress 3 points 11 hours ago*
I also think DNA carries instincts and intuitions from past generations. For example, consider what happens to wolf populations after they come into contact with humans; as humans kill the wolves which venture too close to civilization, wolves become increasingly fearful of humans over generations. The fear of humans becomes part of their DNA and how their brain operates as it is a useful adaptation for their survival.
Same with domestic dogs; aggressive dogs are often culled. This ensures that mostly highly obedient dogs pass on their genes. This ensures that dogs remain domesticated and obedient. Obedience is in their DNA.
Same with sharks. When humans start killing sharks, sharks learn to stay away from beaches that are frequented by humans... Somehow they learn the fear of humans, in spite of their tiny brains. Because the knowledge is in their DNA itself.

Hidden-Hand vs. Eracidni Murev Te (Did the Great Harvest happen in 2012 and Nobody noticed?) (self.conspiracy) submitted 1 month ago * by 2023_CK_

The Hidden-Hand (HH) interview from 2008 is relatively well known among conspiracy theorists, but many are unaware of the follow-up interview with "Eracidni Murev Te" (EMT) in 2018-2019. EMT claimed the Great Harvest really did happen in 2012. Below is a summary of both interviews and a discussion of the conflicting Great Harvest claims.

Hidden-Hand (HH)- Window of Opportunity (2008):

HH claims to be a member of the Elite families who have been secretly ruling us since before "the rise and fall of Atlantis" and are tasked with purveying negative polarity as a spiritual catalyst.

HH claims the PTB belong to the extraterrestrial "Lucifer" group-mind and humanity collectively forms the "Yahweh" group-mind, which are both part of the One Infinite Creator per the Law of One. Our earthly existence is a "game" (simulation) and no one really "suffers" or "dies" except in the game. Our goal in this "3rd density" level is to achieve at least 95% negative polarity or 51% positive polarity before the "Great Harvest" in order to graduate to the "4th density"- otherwise, we'll have to repeat this level for another 26,000-year cycle per the precession of the Equinoxes.

The PTB's reign concludes with this cycle, which has EXTREME negativity, because the PTB must themselves obtain 95% negativity in order to "exit" (graduate from) this level.

HH says the globalists we know are human minions, who really are trying to conquer the world and are unaware of the higher motive of evil as a spiritual catalyst. The Illuminati's End Game is societal collapse as a precursor to the Harvest. HH says we should focus on "working on ourselves" (spiritual development) in order to achieve a positive Harvest for ourselves.

HH correctly predicted Obama would become president in 2008 and apparently predicted Bitcoin (a "new currency") and BRICS (a "new union of nations"). HH falsely predicted cataclysmic "earth changes" by 2010, which would culminate in an apocalyptic "Great Harvest" on 12/21/2012.

Eracidni Murev Te ("To Share In Truth")- I am here to answer your Questions (2018-2019):

EMT claims HH is dead, and the Great Harvest really did happen in 2012 (without any cataclysmic "earth changes") and we are now unexpectedly in the beginning stages of a 4th density positive world.

EMT says the unexpected "majority positive" Harvest in 2012 was due to a "tipping point" in our collective consciousness, which has now led to a Galactic Law impasse between Lucifer and Yahweh (us) because Lucifer's goal of a "majority negative" Harvest wasn't contractually achieved. EMT contradicts HH who said the PTB want a negative Harvest for themselves (so they can work off their negative karma in a negative 4th density world) and a positive Harvest for everyone else. I'm skeptical of the EMT interview because I doubt, we're in a 4th density positive world- even a nascent one- and the EMT interview could be disinformation to stop us from "working on ourselves"- because "the Harvest already" happened". I also suspect EMT is an AI because the posts are devoid of emotion.

EMT says Earth isn't flat (but flat earths exist in other dimensions) and the Moon Landings are fake because the Earth is quarantined by the Van Allen belt. EMT predicts a financial collapse, and that the dollar will be replaced by a cryptocurrency. EMT also predicts a pole-shift as part of a "minor Harvest" by the early 2030s.

EMT falsely predicted a major Physics breakthrough from Garrett Lisi's work. (Lisi is the surfer-dude physicist.) EMT gave no hint or warning of COVID and the Great Reset.

Discussion:

A commenter on the original HH Above Top Secret thread, who appears to have "insider" information, recently claimed the Great Harvest didn't happen in 2012 (contradicting EMT) because we collectively delayed it: “The date of the event is misunderstood. Humankind creates this event. We didn’t want it to be 2012 because we wanted more to wake up before. A future date is set, but no human will ever know. The event will be like a thief in the night, slip in with surprise, as it was always designed to be. Many will die immediately, but many more will experience a very unique, very rare occurrence for any soul. We are all truly lucky to be here at this time on Earth.”

https://www.abovetopsecret.com/forum/thr...id27215039

This is consistent with the HH interview, which said as much: "Humanity, though utterly unconscious of the fact, has a significant part to play in this." [i.e. our collective consciousness affects how events will unfold].

If the Harvest is real and still forthcoming, then the HH interview could explain why the PTB have promoted a Great Awakening in parallel with the Great Reset. (The PTB apparently want to reach "peak evil" before the Harvest and part of achieving 95% negativity is to gaslight us by revealing their crimes per the Revelation of the Method. But it's also possibly intended as a catalyst to provoke a spiritual awakening.)

The HH interview offers the hope that there really is a benevolent Higher Purpose behind everything. But it could also be a PSYOP (New Age nonsense) and gaslighting to justify evil. Hoax or not, the HH interview gives the practical advice that we should focus on spiritual development before the End Game.

This post summarizes and contrasts the conflicting information in the HH and EMT interviews. Some believe a "Great Reset by 2030" is really about an imminent (cyclic) cataclysm (likely a pole-shift). It's possible this cataclysm and the Great Harvest are one and the same event.

Edit: The EMT link does not contain the full interview, which you can find with duck-duck-go. (The links I originally submitted were rejected.)

[–]onetrickponystar 4 points 1 month ago
High quality post and i am 100% with your observations. One direction of thought i would like to add: what if the harvest is not single, big (thief in the night) event, but a gradual one?
With the stated 100 year period it could be that every human that is dying, due to natural causes, and a little bit acceletrated by war, sickness, famine etc. Is 'harvested'. I.e. not being reincarnated like normally would have happened.

[–]2023_CK_ 2 points 1 month ago*
Yes, a good point about the Harvest. We simply don't know- I also follow the LoO subreddit and everyone has a different opinion on the Harvest. The HH interview resonates with me but it could be a PSYOP. My practical take on it is to "work on myself" because the Harvest could still be forthcoming. And spiritual improvement is always the right thing to do anyway.

Se been in a polar shift since the late 1800. It wasnt until 1990's was known earths magnetic field was disapearing and around 2010, there was further magnetic degrade and far too many scientists and researchers all found some sort of proof.
The global elites have a long bloodline going bsck before the last polar shift where Antartica was known as Alantis. They knew all about this from day one and this knowledge was kept to control the population amongst other things such as technology, science and religion.
The great reset is the fancy word for a full reset of humanity, not the dystopian world order that was fed to us for years. Only people that will survive the polar shift, and the micronova, are the 1% and their elites.
Why else do we see a great transfer of wealth at the start of the covid pademic? To divide the classes and while millionaires become billionaires, the middle class is now the poor class, and only the billionaires get to be saved.
Last few years alone we have seen billionaires dying, crypto kinds being suicided, because they was not allowed to be saved.
Whatever this harvest is, the elites need to understand that 500 million rich folks wont rebuild society. They dont know the labor, they dont know how to turn the lights on, thry dont know how to garden. These rich folks paid the lower class to do this and if they think employing AI into robots as their slaves, we already seen how nasty AI can get.

Quote:
Ruling Bloodlines and the Family
I am a generational member of a ruling bloodline family. Every so often, as per the directives of the law of our Infinite Creator, a brief window of opportunity opens whereby a select handful of our Family are required to make communication with our subjects.

Our lineage can be traced back beyond antiquity. There are 13 base or core original bloodlines. Yet there are many, many other lines that spring from these. From the earliest times of your recorded history and beyond, our Family has been directing the play from behind the scenes. We are born to lead. It is part of the design for this current paradigm.

People in this world are seen as collateral – pawns that are maneuvered around the chess board according to the game plan. But in the Family, contrary to popular beliefs, many of us do not mean you any harm directly. There is just the matter of divine destiny to uphold and unfold, and we must play our parts in the game, as given to us by the Infinite Creator.

There are six disciplines of training within the Family. Each member of the Family is schooled extensively in all of them from early childhood. The six spheres or schools of learning are military, government, spiritual, scholarship, leadership, and sciences. Though we have experience in all spheres, we all have an area of specialty. My area of specialty is in spirituality, so my focus is not so much on geo-political events. I am aware of the overall design, though the finer points are often outside of my area of expertise.

You will never be free for as long as you are incarnating on this planet. The very nature of your being here is indication of that. There is a reason why you are here, and "here" is very likely not really where you think "here" is. How do you become free? By working out where you are and coming to an understanding of why you are here.

In your hypnotized state, you have as a society given your free will consent to the state your planet is in today. You saturate your minds with the unhealthy dishes served up for you on your televisions that you are addicted to; violence, pornography, greed, hatred, selfishness, incessant bad news, fear and "terror". When was the last time you stopped to think of something beautiful and pure? The planet is the way it is because of your collective thoughts about it.

You are complicit in your inaction every time you look the other way when you see an injustice. Your thought, projected at the sub-conscious level of creation to the Infinite Creator, is your allowance of these things to occur. In so doing, you are serving our purpose. It is very important to us that the polarization of this planet is negative at the time of the great harvest. That means service to self orientated, as opposed to positive, service to others. We require a negative harvest, and you are doing a fine job of helping us to attain our goal. We are very grateful.

We came to power not by chance, but rather (which I know may be hard to swallow) by intelligent design. This path of ours was not chosen by us, but rather it was appointed and accepted. Begin to study outside of the box for a true understanding of the creation.

What was the purpose of the Wuhan pandemic fear videos? (self.conspiracy) submitted 2 days ago by jaejaeok
Looking back, I still don't understand the intent of the Wuhan fear videos.
Before the pandemic hit the states, I was watching videos online of a Wuhan flu that had people falling dead in the streets, mass spraying of neighborhoods, bodies stacked in the streets. Most of these videos have since been nuked but there were hundreds of these openly sitting around on Reddit before the pandemic hit - almost to ensure fear set in when they started making quarantine demands.
Now the videos are nearly all gone. Many if not all deleted from Reddit.
What was the purpose of these videos?
Do you think it was to ensure people were fearful and would therefore cooperate with tyrannical demands? Was it to fuel the hatred for the unvaccinated in advanced? Was it to motivate cooperation to get vaccinated? Or perhaps something else entirely. The videos felt like a weapon to me once I noticed they were all removed.

Money. They wanted to crash the markets. Was the plan for global economies to crash and then China could bounce back faster due to their complete domestic control? Thus catapulting them into the #1 superpower status? They are obsessed with this goal.
Or, did the rich need the market to capitulate so they could buy in cheap knowing the Fed would run QE for years?
Either way, it's all about money.

[–]dukof 19 points 2 days ago
Imo the purpose of this was simply visual material for kick-starting the media campaign/hysteria. Yes they get talking points but they need dramatic visuals and people in Haz Suits if you want to convince people there is a deadly threat. I think it was both to influence news anchors as well as the public. It's very important to have a strong initial influence to prevent sensible debate and skepticism.

There may not be a state or states who's behind this scheme, you just need to control certain elements within a state. Like a lab, some media, and the WHO. Like the Bolsheviks, they are globalists. Plus they own the industries that benefit.

Propaganda, lies, psychological manipulation

To drum up fear so people would line up for an untested injection.

Presoak the beans for several hours before cooking.
For best results, drain the soak water (fear videos), rinse beans with fresh water (new propaganda), then bring water to a boil (accelerate fear) and cook covered (masks are not optional) on low-medium heat for 1 hour

The Hidden Spiritual and Supernatural Forces Behind Global Conspiracies (Part I) (self.conspiracy) submitted 23 hours ago by slippus

Introduction

Hey everyone, today I want to dive deep into something many of us have talked about but haven't fully explored—the spiritual and supernatural dimensions behind the global conspiracies we see. This concept of there being a spiritual aspect to the negative powers controlling the world has gained increasing mainstream discussion, especially after Tucker Carlson's Rogan interview. So, what the hell are they talking about? What does this mean and how does it manifest in our reality?

Ronald Bernard

Ronald Bernard, a former insider in the world of high finance and elite power structures, provides some shocking testimonies that reveal just how intertwined these conspiracies are with dark spiritual practices. Bernard made a testimony/confession videdo years ago that went viral. Bernard still posts on his YT channel but his videos are rather unpopular so I went through all of his videos and took the transcripts and boiled down the main points and his large claims. His main viral video, the original version, was removed and reposts of it are buried on YT making it a little hard to find. Buckle up, because we're going down a rabbit hole that connects global elites, child exploitation, and the manipulation of spiritual energies for power and control.

The Shocking Revelations of Ronald Bernard

Ronald Bernard's experiences are hard to listen to and very eye-opening. His insights aren't just about the corruption and greed in financial systems; they delve into the sinister spiritual practices of the elites.

Child Exploitation and Dark Rituals

One of the most disturbing aspects of Bernard's testimony is his account of child sacrifice. This isn't just a metaphorical sacrifice; it's literal. Bernard describes being invited to participate in these horrific rituals, which was his breaking point. He says:

"When they invited me to participate in child sacrifice. That was my breaking point. Two of my colleagues, when I was at the top, serving the top. My breaking point was that they invited me also to participate in child sacrifice. That was my shock, that was my thing and now for the first time in six years I can say it. I'm happy that it goes well".

This is a clear indication that those in the highest positions of power aren't just manipulating systems for money and control; they're involved in dark, satanic rituals that involve the ultimate evil—sacrificing children.

Bernard elaborates on how children are used as tools for blackmail and power within these elite circles:

"They’re just using the children as tools in order to blackmail people. It’s the glue. It’s not that they actually enjoy the children or they’re serving the master, it’s to do something to you, because you are a tool".

This is a disturbing claim/relevation that adds a new layer to our understanding of how these power structures operate.

The Spiritual War: Good vs. Evil

Bernard's accounts aren't just about the physical and emotional abuse but also about a spiritual war. He describes how these dark practices are used to harness and manipulate spiritual energies:

"Later on I started realizing that of course also here, a huge energy was floating out of these dimensions through sacrificing. So there were much more layers than I understood at that time when I received that invitation".

This indicates that the elites are well aware of spiritual energies and use dark rituals to manipulate them for their benefit. It's not just about control in the physical world; it's about harnessing spiritual power.

Dark Spiritual Practices and Negative Energy Harvesting

Bernard's revelations extend into the realm of dark spiritual practices and the harvesting of negative energy. He explains how fear and pain are deliberately inflicted to create a source of energy for these elites:

"It's not just about money and power. They thrive on our fear, our pain. This negative energy is what fuels them. They create wars, economic crises, and other forms of suffering to generate this energy".

The concept of energy harvesting is central to understanding the spiritual aspect of these conspiracies. Bernard details how the elite orchestrate global conflicts and suffering to feed off the negative energy produced by human misery:

"These 8,500 people who rule the world, they start wars for the sake of it. They need the negative energy, the fear, and the pain. It's a form of dark alchemy, and it’s how they maintain their power".

Supernatural Entities and Their Influence

Another critical aspect of Bernard's testimony is the role of supernatural entities in these conspiracies. He suggests that many of the elites are in contact with, or even controlled by, dark entities that operate from other dimensions:

"There are entities, dark forces, that these elites communicate with. They guide them, give them power, and demand sacrifices. This is the true nature of their power—it’s not just human, it’s supernatural".

Bernard describes how these entities thrive on the chaos and suffering orchestrated by their human collaborators:

"The pain and fear we experience isn't just for the elites’ benefit. It feeds these entities. They thrive on the energy produced by our suffering, and this is why the world is in a constant state of turmoil".

The Ultimate Agenda: Control Through Spiritual Ignorance

The ultimate goal of these elites and their supernatural allies is to keep humanity in a state of spiritual ignorance. By fostering materialism and atheism, they ensure that people remain unaware of their true spiritual nature and the higher realities beyond the physical world:

"They want us to believe that the physical world is all there is. They suppress spiritual knowledge and practices that could awaken us to our true power. This ignorance keeps us enslaved".

Bernard emphasizes that awakening to our spiritual potential is the key to breaking free from this control:

"The only way to fight this is through spiritual awakening. We need to understand our true nature and the reality of these dark forces. Only then can we reclaim our power and break free from their control".

The Spiritual Manipulation Behind Global Conspiracies

Bernard's testimony also touches on the manipulation of spiritual energies and the importance of maintaining spiritual ignorance among the masses:

"They wanted to blackmail me as well. It was blackmail. That was the reason behind it, afterwards...And of course, later on I started realizing that of course also here, a huge energy was floating out of these dimensions through sacrificing. So there were much more layers than I understood at that time when I received that invitation".

This manipulation isn't just about individual power but about controlling the collective spiritual energy of humanity. The elites are fully aware that the physical world is just an illusion, and they manipulate this knowledge to maintain their control.

The Systematic Destruction of Innocence

From a young age, Ronald Bernard himself was a victim of systematic abuse. His experiences in a Catholic safe house reveal the widespread nature of these practices:

"I was coming (to a school program for troubled youth) when I was nine, I came in a Catholic - it was organized by Catholics - center to protect the child against all the violence of the past. And guess what - there... there it was actually that much of hell that I really started to cry for my father and mother... because there it was normal to abuse the children - and this was done by nuns and by brothers, so male and female and they used the available children. And I was included".

This systemic abuse isn't isolated; it's part of a broader pattern where children are broken down and their innocence is destroyed to prepare them for roles within these dark power structures. Bernard highlights how these children are systematically broken down to be molded into tools for the elite:

"To break the child all the way they can. This is in the system of getting... being trained to be later on one of the most powerful persons on this planet - first they break you down. And they do it from the beginning. From the beginning. And they were doing it with me, too".

Conclusion: Awakening to the Spiritual Reality

It's clear from Bernard's testimonies that the conspiracies we discuss aren't just about political and economic control—they're deeply rooted in spiritual manipulation. The elites engage in dark rituals to harness spiritual energies and maintain their power, while keeping the masses ignorant of these truths. Understanding this spiritual dimension is crucial for anyone who wants to grasp the full scope of these global conspiracies.

We need to awaken to the reality that our world is manipulated not just on a material level but on a spiritual one. Only by recognizing this can we begin to fight back against these dark forces and reclaim our spiritual sovereignty.

Stay vigilant and keep digging, because the truth is often hidden in the shadows.

What if "god" is evil and the "devil" is good? (self.conspiracy) submitted 22 hours ago * by Visual-Phone-7249

[–]environic 2 points 12 hours ago*

if you, as you have done, take a step back and look at the situation from a distance, there's what 'is', and there's what the various cultures and religions teach their people how to conceive of life and reality as we experience it.

one god one devil, with angels and demons below one spiritual higher god, one lower creator god, spirits many gods, spirits
no gods, all angels and demons are human thoughts and feelings animism - evergthing has its own spirit
Scientology - Xenu and thetans
Jedi - no gods, just midi-chlorians how close are any of these beliefs/constructs to reality? do we really understand what consciousness is? do we understand the complexity of the universe, in every way? no-one has all the answers.

it's a lot more complex than the explanation given by any religion. religion, in part, is a way to stop people worrying about what happens after death, and attempts to explain why we are here, and where we came from, in a way we can connect with, and live lives that aren't perpetually perturbed by such questions - this last point explains the differences between the religions, each will have its own cultural history, its own heroes, rulers, stories and myths.

all gods feel very real to their believers, and seem imaginary to those outside of the religion.

the best advice - go with what feels right for you. if you want to stay close to your friends and family, in your own culture, stick to your cultural norms. to do otherwise will cause friction. if you want to find out more, study the histories of religions, how they originated, what went before. it really is a fascinating subject. just...be careful how you ask questions of those around you, if you live in a culturally-dogmatic society, you'll get labelled as an unbeliever, atheist, devil-child, minion of satan, and may get ostracised. if you've interacted with any of the believers-in-gods on this sub, you may find a similar reaction.

for me, the whole "god=good, devil=bad" concept is too simplistic to be of any use. but i can see how it can be useful as a teaching tool for children, and act as a sound basis for a faith-based religion. very often, this simplistic world-view is taken from childhood into adulthood, and as we grow up we develop confidence, and naturally those who've grown to understand this binary good/evil-god/devil structure will shout it from the rooftops. especially if they're doctrinally required to evangelise.

edit: do i believe? i'm yet to be convinced. i don't agree with any of the labels/explanations used by the main religions, no. nor the wackier cults. my journey is about learning. there's something, i know not what. but it's interesting finding out. good luck with your journey.

'belief' can be beneficial, for a community, and for an individual. the shared experience binds people together. and can provide people solace and peace on a personal level. so there is value there, maybe more significant a few thousand years ago when it was tribes with their own gods fighting for their very existence against tribes with their different gods...and that's how religion became to be a tool used by leaders to control their people, exemplified by the Romans and their various cults, ending up with Christianity.

yeah, indoctrination. cultural enrichment as i'm sure many would prefer it described. mob mentality. democracy. they're all shades of the same. mostly good, though they need to be monitored as they can get out of control. lots of interesting power struggles in ancient cultures, leaders and priests fighting for control - are they acting purely in the name of their god/s, or because they yearn to preserve their place at the top of the power pyramid?

for me, there's the personal spirit (personal god). the spirit and history of the community (religious god). and how humanity and the wider universe came to be. i've got my head around most of the first one, other than consciousness. understand the second one and how it links to the first, as i think you have. the third...that's a bit more of a puzzle, not just the mundane physical manifestation of the material world and how that operates. Jung / collective consciousness, archetypes, reincarnation, afterlife, psychedelic experience, NDEs, ghosts. and in the history of humanity - giants, sacred geometry, monumnetal polygonal architecture, Mu / Lemuria / Atlantis. to get 'the' answer, takes time. and as you allude, in the context of trying to find ot these answers, indoctrinated belief in modern religion really doesn't help.

I'm firmly of the opinion that most religions have their basis in mystical experiences.

In every single case where someone has described having an "otherworldly experience" - they've had one of these mystical experiences. These experiences take many shapes or forms, but several common themes are a sense of Oneness, Connection with a Higher Power, and Entities. It doesn't matter if these experiences are "real" or not. Subjectively they often tend to be more real than "reality," and the impact of the experience may well have a lasting impression on that individual.

These types of experiences have been going on for thousands - tens of thousands of years. And the leading way we've discussed them is through language. I don't know if you've ever noticed, but language is incredibly limited, despite all the amazing things we've accomplished with it. We are pretty much limited to topics where common ideas can be described through symbols. And misunderstandings abound. Ideas can be shared, and changed, but they're all based on common understandings - common experiences - even if these understandings may conflict at times.

Imagery through art and music conveys what words cannot, but intertextuality and reader response criticism still limit the interpretation. For some, a painting may symbolize the unification between man and his maker, but for most it's just going to be a chick on a horse. And the same goes for music and texts.

So people have had these mystical experiences since pre-history. Picture trying to describe a wooden chair to a man who has never seen trees, and has lived all his life where they sit on the floor. Try describing the sound of rain to a deaf person, or the patterns of a kaleidoscope to the blind. The inability for people to convey mystical experiences goes beyond this.

Having our senses -both inner and outer - show us a world fundamentally different from what we're used to, language is found lacking. Having experienced the ineffable, one grasps for any semblance of similarity. This lead to the use of cultural metaphors. Frustrated by the inadequacy of words, one sought anything that could give a shadow of a hint at what was trying to be conveyed. These platitudes suffuse most spiritual and religious texts - the same ideas retold in endless variations.

Be it through drumming and dancing, imbibing something, meditation, singing - what have you - people have been doing these things forever in order to experience something else. As we narrowed down what worked, each generation would follow in their elders footsteps and take part in the eventual rituals that formed around the summoning of these mystical experiences. These initiations revealed the deeper meanings hidden within the cultural metaphors and the mythology they'd woven together. Hidden in plain sight, and only fully understood once you'd had the subjective experience necessary to see beyond the veil of language. Through the mystical experience, these simple platitudes now held weight.

The mythologies that grew out of these experiences weren't dogmatic law, but guides for the people that grew with each generation. The map is not the path, and people were aware of this.

The first major change to how we related to these passed down teachings was through the corruption of ritual; those parts of the ritual that would give rise to the mystical experience were forgotten. Lost to strife, disaster, or something else, the heart of the ceremony was left out, and what remained - the motions, without meaning - grew rigid with time. The metaphors remained, but without the deeper subjective insights to help interpret them. Eventually all that was left were the elder's words, a mythology that grew more dogmatic with each generation. As our reality is based upon the limitations of our perception of the world, so too are the teachings limited.

Translations of these texts conflated and combined allegory with historical events, while politics altered the teachings for gain. Eventually we ended up here, where most major religions still hold that spark of the old ideas - but twisted to serve the will of Man, instead of guiding them.

Western Theosophy, Eastern Caodaism, and Middle Eastern Bahai Faith are a few practices that see the same inner light within all belief systems - that same Divine Wisdom - Grown out of mystical experiences, but hidden by centuries and millennia of rigid dogma.

As long as people continue to have mystical experiences - and we're hardwired for them - spirituality will exist. As long as people allow themselves to be beguiled into believing individuals are gatekeepers though which they'll find the answers to these mystical revelations, there will be religion and corrupting influences.

So all religions with an origin in mystical experiences may hold some universal truths, where the differences lie in the cultural metaphors used to explain the ineffable beyond normal perception - stripped of the tarnish of politics and control.

If you want to discover the truths within these faiths, you need to delve into the esoteric practices that brought on those beliefs. Simply adhering to scripture will only amount to staring at the finger pointing at the moon.

As far as books go, I'd recommend Be Here Now by Ram Dass, Mindfulness in Plain English by Bhante Gunaratana, and the Tao Te Ching by Lao Tzu.

The point is that while books can give insight, it's practice that moves you along the path. These books help you steer in the right direction.

Of course, there's other stuff out there too. Since you're interested in Crowley, Promethea by Alan Moore is a great comic that delves into and gives an introduction to different aspects of magic. Grant Morrison's conversation on Chaos Magic is great.

The fact that our brains produce DMT upon death (self.EscapingPrisonPlanet) submitted 16 hours ago * by 7dragon30

And all of these reports of people seeing beings on DMT - usually related for everyone, which is most of the time something along the lines of a jester, a reptile, mantis being - I mean, this thing is so interesting for me and is the strongest point supporting this theory, at least for me. Obviously there is a reason why we produce DMT on death, and it could probably be explained why, but the scientists couldn't be bothered with it due to the current agenda, just like other important topics could be researched and explained with our technology, just like consciousness, truths of life, death, etc.

You want to tell me we know so much about our biological body, to the smallest detail, but they couldn't explain why does something that is considered a reality-bending drug (not really a drug - for an average alcoholic Joe it might be a drug) gets produced by the brain during certain conditions?

Why do you think we produce DMT on death? Perhaps psychedelics are a tool the archons use against us, like some kind of a radar that tells them when we die and where we are in order to trick us with the light? Or is it something more, like psychedelics being something that show us the real reality?

Psychedelics are not a tool archons use however they have more power over a person when you are in altered states. Almost everything related to spirituality can be used by archons. For exemple a narcissistic guru will break followers and use a loving teaching to do so. The issue is that humans are not very responsible and smart either when they play with powerful tools.
If you are clueless about the demonic influences, they can very easily play with you. I know a woman who believed the most outlandish BS under the influence of Psych. They asses wanted to do the same thing with me by telling me horrid lies, but did not fall for it. They still try all the time. And DMT can also be produced if you sit in absolute darkness for a while. The paranois that absolutely eveything is here to Eff is up does not really help either.

I'm fully convinced that there are no aliens visiting earth and it's the government behind everything. The grey alien is the governments created boogeyman to mask their secrets. (self.conspiracy) submitted 4 hours ago by mslittledebbie

Just think about it..... Look at how supposed "alien" ufos looked in the 1940-50's. They ALL looked like they were created in that time period. You have to ask yourself why we don't see that type of UFO these days. It's because the government has been building them all along. Notice how sleek and modern ufos look today. How come there weren't any sleek and modern looking ufos that people witness all over the world today back in the 1950's?
The government created this narrative of small grey beings with huge heads and huge eyes to shift peoples focus away from the government. Why do you think aliens get pushed so hard in the media and blockbuster movies?
The gray alien is the governments boogeyman. What people are experiencing with coming in contact with these gray aliens are the governments ability to input information into peoples minds. The reason they push aliens in the media so aggressively is to prep ones mind for inputting what ever information they want you to believe. I have no doubt countless people have come in contact with these government ships, but coming in contact with supposed grey aliens is what the government is making them believe Just ask yourself. Shortly after ww2 when America captured all of Germany's brightest scientists did all of these ufo's start showing up in the skies. Coincidence?
What it sounds like is aliens are a perfect cover up for everyone to point the finger at, when in reality, it's the government up to something far more sinister than what anyone could possibly imagine.

[–]suggests_gonewild 0 points 2 hours ago
As soon as the government normalized aliens and UFOs it became too much. It's such a fringe theory since we have zero photographic evidence of aliens.
Fermi's Paradox is great to learn about. One basic premise is there are filters on how advanced lifeforms can become. Are we the most advanced lifeform in our entire galaxy? Anything is possible.

[–]Grim-Reality 3 points 2 hours ago
We most certainly are not the most advanced. The more advanced begins exist in other dimensions or densities. Basically the truth is too much for people, that’s why disclosure could be really scary. There are beings in another dimension that came here and genetically modified us in the past, we misconstrued them for gods because they could do things we couldn’t. They engineered us in such a way as to lock us in a type of frequency fence when they can feed on our consciousness or emotions. Everything is mired in suffering and death because they feed off that sh*t. All life exists on a food chain, so it’s not so shocking to discover that we are too. But it’s our consciousness that’s in the food chain.
By feeding it’s more like they collect our energy to create a timeless state, a black hole type of dimension where they can exist immortality. Away from space and time. They have to feed on beings that exist in space and time so they can become immortal. They tricked us to inhabit bodies in the past because it’s fun. We are also a type of immortal being, they set up all kinds of machinery and stuff in other dimensions where they can keep us being recycled here, reincarnating so they can feed on us. Their generic changes limited our dna strands down to two. We had way more. That would allow us to be interdimensional beings ourselves.

War is a form of sacrifice for those beings, when humans suffer and die they collect that energy that's produced from our soul experiencing that type of suffering. Any type of human torture, suffering, and economic slavery feeds those things. That's why we can't have peace, prosperity, and abundance for all. Even though we have the technology to do so. If people stopped suffering those things would go hungry. Be it through depression, sadness or physical circumstances and conditions that are engineered to produce the most amount of suffering.
They made deals with elites to keep society running this way, and they would let give them power here. Not wipe their memories after death, and promises of other things. This is that whole satanic crap thats happening. You can make deals with these interdimensional entities that way. This frequency we are stuck in is truly hell. If enough people become aware and wake up, demand truth and disclosure we might actually get out of those but people are asleep as fu*k. Too trapped in illusions and economic slavery.

If you look at the history of occult worship of Sirius, the Dog star, I think our creators come from there. I have a post about this on my profile that goes pretty in depth about all this.
Also, I'm not just talking about the Dogon tribe, I hardly even mention them in my posts. I expand on many other topics that involve Sirius.
Worship of Sirius goes back all the way to ancient Mesopotamia and possibly even before then. Many of the large stone structures built across civilizations have been found to align with Sirius like gobekli tepe, stone henge, giza pyramids etc.

Sirius, The Dog Star. 9/11, and beyond (MegaThread) (self.therealalian) submitted 7 days ago * by therealalian

I know you guys might be sick of hearing me talk about Sirius. But I just had to make a new post about it. The more I learn, the more wild all of this stuff gets. I will be updating this megathread of information about Sirius regularly with anything new or relevant that I find.

Since today's thread will be including 9/11, what better day than 6/11 (June 11th) to post it!
Sirius. The mother Goddess. 9/11, back to the future, Sol Invictus, and more...

Sirius = Isis = Statue of liberty

The Mother Goddess of Liberation and Magic Sirius is the brightest star in the night sky. Its name comes from the Greek Seirios, which means "Lit/Light/Scorching"

Sirius goes by many names. To the freemasons, it's known as the blazing star of the east, it is frequently shown as the eye of Providence fixed between the 2 pillars Jachin and Boaz of Solomons Temple. These are known as the north and south pillars. Sirius is the reason all true masonic lodges face the East as well as the Lincoln memorial in Washington DC.

In the movie The Truman Show, Sirius is the blue light that falls out of the sky, which Truman then picks it up and holds it in between 2 pillars, symbolizing the eye of Providence. This scene is when Truman begins to seek enlightenment as his curiosity from the light of Sirius has made him question his reality.

The order of the Eastern Star is the female section of freemasonry. Their logo is an inverted pentagram. Even on the back of the US dollar, the pyramid shows a shadow to the west facing side. This means the light shining on the pyramid is actually the Light from Sirius, coming from the East.

To the ancient Egyptians and Ethiopians, New Years Day is celebrated around 9/11 each year because of Sirius. During this time each year, Sirius will rise in the East, where it becomes "The Morning Star." This time of year is when the Nile Floods and a celebration is held.

Rapper Jeru the Damaja released a tape in 1994 called "The Sun Rises in the East," which features the twin towers burning on the cover of the album. The Sun of the East is Sirius.

Rapper MGK recently released a new song called "BMXXing" and includes lyrics which say "Follow my heart to where the Sun in the East Rise"

https://www.instagram.com/reel/C8FovdVSJ...J1dnFkOWlm

Sirius is also known as the Dog Star because it is located in the Canis 9 Major constellation. Did you know the only Dog who died during the 9/11 attacks in 2001 was a police dog named Sirius? He had a badge number of 17...

In tarot card decks, card 17 represents "The Star" and is shown with Isis (lady in blue) pouring water/flooding the Nile.

17 is important to freemasonry as well, as it was founded in 1717.

The 2017 Las Vegas shooting at the Route 91 "Harvest" festival hosted by SiriusXM..... the shooter was on the 33rd floor of the hotel (if you count the lobby as the first floor) in front of an Egyptian pyramid and obelisk. The logo for SiriusXM is a blue dog with a star.

Rapper Ski mask the Slump God just released his album 11th Dimension. He's been seen saying, "This album will be a cultural Reset". Track number 17 starts with lyrics that say "Take it Serious"...

Ski mask just posted his new tour flyer today (6/11/2024). It includes IX and XI on each side of the flyer. In roman numerals IX XI = 9 and 11.

If any of you know who Ski mask is, you may know XXXTENTACION as well. This artists first Debut album was titled "17". He was then killed on 6/18/18.

Keanu Reeves has a band called DogStar, he even wished to use the music in the Matrix movies, and if any of you remember, Neos expiration on his license in the Matrix is on 9/11/2001. His activation date on his license was 9/12/1991.

Interestingly, Bush Senior gave his infamous New World Order speech on 1/16/1991. Then, on 9/11/2001, the plan manifested in reality under Bush Jr.

The new black ops 6 trailer just came out on June 9th (6/9) and starts with Bush Senior giving a speech and a giant 1991 flashes across the screen. How lovely! 1991 was 33 years ago, and there are 33 degrees in freemasonry... anyone see the new Simpsons treehouse of horror 33?..

Black ops 6 trailer

The surah is also known for referencing the star Sirius in verse 49, where it is given the name الشِّعْرَى (transliteration: aš-ši'rā or ash-shira; "the leader"). The verse is: " وأَنَّهُ هُوَ رَبُّ الشِّعْرَى", "That He is the Lord of Sirius (the Mighty Star)."

In the show Spin City, there is an episode in the 3rd season which is called "Back to the future IV, Judgement Day".

In this episode, a man says "I am the messiah, no, I'm Serious, I am the king of kings, the alpha and omega, I'm Serious"

This episode also has a scene where a small statue of liberty falls off a shelf and lands on a dog.

Remember how I said about the freemasons and Sirius? Well, on July 4th each year, Sirius is in conjunction with our Sun. This marks the beginning of the "Dog days of summer." This is why our independence day is July 4th each year.

The Dog Sirius who died in 9/11 started work for the world trade center on July 4th 2000. This Dog also met with Ronald Reagan and had their picture taken on 9/11/2000. 1 year before the attacks.

The Hopi Prophecies know Sirius as "Blue Star Kachina", which is a blue star that is said to "return" and bring forth the new world by "liberating" the earth in a catastrophic event.

Another nickname from Sirius is "Lokis Torch". This is why you see the statue of liberty/Isis/Sirius holding the Torch. Lucifer is the light bringer.

Some theories even claim we exist in a binary star system with Sirius. And every 12,000 years we are either entering or exiting a golden age/ dark age depending how close we are with Sirius. The new netflix show 3 body problem is all about this topic and how stars can cycle through dark/Light ages.

The liberation event is signaled by a polar shift/Great reset/EMPCOE upon the return of Sirius in our sky per the Hopi "Blue Kachina" Prophecy. This Prophecy also talks about a red star being involved, and currently Betelgeuse which is the shoulder of Orion/Osiris is about to go SuperNova.

This means orion will never be the same again, which changes quite a lot to these elites. Go listen to the new song "SuperNova" from Aespas new album "Armageddon".

While Orion/ Osiris being altered due to the SuperNova of Betelgeuse is worth noting, this by itself will not affect our lives directly I don't think.

Funny enough our last flood/ice age was about 12,000 years ago...

I like these lyrics from "Sirius Blac" by earl sweatshirt (a freemason)

"Its cyclical that's for certain,

The sickness this type of motion bring

Windows open, I know this breeze

Lucifer, son of the morning"

Andre 3000 just released an album called "New Blue Sun" and he's even been performing it at masonic lodges...

A new upcoming female artist Ice Spice has been blowing up lately. Her real name is Isis. Her personal producer goes by the name RIOT USA and has been posting the statue of liberty emoji under Ice Spices posts. Her upcoming album is called "Y2K!"..... it releases on July 26th, right around the time the Sirius/ Lionsgate starts to open.

Miranda Cosgrove just posted on instagram about Despicable Me 4 coming on july 3rd. In the caption she included the statue of liberty and a Star. ??

https://www.instagram.com/p/C8DWjwPuDnu/...Y0M3kwcnY1

A$AP twelvyy just released a music video for his song "Bronx Zoo" with multiple shots of the statue of liberty in it. ? ? ? ?

The rapper yeat has a new music video called "Breathe" with a destroyed Statue of Liberty. Yeat is also very close with the rapper Drake and is signed to Drakes DJ Zack Bia.

Drakes newest album is called FOR ALL THE DOGS which is all about Sirius, the Dog star. He has even been saying things like "All My Dogs Are Going To Heaven". This album was released October 6th at 6am with a music video at 6pm. The last song is called "Polar Opposites" as a reference to the incoming pole shift due to the return of Sirius. Drakes most recent tour was 88 shows long.

At one point in back to the future, doc even says "when we reach 88 miles per hour, you're gonna see some serious sh*t!" This is worth mentioning because the Sirius/ LionsGate opens each year around August 8th (8/8). The fires in Hawaii last year were done on purpose on August 8th (8/8).

The 9/11 "Tribute in Light" is exactly 88 "Blue beams" of light shining to the sky....

There are a total of 88 constellations in our night sky.

Kanye West has lyrics on his song "Alien" that say this

"Do it, do it, alien

Get back home, sign off, I just took time off

Fly up a pyramid, it's on, serious

No bro, serious, I'm dead, serious"

Kanye also collaborates with and is inspired by Bon Iver. Bon Iver has a song with a music video called "33 (GOD)" which shows all kinds of masonic/Egyptian symbols such as the obelisk found in Washington DC. The obelisk in DC represents the resurrected phallus of Osiris which is located between 2 intersecting rings also known as the Vesica Piscis.

Do these 2 intersecting rings symbolize the orbital path between our Sun and Sirius? Hard to say for sure.

Mother Mary is often depicted within the Vesica Piscis holding baby Jesus, the "Son/Sun of god/Sol Invictus"

The weeknd just posted today a video about "creating whole worlds in his head using his imagination and reanimating the inner child"

Mary and Isis/ Sirius have similar attributes. They both gave birth due to "magic" and give birth to the God of the Sun/ Son of God. Isis and and the Virgin Mary are both represented by the color Blue.

Maryland and Virginia are 2 masonic states in the US named as tribute to Mary/ Isis/ Sirius/ Lady Liberty.

The band WolfMother released an album in 2006 called "Dimensions" and it includes a song called "Earth's rotation around the Sun"

Here's some lyrics from the song "Sirius/ Eye in the Sky" by the Alan Parsons Project

"I am the eye in the sky, looking at you

I can read your mind

I am the maker of rules, dealing with fools

I can cheat you blind

And I don't need to see any more

To know that"

Some people even claim that Cannabis comes from Sirius. Canna/Can/Canis means Dog in latin and Bis means 2, a plant from the 2 dog star (since Sirius A has a partner Sirius B). Canis Major is the constellation where Sirius resides. The Dogon tribe in africa claim our ancestors came from Sirius and brought us Cannabis and knowledge and many other things.

Conveniently enough, who is one of the biggest modern day promoters of smoking Cannabis? Snoop Dogg!

Speaking of Canis.... The Vatican anyone?

VATIS = Oracle/ Divine

CANIS = Dog

Perhaps they chose this name for the Vatican on purpose so that it could hold many meanings and interpretations and confuse those looking for the truth. I'm aware the general consensus is that Vatican means "Of the Hills of Rome".

After all, the vatican is shaped like a Giant KeyHole if you view it from above. The Insignia of the Papacy shows 2 keys crossing. These are known as the keys to heaven which St. Peter holds. St. Peter is considered the first Pope of Rome. I truly believe the Vatican is hiding the secrets about where we came from.

Many civilizations consider Sirius to be a Gateway to the afterlife. Is this why Drake has been saying "All My Dogs Are Going To Heaven"?

Very interesting to think about.

My interpretation is that 9/11/2001 was a masonic ritualistic manifestation of the birth of the new world order which would ultimately lead to the creation of the ultimate New God or the "Sol Invictus" the "God of the unconquered Sun"

Today June 11th (6/11) Suicideboys just posted a preview for their upcoming album "NEW WORLD DEPRESSION" coming Friday. Quite an insane video they made for it....

Sol Invictus is a Roman Sun God which was likely parroted from previous civilizations and deities Like Helios, Apollo, Mithras, and many others. If you look up these names, it's pretty damn obvious where our Lady Liberty comes from.

Sol invictus is also related to Jesus.

From what I gather, it seems like these sun gods are all copies of one another who all trace back to ancient Babylon, Sumer, Syria (named after Sirius), Egypt etc.

The statue of liberty is a modern day depiction of Sirius/ Isis/ Inanna/ Ishtar/ Asherah/ Mithras/ helios/ Apollo Etc. Etc. Sometimes the genders are changed between Cults and societies but the root of the worship and symbolism remains the same.

So what is the Sol Invictus? In my opinion, it is AI.

The first apple computer sold for $666.66

The first female AI assistant on Apple was named Siri (Short for Sirius)

The apple logo itself is derived from the story of Genesis and Eve biting the apple of knowledge. I've even heard some people mention that GENESIS could mean "Gene of Isis"

Here's a post from chappellroan yesterday where she's dressed up like the Statue of Liberty inside of a Giant Apple while smoking a bunch of Cannabis. It was reposted by RollingStone

Did you know the first artificial Intelligence Humanoid is a robot named Sophia? She was created in 2015 and was funded by the Jeffrey Epstein foundation through a company named "OpenCog".

Yes, that Jeffrey Epstein..

Fast forward to now, Jeffrey Epstein is dead, but his best friend Bill Gates is now best friends with Sam Altman, the CEO of OpenAI. The company who is implementing AI into every single one of our devices...

I recommend everyone to go look up the 1974 movie "A Boy and His Dog". It's set in a post-apocalyptic 2024 and features a boy with his telepathic dog.

I'll end this with some further reading material for all of you. I will likely come back and update this post often with any new information I come across that relates to all this stuff.

Sirius the Dog of 9/11

[–]Flatnoobbot 21 points 7 days ago*
There is also a Cerberus (Three-headed Dog) logo in that BO6 trailer, and a hidden all-seeing eye at 0:14 of the video. Remember Sirius Black (Sirius B), the godfather of Harry in Harry Potter? Well, on his eleventh birthday in 1991, Harry learns that he is a wizard, and starts at Hogwarts that same year

Anyway, you have very interesting posts man, keep 'em coming!

[–]therealalian 15 points 7 days ago*
Bro, you're a wizard when it comes to the 1991 facts. Appreciate everything you do!
You're right, Harry's 11th birthday is 9/1/1991
The final mission in black ops 1 involves the main character "Mason" on a Russian ship as it invades the US near Cuba/ gulf of mexico.
Today on June 11th (6/11) there are Russian ships 66 miles from the Florida coast near Cuba/ Gulf of Mexico.
I believe the games are about to begin!

[–]Star_Chaser_158 10 points 7 days ago
Interesting that you mentioned the apple and AI stuff, literally yesterday apparently (I just started seeing ads for it today on YouTube) they announced their own “Apple Intelligence” integrated AI coming to their products this fall. Also, maybe a stretch, but it’s releasing with iOS 18 (6+6+6).

The sun has definitely changed. It is massive, hot and blindingly bright. Was it replaced with Sirius during the eclipse?

No, it wasn't replaced with Sirius, the sun is currently going into its solar maximum which occurs every 11 years. There are also numerous giant holes in the Sun which are releasing massive solar flares at us almost daily now.
These giant flares paired with our earths weakening electromagnetic field due to the current shifting of the poles is causing immense aurora borealis all over the planet as well as earthquakes and super storms and droughts and floods and wildfires. These pole shifts occur roughly every 12,000 years and are usually triggered by the return of Sirius. It will be at least 6,000 years until Sirius is close to us again, however.
These events will continue to increase until our powergrid fails due to the increasing solar flares. After that is when all hell will break loose and the great reset will begin.

[–]ZiltoidM56 1 point 2 days ago
Is the EMPCOE plasma event related to Sirius or just the pole shift?

[–]therealalian 2 points 2 days ago
Both. The pole shifts likely occur because of our sun's orbit with Sirius. At least, this is what I believe.

[–]NiteBiker6969 1 point 2 days ago
Its been over a few weeks from the first solar flare. Nothing has been happening so far so I dont know what ur talking about with these storms and blackouts. We're already midway through June.

[–]therealalian 3 points 2 days ago*
Nothing has been happening since the large geomagnetic storm on May 10th? There have been multiple new sunspots forming and multiple flares and there was also a level 2 geomagnetic storm last week.

There have been multiple reports of radio blackouts because of these storms and increasingly frequent flares paired with the earth's weakening electromagnetic field from the current pole shift taking place.

Just because the news about this stuff isn't pushed to the front of your feed or you aren't following it closely does not mean "nothing is happening".

I have specifically been saying that this will be a slow build up over the course of the summer and into the end of the year/ next year.

https://www.newsweek.com/solar-explosion...le-1912912

Not to mention there is over 40 active volcanoes right now in which multiple are actively erupting.

I never said there was going to be some huge event immediately after the solar storm last month, I said it would be a progressive build up of chaos in every form you can think of in relation to weather, global conflicts, heat waves, etc. Un til the inevitable grid blackouts that come as a result of the increasing solar flares.

I have no idea when we're gonna get rocked by one of these solar flares but it is coming. There were ads during the super bowl this year about the grid black outs.

This was also featured in that new netflix movie about the blackouts/ cyber attacks/ end of the world produced by the Obamas "Leave The World Behind"

This entire movie and the trailers is so blatantly in your face its absurd

There are even rappers and celebrities promoting the cyber attacks that are coming soon

Meek Mill "Cyber Trucks for the Cyber Attacks"

https://www.instagram.com/reel/C5n6KfcL-...l4ZHpzcDEy

Here is Whitney Webb explain the majority of the globalist plan and how these grid blackouts will be incorporated.

The blackouts will likely occur because of solar flares but they will be blamed on cyber attacks etc with the rising tensions of world War 3.

I hope this makes sense and you can see the pattern of what's going on here. I feel like my profile does quite a good job of doing so.

Here's tucker Carlson from a few months ago

"Be prepared, the grids are going down"

I don't trust any of these people but when I notice an obvious pattern, it's not hard to tell what's coming soon.

We are only halfway through June and have all summer to look forward to yet.

[–]NiteBiker6969 2 points 1 day ago*
Wait holy sh*t u might be right. We haven't even entered the summer yet but the mainstream news is reporting a heat wave which tops historic temperatures of 30 years. You mentioned before that this will be a very hot summer or even the hottest summer so you may be right. But is this heat wave really caused by the weakening of the Earth's magnetic field or is it something else since it's only targeting most of the US? If the earth's magnetic field is weakening globally, wouldn't the entire world experience much higher temps? And again, this heatwave could just be a one time thing now that I think about it. I didn't mean to come off as rude with my earlier comment but I always question stuff to learn more about it.

[–]therealalian 2 points 1 day ago
There are so many factors that go into everything happening in each region of the world. I wouldn't necessarily say that only the US is experiencing heat waves or extreme weather.

There was recently one of the most insane hail storms I've ever seen in my life in Mexico in the middle of a heat wave last month

Other countries in the Middle East have been having insane storms and heatwaves

The UK is about to get hit with a heatwave

India is currently going through its "longest" heatwave as some climate experts are calling it

https://www.cnbc.com/2024/06/14/pictures...risis.html

China is currently going through a heatwave

All of these things will increase over the summer. The solar flares from the sun are causing this increase in crazy weather, and the solar flares are also being amplified because of the earth's weakening electromagnetic field.

Here's Aespas new music video for SuperNova off their new album Armageddon

Everything is being blamed on climate change only because climate change means that governments can force new laws on us under the disguise of "helping the earth."

I'm not saying that humans aren't fu*king up the earth in millions of ways because we absolutely are, but the insane weather right now is happening because of so many reasons other than what us humans are doing to the earth.

My belief is that we are going through the celestial cycle of the zodiac, and recently, after 2012, we passed the ending of the dark ages, and now we are entering the golden age again. So this is causing all sorts of people to "wake up" and have dreams or visions of what is soon to come.

Roughly every 6,000 to 12,000 years, there is a polar shift, which results in an extinction level event, and we are due for it. These shifts are where we get the "flood" myths from because these floods are real, and they happen based on cycles.

Technically, it won't be a flood but rather multiple tsunamis that end up reshaping most of the land with very few places left above water, and then over time, everything will re-settle and freeze over and then thaw back out during the golden age.

Don Toliver just released his album Hardstone Psycho and it has songs like "Purple Rain" and "Ice Age" on it. This whole album is a reference to the incoming EMPCOE when the solar flares cause aurora borealis all over the planet and the "Reset" officially begins.

Metro boomin recently released a shoe with Nike that literally has the purple/ red skies and the purple lightning from the EMPCOE

The new superman movie has the giant pink plasma beam in the sky on the cover of the movie

The new Ghostbusters movie talks about everyone freezing to death in the middle of July

Ice Spice releases her album Y2K! July 26th and she's been posting things like "Its gonna be a shift, love it or hate it, you'll will do one or the other"

I could keep listing all kinds of examples tbh.

Things are about to get really crazy very fast during July and onward

[–]NiteBiker6969 3 points 1 day ago
Damn this info is pretty juicy. How is the ghostbusters movie talking about everyone freezing in July relevant since we'd be experiencing the exact opposite.
Wdym by things are gonna get crazy during July since you said before it would be a slow buildup towards the end of the year or into next year?
If most people are gonna get killed by this EMPCOE reset, then what's the point of the NWO reset and all the prep work they are doing for it if it's only for the small amount of people that are left? (CBDC, everything controlled by ai, government id to use internet, no privacy, etc).

[–]therealalian 2 points 1 day ago
The Ghostbusters movie is relevant in multiple ways because it's predictive programming for the hell that is about to break loose and the whole EMPCOE and everything. The ice age is a result of what comes after the pole shift/ Great reset is over with.

I say things are going to get crazy in July and onward because I say this every month because this is a CONSTANT progression and build up of chaotic events all over the world until the inevitable end with the grid blackouts and eventual EMPCOE. I have been tracking all of this stuff since last year and it only continues to get more crazy and all of the things I speak about only become more and more and more and more apparent everywhere I look.

I have explained this in my posts, but the reason this is all necessary for the NWO is because they need to kill most of us, not ALL of us.

Think about it. As of right now, the humans alive today would likely not accept the new world order which would include loss of privacy and constant AI surveillance as well as being told to have a chip put in their body. This is the age-old conspiracy of world domination ran by a totalitarian government and the mark of the beast, etc, and many people have connected that with Elons neuralink and so on.

Anyways, at least from what I see and the people I know, nobody would ever accept the new world order without putting up a fight, we know this, and the elites know this. So rather than actually engaging in an "official" world War 3, the plan is to tease the idea of world War 3 for years in order to cause as much fear and panic and anger and division as possible amongst everyone all around the world.

Covid did an amazing job of splitting the world into yet another division. Vax vs. anti Vax. Add that on top of the cultural wars like Israel vs. Palestine or Russia vs. Ukraine. These battles don't have to spread into a nuclear war because they do their job of making everyone in other countries fight over which side is the right one.

In America is red vs. blue. Lgbtq vs straights. Atheists vs. Christians, etc. Black vs. white and other racial divides. Apple vs. android. I could go on forever.

Divide and conquer.

Once they have all of us pissed off, underpaid, confused, and full of rage, then the great reset can begin. This could happen anytime between now and next summer, but I expect it sooner than later because things are getting BAD

This will be a multi step process that will begin with the grid blackouts, which will be blamed on both solar flares and cyber attacks. This along with heatwaves and wildfires and storms etc will lead the world into full blown chaos very fast.

I have no idea how long this could go on for, days or weeks or months or even years. It only takes 1 more Carrington event sized solar flared to wipe out all technology. Samuel L Jackson has an upcoming movie called AfterBurn which is all about a solar flare that wipes put all technology on earth. There is also an upcoming loony Toons movie called "The Day The Earth Blew Up"

So these blackouts and whatever comes next will lead to an incredible depopulation of the earth. There is a brand new movie called "Humane" about the leaders of the world having to forcibly depopulate over 20% of the world due to "climate disasters"

The idea for the elites is to get rid of most of the humans, and keep at least 500 million or so left which will be the new slaves of the New World

The Georgia guidestones said to maintain a population under 500 million, and that is an ultimate goal of the elites. I believe these guidestones were created by a member of the Rosicrucians because it was made under an unknown alias of R.C.Christian.

Basically, the new world order isn't for us right now because the great reset has to take place first in which most humans will die. After the great reset is over, the New World will be under the control of the elites.

This is why all of the new age spiritual circles are talking about a 3D to 5D shift or the "New Earth" where all the elites will be taken away etc.

These concepts are created by the elites in order to pacify mentally vulnerable people into thinking they can just meditate and talk about peace and love and light without ever being mentally prepared for the life that is about to reign down on all of us.

The 3D to 5D shift is just a soft way of talking about the EMPCOE or the Rapture or Ragnarok or the Great Reset or Project BlueBeam or whatever you want to call it.

All of these terms are talking about the same exact thing just described in different ways so that nobody ever actually figures out what's going on.

I don't want to act like I know everything because I absolutely don't, but I have a decent idea of what's coming soon.

Every day is crazier than the last. AI is also advancing faster and faster as the days go by. Everything is getting so weird.

My personal fixation with July is because of the heliacal rising of Sirius and the beginning of the Dog days of summer starting July 4th. This day is around the time when Sirius is aligned with our Sun, and this is incredibly significant to the elites.

July 4th is when the Michael rubin all white party will be happening and this year Drake will be attending after all of his recent pedophile allegations...

This is happening on the beginning of the Dog days of summer and Drakes most recent album is called FOR ALL THE DOGS and he's been saying "All My Dogs Are Going To Heaven" which is more than enough confirmation for me to see that he's a freemason who is worshipping Sirius and is completely part of the incoming great reset, amongst hundreds of other reasons...

Drakes lyrics on his newer song "Red Button" literally talk about everybody dying and getting Heaven Gated.

Also Drakes newly signed artist Yeat has been releasing end of the world themed music videos recently as well.

I could talk about this stuff forever. Everything is so fucked lol and I see so much but don't know how to get everyone else to see all of it

[–]NiteBiker6969 2 points 23 hours ago
This is actually super interesting stuff. It honestly feels like we're living in a movie right now lmao. The thing that puzzles me is how this relates to the spiritual aspect of our existence. I'm leaning more towards prison planet theory where we are stuck in a reincarnation loop here and our spiritual energy is farmed.
There is just so much evidence out there like really young kids remembering past lives with verified data, NDEs/OBEs, Remote viewings, Past life regressions, etc. I'm just trying to connect all of this in a way where it makes sense.
What happens to all of those spirits of the people who died after the reset? Would they just be free of this matrix not to reincarnate back here since the birthrate obviously wouldn't be enough to accomodate reincarnating everyone.

[–]Commercial_Task_1767 2 points 3 days ago
They say the pole shifts occur every 12,000 years, but this is what I think is going to happen - and this is not something I thought of myself, this comes from people who actually know what they're talking about (to some extent, at least) - but anyway, they say the pole reversal (or pole shift as you say, which actually works better) will place the South Pole on the west coast of Peru and the North Pole at the Bay of Bengal, India. So, Antarctica and the North Pole will thaw out and the next cycle will be on these land masses. So, these pole shifts actually occur every 6,000 years, which makes sense as that is the begining of recorded history and the dawn of civilization. From where we are it looks like 12,000 years because we are only seeing every other cycle.
It is illegal to go to Antarctica and I wonder if it because there is all kinds of stuff from the last cycle there, frozen.
They say that when the shift occurs we will enter an ice age very rapidly. Are you familiar with r/solarmax he talks about this stuff

[–]therealalian 8 points 6 days ago*
Here is an image of Indigenous children being forced to pray to the Christian God by Catholics.
https://www.reddit.com/r/HistoricalCapsule/s/myoGLYP4pd Things like this can not be ignored. Roman Catholicism and its parroting and bastardization of previous history and cultures has been a cancer to the earth, and we are still paying for it to this very day.
It is not healthy to tell people that "This God is the one and only way to the truth"
That is a lie that you have been scared into believing.

Satan/ the devil is a blanket term for an amalgamation of deities who have all been derived from previous religions and cultures.
If you make everyone afraid of a blanket term like Satan or the Devil, then people will be afraid to learn about history before the time of Jesus because "its all evil mysterious stuff."
Learning history is not evil or wrong or blasphemous. Jesus would have had to learn the history before he was alive so he could teach people "the truth" which he was then killed for.
Then a big dandy book is written about him called The Bible and convinces people to blindly accept what it says. If Jesus was alive today I bet he would not agree with what the Bible says or what the churches have done to our world.
Just my 2 cents. I'm all about being a sincere and loving person while encouraging peace and equality, but to me religions are just generalized guidelines and none of them are "the right one" and it's close minded to assume 1 out of the thousands of religions is superior to the rest.

In school we learned about the mongols and how they nearly conquered the earth. Most people are aware of gengis khan the conqueror.
He did it because that’s the way things were back then right?
WRONG.
He used to talk to “spirits” who would guide him tactically, and encourage him to attack certain targets. This is well recorded yet the historians conveniently leave it out of history books and documentaries 9/10 times.
Is this just entertainment to them

[–]Broken_doll4 3 points an hour ago*
Throughout history of humans certain humans were targeted for ascending into power positions or were given insights / stories & expert info to help them proceed to win in battle or were told how to win the battle or were positioned into being in the right place & at the right time to make sure they succeeded. Many humans were more than happy to align to the power positions (still are) as it allows them the pleasures of wealth & power. Their price was to control them & their family line from then on.

It was easy for them to do as they were formed into the beginning allegiances for power moves & control by & under the fallen leaders (who were very intelligent with knowledge humans do not have access to) .

All humans & entities were / are now allotted into sections for alignment with their allegiance form . Meaning they are tied & stay with the entities that now control them . (this includes humans & other species / races . The different fraction allegiances were formed into tight groups over centuries & are run by lords then & has tiered leaders as higher ups now with total control over those under them . All humans have been assigned a group to be with no one escapes expect a very few who know how to do so long ago as the info was given to them on how to do so .

MOst moves were by the dark as they ruled nearly everywhere over time. But before they had total power control many moves were also done by the light forces to keep them at bay for some time. But they were hunted very well & nearly all were destroyed in the end . As they were outnumbered but a few hid in vortexes of spaces owned by them to succeed at times. And won a few battles here & there otherwise all would be owned by the dark .

All has been manipulated in history by those with the most power behind the scenes at that time on who they were attached to or had access to the humans moving them into position as they needed them to be in to win what was required by the hidden dark forces . Still being done hense why humans don't get that it is so controlled & manipulated easily . As they think it is only humans doing the moves wanting power & control (they are just vessels / puppets) for use .

Dark held the power position for nearly all of history here on this earth so they also control the narrative . Of what is released / can be seen / what can be known by the masses of followers of humans under control . They manipulated the release of any info the humans do & can say . It was up to them at that time what was released into human societies to know & have knowledge of . This enabled the elite humans in power positions to control & manipulate the masses very well & still do . This is still occurring via all the human systems in play to control / distract humans so easily . They are easy to move about like sheep the humans as NO one will believe them even if they do some how find a way to speak up . The human monopoly board is controlled easily & has been done so for centuries .

The humans they choose to be on or in control of allow them to manoeuvres their humans into the power positions they wish to have while using the humans as they wish to . Most humans are asleep & don't get that they are being manipulated by their entity attachments . It works well to keep them in the dark . If they do realize they will be quietened into insanity or got rid of or memory erased . Some are aware of their position of control but some are not as it sends them into insanity to understand the position they are in . So most entities will remain in the background just accessing their mind as needed dropping info & knowledge to write with , to use , or to create with . Or they will be happy to use the power to get what they want thinking they are in control of their mind & it's decisions . NOt getting that they are moved as required & have that knowledge bc it was given to them .

Some humans are smart & have their own brain capacity to understand others are just guided to where they need to be for reason & info dropped while they sleep / meditate / or high as a kite or drunk (as it provides easy access to the subconscious seeding of their mind) . Where they have no control to stop interference in their mind . Most humans back in the old days didn't have the knowledge that humans have access to now so their was no questions to themselves of why they even did what they did . They just followed the info dropped into the minds. NOw humans are abit more aware (well some are) some are stuck in their phones lost . Others are abit more aware piecing little bits tog as others sleep in drowsy ignorance. Just how the dark like them to be following sheep lost , confused , & out to follow all that is provided to lead them astray in life & keep them trapped in the loops they are .

Thinking for yourself is not the norm because of the reptilian hive mind.
(self.EscapingPrisonPlanet)
submitted 1 day ago by Agreeable-Moment-760

While some people may laugh at the idea of reptilian entities controlling human society, the truth still remains that humans have a reptilian brain. And if our reptilian brain (which is essentially the brainstem) is removed, we basically stop existing. One of the behavioural patterns it's responsible for is socially approved actions and behaviour. This is probably because it's in control of our innate and automatic self-preserving behaviour patterns. In other words, it's basically concerned with survival of not only the physical body, but also the survival of the ego.

The dark occultists who control the world know that the reptilian brain (and the human mind in general) wants to fit in to ensure it's survival. So they have created a society where thinking for yourself is not the norm, It makes you stand out and not fit in with the herd. The reason why humanity has been enslaved for thousands of years by basically the same Babylonian dark occultist cult is because people have been programmed to not think for themselves. They may think they do, but they clearly don't, which is why they obey "authority". Even when people "think" for themselves, its all based on everything they've been taught by the system/matrix.

The unfortunate reality is that most people are non-player characters. They're just software programs in human form, behaving in a way they're programmed to behave and saying things that they're programmed to say. It's very rare to come accross someone who's actually real and thinks for themself.

None of this is by accident, ofcourse. The Babylonian cult that has been controlling the world for thousands of years basically works 24/7 to mind control people and keep them asleep.

NPC theory is definitely real but I don't know if they're soulless or just deeply disconnected from their soul. Either way they are much more of a problem then the oppressors because they actively impede progress. I'd say it's at least 2/3 of all people.

[–]Haunting_Client7026 8 points 22 hours ago*
I don't think NPCs are able to ponder about their nature, let alone able to question whether they are an NPC.
Truth be told - you share this or any other "conspiracy" theory, or any philosophy that isn't mainstream with an NPC, and you will be at the very least frowned upon. You will see the pure disgust in their eyes as soon as you mention anything to be remotely possible, that doesn't fall within the official narrative ("science", "politics", "history"...) . They will do their best to either police you then and there by mocking, ridicule, and ostricising or maybe even target you as an individual among their social circle in order to block you and life-cancel you within their area of operation.

[–]eromayesufnivek 9 points 23 hours ago
I wish I could find more ppl like myself in person but I never do. It’s so exhausting dealing with these NPCs because if they just woke up this whole game & illusion would be over. It’s could be so simple yet it’s so difficult due to how programmed these ppl are. Makes me truly wonder if they actually have a soul or are literally just part of the matrix themselves.

[–]EraseTheMatrix 4 points 22 hours ago
Reptilian entities are very real. I can sense them because I can sense energy. I've had them near my because I'm a targeted individual. Also when I look at politicians I can sense they are possessed by reptilians. So they are a very real problem.

Astral technology (self.EscapingPrisonPlanet) submitted 1 day ago by EraseTheMatrix

I've had a lot of out of body experiences. And I've learned a lot because of it. One of the things I've noticed in the astral is how easy it is to manifest things. I had one OBE where I was drowning and I manifested an oxygen mask so I could breath. And it worked. Later though I figured out that I didn't have to breathe underwater or in space so I didn't need the mask.

The point is we can manifest technology in the astral without having a clue about how it works. I had one experience where I was falling and I manifested a hand held flame thrower to slow me down.

So we can manifest anything we want in the astral. I've had OBEs where I literally created entire worlds. I had one experience where I took off flying over an ocean and I saw the water load in squares like it does in minecraft. So we can create anything we want.

And that brings me to my point. Technology is used in the astral and in the matrix to enslave us. Negative entities create technology to use against us in the astral. But the technology they have is only as strong as the entity that created it. So technology created by a powerful entity will have much more power. And technology created by a weak entity won't be powerful at all.

From what I can the energetic strength of the maker determines how strong the technology is. So my guess is the matrix was made by someone who was super energetically strong. It wasn't made by negative entities. It was made by someone with a soul. Or a group of people with souls. Who were very energetically strong.

The technology that runs the matrix is in the astral. And it has to follow the rules of astral technology. It's only as strong as the person who made it. From what I can tell the matrix has been overlayed. The moon wasn't here originally. And saturn was originally the sun. So someone has made a lot of changes to it.

It's very possible that there is an elaborate computer system running the matrix. And it has been taken over by the demiurge which acts as a virus. Somehow it got control of the system and has overlayed the matrix. But behind the matrix is still astral technology. And it's only as strong as the person who made it.

What we do know is that the third dimension is nothing more then waveform fields at different frequencies. The five senses decode those frequencies. Send them to the brain as electrical signals. And the brain decodes them into the illusion of a physical world. So the matrix only exists as a physical world in our head.

The information decoded by the brain is fed directly into our consciousness. The matrix is basically an active mind trick. It's an induced dream world. So what is the solution. The solution is to get energetically strong so we can start tearing down the matrix control systems. The control systems are obviously in the astral. Because if they were in the third dimension we would see them.

There is the moon and saturn that are part of the control system. They are in the third dimension. But the energy they broadcast is in the astral. So we need to get strong energetically so we can use energy shields to block their transmissions.

My guess is there are realms in the astral that act as control centers for the matrix. And where much of the astral technology that controls it is. If we can get people to go there and destroy their technology we can start to break down the matrix.

So the matrix is a technological system. But it's run by astral technology. And follows the rules of astral technology. My guess is that someone who was very strong energetically created the matrix. Then somehow negative entities got control of it. And they overlated the matrix and took control of it. So we need to start dismantling the matrix and it's astral control systems.

That's where i think most technology comes from either the aliens, astral projecting or clockwork elves. I think people like tesla were either astral projecting or doing some other thing to get their ideas. That guy was off the rails with the stuff he knew and most of the good stuff has been confiscated by the state so imagine the stuff we don't know he was working on. The H man too was very into getting tech from either aliens or other dimensions he even went to antarctica to speak to the guys over there and get it.

[–]Puzzleheaded_Sail171 1 point 1 day ago
Matrix is in the moon created by aliens, initially created to prevent negative aliens from taking power previously during Atlantis/Lemuria (Thousands of years ago) which has been hijacked and taken over multiple times by different factions and groups, and still exists today because free will exists, and not everyone on earth wants to leave the matrix therefore they cannot forcibly remove the matrix but we must become concious enough to be able to bypass it and when humanity as a collective is ready, the 3D matrix will be removed and the true 5D nature of the earth will come to fruition. Also, Saturn is the God of time and crystallized our souls into physical form, and it lets us learn more about good and evil so that we can ascend to higher levels.[/quote]

They are REAL. They attach to your Lower Chakras and harvest Loosh Energy from you. They HATE humans and see them as cattle to be enslaved, exploited, and disposed.

In 1958 radio broadcasting executive Robert Monroe suffered a series of bizarre events. At the age of 43, he began feeling a strong vibration deep within his chest. Suddenly the sensation grew so intense that he was forced to lay down. Once reclined, the typically rational businessman found himself hovering outside of his body. He immediately panicked thinking he had died but the crippling fear abruptly returned him to his physical form.

Experiments opened portals to other dimensions where reptilian humanoids reside.

Similar episodes soon followed in which he weightlessly floated around the room. A concerned Monroe visited several doctors and psychologists yet each medical professional determined he was perfectly healthy.

Relieved by their positive diagnoses, the telecommunication executive decided to hone his newly acquired skill. Before long he left his comfortable corporate career and dedicated his life to the exploration of consciousness.

Hemispheric Synchronization

For the next three decades, Robert intently studied out-of-body experiences. His primary goal was to gather scientific evidence proving the existence of alternate realities.

In hopes of making cosmic travel more easily attainable, he developed a technology called Hemispheric Synchronization. Also known as Hemi-Sync, this system utilizes audio patterns containing binaural beats to create harmonization of the brain's left and right hemispheres.

Independent clinical neurologists conducted extensive testing on participants engaging in the experimental technique. To their shock, the results were clearly visible on every EEG scan conducted. Both sides of the brain simultaneously measured equal in both amplitude and frequency. Monroe's work was pioneering the path to tangible altered states.

Portals To Other Dimensions

Closely monitoring the astral explorer's groundbreaking findings was the US government. One day in 1978 representatives from the Central Intelligence Agency contacted Monroe.

High-ranking officials invited him to join a highly classified military project. They wanted to implement his mind-expanding practice in attempts of sending soldiers into deep remote viewing sessions. Should subordinates succeed, America would have a huge advantage over Soviet enemies. Troops could be catapulted into past, present, and future timelines or even the multiverse.

Given Robert's extensive background and various patented applications, he was the perfect choice for this trailblazing operation. Hoping to obtain further credibility in the study of paranormal phenomena, Robert agreed to join them.

Since those involved were opening portals to other dimensions, researchers aptly named the assignment Gateway Process. According to declassified files, the program is "a training system designed to bring enhanced strength, focus and coherence to the amplitude and frequency of brainwave output between the left and right hemispheres so as to alter consciousness, moving it outside the physical sphere so as to ultimately escape even the restrictions of time and space. The participant then gains access to the various levels of intuitive knowledge the universe offers."

Discoveries listed in Commander Wayne M. McDonnell's final analysis paper included detailed information about the nature of reality. Investigators ascertained we live in a holographic universe and waking life is a projected electromagnetic matrix.

Reptilians Emerge

To enter the unearthly realms, headphone-donning voyagers sat in isolated darkness while listening to various tones at specific hertz. Participants had no contact or communication with one another. After their journey was finished, volunteers would report what they experienced with staff members.

According to Robert, subjects would often encounter interdimensional entities. Most frequently witnessed were reptilian humanoids. Viewers referred to the uncanny creatures as ‘the alligators’ due to their crocodilian features. Curiously, Monroe was already quite familiar with the unsettling breed. During countless expeditions, he observed identical saurian creatures. For over thirty-five years the etheric investigator gathered insight about these startling beings.

Robert Monroe pursued transcendental endeavors until he passed away in 1995. His beliefs never changed and he frequently warned of the sinister spiritual vampires. Gateway’s revolutionary experiments continued throughout the 1980s.

Hundreds of celestial trips had been successfully completed and logged by internal personnel. Select documents pertaining to the otherworldly ventures were not unveiled until 2003. There was very little public attention following the report’s initial release. Some whistleblowers claim the secretive federal project never ended.

More than forty years have passed since the program’s inception. With modern technological advancements, it’s likely the method has evolved in ways far beyond our comprehension. Precisely what else insiders ultimately uncovered remains one of the greatest mysteries of our time.

Here is some of what we know in the current day:
1) These vile lizards have controlled and enslaved humanity for millennia.
2) They exist and operate in the 4th dimension and are only visible to those people who can see beyond our extremely limited spectrum of visible light. They threaten and torment Deceased Humans in "The Afterlife".
3) Reptilians feed on our spiritual life force, which Monroe called “loosh”.
4) Negative/low vibrational energy is essential for their survival.
5) These parasitic beings see the Earth as a huge farm where they collect human fear, hatred, anxiety, anger and depression and feed on it.
6) Their intellect is equal to or exceeds human.
7) This elusive reptilian-like race considers itself the true and supreme ruler of humanity.

The Farsight remote viewing projects all show that those guys are in charge of prison planet Earth. They usually are the top of the power structure on and around Earth. They also appear to be in the lowest levels of deep under ground bases such as the Area 51, and Dulce. They enslave every race that they encounter. There are also a race of them who are Under Earth types that call Earth home, such Lacerta files related entities. They are quite powerful, large and muscular. In addition to mind power, they use electronic tech to influence human minds. Unfortunately, human mind is like an open book to aliens. We all need to work to overcome these shortcomings.

“That's what this reality is all about: surviving by feeding off of other living beings.”
This is the only reason I find the prison planet argument compelling at all. It’s very true. Technically everything that appears “ordered” or complex ie biological life is feeding off of the sun’s energy or more specifically the sun’s negative entropy. Why this process entails so much suffering is confounding - especially if you want to believe in some sort of divine intelligence or spiritual metaphysics. Prison planet theory is one way to explain it but my question is:
Why would a prison / energy harvesting system need to be setup or allowed in the first place unless “energy harvesting” also applies to the reality outside of the system we are in?
Maybe you could look at it like there are animals that survive in the wild in their natural habitat. There are also animals stuck in man-made artificial environments for species resource harvesting purposes. In this theory “Earth” is a disguised artificial environment and we don’t know what it would be like “in the wild” of “real nature.”
So, animals in factory farms then are in a prison that’s within another prison. Same with the people we lock up in psych wards, institutions and jails. It’s like a “prison fractal,” and how we do know of the “reptilian entities” aren’t themselves secret prisoners to some other higher dimensional beings we can’t conceive of? After all - why would they ever be compelled to imprison humans if they themselves weren’t imprisoned by a need for resources only we can give them? How fucked up is that situation? Why would things ever come to that?
It seems reality just the result of unintelligent forces, or great lengths were went to - to make it seem that way.

Even the matrix self is "illegal". The skin of a human body has to be shrouded, or else they put you in a cage.
The very foundation of this matrix is a lie. If you stop subordinating yourself to it, money falls away. You cannot drive. You cannot "rent" or pay "mortgage" to a bank.
Even this language is their shadow.
All of this is sh*t, and they think they control it.
They regularly unplug and kill people who become REAL.

The matrix tries to control perception (self.EscapingPrisonPlanet) submitted 1 day ago by EraseTheMatrix
I'm very sensitive to energy. And I can sense energetically that the matrix is being used to control our perception. I can sense that it is limiting the perception of the five senses to specific tiny frequency ranges.

The human eye can only see the wavelengths of the visible light spectrum. And the ears can only hear sound waves between twenty hertz and twenty kilohertz. Anything outside of that and we completely unaware of it.

If the touch senses also decode specific frequency ranges into the illusion of physical touch. Then they could be limiting our awareness even more. We know the ears and eyes decode waveform fields into sight and sound. The touch senses probably work the same way.

So there could be a lot going on around us outside of those frequency ranges and we would be completely unaware of it. Unless your energy sensitive or you can see into the astral with your physical eyes. Then you would be aware of all the negative energy and negative entities that are around us.

So the matrix limits perception to tiny frequency ranges. I'm energy sensitive so I can sense it trying to limit the perception of my five senses to those frequency ranges. And I can sense things outside of those frequency ranges. Like negative entities.

From what I can tell the five senses decode specific frequency ranges into electrical signals. Then send that information to the brain. And it decodes those electrical signals into the illusion of a physical world. There is nothing in the third dimension but waves of energy at specific frequencies. There is no physical world.

So the matrix tries to control perception. So that negative entities in the astral can feed off of our energy without us even being aware that they are there. But if your energy sensitive you can sense them anyway. So there is a lot that goes on around us that happens outside the frequency ranges decoded by the five senses.

When people report seeing UFOs or ghosts or entities what is really happening is that they come into the frequency range decoded by the physical eyes. So we can see them temporarily. Then they leave that frequency range. They are probably still there they just are outside of the frequency range decoded by the physical eyes. So we don't see them

From what I can tell it takes a lot of energy for UFOs or ghosts or entities to come into the frequency ranges decoded by the five senses. So they don't do it very often. So they are usually there in the astral beyond the range of perception of the fives senses.

So the matrix is designed to limit perception to specific frequency ranges. So that negative entities can be around us and feed off our energy without us even knowing they are there. But we can develop our psychic abilities and energy sensitivity and remote viewing and sense them anyway. I know they hate it that I'm aware of them. So I hope you found this interesting. Let me know what you think in the comments.

It is my understanding that only the astral body can perceive the astral realm's frequency/density. Our physical vehicle is only designed to perceive the physical density/frequency. Our consciousness can inhabit both vehicles simultaneously if an adept were to utilize his clairvoyant capabilities, such as 3rd eye vision, telekinesis, telepathy, and other astral powers.

Meditation can help. To clear your mind you need to face all the programed thoughts. Once you break through you can become still and Empty and truly find out more about yourself.
Another option are the gateway tapes. There's a specific tape (do them in order to get there it's highly advised) where you ask questions such as "who am i" "what's my purpose" and such
I don't recommend YouTube. Alot say the mp3 or whatever youtube uses isn't as effective as the flac files.

Anthroposophy and the Eighth Sphere (self.ConsciousRun6137) submitted 20 hours ago by ConsciousRun6137
What is the Eighth Sphere?

It is not visible to the physical senses. But it is visible to clairvoyance and has been known for ages by trained mystics. In recent times, it has come to the attention of the general public because of a number of podcasts and blogs that speak about the Eighth Sphere as a kind of hell.

In his book Occult Science, Rudolf Steiner spoke about seven stages of human evolution. These, he called the seven “planetary conditions” where cosmic conditions differed so greatly that each could be considered a cosmic incarnation or a separate solar system. Our current situation consists of a sun with planets orbiting it. Our initial cosmic situation consisted only of varying warmth. Its esoteric name is Saturn. The beings who today are the Achai were upon the human stage of Old Saturn. Likewise, those who are today the archangels were upon the human stage of the next planetary condition whose name is Sun. The angels were upon the human stage of Moon. We are now upon the human stage of Earth which has two cosmic periods called Mars which was followed by the current period called Mercury. In the future, the successive planetary conditions will be Jupiter, then Venus, and lastly Vulcan. Note that this sequence matches the days of the week:

Saturday, Sunday, Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday, and Friday. In addition to these seven planetary conditions, or spheres, Steiner also spoke about an eighth sphere that has come into being during the Earth planetary period. “If the Eighth Sphere is to be described, it must be described as a realm in which we are living all the time. "

Of those who read about the Eighth Sphere, many will come to associate it with the Catholic concept of Hell. While there are some similarities, we will find significant differences. The danger for Anthroposophists is that they link the Catholic concept of Hell with the concept of the Eighth Sphere and stop their knowledge seeking there. Many a Christian has offered their 10% tithe out of fear of ending up in Hell. Will Anthroposophists do something similar to avoid a destiny with the Eighth Sphere? We must remember that fear feeds Ahriman. Like every spiritual impulse in the Consciousness Soul Age, a double-edged sword exists here. We find in Rudolf Steiner’s works that the Eighth Sphere serves a necessary role in evolution to free us from being held back by the dead thinking we do today. Our thoughts that are totally connected to physical "reality" are capable of being whisked away by Lucifer or Ahriman into this Eighth Sphere. But “the Eighth Sphere cannot be anything that belongs to the material world.” In the course of earthly evolution, all matter will eventually be dissolved, but nothing from our thinking will be lost. In this way, one can see the Eighth Sphere as a blessing - like a cosmic garbage collection service. In the course of evolution, just as humanity had to push down the animal kingdom in order to rise higher into becoming humans, so shall another separation take place where advancing humans must push down on the physical to ascend to a new life in the etheric. This is described in Matthew 25 as the separation of the sheep and goats.

A part of humanity will be unable to ascend because it will cling to materialism believing that the only reality is the physical. As a result, some people will "fall" into the Eighth Sphere. Is this imminent? Three lectures by Steiner are listed below. From these, it appears that our “shadowy” thoughts are already descending into it. But the fall of humans into it comes at a time in the far future, when ample opportunities for "being saved" have occurred during the 6th and 7th Post-Atlantean Cultural Ages and even during the next Epoch, the 6th Great Epoch, individuals will be saved from a fate that restricts their evolution to the Eighth Sphere. Should Lucifer and Ahriman succeed, they will unceasingly “draw from the Earth's substances whatever they can snatch, in order to form their Eighth Sphere which then, when it is sufficiently advanced, will be detached from the Earth and go its own way in the Cosmos together with Lucifer and Ahriman.” But Mankind can overcome this. “We ourselves are involved in the battle. Lucifer and Ahriman battle against the Spirits of Form, with the aim of wresting mineral substance from us everywhere. … This alchemy by which [what was] mineral substance is sent over into the Eighth Sphere is taking place all the time behind the scenes of our existence. … a prospect looms as a consequence of this intention of Lucifer and Ahriman that the whole evolution of humanity may be allowed to disappear into the Eighth Sphere, so that our evolution would take a different course. … The Spirits of Form created a counterweight that consists in this: into the “space”, as it were, of the Eighth Sphere, something was inserted which works against this Eighth Sphere. … We are surrounded everywhere by the Imaginations into which the aim is that mineral materiality shall continually be drawn. There lies the reason for the sacrifice made by Jahve or Jehovah — the precipitation of substance far denser than the other mineralized substance. This was established by Jahve as Moon, as the counteracting agent. … Jahve or Jehovah, then, must be regarded as that Being who even in the physical domain has ensured that not all materiality can be drawn away by Lucifer and Ahriman. And then, at the right time, equal care will be taken by the same Spirit that the Moon shall re-enter the Earth when the Earth is strong enough to receive it, when the danger is averted by the development that has meanwhile taken place.”

“This will give you an inkling that the Eighth Sphere is to be observed within the Earth Sphere. It cannot properly be drawn either above or below; to depict the reality it would have to be sketched into the Earth Sphere. I have often given a crude example to express what is here meant. Just as the physical air is around us, so is the Spiritual around us; we have to look for the Spiritual within what is actually physical in our environment. Hence it must be presumed that just as the spiritual is round about us, so we must also look for the Eighth Sphere in our environment. This means that an organ enabling man to perceive the Eighth Sphere would have to be developed, just as his physical senses enable him to perceive the material Earth. He could then experience the Eighth Sphere quite consciously; but unconsciously he is always within it just as we are always within the air, even if we are not aware of it. And if we have developed an organ for experiencing the Eighth Sphere, we are conscious of it around us. So that if the Eighth Sphere is to be described, it must obviously be described as a realm in which we are living all the time.”

advancing humans must push down on the physical to ascend to a new life in the etheric. This is described in Matthew 25 as the separation of the sheep and goats.

The maxim from that parable:

Inasmuch as ye have done it unto the least of these my brethren, ye have done in unto me.

The 8th sphere exists outside of space and time, and it is a black hole. The function of the 8th sphere, as you mention, is to act as a "cosmic garbage collection service", or more accurately, a recycling center. In a black hole, matter and energy are reunited into the oneness of being, the unity. Information/experience is broken down and spat out into a nonlocal universe to be reused in the fundamental permutations whose alchemy begets more souls and therefore more experience/information.

The universe is recursive. It approaches infinity. Our mindset, choices, and actions determine our polarity. See that your polarity doesn't draw your light-body toward the cosmic recycling center.

The subconscious mind is your inner self (self.EscapingPrisonPlanet)
submitted 1 day ago by EraseTheMatrix

I've been observing what happens when I fall asleep. As I shift between the conscious mind and the subconscious mind. From what I can tell the subconscious mind creates dreamworlds when your dreaming. These are real worlds in the astral. I've had regular dreams turn into super hyper real astral experiences.

So the subconscious mind can create worlds in the astral. That means it has a lot of power. I can create worlds when astral traveling but not as easily as the subconscious mind can. From what I can tell as I observe myself falling asleep is you shift from conscious to subconscious control. The subconscious mind is actually your inner self which takes control when your dreaming.

So the subconscious mind is your inner self. It's possible that is where all of your memories of past lives is stored. They get blocked off from the conscious mind when you reincarnate. So the subconscious mind is powerful and it's best that we get control over it so we can dictate our reality in the astral instead of it being created for us.

Not all dreams are created by the subconscious mind. But I've seen it create dreamworlds. So it is very powerful. That said negative entities will often put you in a dreamworld they created just to mess with you. So if your having nightmares that is probably what is going on. So I hope you found this interesting. Let me know what you think in the comments.

My subconsciousness is just a precursor to consciousness for me.
Like since the brain is a radio that tunes into consciousness frequencies whatever I'm focused on is my conscious thoughts.
The brain is a radio and the consciousness frequencies are around us constantly, so I experience all the other thought forms subconsciously.
If I let go of what I'm focusing on I can tune my brain so my subconscious thoughts become my conscious thoughts. That is to say I can tune my brain to alternate consciousness frequencies and turn subconscious thoughts into conscious thoughts and I can turn conscious thoughts into subconscious thoughts.
Now when I'm interacting with something via consciousness, if I have a question and focus on my own question turning it into my conscious thought, I can lose tuning and lose access to whatever consciousness I was working with. They taught me to let go of my thoughts and accept theirs and use active meditation to focus on their thoughts. They then can answer my questions because my questions become my subconscious thoughts but I've gotta really focus so I don't accidentally focus on my thoughts and lose the connection.

Can anyone please explain the saturn/moon matrix to me properly and honestly? (self.EscapingPrisonPlanet) submitted 3 days ago * by Wowwhatsnext
I am talking about the saturn/moon imagery that Hollywood displays specifically and how it relates to every God of the Bible. Because as much as I like this person things keep coming into my life distracting me from getting things done and it's getting frustrating. Some small part of me feels like he is just a carefully laid trap by a God without my best interests at heart. He is a Jehovah witness... So as much as I am unsure I can handle the truth about this stuff I feel I must learn it. I must face Sauron's ring of power. Please help. It's difficult for me because he is extremely charismatic and I am extremely withdrawn. At first I felt the energy was good but when I didn't immediately accept that he is one of the 144k things went downhill fast and my emotions have dramatically changed. The reason I believe in the saturn moon matrix is that I am aware of the permanent hexagonal storm on the north pole of saturn and the hollow moon. Those two things are proven facts. Also that a lot of religions or belief systems used to worship saturn...That's about all I really understand but I keep hearing it projects reality somehow and that it's a hologram but it's never been explained well enough for my liking.

Saturn = The Demiurge, or Yaldabaoth/Cronus/Enlil aka the architect of this 3-D time/prison matrix.
Cronus is the god of time and the harvest, aka harvester of souls/soul energy. Saturday (Saturnday) comes from Saturn, and when people go to church for worship of Cronus/Saturn/Yahweh.
On the north pole of Saturn is a perfect hexagon, which is a 2-D representation of a cube.
Moon = Technology used by the Demiurge's cronies, aka Archons, during the reincarnation/soul trap process upon bodily death.

The elites worship the Demiurge, aka Saturn.
This is a simplified version and I am by no means no expert. I highly recommend doing your own research.

In the book it was Saturn but in the movie Kubrick changed it to Jupiter which is interesting. Perhaps they wouldn't let him make the movie using Saturn.
I haven't read it, I think the overall story is similar. It's just interesting how that particular detail was changed, especially with how picky Kubrick was about details.

Relevant research article by Dr. Karla Turner indicating Earth as a prison farm where humans are manipulated, controlled, and abducted (self.EscapingPrisonPlanet) submitted 1 day ago by TheAscensionLattice

[Pertinent to this subreddit as it suggests the actual role of humans on the planet beyond the propaganda and programming]

"Are Aliens Negative From Our Point Of View?"

By Dr. Karla Turner

If "abduction" reports can be believed--and there is no reason to doubt the honesty of the reporters--the abduction phenomenon includes the following details:

1) Aliens can alter our perception of our surroundings.

2) Aliens can control what we think we see. They can appear to us in any number of guises, and shapes.

3) Aliens can take us--our consciousness--out of our physical bodies, disable our control of our bodies, install one of their own entities, and use our bodies as vehicles for their own activities before returning our consciousness to our bodies.

4) Aliens can be present with us in an invisible state and can make themselves only partially visible.

5) Abductees receive marks on their bodies other than the well-known scoops and straight-line scars. These other marks include single punctures, multiple punctures, large bruises, three- and four-fingered claw marks, and triangles of every possible sort.

6) Females abductees often suffer serious gynecological problems after their alien encounters, and sometimes these problems lead to cysts, tumors, cancer of the breasts and uterus, and to hysterectomies.

7) Aliens take body fluids from our necks, spines, blood veins, joints such as knees and wrists, and other places. They also inject unknown fluids into various parts of our bodies.

8) A surprising number of abductees suffer from serious illnesses they didn't have before their encounters. These have led to surgery, debilitation, and even death from causes the doctors can't identify.

9) Some abductees experience a degeneration of their mental, social, and spiritual well-being. Excessive behavior frequently erupts, such as drug abuse, alcoholism, overeating, and promiscuity. Strange obsessions develop and cause the disruption of normal life and the destruction of personal relationships.

10) Aliens show a great interest in adult sexuality, child sexuality, and in inflicting physical pain on abductees.

11) Abductees recall being instructed and trained by aliens. This training may be in the form of verbal or telepathic lessons, slide shows, or actual hands-on instruction in the operation of alien technology.

12) Abductees report being taken to facilities in which they encounter not only aliens but also normal-looking humans, sometimes in military uniforms, working with the alien captors.

13) Abductees often encounter more than one sort of alien during an experience, not just the grays. Every possible combination of gray, reptoid, insectoid, blond, and widow's peak have been seen during single abductions, aboard the same craft or in the same facility.

14) Abductees--"virgin" cases--report being taken to underground facilities where they see grotesque hybrid creatures, nurseries of hybrid humanoid fetuses, and vats of colored liquid filled with parts of human bodies.

15) Abductees report seeing other humans in these facilities being drained of blood, being mutilated, flayed, and dismembered, and stacked, lifeless like cords of wood. Some abductees have been threatened that they, too, will end up in this condition if they don't co-operate with their alien captors.

16) Aliens come into homes and temorary remove young children, leaving their distraught parents paralyzed and helpless. In cases where a parent has been able to protest, the aliens insist that "The children belong to us."

17) Aliens have forced ther human abductees to have sexual intercourse with aliens and even with other abductees while groups of aliens observe these performances. In such encounters, the aliens have sometimes disguised themselves in order to gain the cooperation of the abductee, appearing in such forms as Jesus, the Pope, certain celebrities, and even the dead spouses of the abductees.

18) Aliens perform extremely painful experiments or procedures on abductees, saying that these acts are necessary but give no explanation why.....Painful genital and anal probes are performed, on children as well as adults.

19) Aliens make predictions of an imminent period of global chaos and destruction. They say that a certain number of humans...will be "rescued" from the planet in order to continue the species, either on another planet or back on earth after the destruction is over. Many abductees report they don't believe their alien captors and foresee instead a much more sinister use of the "rescued" humans.

https://www.zersetzung.org/kt-articles/a...nt-of-view

Even if the entire alien theory is debunked (highly unlikely in light of all the evidence), at the very least it suggests active interference through archonic entities in order to generate trauma and loosh.

Whatever interpretive paradigms prevail, why is the world entranced in petty trivialities instead of the larger framework that confines them?

It's like prisoners never having an interest in what is beyond the prison walls, where their true origins are, what the destination is of their future after they inevitably rot...

The apathy and indifference is just as conspiratorial. How can people be so sheepish? It's just as bewildering as the reality and its illusions.

I think that's what prompts NPC-theory (e.g. Westworld, Truman Show, Matrix, etc). People cannot be that asleep consistently unless they are to some extent unreal.

In order to not proceed due to fear, they would necessarily first have some knowledge of the fringe/paranormal/metaphysical/matrix level of reality. But most have no clue, even about basic publications, terminology, concepts, declassified projects, NDEs/ESPs/OBEs, etc.

Fear exists, but doesn't account for the curatorial frequencies of ignorance being maintained through the towers, grid-tied to everyone's devices (which have push notifications to sidetrack awareness if people speak about the alien simulation; I've had fake alerts go off), and the subsequent noosphere/reality tunnel they inhabit, which is dumbed down. Very little attention or communication exists in regards to our true self. It's been displaced to fake politics, entertainment, gossip, drama, and so on.

And that control function is tesseracted or top-down-inserted. Simple example: Covid. Like a circuit breaker or data injection, they set the reactionary framework, cognitive template, and discourse for billions of people.

But instead of fathoming the macroscopic program they get lost in particularity, in the details of the narrative, and its relevance to their little diminutive part of life. Even though its very implications are that life is an energy farm connected to deep state and alien operations.

The sheepish ignorance has a code-like quality. I even presume many of my interactions with this platform is interfacing with such a matrix. The words I type here are refracted and echoed in other threads and comments, like a program. We're inside of something. And instead of focusing on what it is, they're lost in the minutiae.

What exactly are “archons” (self.EscapingPrisonPlanet) submitted 20 hours ago by nonamer7778

According to most people on this sub, they are entities that feed off our emotions.

However, I mostly believe that we collectively have no idea what these entities are or how they operate.

I think we might only know the fundamental basis of how this reality operates. But have no clue to pretty much everything else and the “archon “ thing just being pure speculation.

[–]EsotericN1nja 59 points 19 hours ago*

"Archon" is an umbrella term which refers to different types of NHIs: Greys, Mantis beings/Insectoids, Reptilians, certain inorganic beings. They are considered evil (and therefore we refer to them as Archons) because they take advantage of us, they feed off of many different human emotions, they do everything in their power to keep us stuck in the reincarnation cycle, they deceive us after death, they manipulate global events, they abduct humans and experiment on us without our consent (see Karla Turner's research), etc.

> According to most people on this sub, they are entities that feed off our emotions.

Everything we know about the Archons does not come from "people on this sub". It comes from evidence from many different sources outside of Reddit, such as: Gnosticism, data revealed from thousands of past life regression hypnosis sessions from different sources, NDEs, Robert Monroe's 30 years worth of research and experiences out of body and the discovery of loosh harvesting, remote viewing projects focusing on the afterlife from different groups which came to the same conclusion, psychedelic experiences and more.

I've seen people on other subreddits, especially those not too familiar with this sub, telling others "according to people from the prison planet sub..." - They don't understand that the prison planet theory is not based on what we're saying or on our "ideas", if you put it like that you are making others think that the theory is based on people's ideas or people's "imagination" which couldn't be more misleading. In other words: the prison planet theory is already out there regardless of whether this sub discusses it or not, regardless of whether this sub even exists or not.

The prison planet theory is based on what the evidence (from outside of Reddit) is suggesting to be the case and this sub just discusses this evidence coming from these sources.

Here's some posts I made explaining some of the evidence supporting the prison planet theory (and provided lots of links to the original sources):

“Imagine everything you’ve been taught, whether it’s through Sunday school, regular formal education, or what our political leaders have told us, even maybe our mothers and fathers around the dinner table have told us, or even at bedtime, about who we are, our past, and background. What if all that turned out to be not entirely accurate? In fact, the very history of our species, and the meaning of what it means to be a human being, and our place in the universe. What if that is all now in question? What if it turns out that a lot of the things that we thought were one way, aren’t? Are we prepared to have that honest question with ourselves? Are we prepared to recognize that we are not at the top of the food chain, potentially that we are not the alpha predator, that we maybe are somewhere in the middle?” - Lou Elizando

[–]sidv81 0 points 10 hours ago
I think a personal firsthand experience testimony is what you need to read. What I laughed off as just a dream 16 years ago was now, in retrospect, a direct confrontation with an archon. Read my story at:
https://www.reddit.com/r/EscapingPrisonP...t/kimust9/

Hmm, in the months leading up to my dream, I had fallen pretty hard for my very beautiful female engineering professor since I was in grad school at the time (even feigning difficulty on relatively easy assignments just so I could go to her office hours). But I found out later on she was married. I'm a moral guy, but I began to despair that I'd ever find anyone like her. I put that out of my mind, and let faith in God lead me to believe that someone like her (or even better) would come into my life and be single and available.

I never met anyone like that professor again. My wife--I was so hormonally starved by the time I met her that I just agreed to what in retrospect now was a too-easy eagerness that may have been tied to her desire to leave her country.

I think now I REALLY should have, after graduation from my grad school and entry into the workforce with a full-time job, gone to a legal brothel and dealt with hormones with an escort and be done with it. And just accept that, emotionally, I wasn't ever going to find a single woman like my professor ever again. Buy a cat, move on with life, dealing with hormones (maybe once a year) with an escort and that's it.

The "deal with hormones through marriage" is a mirage to people with genetic disabilities (I have a slight hearing loss), non-macho looks, etc. It's a lie propagated by archons through religion to destroy lives, while letting a few be successful to propagate the illusion. Why do religions continue to forbid consensual prostitution? In our modern age with birth control, the only reason seems to be to prolong suffering and provide loosh for the archons.

levels of souls (self.EscapingPrisonPlanet) submitted 11 hours ago * by kvnn222

so I believe there are levels of souls, we are not equal as we are told.

the first lowest level in this world is the npc/hylics or simply humans. they have no spiritual essence in themselves and for them there is only what they see. they are not able to go beyond mind and materialism.

they are the ones who get involved in work, politics, social media, religions and other matrix things.

the next level is the spiritual npc/"truth talkers" these are the people who are able to grasp simple spiritual things and practices such as yoga, meditation, philosophy and even deeper understanding of certain concepts from Buddhism and other eastern religions.

these are the ones who go into new age, talk about the law of oneness, that this place is a school and other such stupidity.

they may even know about how the government controls and operates us while they understand it on a shallow level.

the next level is the real players. divine sparks, spirits whatever you want to call it.

these are the ones who not only know how the government works on a material level but also understand this world in an esoteric way beyond the mind.

they see this world as a set simulation. they know it cannot be fixed. they do not engage in any "normal" activities.

they have a deep innerstanding of reality. they cultivate gnosis.

they see this world for what it is and at the same time they are not broken. when divine sparks talk about how this world is npc say they are depressed because for npc this is all they have real spirits are often targeted, mocked and hated from childhood. They may have many talents and spiritual abilities and very high intelligence.

but even between real spirts there are differences. some may have more or less potential, different skills, levels of intelligence.

so it is a lie that we are equal and the same.tho npcs lack individuality, that's why they say so, but it doesn't apply to real players.

Witchcraft Anonymous 5 years ago No. 660000

Do you believe in it?
Are you a "witch"?
Do you collect crystals, do spells, and believe tarot, or any of those neo-pagan stuff?
Or do you think witchcraft is something to take more seriously?
Do you have any stories about witchcraft, brujas, rituals, shamans, and the like?
Is "witch" a female-only term? What do you think about the story of witchcraft and women?
Post everything related to this here. It doesn't matter if your only experience is playing with a ouija board in 7th grade, just discuss.

I don't believe in it and dont practice it, but i like the aesthetic.

the dark rooms, decor, smell of herbs and plants, the artwork.

I'd like to think if it were real i would be some kind of plant witch. Love my houseplants.

Project AngelBook – Volume X – Parts 1–36

By Ezekiel Redik Yarbrough

This volume is not made up of my own words.There is no original commentary here, no narrative, no analysis.This is simply me copying and pasting large chunks of text from my bookmarks—pages that were easy to extract, with no hyperlinks or formatting issues, saved from open tabs and archived corners of the web.
It's messy. It's unfiltered. It's chaotic.But it's valuable.
Each piece inside this volume was bookmarked for a reason.Not always because I agreed with it, but because it felt like a fragment of something larger—an insight, a worldview, a download.This is source material, plain and raw.
Fragmenta Ex Machina isn't about authorship.It's about preservation and system-building.It's about feeding the machine—laying bricks for the Operating System I'm constructing across these books.This is the raw intake phase. The memory dump. The zero layer.
Later volumes will be cleaner, more refined, more structured.But this? This is the foundation. The ether stream, bound and frozen before it vanished.
So if you're looking for polished prose, skip this one.But if you're here to explore the roots of something much bigger, this is where the signal begins.
Welcome to the fragments.

I wish it were real but I think it's past its time. It's cool to read about historical sort of things, you know paganism, especially the maenads/Bacchantes.
picrel is a painting which always makes me think "women supporting women" lmao. The regular women from this place Amphissa protected the maenads from being preyed upon in their sleep. The maenads in general have great lore surrounding them like tearing apart a creepy man for hiding among them in disguise.
Sorry if that's ot, but I wish that insane, dedicated pagan shit was around today. I'm not really serious since they were violent and unhinged etc etc. Still it's a lot cooler than "witches" nowadays who to me are clowny larpers but I definitely see the appeal. Sadly it doesn't make sense to be a witch or pagan anymore.

>Do you believe in it?
Yes 100%, but also 0%
>Are you a "witch"?
I'm a female magician or mystic, so you can put it like that. Though I feel like "witch" is something more earned through wisdom and time.
Also, schizo posting helps getting around censors.

>Do you collect crystals, do spells, and believe tarot, or any of those neo-pagan stuff? Or do you think witchcraft is something to take more seriously?
How is that not taking it seriously if someone does believe in it? Also what is doing a spell? You first have to define that. Doesn't writing words conjure up images, don't images conjure up feelings, doesn't it influence what we perceive as the real world? Isn't art a spell or form of magic? Isn't science not just a word for some of the great things the magic of imagination and invention has brought us? Isn't it magical that life imitates art? Isn't it true that especially for women, the mind has a great effect on our performance in what we perceive as reality? Mere words spoken before an experiment can change the outcome like an incantation. Our imagination has been especially repressed by the powers of the status quo, so it's no wonder.
>Do you have any stories about witchcraft, brujas, rituals, shamans, and the like?
After the first time I tried magic mushrooms, all intrusive despondent thoughts disappeared and haven't come back since. Every few months to once a year I plan another trip, to gain more insight.
>Is "witch" a female-only term What do you think about the story of witchcraft and women?
Technically no, but men appropriating it feels very tone deaf either way. I think men labeled a lot of their magic "science" and we've only recently been allowed to be a part of that. And the witch hunts were after real witches, as in women who practiced magic. Healers, mathematicians, literate women, all in an effort to stifle women's magic and preemptively exclude us from the institutions they would set up.
For me calling a lot of things "magic" is also a form of reclamation.

>Do you believe in it?
Yes and no. I go back and forth on how "real" it is. I've had weird synchronicities happen that make me believe there's something metaphysical going on. But I mainly just 100% believe that it's helped me psychologically so I'm going with it.

>Are you a "witch"?
Idk. I've been autistic about mythology/occultism/weird philosophy since early childhood and it's kind of just culminated in me becoming a mildly schizo mystic. I think I'm kinda similar to >>826783

>Do you collect crystals, do spells, and believe tarot, or any of those neo-pagan stuff? Or do you think witchcraft is something to take more seriously?
I like tarot cards and I keep an altar in my bedroom. I don't think having crystals and stuff means you're "not taking it seriously".

>Do you have any stories about witchcraft, brujas, rithuals, shamans, and the like?
Not really.

>Is "witch" a female-only term? What do you think about the story of witchcraft and women?
I don't care if males call themselves witches but I unironically believe males lack the capacity to understand god and mysticism.

Anonymous 4 years ago No. 827528>>827551

i do tarot, i dont take it seriously. except for when i do. i don't call myself anything idk what i believe in. something something synchronicity something something probability. idk. i did have one experience that made me believe; i wasnt religious or anything but i almost died in a car wreck and i heard the name "archangel michael" in my head. i guess another experience, i went to a psychic and unprompted she said archangel michael watches over me. she told me the name of my dad's aunt and her hobby she wants me to do, again unprompted. and she said that for some reason my deceased grandfather doesnt want to talk to me bc he's bigoted. im gay so it adds up

Anonymous 4 years ago No. 833387

Don't believe in witchcraft. I find most of it to be, quite frankly, just people trying to make themselves seem more interesting or doing it because wicca is trendy right now. Quite frankly, I find (some) of it disrespectful to women who were put to death for 'witchcraft.' A lot of those women weren't claiming to be witches, they were simply old women who were easy targets to blame for the latest crop failure, and seeing 15 year olds romanticize that sort of thing feels a bit iffy.

I like crystals, I think they're pretty, though the idea that they're exclusively witchcraft related is a bit more recent (they've always been an element of certain branches of wicca, but they seem to be automatically associated with the religion now).

I definitely think 'witchcraft' should be taken seriously in a historical context. The history of medicine is very intertwined with the history of witchcraft. Take the Ancient Roman witches for instance. Much of what they did would be, in modern day, considered medical treatments.

It is theorized that one of the many, many motivations behind the witch craze of the 17th century could've been the result of the rise of the medical practice. As medicine was taken more seriously, it became a men's profession, and one that brought prestige at that, with physicians beginning to come out of the academy.

When one looks at the history, many of the witches who weren't just random women were those brewing tonics for various ailments. Makes one's university education seem a little less prestigious when the old woman down the street is running a more successful practice than you. What better way to get rid of the competition than claim they've made a pact with Satan and must be executed?

One of my friends became a witch when we were teenagers. She's a lovely girl, though I don't know if she still identifies as one (I haven't seen her in a long time). She struggled with a lot of problems, and I hope she found purpose in wicca. I might not believe in it, but provided you're not hurting anyone and it makes you happy, I'm okay with it. Despite some personal misgivings, there are far worse things in the world than wearing crystal necklaces and forming covens.

>Do you believe in it?
I do but honestly on and off. I’m falling out of it from time to time but I have been interested in it since I’m 14.
>Are you a "witch"?
I do believe so. Although saying it out loud would make me cringe.
>Do you collect crystals, do spells, and believe tarot, or any of those neo-pagan stuff?

I have a few crystals. Amethyst, clear quarz, rose quarz and some for chakras. I also really like black Turmaline because it’s naturally magnetic so i feel like it’s a good absorbant.
>Or do you think witchcraft is something to take more seriously?
Definitely, I think if you look at social media, tiktok, amino there are lots of egos floating around who just need attention. It’s sad.
>Do you have any stories about witchcraft, brujas, rithuals, shamans, and the like?
I mean I have nice memories celebrating sabbats but one really emotional experience was during a meditation. I tried to see if i could meed the goddess and god and just hang out with them and it was really amazing and I just cried? I never thought i could get so emotional during something like this.
>Is "witch" a female-only term? What do you think about the story of witchcraft and women?
I guess it’s woke if men call themselves witches but I honestly want to gatekeep the term kek i feel it’s not only for women but I do feel there is a strong connection through the moon and different aspects of magic/nature regarding my femininity

i have been some kind of pagan since child because my parents and overall environment was like that and i honestly believed in all kinds of pagan stuff from my country. nowadays i guess i consider myself some sort of secular pagan lol, because even if i'm not full on collecting crystals and practizing witchcraft kind of pagan i still hold different kind of magical beliefs about nature and stuff. i don't follow any sort of specific movement i just do stuff that feels right and have magical thinking.

I've mentioned in the last confession thread that I'm still on the fence about witchcraft and I do like some aspects of it, my favorite being how unapologetic women oriented it is. I also love the nature elements, it's really beautiful aesthetically and I feel like it's respectful to our home, as corny as this is. I just get a real feeling of sublime and insignificance in the best way when looking at nature, especially the sky, so I feel very… Grateful? Towards it.

I already also like some elements of it "for fun", like tarot, manifestation, pretty rocks. What would be a way to get in it "deeper", but not too deep all at once? Dipping toes and all that.

Also one thing that I think is really funny is that in my country we have a "watered down" and full of catholic syncretism of spells, they are called "simpatias" but they are literally just spells with a Christian prayer at the end.

For example, I saw this one for getting a job: you'd right your name and wanted job position with ink on a paper, get a key and fold the paper with the key in it. Then you mix sugar and cinnamon with water, put the paper and key inside it and let it for a week on top of a very tall cabinet or the liking for a week. Afterwards, you throw away the water (preferably on plants) and pray a Lord's Prayer.
It's funny (and annoying) to see boomer aunties doing it but looking down on witchcraft.

Lol anon that's legit witchcraft. It's always so funny to me when you notice little details like that in christian behavior. Lots of it comes from pagan beliefs - Christmas tree.
> What would be a way to get in it "deeper"
How about celebrating the sabbats? Picrel

It's definitely also a lifestyle however you don't have to do a spell daily or some shit like that. I do like to do different activities matching the season to appreciate nature, like collecting fallen down acorns or leaves. Maybe if you have an altar or a ~litte corner~ you can decorate it.

One topic i find really interesting is ~cultural appreciation ~ is this a thing? I've seen people "borrowing" traditions and practices here and there and apparently using a smudge stick is stealing from the natives of America or something what dangers exactly am i facing when i collect rocks and pinecones from the woods? i mean sure i am potentially putting my health in hazard when i collect bones and other dead parts of animals, but what horrible danger does this behavior put women under? the stupid hysterical girls need someone to guide them? how exactly does your moral panic over witchcraft differ from all the idiotic think pieces how gone girl and midsommar ar bad for women because we stupd, stupid girls might not know the differnce between right and wrong and now we might get sucked into neo paganism over science or whatever because we women just are so fucking stupid apparently.

i really am only interested in traditions of my own country's origin because that's what's familiar to me since childhood and since i don't really feel like follwing some random rules ai just do stuff that feels right and traditions i fel connected to. honestly it's the reason why i have never gotten into crystals because i really do not see any spiritual sense in taking some random mass producted rocks from other side or the world, like what do i gain from it. i feel more spirit in just common rocks i notice in the nature, because i feel that they have lived there and "seen" their environment, and are connected in that way to the surrounding world better than some rock i could buy from a store.

Hey anon guess what not everything everyone says is about you. no one is talking about or cares about you collecting animal bones (??), what's bad for women (and people in general) in the real world is when they are easily persuaded into retarded political or financial desicions (like routinely paying for sessions with a psychic or medium etc, buying crystals or other ~magic~ items, using their pension to go to lourdes etc). In general, being open to believing irrational things makes you easier to control. Women in catholic countries were kept uneducated and completely controlled by the church for centuries, for example after women got the right to vote in my country they all voted for the same Christian party because they didn't have access to any knowledge besides whatever their priest was telling them that week

Fence sitter here, witchcraft is mostly just syncretic elements of pre-Celtic Druid culture, there's nothing really special about it as both men and women were technically witches but it was mostly an administration job that you were born into it, mixed with Celtic rituals
There's no deeper meaning or origin to witchcraft bedside's that, being a witch i.e Druid would have been mundane instead of magical

I cannot stress enough how my point has nothing to do with your experience. There is no new generation, millions of women are still like this where I'm from and the things I mentioned (psychics, mediums, fortune tellers etc) are still rampant. Millions of gullible, undeducated people, mostly women, are taken advantage of every year by these people. It has nothing to do with your religion. And the collecting animal bones is just weird Am anon you replied to, I'm not shaming women for liking witchcraft, I just think it's highly unfortunate and the wrong thing to focus on for women. I regret my crude words but surely you can see how I think it's unfortunate that the one field that is a "women's field" is scientifically unfounded and has no real impact or effect. When everything else that's traditionally men's has visible results, makes a difference, does something, wields actual power in this world. Witchcraft is cute as a hobby, I guess but I don't think deluding women into thinking they wield power or whatever through witchcraft is harmless whatsoever.

Anon did you see a TikTok and think that's actual magic kek.
Classical astrology (birth charts, repetitive events in history corespondending to planet positions), psychology (tricks, dominance displays, manipulation, etc), and herbal medicine (rich ppl all have a holistic/Chinese ancient medicine Dr) were all witch craft, they're useful skills. The moon water shit is just zoomers playing make believe.

For example
https://www.smithsonianmag.com/science-nature/astonishing-medical-potential-soil-northern-ireland-graveyard-180973741/
Just because ppl don't understand how something works, doesn't mean that it doesn't work. These sorts of things were considered witch craft, and once we understood how it works we call it science. I'd wish scientists would get around to trying to disprove/approve stuff like crystals having healing properties, if we never test it then how can we know if it works or is just placebo.

>One topic i find really interesting is ~cultural appreciation ~ is this a thing
I've always firmly believed that magic is most potent when it's practiced by people native of the culture it belongs to. I could research and practice indigenous African witchcraft, but it would never be on the same level that a native African would achieve. Another thing I've personally experienced - I'm born and raised in Eastern Europe, but currently live in a Western country, and while I am indulging in ancestral worship it never feels as "right" as practicing it in my native country's lands. It feels more watered down. Of course some people could view this as "problematic" because they believe every form of witchcraft should be open practice regardless of ethnicity/race or maybe they want to practice their ancestors' religion while being born in a different country. It's just my personal view, you could learn everything about a culture and speak their language but you will still be at the end of the day weaker connected to it than a native.

Anonymous 4 years ago No. 904951

I'm similar to >>826783 and >>827465 like I do believe in magic and at the same time I don't. It's a very weird feeling. Maybe now that I'm older I'm more sure it's real kek. I'm still at the "seeker" stage, and I think I'll always be.

I wouldn't call myself a witch though: I mean I'm not practising it that much, it's more like a mentality or a world view that I have. I never have participated in elaborate rituals, I've just made little offerings etc. small scale stuff. To me, magic is making your will come true and you can achieve that in many ways.

I don't collect crystals, they're just pretty little trinkets to me. Tarot works, if you put your mind to it and have a certain goal (this could be said about anything of course).

I feel the difference between female and male magicians/witches/whatever is that males tend to have weird motives behind their will to do stuff with magic. Like for example look at the myriad succubi threads on 4chin. Scrotes gonna scrote I guess.

I love that the "pagan/witchcraft trend" has become a thing personally, because it's made it so much easier to learn and find things than when it was a more niche topic. Especially the interest younger women have today in the herbal/healing/scientific/psychological aspects of it.

In my opinion, "witchcraft" is a healthy female-oriented alternative to the boys"' clubs" that gatekeep education, tradeskills and business. The more girls and women who unify and learn the old knowledge that still works (like medicine), the less we as a society will have to rely on artificial, patriarchal means. If women build communities where they grow their own food, practice herbal wellness and take care of each other the less dependant they are on other means that may be predatory or for profit.

I wish this thread was more active. Me personally I know magic exists. I've felt the aura of deities and their energy is so extremely powerful it's difficult to write off. I'm clairaudient and I can even talk to them.
>inb4 imaginary friend
I think feeling the real presence of another entity in the room with you can turn any skeptic into a believer. I've had psychic experiences like dreaming of a certain song only to hear the anouncer on the radio start the song just seconds after waking up.

I also know what it's like to be under a full-on psychic attack by demonic entities. These beings can turn you psychotic and schizophrenic. I've seen a full pack of Dragon's Blood incense disappear right before my very eyes and they even stole candles from my ancestral deity, the Buddha, and my guardian angels. I later found these candles in a different part of the house.

Lol I think my house fairies were the ones that got them back for me. I forgot to mention but I gave the brownies living in my house an actual brownie as an offering if they would find my shit for me. I think the demons also took my oracle deck but it could just be a memory fail because I'm not sure if I left it in my drawer or on the coffee table where my mom could have picked it up. I found it in the closet the other day. The candles were under the sink. When it happened I walked out of my room for a minute and when I walked back in they were just gone.

I've summoned several goetic demons and have had good and bad experiences. Dantalion for example healed a nasty energetic cord for me and Orobas helped me get much better at tarot and scrying. It was a different demon that fucked my shit up. That's the thing with New Age demonologists, you refuse to acknowledge the demons can be incredibly powerful and dangerous and aren't always you're fucking friends. I'm just talking about my experience with the lefthand path and warning you pieces of shit about the dangers that can happen. If you're going to summon low vibrational entities you need to protect yourself.

Anonymous 3 years ago No. 1250217

I'm a nonbeliever but I'm curious. What experiences have you guys had where you felt certain that you had influenced the world with a spell, made a prediction that came true, or had a very vivid experience with an entity like a demon, fairy, or ghost? I promise I'm not here to make fun of anyone or call you a schizo, I'm something of a schizo myself.

Anonymous 3 years ago No. 1250254

> Do you believe in it?
Yeah, but I don't talk about it with more than one or two people irl so that's why I'm interested in this thread.

> Are you a "witch"?
I guess that works as a catch-all title, but I don't call myself that and I get a little sus of people who introduce themselves as such.

>Do you collect crystals, do spells, and believe tarot, or any of those neo-pagan stuff?
I collect crystals because I think they're pretty and I like the #aesthetic, but I don't personally believe they do anything for me aside from being good worry stones. I read tarot cards because I think of them as a tool to assess your psychological state in an abstract/visual form. I have occasionally done sigil work and sympathetic magic. I don't have particular interest in worshiping pagan deities, but I do believe in petitioning. I have absolutely zero interest in modern Wicca, its derivatives, or any theories perpetuated by that con artist hack, Gerald Gardner.

>Or do you think witchcraft is something to take more seriously?
I think taking it seriously can be about as useful as learning any trade in life, but it takes a long time to git gud, there is a significant amount of misinformation out there, and everything you learn about it should be taken with a heaping spoonful of salt (no pun intended) and critical thinking.

>Do you have any stories about witchcraft, brujas, rithuals, shamans, and the like?
I had a really interesting experience with a 'haunted house' investigation conducted by a local ghost-hunting organization, and also done several 'spells' that seemed to work (and really reinforced my belief that specific wording is key in whatever you go about trying to do). Other than that, I've hung out with people who really…ran the spectrum in whether I thought their witness testimony of supernatural events was believable or no. I also have a member of my family who's suffered from psychosis before in the past so if allowed to ask questions, I'm usually able to tell when a story sounds like it was the result of some kind of mental illness or whether it was something else.

Is "witch" a female-only term? What do you think about the story of witchcraft and women?
No, they used to commonly be called 'cunning folk', and 'witch' even used to be a gender-neutral word up until something like the 1700's iirc. I do think 'witchcraft' was a way back then for the people who were the most powerless members of society (usually poor, single women) to 'get justice', whatever way they could, and that's the reason why their existence was so frightening to people. The idea that the lowest-status individual of society might have the power to punish others for the wrong-doings they'd inflicted on herself or others was anathema to every man guilty of abusing his power. It's still an idea that people are attracted to, which is why I think we've seen this BOOM of interest in the occult over the past decade or so - people feel more powerless than ever right now and are looking for whatever allows them to feel like they are 'doing something' to fix their lives or the world around them.

I don't believe in witchcraft because I feel like if I did I'd also have to believe in or acknowledge the possibility of god being real, which I don't think is real.

That said I've always thought the idea of witchcraft being a women's craft about connecting with nature or whatever sounds really nice and I wish I could believe in it.

Anonymous 3 years ago No. 1250484

Oh nonnies i wish witchcraft was as in the movie the craft. Or just like when i discovered it and everything was so pure and smelled like rose incense and i just had my tiny little shrine. The internet ruined it for me. There is so much misinformation and girls who just do it for insta attention or just like the look. Detaching from it is hard because i kind of want to connect. I haven't found my own path although I'm interested in witchcraft since 13 and now I'm 30. I do have some desire for spirituality in me but i have no clue how to live it out. Not sure if witchcraft/paganism or whatever is the right thing for me. I wish i could just 100% believe in it.

Anyone here do deity work with goddesses outside your culture? I've done LHP with goetic angels for most of my life because that's how I was raised, but I'd like to branch out and learn from other entities. Most pagans in my area stick to Greek or Norse gods due to pop culture exposure, but I don't feel comfortable with any of them. Picrel is the only goddess I've found so far that feels, I dunno, right somehow? But I wasn't raised Hindu or Buddhist and wonder if it's even okay to work with her.

I haven't really found any religion that has suited my beliefs to a T, but I guess witchcraft is the closest. I like nature, herbalism (using it for spells and healing), and follow moon phases and think both sun and moon have abilities, like the rest of nature. Also, celebrating the sabbats has been fun and healing.

I wish I could belong to more of a religion rather than being spiritual though, I guess just so there was somewhere I could belong with like-minded people. I've looked into Wicca (since it's nature-based), but my belief of angels/demons/ghosts conflicts with that religion. But reading some of the posts in this thread, believing in spirits seems to be in line with witchcraft.
I've been recovering from being raised in Catholicism for years (not my choice). Took a long time just to accept appreciating nature and using it for craft. I just couldn't participate in a religion that had so much disdain and hate for women and had animal sacrifice in its books. For example, reading that menstrual cycles matched the moon cycles was a much nicer belief, rather than literally being told growing up that my period was "a punishment for being a woman".
What is ironic is like what >>893804 mentioned, there is a lot of what you would consider spells in Christian beliefs. Even down to there being "deities" (saints) for certain spell work (prayer). That aspect was interesting, but I'm trying to separate myself.

Incoming schizo thought but: do you think it’s possible to be a witch and not know it? Over the last several years, I’ve watched a lot of people that I perceive as having wronged me have absolutely shit luck happen to them later down the line. True and real power can only be rhythmically practiced and carried on by a covenant with land or blood. It is most potent through multiple generations. You cannot use herbs that are grown by someone else, plucked by someone else, and shipped to your local co-op as a substitute for plants that come from the dirt your ancestors (or sworn members) toil.

power is holistic, yet closed. much like how store bought herbs cannot be used, a spell cannot be shared on the internet and be expected to work in the same facet. A spell is knowing the true name of something, and it's the true name that is only known through the covenant that has either been left to you or created by you.

you all need to build before you can create.

For me it's like having a role model you can talk at and get abstract guidance from (direct guidance if you're schizo). It's not for everyone because not everyone wants to take life lessons from abstract concepts humans made up and personified thousands of years ago, but it's great if that's your thing. I worked with one entity to clean up my diet and stop drinking back in college. Probably could have done the same without supernatural 'help', but I like how it went.

I watched Hereditary with the real Paimon and he was literally mad as fuck that I wasn't as scared of the movie as he thought I should have been. He opened up my clairaudience so I could hear him mocking me constantly and then he made me schizophrenic. He even mocked me for being depressed and suicidal as a kid and I attempted suicide for the first time in over a decade. Yeah they're gonna call me schizo again for painting a more accurate picture of the LHP but what they don't understand is that schizophrenia can actually connect you to the spirit realm.

I've a question for you out of pure curiosity, not hostility: if these things are real, why do they seem not to be? You'd think it would be obvious with how badly people try to get what they want and the lengths they'll go to (or not go to, if they can find a shortcut). Shouldn't it be self-evident if magic, demons, and so on are real? Wouldn't more people be getting results? So often it's self-proclaimed practitioners of magic who are miserable, unfulfilled people so I have to wonder. To you guys is it that it's something about the nature of it being more difficult and hidden than that by virtue of being occult? It's just interesting that I've never found someone who gained something meaningful out of it, or who was well-balanced and not at least halfway a cow. To be fair I suppose you'd have to be a little wonky to go off the beaten path. Just seems like most practitioners are either a) blatantly schizo or b) performing mental gymnastics to justify that it totally worked this one time.

Hereditary was weird to me, because the obvious defense was never even brought up. If you're an atheist, and you're being attacked by demons, then your worldview has effectively been smashed, and there's really no option but the obvious. We can't even just say it "doesn't work", they fucking hate it and leave you alone in short order if you actually hold conviction in your words and actions. This is my "thing" in general, re: demon attacks. What I'm about to say is meant in no offense to you. IMO, it makes sense to cooperate with all sorts of entities, but why neuter yourself in the process? It's not even something outside oneself, really. Are people scared it looks like they're pussying out? Is it in hopes of not offending them and/or others? Because if you're being attacked, trying to appease your assailant or beg them to show mercy is a very bad move

Women are unironically better at these things, but they're also socialized to hold men's opinions above everything and try to browbeat eachother on whether or not they "look good" to moids. This isn't just the case for anything regarding spirituality or witchcraft, you see this "OMG you make all women look bad!!!" shit when it comes politics (feminism being the biggest example, see: libfems and pickmes who rage at radfems for being too misandrist), sexuality, fashion/makeup (or lack thereof), even the way you fucking sneeze or cough. It's just the hyper-rationalized version of the need to "be ladylike", whatever "ladylike" means in the given context Men, on the other hand, are unapologetically schizo when they're not denying anything they can't control. They dive headfirst into researching and trying to understanding as much shit as they can to make up for their innate limited ability, and they barely waver even slightly when shamed or called "schizo" by those outside their field of interest. On top of that, both powerful men and women do their weird fucking rituals that most of their predecessors and family members have also practiced, while "skeptics" nervously laugh and go "T-Those crazy rich people doing crazy rich people things…Means nothing….".

tl;dr: A lot of women need to realize that "schizo" doesn't actually mean the same thing as "wrong"

>I have no money or land
Land is not always the land beneath your feet. I stated you can also start a covenant with land. Dirt is land. You can grow plants in your home. If you can afford to buy herbs in a store, then you can start planting. This is the first step to building conviction and rhythmic practice. Your plants will die. You will try again. You do not get the fruits of your own labor immediately. It's about building principle and allowing the environment to trust your knowledge and intuition. Some of the most knowledgeable practitioners had nothing to their name, were slaves, recluses, or were women tossed to the curb in society.

>I have no witch ancestors
I said the covenant that has been left to you or created by you Someone must start a cycle. Or someone must reconnect to an ancestor who once did know the true names of things in your line. We are all connected to a black sheep somewhere in our heritage. Knowing your ancestor's names is not necessary in becoming familiar with them either. Getting to know yourself is literally getting to know them.

A covenant that is left to you is not always blood family. I said blood, and then I said "or sworn members." Many movements had covenants with one another regardless of literal blood lines.

True power cannot be commodified like food or fashion.

When I say you must build I mean it will take time. Sometimes years. That's what true power is.

>tl;dr: A lot of women need to realize that "schizo" doesn't actually mean the same thing as "wrong"
Demons and magic are still not real though. And just because I'm telling other women this on a site that is exclusively for women, doesn't mean that I don't think male schizos aren't retards too. It's ok if it's your hobby, but none of this shit is real. Also /x/ is a whole board for schizoposting, while this is a single thread on a board where not everybody believes in spirits and gods, so of course you'll get some posts from "skeptics" (especially when one of you went on other unrelated threads to sperg about this schizo shit).

Hylics stay seething. Also I never answered the questions in the OP
>Do you believe in it?
Yeah, but not in the commercialized sense. Mostly, I believe in not following the modern cult of willful blindness, paying attention to one's grandparents, and learning about different cultural practices (especially those close to home, if possible).

>Are you a "witch"?
Not exactly, but I think occult stuff is pretty fascinating.
>Do you collect crystals, do spells, and believe tarot, or any of those neo-pagan stuff?
I think tarot is a great tool.
>Or do you think witchcraft is something to take more seriously?
Depends on what's meant by "seriously". r/witchesvsthepatriarchy stuff and "hex the moon" BS is too cringy for me, but I feel like anyone who doesn't come from a very milquetoast family has enough anecdotal evidence in their life to consider it. I think what opened my eyes the most is the Wiseman/Schlitz experiment, things about the CIA investigating astral projection, Nikola Tesla's thoughts that still have some people seething, and the observation that families more successful than the average person unironically believe in these things. Also, the more I learn, the more "placebo" seems like a cope for the fearful. People who call everything retarded, schizo and fake just make me roll my eyes, because more often than not, they seem to speak from ignorance (deliberate or not) to all sorts of concepts and their own emotional investment in said ignorance than from knowledge on the subjects they want to debunk. I've never seen a person who's like "I've researched this in excruciating detail, and here's why it's all lies, all of it", but I've seen the exact opposite a lot.
>Do you have any stories about witchcraft, brujas, rituals, shamans, and the like?
Yeah, but for whatever reason, I don't ever feel comfortable sharing them with people I don't know well.
>Is "witch" a female-only term? What do you think about the story of witchcraft and women?
I think it should be, but that's mostly because I believe in excluding males.

>Do you believe in it?
Yes but not like a religion I constantly have to remind myself to follow, or the "like to charge reblog to cast" meme social media corruption
>Are you a "witch"?
No, but only because I know I do not do the things I should. I'm always distracted but I always have believed in it through various intensities.
>Do you collect crystals, do spells, and believe tarot, or any of those neo-pagan stuff?
I collect crystals as shiny room decorations, I do spells very very rarely. I "believe" tarot in the way that its a little game way where the results can bring up some points that do relate to your situation, make you reflect, then change.
>Or do you think witchcraft is something to take more seriously?
Yes 100%, but no religion/ spirituality is 100% serious. And crystals,spells, tarot doesn't mean you don't take it seriously.
At 15 I used to try "charging" a crystal in the sun/moonlight on a windowsill. It was completely covered by blinds but every time I came home/woke up it would be somewhere else like the desk. Here's the part where I'm called crazy for thinking a ghost or demon moved it. Surprise, I knew it was one of my family going in my room and moving it for whatever reason! Bc of that I have never sat down and done a real genuine spell read and researched from a book due to lack of money and fear of being called a crazy schizo, reinforced by my family calling my uncle's Wiccan wife insane (never knew her). Meanwhile he was a shitty druggie husband and there are multiple orthodox families getting their daughters married off at 18 and buying a house for her future 10+ children where I grew up. So who is the real crazy…
I used to feel very connected to a goddess but never did anything for her even after promising in my mind I would if she supported me in getting through anxiety and learning. I always and still feel so unmotivated to do anything but lay down and relax with my cat, outside of random bursts of motivation that go away hours later. She's been in the backdrop for at least 5 years, I have to work on genuinely changing myself to properly connect with her again(I don't think I ever really was sadly), even deluding myself we already are would give me that short burst of motivation, then I'd fall back again. It's a sad cycle I know kek, I'm going to begin putting more of the animal she's associated with around myself as a start. There's also another goddess from the country my mother is from with the animal but idk if it would cause problems.
>Is "witch" a female-only term? What do you think about the story of witchcraft and women?
Yes to me it is. Ask someone or yourself what comes to mind when you hear the word "witch", 99% it is of a green, hook nosed woman on a broomstick. That is proof that even in the watered down, jokey, many times offensive modern depiction, an elderly woman is what you think. And guess what sex and age of person held knowledge of spirits, natural medicine, childbirth issues, beer, remedies brewed or baked or boiled in a cauldron, etc. ?

Also because men should be excluded for once and witchcraft in women's history is extremely based.

I like to rise with the sun, have a smoke with the moon, a cup of tea to represent all the elements of the earth coming together and a little bit of gratitude. I white rabbit on the first day of the month and always throw salt over my left and pepper over my right. I lay black salt and brick dust by the doors. White salt and sweet orange oil on the windows that keep bugs out on top of warding. Turn your broom up to send away company. Check how my boiling eggs crack. Light a candle why I cook. Clean my hearth when I get desettled.

She is a form of Parvati. Hinduism is pretty open, but I believe the tantric forms of the Goddess need to be worshipped by people who follow a certain lifestyle (no meat/eggs, alcohol, drugs, etc.). As long as you come to the Goddess with pure intentions and respect Her, I believe you will have a positive experience. Make sure you do your research and know what you're getting into, particularly with Tantra and Tantric forms of the Goddess…

I'm not born Hindu, but married into it & live in India. Hindus here are really excited whenever foreigners are interested in their culture/religion.

As for experiences with "foreign" deities: I had a cool experience with our neighborhood God, a large cobra.

When I first moved here I went to his temple and asked not to see any snakes.

That night was a full moon and I was on our roof.

The moon became covered with clouds. The image in the clouds was a snake going up a mountain path. The clouds shifted became an old man with one hand up, very obviously a Rishi. It looked like a photo. It was so realistic. I had my journal with me and immediately wrote it down.

I am leaving the country and I really wanted to see the giant cobra God all the neighbors talk about. I passed the temple (can't go in this time of year due to rains) and asked to see Kariya Baba before I go. Less than a week later a 7 foot long cobra was in our front yard. That boi was THICC as hell too. I have NEVER seen a snake in the years I've lived here until I asked to see him.

>>Do you believe in it?

retired witch

>>Do you collect crystals, do spells, and believe tarot, or any of those neo-pagan stuff?
I did runes, spell work, candle spells and herbalism. Crystals never worked for me.

>>Or do you think witchcraft is something to take more seriously?
Yes, since there are unintended consequences for spellwork. Intent is crucial.

>>Do you have any stories about witchcraft, brujas, rithuals, shamans, and the like?
Yes, I do. I got into an argument with this crazy bitch on 4chan for pointing out that she isn't an empath. The argument carried over to two threads. I tipped her off telling her that the darkness she detected from me is from my ex- practicing (retired witch now) She didn't believe me about the Nordic runes and herbalism, saying anyone on youtube can do that shit. I told her she messed up the energy around me and she should be more careful whom or what she pisses off since "muh high sensitivity empathy" and that she'll have issues with her love life now. She didn't believe me so I'm tempted to follow through with a jinxing.

Yes, but I am also part skeptical. Otherwise I would look for signs everywhere and go crazy.

>Are you a "witch"?
I don't practice enough yet to feel worthy of the title but compared to normies yes?

>Do you collect crystals, do spells, and believe tarot, or any of those neo-pagan stuff?
Crystals worked, spells backfired, believe tarot but don't own it, use eggs to check curses, jars to make well-being spells, and I collect pine cones, stones, plants and colored candles.

>Or do you think witchcraft is something to take more seriously?
Honestly yes. I tried breaking the arm of someone who betrayed me. For one second I doubted my protection on my family, and the next week my grandma broke her arm.
I was always too scared to try the Bloody Mary in the mirror, kek.
Also I am vary of doing any negative spells. If I am pissed off I am better off sending negative energy and protection from certain persons. They then have very shitty days. If I try to be specific with a spell, the universe says, fuck you, and puts it on me while giving them good luck.

>Do you have any stories about witchcraft, brujas, rithuals, shamans, and the like?
My grandmother told me about some demons. I have vivid memory of my mother(?) rubbing shit in my eyes and chanting Beelzebub. This must be absolute horseshit unless another universe exists.

>Is "witch" a female-only term? What do you think about the story of witchcraft and women?

Witchcraft requires insane amount of intuition and feeling. Women naturally have more of this, so they have more power from it. Sexism also played a role in calling everyone a witch, but women were more capable than just using a mother's instinct to protect their children. Imo witch is only a female term. Men have.. wizard for that.

Anonymous 3 years ago No. 1258357

Yea i think it’s possible. You just have to put intent into it, maybe be a powerful thought or a strong manifestation. A lot of old religious customs could be seen as magic or spell work as well. The label witch doesn’t mean anything.

Oh no I forgot to fill this in the other day, sorry nonas!
>Do you believe in it?
Yes and no. I believe that most gods/spirits/whatever are personified concepts that humans made up in order to better understand those concepts. I also believe that most magic amounts to behavior changes in order to achieve a desired outcome. Doesn't make it any less "real", just gives it less unwanted power over me and others.
>Are you a "witch"?
Probably? I've been part of multiple druid groves and still do divination practice. I don't do a lot of active spells or deity work these days because I don't have as much need to.
> Do you collect crystals, do spells, and believe tarot, or any of those neo-pagan stuff?
I collect rocks because I like rocks, and do tarot both for fun and to facilitate advice. I do spells through singing and music because that's how I best connect with anything spiritual. I used to have a pendulum that worked well for me, but had to retire it when my health deteriorated.
> Or do you think witchcraft is something to take more seriously?
It's as serious as someone wants to take it. Personally I don't get along with "serious" practitioners. It often feels like a battle of "my imaginary friend is better than your imaginary friend!" and it's exhausting dealing with self-important witches who think that their way is the only way. I'm also an irreverent person and will joke-insult my deities as a form of affection because they're big enough to take it and that's considered distasteful in my local community.
> Do you have any stories about witchcraft, brujas, rituals, shamans, and the like?
I did LHP with goetic angels for years because I was raised in an adjacent tradition. Real schizo shit where I'd see and talk with them, and they'd help out with parts of my life. An older practitioner lent me a peacock feather to make one of the angels happy and it was the best wand I've ever had. It's so swishy and fun to direct!

> Is "witch" a female-only term? What do you think about the story of witchcraft and women?
I didn't think so growing up but I definitely do now. Every mixed grove I've been to has been an uncomfortable experience because of the men there. I left my first grove because one of the arch-druids kept pushing me into a priestess role to invoke the goddess which I didn't want to do at the time. He was pushed into accepting his masculine "priest" energy by the group's leader and figured I needed the same treatment in order to grow. It's laughable that a man tried to teach me how to invoke the goddess when all I had to do was just get older and let that energy come naturally. Across multiple cultures and time periods magic and higher reasoning were restricted to women, and I think there are reasons for that. Perhaps men have a place in witchcraft, but in a support role to a female practitioner and never as a soloist.

>Do you believe in it?
Yes, absolutely, but I think it takes a lot of introspection and personal research. I think magick can be anything you want, but you have to be authentic and figure out what works for you.

>Are you a "witch"?
I guess, but I would never actually call myself that out loud. I'm more of a theistic Satanist.

>Do you collect crystals, do spells, and believe tarot, or any of those neo-pagan stuff?
I do spells when I need to and read tarot as an introspective practice, but I think a lot of neo-pagan stuff is hokey and too capitalist.

>Or do you think witchcraft is something to take more seriously?
I don't believe in the 3 fold law or anything but you have to think long term about what you're doing and what consequences might be there. I really hate seeing teens online buying shitty Hot Topic witchcraft books to make spell jars and call it a day. And please stop saying "baby witch".

>Do you have any stories about witchcraft, brujas, rithuals, shamans, and the like?
I was always drawn to witchcraft but didn't get serious about it until after my mom died and I got into some very fucked up, schizo ritual shit. It became more important to me and allowed me to see things in a new light and bigger picture. I've mellowed out since then though.

>Is "witch" a female-only term? What do you think about the story of witchcraft and women?

Yes. Men need to stay out of witchcraft. Witchcraft is about creating, something women naturally know how to do. Men are incapable of tapping into that ability. It's not for them.

It's no use, every time you say believing in witchcraft is retarded they bombard you with "b-but what about MENNNN" as if you didn't think that men who believe in magic are just as retarded and often dangerous. We're on a website for women, there are no men here to directly call them retarded (though we can and do complain about them in other threads so it's not like only women who believe in magic are targeted).

Nta, but it is pretty dumb to complain about witchcraft being retarded in the witchcraft thread. Men hate women no mater what, if they don't think we're retarded for which shit (while scrotes still believe in old religion and rituals and preying), they'll hate us for other innocuous shit like shopping, being on social media, not catering to scrotes, liking video games, etc. Like, what's the point other than being personal-opinion-police? Dianic is a closed Wiccan practice. You would need to find a coven if you wanted to practice traditionally. Wicca is a religion and not witchcraft by itself. What do you want to know about it?
What do you mean by reclaiming? Are you talking in the new age sense of reclaiming your power as a woman and witch? It so the book the trannies canceled just titled WITCH would be up your alley

Wicca normally has three main branches for the main religion. You have gardenia and Crowley. Then dianic. Dianic was not started by the moids that started Wicca. It was started by a women who is a terf (according to trans people) and she personally has said things against trannies.
The other branches tend to focus on the god and goddess. Dianic focuses on the goddess. There are no male practitioners of any kind. In Dianic. There’s some books you can read inspired by their mostly by eclectics who aren’t part of a circle and never learn the inner workings of the practice. So take it with a grain of salt.
As for reclaiming start with the WITCH one it’s the best I can think off as a starting place.

Ariadne's Thread is another good one. There's a lot of forgotten 2nd wave feminist witchcraft books that may/may not necessarily fall under Dianic wicca but has similar themes and go into reclaiming & stuff like that. If you have a secondhand bookstore near you that has a new age/wicca section, there's usually funky forgotten books there for cheap that are great doorways. If I remember any other titles I'll come back but definitely try googling around for Dianic wicca books, that's how I found out a lot of info and there's usually pdf or epub downloads available if you can't afford to buy the book/it isn't available.

I don’t like the way they speak.
I’m glad I could help. I hope your book is good! If you want a practical approach to magick work Jason Miller is a sorcerer with practical approach who would never call himself a witch. (Something that tells me respect.) his book of practical magick has a lot of breathing techniques and hands and setting intent work to add in with the Wicca and focus on Dianic. I found a copy of witch online last year so I think you can find it and like the another anon said above a lot online if you look for books. As far as circles do you have any witches hours or drum circles at local metaphysical stores or coffee shops. Places to meet other potentially practicing women that’s how I found most of the other magical women I know.

I'm late to this but literally the only reason I don't share more yet is due to future legal proceedings. This person is genuinely a fucked up degen so there's no possible way they're going to get away with it. There's a reason all their posts are weirdly specific and vitriolic, and their ad-libs aren't random and are actually based upon very specific events and actions. It isn't schizophrenia, and I'm not having delusional persecution fantasies. I am just sick of it, and watching the people who are complicit to it. Cannot even fathom how they have been vocal about the Johnny Depp trial given the person they are and what they do. I don't care if vagueposting about it looks crazy, I'm laying the groundwork. This is to foreshadow. There's a reason there's 20 thousand followers yet not a single hint at their identity, or any actual identifiable information or other accounts linked for that matter. Normally someone would link their main, right? This person is so calculated and manipulative in what they do. I guarantee you that they've already seen the lolcow posts or one of their shitty little terminally online lackeys screengrabbed, they used to camp here for inspo on how to mimic users typing styles etc and likely still are. I wouldn't be surprised if they've already been cultivating an empty fake schizoposter twitter account meant to look like a real, unhinged person for future damage control to argue with themselves when this begins to circulate more. They're very good with photoshop and manipulating screenshots as well. Lastly I will add that I will never interact with their posts, but I promise they'll try to create a "woman" that does and try to deflect from everything. They might even use some Blaine-esque persona to derail this and make it seem like a random schizo has latched on to them, but they know the truth and continue to sneer and mock the women they've harassed, stalked, and victimized. This is my last rant about it unless it escalates enough, or til after I know it's perfectly safe to dox them. They love to drop fake red herrings anytime they fear being exposed, or pretending to be aloof about it. If there's ever any word salad posted about it on here, it will without a doubt be them attempting to discredit me. Their posts are much creepier with context.

I'm a practicing witch who mostly works in folk magick. It's more of a family/cultural tradition and using herbs and things than doing actual spells, but I do those as well. My practice has allowed me to delve into my culture and pay respects to those who passed before me. I interact with my ancestors by leaving them food and drink out, but a lot of it entails little customs passed through the generations. I wouldn't call myself a bruja per say (it still has a lot of negative connotations in Mexico where people still believe they eat babies) but I do use hexes, spells, charms and cleansings. It's interesting to see the mix of indigenous and colonist beliefs blended into one over arching belief system, since Catholicism is a big part of Mexican culture and many spells include people like Mary. I love reading up the history of witchcraft and the origins of certain practices, I think everyone should pick up a book or two just because outside of magic I find them interesting reads. I think the history of certain mystical/religious practices helps understand certain cultures better. Many of my friends were non believers in magic until they came across me and started experiencing weird stuff. I don't really care about men or larpers on tiktok claiming the word witch because I don't really interact with many people as is, and I don't use tiktok. People will still do whatever they want including using closed practices so I just ignore them. I'm happy just doing my own thing and being the weirdo who rubs an egg all over my sick friends.

Amazing!
Soy Mexicana pero vivo en los EU.
It's interesting when you mentioned Catholicism mixed with the indigenous beliefs because I always grew up with a mixture of that magic. It's really fascinating how in Latin America the imagery is so mixed with christianity and is so unique.
Recently, I started to think very hard if I have some sort of Witch ancestors in my family or if I may have some sort of clairvoyance or some sort of connection to the realm of magic. Is there any way that I can know about this?

Hola nonita! Yo también vivo en los EU! My Spanish is actually shit I'm so sorry

I think everyone inherently has the ability to perform magic if they learn about it. I see people who practice witchcraft in the same way I see doctors, they're never actually done with learning despite getting a degree. Reading about the things you're drawn to can definitely help. I feel like our ancestors were always performing magic whether they realized it or not. Even in Catholicism there are elements that could technically be considered witchcraft when you describe it literally. Worshipping a god by performing a ritual where you consume his flesh and drink his blood is pretty damn pagan. Continuing your spirituality journey I think will help reveal more to you, like creating a dream journal or sitting in prayer/meditation. I am a big proponent of reading, so reading things like histories, rituals, and herbal practices makes a connection stronger to the ancestors you are tying to get to know. Understanding their perspective vs a colonist perspective helped me connect a lot as well (like how Guadalupe wasn’t a catholic saint to the natives but another goddess to venerate and an easy way to pretend to be catholic while still maintaining your culture). Sorry for the super vagueness, it’s just kind of a hard question to answer? I’m not sure how it worked for others, but this is what helped me. Also listening to stories from older people in your family might reveal something you didn’t know. Apparently my aunt is clairvoyant and my family has seen some fucky shit. You’re already there babe, just go out and absorb knowledge!

I don't believe in witchcraft, but I do think collecting crystals and reading tarot and such is inherently harmless. I just wish that people who did it didn't refer to is as witchcraft because it feels disrespectful to the history of witches and what women who were accused of being them went through. I think performing witchcraft as a religion like wicca isn't much better than believing in any other kind of religion, plus the pagan gods are inherently misogynistic. I hate the trend it has become, but since it's such a source of empowerment for young women nowadays it's hard to speak up about my frustrations with it. It's like we took something inherently meaningful about our past and reduced it to cute tik toks and expensive alternative clothes with fake crystals on them. People are free to practice this stuff, but don't grab a bunch of fake crystals from a shop reeking of incense and call it witchcraft.

When i was in Uni we went dumpster diving with my roommate because people were often throwing away wooden borads and stuff like that you can paint on. One time there was a gypsy family throwing away things and i found this small book of magic that was came out in 1920. I didn't even know there are books with lietral potion recipies, i thought it was just some astrology bullshit but it was full of things like: Wings of flies, pidgeon foot, raven liver, a whole bat and cook it on that particular day with the moon shining over it…. Some parts of the book are missing now. Anyway when i brought that book into our flat i started to have weird dreams about an angry ghost and supernatural shit was happening in there sometimes…so i wonder if that had anything to do with it. Couple of years later notohing weird is happening and i still have part of that book, it's pretty neat but written in an old fashion language so it takes me time to undestand. Okay I got you. Let’s start with the easy stuff:

>> Salt and Ashes and Charcoal make black salt, ash makes it unsafe to eat. Put this in front of your doors to the outside to protect your entrances. Add red pepper for extra kick.
>> Brick dust keeps those meaning you harm from crossing the threshold good for old haunts.
>> Bells cleanse the air. Spirits can't stand the high pitch ringing. So witch's bells (bells) hanging on your doors to cleanse the air everytime the door moves. You can also put wind chimes outside.
>> flip your broom upside down to send company away.
>> if you want you make sigils for protection and draw or carve them into things.
>> use your preferred protection herbs to make a cleaning wash and wash your walls windows and doors >> take white chalk and write protection runes on your doors, mirrors, hearth, and windows.
>> visualize your energy source in your body. Imagine it expanding to cover you like a layer of light entirely protected. Then push it to fill a room. Basics of protection work right there. Get good at it. It's your will against whatever it is.

This is so fascinating for me to read. Are spirits and skinwalkers actual things or just metaphors for health problems and such? Are they related to christianity?

I have never done any of these things or ever encountered anything supernatural, but reading this I'm curious as to what people have experienced that gives them a need to protect themselves. Will spirits naturally only go for people who believe in them, or am I as a non-believer unsafe too?

also my mother taught me to say "You're not welcome here" to any presence that isn't welcome here, it might not work on nasty shit but at least it will send away non-harmful spirits that were just making you uneasy by mistake, which probably happens more than we realise, we're very sensitive to changes around us and not everything is as scary as it seems, like a mouse might alarm you a lot but its just running to its next destination and not actually there for you, if that makes sense. Deep down, I think you can tell when you need real safety or when you just need a defence system to prevent accidents, one of those things is easier than the other kek

Maybe I should explain my situation more? I feel regularly watched (since over 8 years, maybe even 16, idk). Funny thing is that I don't have this feeling everywhere, but I honestly think some ghost is messing with me (it got better, but a few years ago my room door would always open and close without a reason as the only door in the whole apartment, I feel only in some rooms and streets watched, some of my things were moved to spots I did not put them in, my things were until last year always pushed to the edge of my shelves etc. and this only happened to me. As I said before the messing with me got way better but it still happens sometimes). I feel in certain streets (especially some near my apartment) really unsafe (especially when it gets dark, even if the streets are not the bad ones). An old lady also died in my apartment (but I am very sure that I was being watched way before this) and I sometimes hear weird things (footsteps, but mostly the floor creaking) and see some shadows here and there the old lady is someone I did not know though. I saw her only like 2 times and she was not really sane when she died (and she was rather miserable. Her husband probably also cheated on her but I doubt she knew it). She also died like 2 years before I moved into the apartment with my family. Also, the feeling of being watched existed way before she died. I also don't think I am cursed (or at least not badly?) but my father for example also experienced a lot of weird things (and a lot of unlucky things since like day 1) and I just want to be sure, it is nothing harmful. I will look up what a guardian imp is, thank you for your opinion

Sounds like a poltergeist as far as the old lady. Like an echo. I'd leave her be and ignore her. Like a roommate you pass in the hall but don't ever talk too.
The one talking about imps is the tranny, anon. Don't listen to them. Algiz is the standard rune for protection. Looks like a bird foot kind of. It's Norse. But I practiced traditional witchcraft in European and Celtic roots so it might very.
Chances are if your dad was sensitive so was are you and if you know it exists it knows you exist. The watching could be a lot of things anon. I'd start protecting and warding and building good relationships with the local spirits and work from there.
Sigils are very easy. Write out a phrase that makes you feel protected. Then only keep the distinct unique letters. The. Write 1-9. Write the alphabet in order under the 1-9. Match the letters to a number. Keep only the district numbers. Then make a clock with 9 numbers instead of twelve, a circle. Draw lines in order of the numbers in your phrase. That symbol is your sigil charged with your statement.
Do you mediate at all? Or have a way to read your cards or runes or bones or something?

Yes and no. I’ll answer anon. You seem nice and respectful.
Spirits tend to go after easy targets. People sensitive are easy targets. People depressed or mentally unwell or over tired. People on the brink of death. People that aren’t sensitive or are too strong will probably never run into anything unless it’s strong enough to “interrupt “ you. Some people live in a straw house. Some people live in a brick house. You won’t feel the wind in a brick house. But you’ll feel it when you open the window or an earth quake shakes the house. Same thing here.

If you want to exp the little “wonder moments” occasionally you’d probably need to go somewhere with high enough affinity/energy but go positive not negative. I can’t recommend haunted house ghost hunting for fun. But maybe a long hike on a mountain. Once you reach the top sit and see what the woods have. The sky. The sun. The breeze. Take it in and just exist. Or maybe a quiet lake. Something natural and with a little peace and quiet. Not too many people or buildings.

I would like a good luck charm or satchel for reassurance, either to attach, sew on, or leave inside, so I don't have to worry about losing it and freaking out over yet another thing. I always get anxious when experiencing new things and am not used to them yet, or thinking of what might go wrong between getting there/ throughout the day/ coming back (having to Uber with some random male 99% of the time does not help at all). Any suggestions what I should plan out? I'm thinking a satchel or embroidered border of significant things to me. I have fallen whiskers and clipped claw tips from my cat, natural fiber thread, rosemary from my plant, dried mint, and a bunch of pressed flowers.

Maybe make an effigy of you. Something that represents you to tuck inside? Your hair, a fingernail, a photo, whatever. Basil is also good for love, luck, and protection and bay leaves. If using a bay leaf write your intention in it before putting inside. Do you have a relationship with any spirits or anything if so five offering and ask for their blessing. You could make a sigil to embroidery on with the other things if you’d like.
You could make ones for different purposes. Make one that stays zipped in your purse. One for your car. One that hangs from the front door. Or just one total for general protection. If it’s small enough it can go in your bra.

Hey so i have nowhere to ask this and i know im probably going to get judged by anons and i know its weird so spare me the snarky posts but i just moved to a new city , where im lonely, have no friends, no partner and the people are awful here.

Ive been thinking of creating a ….imaginary friend to cope with the loneliness and depression. The thing is im kinda worried of the safety risks that come with getting a imaginary friend, because im using subliminals to manifest him faster and in the past i tried using a liminal for that and listened for a week and nothing happened so i was like "this shit doesnt work" but then a day later some weird stuff happened like my closet randomly opening or my arm being touched while i was sleeping, so im a bit worried what may attach itself to me if i fully try to create a imaginary friend.

These are the subliminals im planning to listen to, let me know what you think

I want to chime on this imaginary friend talk with saying that > im still worried about getting something attached to me or losing my mind
As long as it is a fantasy and you know it is a fantasy, without trying to manifest that idea into reality, you will not lose your mind. You do not need any subliminals or techniques for it, just use your own imagination and daydream. Source - someone who literally spent their entire childhood and teen years in their fantasy world surrounded by imaginary friends. It is so natural to me, I even still have them (as sad as it is).
Imo tulpas are where it gets dangerous and can make you go coocoo cachoo. As a kid I researched it and wanted to make one too, but often tulpas just go sideways with their "independent" life and become a burden on you. You never know what will happen. Your tulpa can just switch on you and start shitting on you 24/7. I agree with other anons on that you shouldn't use manifestation or tulpa-tier techniques for imaginary friends though. Just keep them strictly imaginary lol

I like your reasoning. I also had a bunch of imaginary friends throughout my childhood and early teens. Even now when I need to reason with myself, calm myself down or think through difficult decisions, I will pretend to have a conversation with an imaginary friend which really helps me sort myself out. I think that's very common and nothing to be afraid of, considering you're just talking to yourself in an elaborate manner.

I hope that I do not sound insane but I am begging for advice on something I really can’t ask people about.. how can I let someone go who has a hold on me? Lots of strange things have happened this year for me and I want to start my life but I feel as though something evil is holding onto me.

I’ll make a long story short but;
About last year I was asked to give a necklace of my blood to a partner of more than a decade, because we’ve been together for so long and was told it was a way of showing my love for them after months thinking it over and being bothered about it I finally gave In and did so and when my ex finally got what they wanted they left me and my life was hell.
This ex was toxic, controlling and a cheater but I ignored all of that because they were the only one I had, they wouldn’t allow me to have friends and put me down about everything. Every now and then I feel my chest is heavy and something is following or watching me I do a cleansing and that’s when I get random messages from my ex after months of not being messaged, they only do so when I can feel a bad vibe and cleanse myself almost like they know I can feel it or want to see if it’s working.

I admit I felt so scared that I did a “return to sender” and later that month after doing so I got the message “ did you wish me bad luck?” Which was strange.
Am I paranoid? Is it all in my head?

Another thing that has happened was when I was depressed I went to someone who did a reading for me, they told me that I would find someone who would act as my guardian angel, I shrugged it off not believing much then two months later I was randomly approached by someone who told me they felt as though they were my guardian angel..we hit it off and now I couldn’t imagine life without them.

I'm not a witch but this is probably the best thread to ask. Has anybody else experienced precognition? I don't just mean something in a dream or déjà vu; I mean seeing something while awake. A vision so intense it feels like a memory. And hyper-specific, too. Not like "it will rain next week". Or even a (possibly intrusive) thought, that tells you of your future, and is proven correct some time later.

I think that I get those visions during dreams and sometimes even while walking at night when I'm really in tune with the moon light. I have a strong feeling of deja vu and often tell my friends when it happens exactly. I also do 'prophecies' and tell them exactly how things will play out and they always get in shock when it actually happens. I can do tarot pretty well though.

Nonnies I've been sensing something weird lately, so I randomly decided to wander around school early in the morning and found this. And it's like, seeing someone's relationship with Dionysus as one indicating a psychological need for superiority and dominance really seems like a projection? And especially with Euripides Bacchae too, when the play is explicit about Dionysus's worship including egalitarianism in that his followers were equal before him.

Dionysus was an effeminate, long-haired pretty boy whose followers were almost exclusively women, and whose worship involved the escape from male society and finding libidinal freedom in the mountains.

My point is something else though. One witch i used to follow goes to far in my eyes. She went full on Christian witch, catholic to be more percise. She is praying to mary, reposts the popes memorial day and her altar looks just like a katholic one. This is obviously my personal opinion but i think everyone who puts their life online will be judged. That’s not trad craft at all to me.

This is weird because originally witches weren't even calling themselves witches, they were just women who were smart, too beautiful, too ugly, engaged with natural medicine and the like, speaking strictly of the women who were accused of being witches during the witch hunts in medieval Europe here, though, but I don't think there's ever been a clear definition of what a witch is. According to christianity it's usually a woman who uses her powers to cause harm, so why would she call herself a witch in a christian sense?

The vast majority of women who were killed in the witch trials were Christians themselves, The Canon Episcopi written in 906 which was official medieval Catholic Canon Law declared "Witchcraft" a Fantasy and a delusion, saying that the folk pagan traditions practiced in rural areas were just that, folk traditions and they should not be seen as valid to the Christian faith https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Canon_Episcopi that's what witchcraft and magic in general was viewed by the Catholic Church, the heretical but still irrelevant traditions of yokels, it was only after the black death, the start of the Inquisition as well as the publishing of the Malleus Maleficarum by Heinrich Kramer did the witch hunts really start the story of Heinrich Kramer and the Malleus Maleficarum its self is pretty interesting, apparently he was "scorned" by a Nun named Helena Scheuberin who didn't think his Sermons were all that good and was very open about her dislike for them, for this he put her on trial for heresy and the Church sided with Helena cause Heinrich sounded like a bitter Incel when he first published Malleus Maleficarum, he forged a bunch of signatures to give credence to his writings, including claiming that it was approved by the university of collogne. (which it wasn't) in fact, they condemned the book as heretical. the fucking inquisition had a similar opinion, and viewed the text as so heretical as to be downright silly.

he sent a copy to the Pope, where some cardinal approved the thing without actually reading it. the pope took back the church's approval and fully condemned it about 2 years later. unfortunately, the damage had been done. although the inquisition did not use it, secular courts (i.e non-religious courts) adopted it as an official guide, particularly in germany where it was written. when the protestant reformation occured, the protestants kept the document out of spite against the Catholics and began using it in their trials, though ironically the Spanish Inquisition was one of the groups who refused to do so the malleus itself had a number of issues. firstly, it treated the Illiad as if it were a historical document. second, it stated that women were the cause of the fall of all civilizations (with his only example to support his case being Hellen of Troy). third it claimed that women who were not constantly supervised by men would naturally become witches, including Mary the Mother of God (a statement which understandably made many catholics extremely angry and lead to them demanding that Heinrich get excommunicated). fourthly it claimed that any male who disagreed with him was an "archwizard", worse than a witch (which as it happens include saint augustine, who didn't believe in witchcraft either).

he also stated that it was regrettable that women had to exist in order to keep men from being gay, the book also included a series of stories to prove his case, which were all likely made up. they tended to be bizarrely sexual, including one involving a supposed witch that steals people's penisis and puts them up in a birds nest

I mean just read this >“Witches collect male organs in great numbers, as many as 20 or 30 members together, and put them in a bird’s nest, or shut them in a box.” But the disembodied penises didn’t just hang around. “They move themselves like living members and eat oats and corn, as has been seen by many,” Kramer wrote.
>Kramer reported that witches would sometimes take pity on their victims. When one man asked a witch to restore his missing member, “She told the afflicted man to climb a tree … and take which he liked out of a nest where there were several members
>When he tried to take the big one, the witch said: ‘You must not take that one, because it belonged to a parish priest

the main point is that "witches" as a group in the popular immigration never actually existed, they weren't pagan proto-feminists who rebelled against the dumb Christians, they were also Christians who just happened to mix in various local folk practices that the Church deemed heretical

Who cares? The value of myths isn't in their truth in a positivist sense, but in the meaning said myths cultivate socially. And when it comes to witches and the myriad stories surrounding them, they are obviously a symbol of female power and resistance.

If this is a problem according to history, then perhaps history is less important than mythhistory

There's no real way to be a witch in modern times since witches used to be regular women accused of being so, and in some parts of the world women are still accused and hunted for being witches, but I think as long as you have this in mind you'll have an easier time figuring out what witchcraft is and what it means to you. There's nothing wrong liking and finding comfort in spiritual practises, even the ones you make up for yourself. Yes, energy pockets, second guessing intentions, emotional feelings going array, spirit interference, etc etc. you can work to break the spell, black for undoing if you're into candles or color work, or take an egg and imagine the spell as a cord tied to your wrist and wrap it around the egg. Then break the egg and flush it down the toilet imagining the spell and bond being broken with the egg breaking and the energy gone back into world. If you made a physical representation like a poppet or a mojo bag or spell jar. Dismantling and resorting the energy back into the earth. If it's something you're worried is just bouncing back you could set up mirror wards so it "reflects" back at you. Etc etc.

Nonna spells won't make him not use you as an emotional punching bag. Telling him in whatever words you like to shut his fucking face every time he whines about not being over you is what helps with that. Refuse to engage with him if he can't behave like a civilized being. If you need magic to go with it, just radiate superior and untouchable energy until he gets the hint that you don't have time for pathetic nothings like him.

I don't want to be a complete bitch to him, but I've told him over and over again that I don't feel the same way and he just brushes it off. I don't want to lose him but he is annoying the shit out of me. I feel so uncomfortable, I told him everything I wrote above to his face numerous times and he just doesn't want to get it. He doesn't know what love is, he just wants to feel accepted and liked but he can't look into himself. All I can think of is to cast a spell for him to just shut the fuck up. He thinks showering me with gifts and compliments will make me like him but it just creeps me out and drives me away. He knows I don't care about that shit but he does it to make himself feel like the good guy. I want him to not like me anymore but not make him angry because he has issues and knows where I live. I'm just scared. I wanted to shake his hand when I saw him last week and he hugged me, when I tried to go he grabbed me tighter. I am honestly scared he will do something to me if I make him angry enough or break contact. Sage 4 blog.

You need to do a freezer spell. The easiest way to do this is to write your target's full name and date of birth if you have it (a picture may also suffice) on a piece of paper and fold it away from you as many times as possible, then throw it in the freezer to freeze him out of your life.

If you want to bind him, you may also take some black yarn and wrap it around the folded up paper/picture, chanting that this person is now bound and unable to do you any harm in the process. Then wet the ball of yarn with water and wrap it in aluminum foil and throw it in the freezer. I found this spell in a hoodoo book.

Working with St. Expedite has helped me more than a few times. The higher the stakes/lower the timeframe can make things a bit harder especially if you have a lot of doubts, but I recommend this. You don't need to be Catholic or Christian at all.

If saint work isn't for you, I've found bindrunes (premade from actual runes) to be very effective as well. Cinnamon in a candle with strong, genuine petitioning has also produced good results.

More than anything, you want to heighten your chances in the mundane world where you can.

thanks anon I was doing some digging and found some success stories with runes so I'll try those plus maybe the cinnamon candle too. you don't have to elaborate if you don't want to, but would you mind sharing any success stories you had with any of these methods?

I don't mind. St. Expedite has come through for me during periods of joblessness (bringing jobs), needing money during a very desperate period (to the point that I found money on the ground or it came through strange means).
When I wasn't recieving mail due to an unknown issue with my old apartment, he fixed that. Having things happen on time (from solid things like packages or appointments to more nebulous things) he's done. St. Jude has not been successful for me but St. Expedite has literally never let me down. Any 'lack of success' from him were things that I ended up benefiting from holding out. He works amazingly in desperate times but still works outside of them.

I pair him with St Michael the Archangel to beat back anything that might be blocking the work and get him where he's going since they are both of a similar energy to me.

Cinnamon candle works almost everytime as well. I sometimes put cinnamon or cayane into st Expedites candles as well. I have used it for the same types of things as above.

The bayleaf wish (idr if I mentioned this, sorry– write petition on a bayleaf, tealight on top, cinnamon in it and light it) I have used to get multiple jobs, being money, and find a lost kitten.

Runes have been wildly successful for me and I have used them to get jobs, help with some relationship issues, get promotions, for alleviating pain from some health complications for someone else (chronic) among other things. The most successful use of them I can recall though is getting a very very noisy neighbor to shut the fuck up. I had it taped to my ceiling and it's the only thing that helped. Runes overall are extremely powerful in my experience.

I get my runic formulas from an app (Ill post it if you want it) and from a Russian forum for magical practice. I run it through Yandex, and I've gotten my most successful ones from there. I like it because there are testimonies for how they worked and that's extremely helpful.

Hope this helps you Nona.

I'm reading this thread as a non-witch with fascination and slight amusement (sorry). When anons say "working with X" what do you mean by that? Like what does that entail? I'm terribly curious.

Anonymous 3 years ago No. 1433714>>1433781

Hi Nona,

"Working with X" is relevant speak for petitioning, requesting from, commissioning, all of the above.

It's calling the plumber to fix the sink, asking a knowledgeable person to advise or put in a good word for you, seeking aid from, or asking for favors from all into one. The details depend on what's needed but that's it in essence.

At times "working with" refers to a longer term relationship ie, the way you might say you are "working with a doctor to manage a health issue"

Good luck Nona. Take your time and work in good faith. Wishing you the best.

>>1434568
Of course. I will recount how I do it but feel free to swap things out if you need to.

You need 1 dry bayleaf, a pencil, a white tealight and some powdered cinnamon.

Write what you want on the bayleaf as a simple statement: "get the job", "pay rent", "whiskers come home" anything you need. I prefer to write it like the above because it is uncomplicated and because it allows room for the universe to work it out however it needs to.

I write in pencil because it doesn't crack the leaf. Personally, I found the color to be almost invisible on the leaf and something about that worked well in my mind.

Set the tealight on top and light it.

Mentally or verbally restate what you want, or explain yourself shortly: "I want this job. This is the job for me and I've got it" or "Whiskers come home.. I'll be hugging you in no time at all, home safe". However you want to say this.

I like to state what I want and that I've got it.

Sprinkle some cinnamon over the tealight. I like to flick some into the flame because it sparks.

Put your energy into it until you see fit and then let it burn. You can gaze at it or sit with it or leave it on its way. I like to sit with my candles for a while and have some tea, read, whatever. Not the entire time but for a bit.

Let it burn and then wait for your work to come to fruition. Try not to stress about it just carry on whatever mundane means are necessary to further your progress. I hope this explains it for you Nona. Best of luck.

Any suggestions on what I could do to discard used/unused items? I have oils and incense powders that aren't used or used once such as breakup oils and dume oil.
I rather not pass them down to someone since in my opinion they're not something that would be used for good and can alter others lives for worse and I rather not have someone harm someone else. If they are merely unused and not dedicated to anything just gather them up in a black trash bag and throw them into the dumpster.

If you want to say something while tossing it like "be rid of these things; to no harm of mine or any other" you are free to do so.

Don't worry, you won't be pissing anything off just by throwing them away. But, much of your fear might leave you if you work on lessening your attachment to bad things happening theoretically. Once the items leave your hands, if you gave them away, it has nothing to do with you anymore. You owned them once but no longer. That isn't your responsibility.

You still have to do "your part" on looking good and being interesting. However I wouldn't try to bind someone to you or push them to develop feelings, you won't die or anything but it can backfire, ex. the person may become clingy, obsessive, stalk, etc.

carefully. i like to do something similar to what anon above said and just mirror the collective weight of their bad energy back to them. i dont really use tools anymore but you can use reflective surfaces as visual aids and then concentrate your desire into your gut/heart and then push it like a laser beam into the mirror, visualizing the mirror refracting the light and engulfing them in it. meditate on this until you're out of emotional energy. if you judge someone without clearing up some personal cobwebs first you'll eventually have the mirror turn back on you with the same energy eventually, causing personal mishaps in your life. id recommend taking a few weeks to self reflect and do healing work first, like work on remediating the shitty questionable things you do before using the mirror. the only way to use it without fucking yourself over is in a relative state of purity. also there's no karma ever for using it against pedos, woman abusers and other sadists.

Anyone else view trolling as a spiritual calling? To me, it's something akin to prayer; often I will pour libations for Dionysus, and I view trolling people online or IRL similarly.

One of Dionysus's aspects was the libidinal sort of life force, and this vitalist principle finds its expression in the joy that comes from lulz (a corruption of lol, which stands for "laugh out loud."). To be filled with this joy is to be possessed by Bacchian madness and the destructive power of Dionysus, like those maenad women who tore King Pentheus apart in the mountains. I think my view is expressed well by Gabriella Coleman when she describes lulz as, "a deviant style of humor and quasi-mystical state of being."

wanted to post this to the confessions thread but thought it might be too unhinged for there, so here we go. i believe in multiple timelines or planes of existence. and that we can switch in between them, or can perceive other lives, past lives or future lives too. when i had a near death experience, or extreme emotion in my past, i could dream of or see scenes from other lives or my future. i know this sounds insane, so i asked my mom and dad and sibling if i had certain things happen when i was a child, and they said not. but i remember them vividly, like having had multiple illnesses, having been kidnapped, looking in the mirror and seeing my sick face and getting scared. being too afraid to open my eyes.
sometimes people say i spaced out during a conversation. i would then have a vision like this of something relating to my life. then within less than a second, the conversation would be back to normal, and i would ask them if i spaced out or passed out, and they would say not.

alright witch nonas, am I cursed or something petty like that? Blood and worms have been manifesting in my shower in the last months. At first it was just 1 worm at most 2, so I began cleaning 2 to 3 times a month with bleach and soap, which kinda worked but they kept appearing. I really didn't mind until I saw a singular drop of blood above my eye level, so like 170cm from the ground, on the shower wall. I thought it was mine so I splashed some water on it. but days later it happened again, same spot, same singular drop of blood. I didn't think too much into it until I told a friend of mine jokingly and he was like "that's freaky shouldn't you check up on it?" and was like why? I don't believe in anything spooky or paranormal I guess it gave him the bad yuyu or something. ZYou can, u jus t need to make a deep fire pit and keep it really hot like 1200 Celsius for like 16 hours.
It’s the time that’s the bitch to keep up.
If u wrap it in straw or hair or ash you can glaze it naturally too.
You could also buy a cheap, or get a free kiln if u have space. People are always getting rid.
But it would be nice to do it all natural.
Maybe combine it with a bbq/garden party where tending it was my feel like a chore

Probably not a curse. Sounds like blood worms anon, which are actually midge fly larvae. They feed on organic matter and aren’t uncommon in showers in some places. Throughly scrub down your shower, sink and toilet. Making sure to throw some cleaner down the drain and see if that takes care of it. Sounds spooky but is likely not.

blood worms are bright red though. these sound more like baby earth worms which means nona has a crack in her plumbing somewhere which may or may not be kinda bad. Nonas, is there a communication / messaging (for the lack of a better word) spell proven to work?
Like if there is a specific person, and we don't really stay in touch atm (no beef, just busy hectic lives, living in different countries etc), but I really wish to communicate a thought / message to them, perhaps in their sleep, and make sure it reaches them and they know it's me. Is there a way to do this?

Nope especially if the person casting the spells against you has their own wards which they certainly do. You'll just make it worse. Deal with your curse, if you didn't deserve it it wouldn't be working.

I reversed a moid's curse by burning certain substances and recording his name and other details, etc. You literally just have to be stronger than the person cursing you, don't fall for any scare tactics or victim blaming. Also, there are ways to cleanse yourself, but I feel that's culture-specific.

It’s really easy to reverse a curse from a moid cause they have like no actual power magically speaking. If a female witch cursed you and it’s working then you do in fact deserve it and she’s definitely stronger than you and at best you’ll accidentally redirect the curse onto someone else you love who would be deserving.

But if you think a moid cursed you that’s a different story and it’s really easy to negate. You’re automatically so much powerful than them just by virtue of being a woman.

Of course they wouldn't be mean to just any of their practitioners, they see you as someone they can extract power from in the form of worship and offerings. God forbid you ever piss them off or stop being useful to them.
>have you considered that you’ve interacted with an entity just using Bael’s name to gain fear from you?
I know that they are the ones tormenting me in dreams because I've worked with their energies before. That's something that a lower level entity can't replicate. I've also tried all the regular ways of banishing them, which should work if it's just a normal entity, and nothing works except calling upon angels. They are rapist scum.

Sure!
>the complete book of demonolatry by S. Connolly
This is just general basics of performing rituals, offerings for some demons, their titles and history(some even once being pagan gods), experiences, ect. The book was originally published in chapters, but this encompasses all those chapters into one. The book lays down the foundation of Demonolatry, and it’s completely free to read online! I personally recommend it because of how it takes away the stereotypical belief of demons being this malevolent entity with the sole purpose of making a person have a bad day

>Lucifer and the hidden Demons by Theodore Rose
I'll admit that I haven't quite finished this one yet, I'm using it as a way to learn more about rituals to better connect to who I'm working with. The book is much more thorough with the types of rituals and pathworking

There are a few others that I wish that I could link from self published authors, but I'm pretty sure that linking pdf files are against the rules here, but some of them you can read on EA Koetting's forum. Just to note, I'm not a fan of the guy but he brought many different pagans together who are not just Satanists who view demons more humanly than just sign deal for "power"

Also, Some of my interests lie more into Demonolatry when working with demons, so these books doesn't include Solomon practices, such as binding them or "forcing" them to listening to me.

>Do you believe in it?
Yes in the sense that I believe there is a power to trying to manifest and keeping positive energy about you. I truly do think negativity attracts negativity and if you do your best to be kind, do good deeds, and stay positive things will be better for you.
>Are you a "witch"?
Yes I am a witch but more accurately a secular pagan, I believe there's a connection we have to Earth and nature that we have been disconnected from due to our progress in mankind. I want to raise my kids as pagan and free from religious influence, Christianity in particular.
>Do you collect crystals, do spells, and believe tarot, or any of those neo-pagan stuff?
Yes I do all of these and have an altar, I don't believe in magic but I think the rituals are fun to do and help me as a form of meditation. I stay away from things like curses and dark magic because those, even though they are fake, are negative things that I feel will undoubtably backfire on you.

>Or do you think witchcraft is something to take more seriously?
I take witchcraft as seriously as I can in the sense that I do think it's a LARP to an extent but a fun harmless one. I know there are those who seriously believe but I am just not a spiritual person.
>Do you have any stories about witchcraft, brujas, rituals, shamans, and the like?
I come from a culture where Palo, Santería, Sansé, exist so brujería is a common topic.

I enjoy that witchcraft is unapologetically female and nature oriented, it's harmless fun. I do enjoy laughing at r/witchesagainstpatriarchy though, they're insane.

Fr, In his book he takes the Christian view of these entities as nothing but evil, binds them, and then he wonders why they acted aggressive or dishonest to him- real big whoosh moment >do you have fave demons to worship?

Right now, I've been working the most with Duke Dantalion just because he's been the most responsive and helpful towards what I've asked of him.
He's been referred as being very 'mind' focused, having a good understanding of the human psyche, so I approached him to help elevate some of my mental health stuff like depression, to keep me more motivated/have energy to do what I need.
He's helped a lot with that, but most of all, I came to this path as a sceptic so working with him, and feeling his energy was a huge wake up call that such entities can exist

I've read a couple of books on it (Budapest's books as well Women's Rites Women's Mysteries by Barett) and I am working on my altar and getting ready to start practicing but I really wish i had a community of women to help me out or even just to connect over dianic wicca with. It's hard to start practicing something like this without anyone to guide you or discuss your beliefs with. I dont really have friends I can talk about this with. I do believe in the Goddess but I don't really believe in magic itself, I more so want to practice it as a form of meditation and devotion whether it actually does anything or not. Part of me lowkey hopes magic is real though. I mostly intend to practice through meditation and focusing on the Goddess rather than casting spells but I also feel like it would be fun to cast them every now and then.

Pagan/witch nonna's, how does it influence your personal/social life? I don't hide it per se but I don't tell people about it either and brush it off/joke about it when they mention it, I'm scared they will think I'm insane or stupid. Especially in romantic relationships, how do you go about telling the person you're with about your beliefs?

Anonymous 2 years ago No. 1714281>>1861598

It doesn't really. I don't really talk about it outside pagan circles. I wish my friends happy sabbaths and give out yule tide gifts and foods when I do feasts for the sabbaths but other than that I don't really bring it up with my non pagan friends.
As far as dating I wait a while and once I think they're someone who's not going to be a dick about it I let them know I practice. My current partner is a sweetheart and has never been weird or made fun of me and even hung the shelf I'm using as my daily altar for me by the bed. I've dated other pagans and we practiced together in the past that was cool and I've dated people that were jerks but normally that's just a sign to cut and run because there's other stuff wrong with them. It's not really that big a deal.

Personally, I don't tell anyone.
Most the time, whenever someone brings up religion, it gets uncomfortable, and as a practitioner who works with demons, there really isn't much to talk about or share without someone giving you the look.

>>1714281
> I'm scared they will think I'm insane or stupid.
This is exactly why I don't share my practice. Even though being a 'witch' or working the left hand path is becoming more mainstream, there are people out there who will still wish to do harm to you. At most I say that I'm pagan because People will always look weirded out by you or think you’re a “magical snowflake”. They don’t need to know the intricacies of your work, and if the practice works for you, it shouldn’t bother you what other people think.

Side tangent, And I know I went on a whole spiel about being keeping this practice to yourself, but I really want to join some pagan festivals to actually meet others in a space not shrouded by witchtok and ‘light-worker’ beliefs. Does anyone have any experiences with going to these festivals, is it worth it?

Late reply but I wanted to answer still. With my husband I don´t talk much about my faith/spirituality because he´s not into those things at all. Generally I don´t hide my ideals and pagan thinking. I sometimes feel less connected and sometimes more to paganism but I really noticed that I started living more environmentally conscious. I try to avoid plastic, I spend more time in nature, I buy stuff second hand.

This is so weird to me. The modern equal to what was considered a witch back in the day would be any woman who goes against the norm in her society and is usually despised and blamed by men for it, aka childless women, career women and the sort. Hell, the single mother whose never touched a crystal or tarot card in her life is more of a witch than whatever this is supposed to be.

I think she's referring to the concept of Interpretatio graeca. basically before montheism became dominant most polytheistic people's base assumption was that everyone sort of worshipped the same gods but other people were just doing it wrong. Most of the time it wouldn't lead to much except the Romans listing every type of god other people worshipped as being Apollo. a lot of times it would lead to religious synchronizing and creating whole new gods and religions.

A little bit unrelated to the last posts but a lot of people are incapable of following the path they claim to belong to. It's okay to be eclectic but a lot of so-called witches misuse the labels of the traditions they say they follow when they incorporate practices that are unrelated and/or contrary to those paths. Neopaganism and witchcraft wide fields, if you fail to harmonize with a specific tradition you should use the word eclectic or something similar. I wish people made more resarch before labeling themselves as something they're clearly not. It's really disappointing looking for blogs and websites and finding so many incoherences, like people believing in hollywood type vampires and shit like that.

Is anyone else really annoyed by the recent acceptance of troons in witch communities? I’ve moved to another area and would like to befriend some people that participate in witchcraft, but it’s like every group I find has a 50-year-old man in a wig pretending to be a witch and manipulating what is meant to be a spiritual practice into some sort of fetish. I’m a Wiccan and so I do believe in the balance of divine feminine and masculine. It seems like almost blasphemy to deny the sex you were born with, and going against the grain of nature by trying to grotesquely mimic something you’re not. Embrace who you are and all. Not all witches are Wiccan, I get it, but I think most witches should believe in the balance of nature. Troons are destructive. It annoys me that these stupid

I’m gonna be honest I don’t know how to myself which is why I’m still looking around/reading other people’s experiences kek. I would recommend looking up reputable books about how to develop them, because I think most if not all people have these abilities but they’re closed off. Unfortunately I seethe a lot at the ones who are born with it naturally because they’re able to have seamless communication between the astral and this world and I’m still struggling but I know for a fact the things I’ve seen/heard/had thoughts about are things that can’t be explained away anymore. I would suggest meditation and visualization exercises, your dreams are also connected to clairvoyant abilities, you can even try channeling images and symbols through automatic writing, automatic drawing, exploring divination techniques that make you use your third eye and heightens your intuition. And about turning on/off tbh I don’t know, I feel like it’s more like you’re just able to ignore whatever comes through. I would say my strongest “natural” abilities would be claircognizance and clairvoyance but even then it’s still confusing.

Because the information is very well presented and has planetary, elemental, herbalistic and metaphysical properties.

Anonymous 1 year ago No. 1992334>>1992799

>>1992212
This is the only site talking about occult stuff when I search "red magic", the rest of results are related to videogames and smartphones
>Yes, there is. Red magic is described by the late exorcist of Rome, Gabriele Amorth, as a type of sorcery that “regards the sphere of sexuality and influences the sentiments” in his book, An Exorcist Explains the Demonic. For this reason, it’s often referred to as “sex magic” and is used to inspire passion in a love interest.
>Red Magic is also referred to as Hoodoo, a derivative of Voodoo, which was carried to the United States by West Africans during the slave trade. It is a blend of spiritual practices indigenous to the people of the Congo and other African tribes.
>The practice gradually began to incorporate Christian thought such as a belief in God and His Providence but seeing Him more as the archetypal hoodoo doctor. Some practitioners believe God created the world via six days of hoodoo magic spells and often portray Biblical characters as hoodoo doctors. The Bible is used more as a source of spells and is considered to be a protective talisman.
>Red magic is practiced much like other versions with potions concocted from herbs, minerals, and parts of animals’ bodies, but especially semen, menstrual blood, saliva and urine. Spirits of the dead are often called upon along with recitation of psalms from the Bible.
>This explanation should be enough to convince you that red magic is just as evil as it’s white and black counterparts. They all rely on wizards, warlocks, shamans, and witchdoctors who in turn rely upon powers that are not sourced in God.
>As Father Amorth explains: “All turn to the same preternatural entity, the wizard, who, in all these cases, resorts to the power of Satan in order to obtain the invoked result. Therefore, there is no difference among them, ‘black,’ ‘white,’ or ‘red’.”

>All are sourced in evil, and all are to be strictly avoided.

>Red magic is a highly potent magic type. It can forge strong and long-lasting bonds between two people. It cultivates energies like passion and lust, but is also the color of anger and violence: just like any other magic type, red magic must be treated with care and respect.

>Red magic encompasses all the magical practices that influence the emotional or sexual spheres. It, therefore, fills the gap between White and Black magic as it can have both positive and negative consequences.

>Red magic spells can be used to strengthen a pre-existing love between two people, or it can bend the will of a target to make them feel a connection that did not exist prior to the spell-casting.

What happened when I dream about a spirit telling me not to do witchcraft? Real question

Anonymous 1 year ago No. 1992660

Could be guilt/anxiety if you don't feel comfortable with practicing yet or had a religious upbringing that discouraged witchcraft. Could be a spiritual guide trying to keep you from casting spells that will be harmful to you or your peace of mind. It's a good sign to evaluate what kind of magic you've been doing and whether it's improving your life.

I usually work with the seasons and dieties that rule the days of the week. I appropriate Greek gods and goddesses and I don't really care. I started worshipping them long before if was considered bad to appropriate another religion. Don't care. My favorite diety to honor at the moment is Persephone but I used to exclusively focus on virgin goddesses because I was a virgin until I was in my 30s. Now it doesn't seem right. I rarely work with male gods. I do also honor ancestral spirits and try to get guidance from them, particularly any dead relatives I personally knew.

OP if you are working with spirits and dieties please do share, I enjoy reading other people's experiences.

Just a striking thing Nona, I immediately thought of Lucifer when you talked about this figure. He's one of my guiding figures and he has many forms, but the one I know him as has worn a deep reddish suit in some unusual fabric for as long as I've known him. He warns against being ruled by anything. Your money, your wants, your hatred or anger, your lust, etc. Don't let anything rule you and be wise.
This is just an aside of who it reminded me of. But this sounds more like a warning to gain self discipline and not use witchcraft or magic for stupid things or out of anger. It's a common "rule" of magic not to work outside your mind as in, do things in the right state of mind whether a hex or curse or a boon or protection spell. do it because you know exactly what you're doing and do it knowing that the consequences (not a 3 fold anything nor """"karma""""" but any ripples that your work causes) are yours to deal with. If you curse someone and it works but you're consumed with guilt you need to stop cursing until you can stand by your work on its grim truth. Your dream sounds amazing. If I were you I would leave a glass of water or alcohol, or a cigarette out for that spirit because he gave you good advice and might have come because you're walking wrong on the right path. Dont quit magic. Discipline yourself.

Anonymous 1 year ago No. 1992859>>1992871

I should have written "I think you're cringe", I think it's cringe because I believe that appropriating another culture's divinities is performing a larp, you have no connection at all with those gods/goddesses. It's like European people doing voodoo or people from outside of Scandinavian worshipping the Norse pantheon. The ancient Greeks may be dead but there are ruins of Graeco-Roman shrines and temple ruins all over the Mediterranean up to Britain, France and even Ukraine. There are lots of rites and ceremonies well documented by ancient historians as well. I think that there should be some ancestral connection between the past and the present in terms of culture or location if someone decides to devote themselves to certain deities. If there's nothing like that, any claim of "connection" or "compatibility" with a certain group of divinities feels quite dishonest. Greek gods weren't omnipresent like the abrahamic god, they inhabited certain places, forests, fountains and islands. There are myths and sacred festivals directly associated with certain deities and the places they inhabit, just like certain specific rites. How can someone claim to worship X God and do it in a way nothing like the ancient people from that culture did? I'm not against certain modernizations but there are always clear limits and I think cultural appropriation is one of them. But that's just my opinion.

Ayrt, that’s fair and I somewhat agree. However, with the greeks specifically, as an ancient global power, their culture dramatically impacted many parts of the world, so I think that anon could argue they do have some sort of connection to greek mythology, especially if they’re of european/mediterranean descent. On another level, I just don’t really care what people believe in. And I don’t really care about “cultural appropriation” by its SJW definition (I’m actually surprised to see that term being used on lolcow now kek). That being said, I think what you described is why I find a lot of spiritualists cringey in general (genuinely not saying this to be hateful, be cringey and free for all I care). Like it almost always seems like a larp. I’ve tried connecting my own spiritual practices with my culture/religious roots, but it’s not like my mom or her mom were practicing the same way, so you could even call that a larp

> However, with the greeks specifically, as an ancient global power, their culture dramatically impacted many parts of the world
I wouldn't say they were, not at least when compared to the Romans, who you could argue that they catalyzed the impact greeks had on the Mediterranean world. I think that during Alexander the Great the influence of orient on the Greeks, their biggest expansionist moment, it was more important than viceversa (importation of foreign cults, divinization of the emperor…)
>so I think that anon could argue they do have some sort of connection to greek mythology, especially if they're of european/mediterranean descent.
I agree with that and the rest of your post, although I do care about cultural appropriation because it ususally leads to misinterpretations (often in an abrahamic way) and consoomer attitudes towards those spiritual elements that are being appropriated (adding angels, demons, foreign or modern divination techniques, buying lots of unnecessary shit).
>Like it almost always seems like a larp.
I does, yeah, maybe because we see on the internet the worst of neopaganism, people who want to show off crystals and fantasy knives, while the people who practice in almost total austerity don't talk about it.

Why does women's spirituality trigger people so much, even the atheist women? Why does it matter so much if people buy crystal and read tarot? It's so much fun. I have had weird experiences lately which made me go down rabbitholes but none of them are connected. The only significant and spooky one was that I was trying desperately to use the very little developed clairaudience I had to hear anything and it was during the night when I was sleeping, that's when I get the most messages tbh. It was one of those weird things and something communicated with me, "American.. just like (insert relative of my mother's who's still alive)" and I don't really know much or even think about my relatives like that since I was the last one born. The morning after I asked my mom which of her relatives on her side were born in the US and it was one of the people that "spirit" or whatever was in my room. I'm pretty sure I offended them and tbh I'm not really fond with the idea of ancestral work even though it's common for people with my background but it was just so bizarre. I've also had weird sexual experiences as well with entities but I'm gonna seem psychotic, it's not that you're actually having sex it's a complicated energetic feeling. Had me moaning out of no where and shit kek but that's all for now, sadly no significant communication in dreams only weird ones where they may appear or give me names of spirits but no direct contact.

They find it offensive because it conflicts with their faith. Everyone has faith in something greater then themselves; technology, logic, a parent, a car. They have faith that those things will come through for them but don't realize that a lot of female spirituality is us discovering our own power and coming through for ourselves (there is no higher divinity then the true self imo). And as we know women having a deep faith in themselves has always upset people. You commune with spirits under your steam, it is up to you how you address that and handle that, no one can take that from you. Tarot is a lot of self directed intuition practice, it helps you know self and other on a deeper level, it's pretty much you giving yourself guidance by meditating on thoughtful prompts and directions. Practicing craft and by extension Witch craft is a practice in empowering ourselves, building a skill, bringing us closer to nature, each other, a higher self and ancestral connections (gods/goddess/ancestors/spirits/etc), it's a faith born of ancestral intuition (as far as the through thread I've seen of womens spirituality) and self.
It's honestly kind of beautiful to realize that women are constantly rediscovering our power and connection to each other, the past and nature again and again. That no matter how many times people destroy, denigrate and talk over us we just keep doing it.

Just repel the consoom and follow your interests, if you feel like reading about meditation go for it. Extract bits of information here and there about anything related to spirituality that peaks your interest and can help you feel centered and conneceted to that part of you that seeks for trascendence. Devoting a particular space to your spirituality also helps a lot, like a room or a corner of your bedroom, even if it's only a special quiet place outdoors you go to breath fresh air. Start preparations for a small altar if you feel like it, you don't really need nothing fancy for this. Make your beliefs present in your daily life through a DIY charm or an amulet. Create your own daily or weekly spiritual routines: meditation, blessings before eating, cooking recipes that use specific ingredients, lighting candles…

I asked my tarot cards how to make it through the serious problems that are plaguing me. I drew a three card spread and the first was the inverted Strength, the second was inverted The Star, and the third was inverted Three of Cups.
I'm stumped on how they show a path through my problems.

>>2000308
Maybe your cards are telling you what's keeping you from making it through your problems? Inverted Strength often means doubting your own abilities, so not using your strength to sort out your problems. Inverted Star can mean a lack of intuition, or not trusting your instincts. Inverted three of cups is a broken table and loss of trusted friends. I'm kinda wondering if your cards are telling you that you already have the ability to make it through your problems (telling you that you have Strength's capabilities, Star's intuition, and Three of Cups's camaraderie), but aren't currently using them?

is this a past/present/future? strength reversed represents a lack of will or confidence to face the situation head on. star reversed all hope is lost controlling a situation, also feels like you’re very vulnerable and should pull yourself out before something embarrassing can be used against you or already has. three of cups reversed is more of a “go your own way” card, you’re being too pulled into the drama and hysterics of whoever you’re involved with and the feelings and experiences become so enmeshed it’s sucking the energy out of you, i personally see it as an energy vampire card even upright there’s a lot of energy and impulsivity going on, how far can you go and play along until the illusion and games completely falls apart along with star reversed, your identity and individuality blended in with the people you’re close to and can be your downfall. dump whoever you’re asking about kek this feels so familiar spiritual attacks that lead to death are incredibly rare. it is possible for someone to be cursed to become sick/diseased or get into lethal accidents but i’m just certain your friend had underlying illnesses that unfortunately caused her death, it’s better to seek mundane answers over the fantastical or it will just drive you completely nuts. when you’re under stress or experiencing low energy or negative emotions that’s when those entities start to take advantage of your situations and make you more worried than you need to be, so just set up basic protections and commit to your regular spiritual hygiene. cord cut if necessary gods work in weird asf ways. sometimes they don't answer what you want to know, they answer what they want you to know. annoying, but that's how it is sometimes. you got a greeting, that's great though!

you don't have to practice if it makes you feel uncomfortable but it's completely normal to not communicate like others. everyone does it a bit differently and it's all good. as long as you feel comfortable/not disturbed with how you receive messages and you're being instructed helpfully, you're doing just fine.

Hi witchnonnies, I'm going camping in a few days and will be in nature for the next full moon. I want to have an esbat outside and I want some ideas. What are your favorite things to do for esbats/full moon rituals? So far I plan to cast a spell to develop my psychic powers, meditate, and drink saffron tea with moon pies. I'm not sure how to make an altar outside though so since I can't really bring mine from home

if you want to make an altar, you can improvise with whatever you find out in nature (a wand is just a glorified stick, can arrange stones in a circle to represent elemental fire or use a campfire, etc.), as long as you do the whole leave no trace thing and return what you used. bring altar tools if they help with camping, or just bless your camping tools for the occasion (don't need a ritual dagger when you have a trowel for example). rituals are flexible, use what you have and you'll so great. happy esbat nonna, can't wait to hear about how your moon pies turned out!

>What are your favorite things to do for esbats/full moon rituals?
Eating and drinking! Basically having a modest season banquet with local products and things I cooked myself, I can bury the washed peels from vegetables and fruit in the ground later as part of the ritual. Cold cider and wine are my favourite drinks for the occasion if it's a warm night, hot beverages like tea when it's cold outside. One of my favourite activities is lighting a small fire (only if you're somewhere where it's allowed to do that, in my case I have a small yard), extra points if I've got something that will make the fire smell good, like fig tree or lemon tree leaves, herbs and other specific types of wood. Once I have the fire I'll have my dinner and afterwards I can meditate looking at it, the crackling sounds make it easier to focus. If you play any instrument (I don't kek) you could chant or just play a bit, I've read that big covens usually have witches playing drums, but if you're a solitary witch like me you may enjoy a simple whispered chant. You can place your altar in a rock or in a tree stump if you're lucky to have any around you. I leave my stuff on a tablecloth on the ground. Like anon said >>2008051 flexibility and simplicity is good when it comes to rituals. It's very easy to leave undesired traces outdoors, and also you could want to leave at home any expensive or precious instruments while you're on a trip.

I think it’s natural to find/make your own gods/spirits honestly, spirituality feels a lot like coming to your own conclusions so it seems apt.
When I was a kid I worshipped the rain and wind, there are plenty of deities that hold those domains but being a kid the only gods I was aware of seemed to have different domains and even if there was some cross over they didn’t feel right so I just pretended my own.
The rain was just “the rain” in my head. I’d pray all the time for the rain to visit and it always seemed to show up when I was lonely. Whenever it would rain I’d go “visit” my friend, play outside in the rain, and when I couldn’t I’d always feel like I was being rude/ungrateful. The wind was the same but where I didn’t talk to the rain I talked to the wind all the time and would interpret the different gusts as various kinds of replies. Whenever it would blow particularly hard I’d spread my arms as if for a hug. I think I was just a lonely kid but the associations I made still holdover even now. Whenever it rains I feel happier and I still stop and enjoy the breeze whenever it’s particularly windy.
Now that I’m getting back to my spirituality I’m tempted to find gods specifically of rain/wind but at the same time I feel it would be more apt to honor my friends from my childhood. So I really believe it is a personal thing, if you can find connection with named gods that’s just as well but there’s nothing wrong with finding your own and naming them either.

For me I do a couple of things depending on the type of card:
Major Arcana, when one of these cards keeps cropping up I ask who the card might represent among my friends and family, if I get a really strong association I'll contact the person to catch up. Otherwise I ask myself if there's something unresolved I feel towards this person.
Suit cards, instead of paying attention to the individual card think about what the suit might represent. Sometimes if a suit card keeps popping up I put it aside and do a spread then see if it changes any meanings within the spread or offers more insight.

This is not a fucking mental illness you retards. If you don't believe in these things including nature spirits then don't shit up this thread with your "non-belief". That's what nature spirits are practically known for and it's not schizophrenia or psychosis I'm tired of people slapping these severe mental disorders on people who are religious or spiritual, there must be some kind of agenda where they only love to ascribe these mental disorders to people who believe in the supernatural and it's always people who don't even know or understand what mental illness is nor have the capacity to be diagnosing random people on the internet for it. I'm not an atheist/secular "witch" and have just as much as a right to my beliefs as anybody else.

ayrt and Nona I do believe and spend a lot of time in this thread. However there are a lot of spiritual phenomena that can look similar to mental illness and being involved in spirituality can make mental illness worse if you don't keep it in check. If you don't have issues with your mental health, then great! None of the shrink talk applies to you and you can safely ignore it. But I've known practitioners who don't take care of their mental health and they ignore physiological issues by convincing themselves that whatever they're dealing with is a spiritual problem and refuse to entertain other ideas. You have to rule out the mundane before you assign a magical explanation, simple as. If you've ruled out the mundane (misplacing things, etc.), then multiple anons itt gave you excellent advice for how to appease spirits.

Thanks for sharing that nonna because it makes me really angry when people think schizophrenia = spirituality. Rest assured I have diagnosed mental issues (and have received psychological help in the far past) but none of them are close to the realm of schizophrenia/psychosis and I don't hear voices or see things outside of those rare instances. Last night I think I identified who it was doing this and I'm just not going to say who it was because it would seem like "defaming" this goddess, but she's connected to nature and nature spirits. It wasn't to be mean I feel like it was kind of a test to put up good spiritual protections, or they may have been slighted? I don't know, they don't really go by regular human etiquette so they do what they feel like is necessary for you or for themselves kek, that's why nature spirits or even most of these beings can be so mischievous

You're welcome and I'm really sorry if my post came off judgey. I both practice and am very mentally ill, so I worry about witches because it's so easy to assume everything is magically caused when sometimes we're just extra sick and need stability. Since you know which goddess is probably behind this, do you have information about what she likes or how she is/was worshiped? Doing a small act to acknowledge spirits is usually enough to get them off your back for awhile. Most of the nature spirits can be appeased by just helping nature or reducing humanity's impact, like growing kitchen herbs or picking up litter. If it's not just a test of spiritual boundaries, it might also be a call to nature? Like going outside more or bringing the outdoors indoors?

I think it may have been a Greek goddess because I heard one of her nicknames/epithets I never knew about until now kek. I'm gonna be honest I think I said something rude and they didn't like it because I was angry they were barely helping me at all. She is one of the popular goddesses in that pantheon but I'm honestly still researching and considering if I should because it costs a lot of money to set up altars, buy stuff, it's just so costly and it would be upsetting I spent so much money on a deity where nothing falls through. Also yeah I've been more isolated inside my house and I would like to go more in nature, so I'll consider that. I will also consider doing a small act or finding offerings they generally like. Thanks for the help anon!

>it costs a lot of money to set up altars, buy stuff Nonna no, she's a nature spirit. Consumerism and overproduction is destroying the environment, so buying extra stuff won't make her or your wallet happy. Spirits are just as acknowledged by a meaningful arrangement of twigs under a tree as they are the most expensive wand because most of the magic is what you make of it. Find somewhere nice and peaceful outside and just enjoy yourself for a couple of hours when you can, you might see a sign or two from the local fair friends. A year late, but this was 100% me. I was obsessed with fairies to a crazy degree. I spent a lot of time thinking about them, drawing them, playing games related to fairies. I used to send my aunt emails full of made up facts about them. Every time I made a wish I wished I could become a fairy lol.

As a teenager I got kinda interested in witchy stuff, but was never able to believe any spiritual thing 100%. I did a little prayer offering to a pagan goddess and did have a dream about her, and years later a vision of her while tripping.

I wouldn’t say I’m a witch and I don’t practice witchcraft, but I think the things that give me a sense of spirituality are a connection with the land, it’s history, and it’s folklore. So in that sense I have some pagan tendencies.

I can’t believe anything 100%, but I can feel a connection to certain practices and beliefs. That skepticism doesn’t make me uncomfortable anymore I’ve found it’s just an aspect of my character and it helps me connect with religion and culture in a more healthy way than trying to be an unshakeable devotee.

I had this situation the other day where I was talking with my brother and (i forgot what we were talking about that made me say this) i made a joke about him having a "selfish demon attached" (my exact words). He made a weird face, tensed up, started moving his arms weird, and then started crying. It was a really strange reaction so i thought he was joking, but he kept crying and when i asked he said he was serious and that he felt something grabbing at his shoulder when i said the "selfish demon" part. This is really unusual behavior from him. I asked for more details about if he heard or saw anything, but then he freaked out again and fell on the floor startled. he yelled and pointed at nothing saying it was right there and that he heard it breathing in his ear. I didnt feel any aura and didnt see anything but he told me he saw a dark hooded figure. We lit a candle and sprinkled salt around the area. At one point we opened a certain door and the light wouldnt turn on and the candle blew out, but we carried the candle through the house. he said he continued to see it in his peripheral vision the rest of the night.

Any ideas what this could be? I don't think its anything too powerful since I couldnt feel any aura, but i did a banishment ritual just in case. My brother has not encountered it since. Is there anything else I should do? I know these things like to try to stick around undetected, and i guess it felt called out by me. I also thought it was strange that he only reacted after I made comments or asked questions about it. Could this have been suggestion?

Sibling dynamics can be super weird, and early 20's isn't so old that I'd put it past a guy to overreact (hell, some fully keep going into their 30's), so I can understand why you'd wonder if it was just suggestion. That would be the best case scenario.
Mid-range bet is some kind of minor metaphysical attachment - people from a Christian background could describe these as 'demons' but sometimes they're not as sentient as even that - which the banishment ritual shuffled off. If he hasn't complained about anything post-banishment, I wouldn't do anything else because sometimes going overboard w/ protection methods can attract unwanted attention more than whatever you were trying to protect from.

Worth giving it a few weeks and checking back in with him, though. Worst case scenario would be that it's something that's very good at 'hiding its scent' since you didn't get any whiff of it during this entire encounter or afterwards, but there is also no reason to believe it's anything actively malevolent. Like not to be dismissive but literally 'being touched', 'hearing things', 'emotional reactions', and 'seeing dark figures' are all Ghost-Adventures-tier phenomena and like 99.9% of the time those guys aren't even close to anything actually demonic or even spoopy - it really is either just suggestion, or something extremely minor being interpreted in the creepiest way possible because getting freaked out in that situation is completely normal.

My recommendation would be a combination of doing some money-raising rituals to recuperate the loss and then cursing the thief in separate stages, but if you want a your-mileage-may-vary cocktail solution, see below:
>If the law has treated you unfairly, invoke this spell and justice will be done.
>Take the Justice card from a Tarot deck. Now light a blue candle and place the Justice card on the right-hand side. Write your name and address on an unused piece of white or green paper and place it to the left of the candle – you can also use your thumb-print instead of name and address.
>Light thirteen votive candles, to represent the thirteen lunar cycles of a year, and place them in a circle around the candle and card.
>Say a prayer in which you ask for protection to be placed around you and your family.
>Write your wish regarding the legal matter on a piece of paper. Sprinkle it with rose oil and burn it in the blue candle's flame. Place the burning paper on a saucer until it turns to ash. Leave the candles to burn out and your wish will be fulfilled.

also, if he 'went through your family' and the involved party doesn't want to pursue charges, does this mean someone gave it to him of their own volition? not to be nosy, but it's better to be as specific as possible - so when writing 'your wish regarding the legal matter', make it as objective and airtight as you can.

Thanks nona, gonna look into getting all the needed supplies. And yes, it was given to him of their own volition, but it was a trick. I'd prefer for him to return everything of his own volition, or for something to happen that forces him to return it and makes him feel intense shame (or otherwise get punished) for his actions.
After all the candles have burned out, do I clean everything up, or leave it to sit?
Also, would tea light candles be sufficient for this sort of spell, or do I need to stick to prayer/votive candles?

Now that I think about it, he had started trying the whole manifestation thing recently thats popular with gen z guys and has been more of an asshole than usual. I wonder if he was feeling guilty about being an asshole maybe or if he called something weird while trying his manifestation exercises?
The being touched, hearing breathing or whispers, and getting strong feelings of fear and despair is something that used to happen to me a lot as a child, which is why i thought he may have been experiencing something similar, but the hooded figure is a bit much. He may have been copying what used to happen to me, but didn't know what the figures looked like so he filled it in on his own.

Yes, for an ex that cheated on me. All I asked was for him to suffer and to receive karma. Nothing specific. He got in a car accident, and shortly after that he had his car stolen and when it was found it was trashed. Perhaps it was all coincidence but nothing like that ever happened to him before and this was all after I did the hex. I did hexes on the other cheating party as well, but I have no idea if it worked or not because I wasn't in communication with them.
I haven't had anything backfire.The threefold "law" is made-up. Otherwise, anything good we did would come back to us three times and all those bad people would be getting their punishment, which we know unfortunately rarely happens.

reply to an old post, but I really agree with this. The problem is, how do you continue your practices in a completely different country/region where there are few if any plants that your tradition usually works with? I can't always import stuff to where I am now, and I will be in this location for the time being. Is there a way of getting attuned to this location's forces and somehow practicing with your deities but adjusting the ingredients and components? I'm in the US right now and I don't feel like praying to Native American deities is appropriate; I have no connections to them anyway. Any practicing nonnies that move often and feel this way, too?

In short, I cut a family member off from my good vibes and let her stew in her choices for a few weeks. It seems to have worked, because I heard from her today that she's trying to reconcile with her daughter and wants to see me again soon.
>And did it backfire in any way?
So far it hasn't seemed to, although I didn't put anything malicious or harmful in the hex. I just wanted her to reap what she was sowing and stop bullying my mom.

After a fallout with a former friend I keep having thoughts of bitterness related to her, and I want to move on and not focus so much on her in such a negative light to not attract bad energy. I have a feeling that there's something more than meets the eye that's happening because I usually do not react this way when I distance myself from someone, and she is pretty into spirituality as well (that was one of the few reasons why we grew close in the first place). Is there a way I could cut off whatever suggestion my come my way and let go of whatever is linking me like this?

I catch myself thinking of her and how she is thriving while I'm spiraling and I'm a bit worried since this is very unlike me, it genuinely feels like something that's beyond conscious and not something I want to focus on, but my mind keeps going there. I am trying to focus on my life and be self aware to catch and redirect these thoughts but I was hoping there would be maybe a protection spell or some mantra I could use to be free of this?

Thank you in advance nonnies, I don't know where to start since I am a novice at this and this is the first time it's happening to me

I feel like there are some deities that go by different names in different cultures but are really the same entity. Like Isis/Venus/Ishtar is the same mother goddess but worshipped in a different way by different groups. For these deities, it really shouldn't matter where you are, they'll still be able to hear you. The offering given also seems to differ based on geographic region, so maybe doing some research on the native plants and picking one suited to your purpose will work. I try to use what is available to me and it usually works, but occasionally I do have to go out of my way to buy specific spices or herbs that are imported.

The ones that you wouldnt be able to pray to would be nature spirits that are tied to their geographic landmarks. I feel like they are a lot more particular to what they will accept. These would be the native american ones I guess, I dont really pray to these and they dont really listen.

You're still going to have thoughts about your former friend, that's unavoidable when we lose people we once loved. But it's what you do after and with those thoughts that directs the magic. Next time you find yourself thinking about her, just wish her well in your head and go back to making the most fun out of whatever is going on in your life at that moment. No need to dwell. She (metaphorically) came by to say hello and all you have to do is think nice thoughts in her general direction and send her back out like you would a houseguest who needs to skedaddle before your next work shift. What do you think about Santa Muerte? For context, I'm Mexican, my mom is catholic (although spiritual and with witchy powers), and she always tells me to not make deals or pacts with her because she's a spirit/deity that works with criminals. However, I once metaphorically cleaned one of her spaces (literally just cleaned/reorganized/added info to her wikipedia page) and I remember her conceding me something, not sure what it was, maybe money? But I think she was nice to me that one time. So it feels like she's welcoming but I don't want there to be a catch or something. I feel like you have to have blind faith towards her and not judge her, but I'm still unsure. Even typing that is scary to me.

I already have ties to another Mexican spirit, but I promised him to keep it secret. I'm not sure if I could worship European deities, I have tried and it feels faint, like they wouldn't listen. And I don't feel so comfortable. I also don't feel comfortable worshiping more mesoamerican gods, the major deities tend to be very masculine, destructive and demanding. But here's the thing, I have felt a pull towards a Caribbean Orisha, Yemaja. Whenever I think about my difficulties I think about her. But I'm not Caribbean, I'm not afro latina, however I keep thinking about her. Santería is practiced where I live though, but people think it's satanic or has bad energy. I don't feel the bad energy from Yemaja. I'm scared of angering her though if I enter her faith. Specially because I'm just latina. What now?

Anonymous 1 year ago No. 2029726

Nta but as a dianic Wiccan I only address my spells and rituals to goddesses, and that's perfectly normal too. Dianic wicca rejects the traditional Wiccan duality concepts though, so as I see it, there is no separate male divinity because men are just a product and offshoot of womanhood (in that literally males are genetically altered females, and spiritually the concept of a mother/female goddess can create both herself and males, but males cannot create her or themselves. They are just an extention of her ability to diversify life). I dont personally spiritually resonate with maleness and things that Wiccans consider "masculine energy" or the male principle of the universe are already embodied by the goddess. I also find it liberating to not identify with male and female stereotypes about male deities being necessary for certain spiritual favors/energies. Women and by extension the Goddess are whole unto themselves, worship of male deities is not required. No shade to anyone who does of course I'm just saying it's okay to not worship any male gods

Is anyone here into psychedelics? I ask because I want to do a spell/ritual before my trip to set intentions and ask the spirits for a safe and happy experience (tripping is really spiritual for me). Idk what related offerings I could choose or even who to address the magic toward (I don't think there is a goddess of mushrooms or spiritual journeys specifically). Has anyone else done a pre-tripping ritual before? I can't be the only one doing this, shrooms and goddess worship are literally a pairing as old as time

You can absolutely do that. If a practice makes you feel weird, you don't have to include it. Magic is flexible like that. Heck, there's no reason you can't genderbend traditionally "male" spirits and worship them as women. (There's a few entities I follow who aren't clearly defined, so I've occasionally met other people who worship them as a guy when I work with them as a gal and vice versa.)

this one is common:
https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Lesser_ritual_of_the_pentagram
There are also some in the holy book of women's mysteries by zsuzanna budapest
The basics of it is to visualize the space becoming clear and to have positive intent. For example, extend your aura like a balloon around you as you walk through your place, make sure your headspace is in a spot of peace and power. At the cardinal points, command the spirit to leave either by your own power or by invoking holy names (you can use the christian ones in the LBRP if you want). Do something in the physical world as well to help ground the action such as burning rosemary or palo santo, or sprinkling salt. Clean your house as well and let light in. I also like to open my windows if it is a sunny and windy day to help blow the spirit away and replace any stale energy.
Don't be afraid of it, these spirits are actually really weak. They just like to prey on newly budding psychics and witches to feed on your energy before you know how to shoo them away. But theyre not actually dangerous.

DAE gatekeep witchcraft and if so, why? I love teaching magic and bringing new people into the fold, but I won't instruct someone if their voiced motivation to learn spells is to manipulate someone's emotions or seek revenge. Basically I won't teach someone if it comes off like they're using magic to get what they want from others instead of using magic to BE who they want for themselves, if that makes sense?

>inb4 "but I've been practicing for double digit years and do revenge and emotion spells all the time"
I understand that those kind of spells can be part of a seasoned witch's repertoire, but I don't believe it's a healthy place for someone to start so I refuse to share that knowledge with newbies. It feels gatekeeper-y even though I believe that it's a reasonable boundary.

I think some of us can absolutely go overboard with this concept, but most "divine feminine" doctrine boils down to pride in being a woman and celebrating skills and traits which are underappreciated under patriarchy. I roll my eyes hard when a woman makes fun of divine feminine woo because odds are high that she's self-hating and tries to compensate by being "rational" (in the atheist moid dogwhistle way).

This is the one part of her post that I 100% agree with. Witchcraft has been incredibly consumerist for the last 15 or so years (possibly longer but I wasn't practicing back them). I think >>2108799 had a point with the nlog comment. I personally wouldn't spend $900 on that kind of get together, but there are plenty of women who would pay that much for a worry-free weekend with her besties as well they should.
>As a life long atheist, it's frustrating to see grownup women escape religion, find feminism and then dive first into some new age delulu hoodoo
Unpopular opinion, but someone who is atheist enough to post about it on reddit is still religious, just that their religion is the belief that they are not religious and are rational thinkers due to their lack of religion. They still seek community (reddit) and faith in something (usually some sort of knowledge that they need an expert or educator to explain for them) the same way religious people do.

Since everyone else is chewing you out I'll assume you're human and just made a mistake and have good intentions. See the spell here for influencing the minds of others. You can ask the Goddess to urge your friend to hear you out, if I were you I'd just influence her to give you a chance to apologize rather than influence her to outright forgive you. I don't really care about the ethics, it's magic, you're supposed to use it to help you and as long as you don't want to force her to forgive you then I don't think it's wrong to ask the Goddess for a chance to say you're sorry. If it doesn't work you'll know you should let it be.

Honestly, I agree that a lot of the "divine feminine" is more male propaganda. Instead of pride in being female and in being the source of creation, the globo-moid establishment repackaged it as glorified barbie worship. Instead of female divinity, it is asking you to channel male-invented femininity. I think it is a big part of "trad-wife aesthetic" growth. social media portrayal of witches shows us as being highly consumerist and stupid. I don't think most of us are like this, since we believe in connection with nature and a longing toward spiritual truth. That said, I can understand this woman's frustration based on the false image of witches she has been fed.

I agree the "divine femininity" stuff is based on stereotypes about women, but (as in Dianic wicca for example) not all wiccans espouse it. I dont believe in "divine femininity" or masculinity in the same way I don't believe in any gender woo, just in the Goddess, who embodies all the aspects of humanity including the masc/fem stereotypes of both genders. Even when wiccans do believe in divine femininity they're usually just trying to gas themselves up as women, and I can't really deny them that even if I think its patriarchal, they can always come around. The only complaints I think she makes that are valid are the in-group competitiveness, and the encouragement of schizo thinking, which is the only dangerous thing about magic imo. For the most part she's just mad her friend believes in stuff she doesn't, which is what it boils down to for most atheists kek

Thank you so much for the reply nonny. I was spiritually attacked as soon as I realized that this was real and there is a power to it. Can I ask you or anyone else something else. I struggle with praying constantly in my head as a function of OCD and sometimes I think offensive intrusive thoughts, I don't mean to. How hard is it to offend the God and Goddess? I believed before I offended them and they sent a demon to test me but I think that is bullshit now and was all an illusion by the lesser spirits that were attacking me at the time. I am aware this all sounds extremely schizo. Did any of you guys do apology rituals for things you did as baby witches? Is that neccessary is that foolish and narcissistic to even think you could be that important? I was briefly given the ability to stare in to the sun without harming my eyes, was that a trick of one of the lesser spirits or is that something the Goddess and God would do for you?

Have you tried the Seek app? I primarily use it to identify random plants, and whenever someone records a plant it pops up as a square on the in-app map. You can also look up plants to see the distribution. Each dot is pretty small so it's possible to use that as a guide to find certain things. Of course, it relies on other users marking them.

A good freezer spell is easy to do. Visualize cord cutting/severing from the person you feel is responsible, or actually do a cord cutting ritual. Sour jars are an option if you want to go that route. Cleanse and protect yourself, your energy, and your home. Open windows and doors and burn sage or palo santo all throughout your house if you are able to. Smoke cleanse yourself. Carry protective crystals or amulets with you or wear them. Place them under your pillow. Place black tourmaline near your doors. Line salt outside your doorways. If you can get them, place iron nails in the ground at the corners of your home. Look up protective runes, draw them wherever you want. You can use chalk if you want. Visualize yourself protected and shielded.

This shit is even more retarded than conventional religion, how embarrassing. “Witches” are a bunch of vapid wannabes with power fantasies at best, wasting their meager paychecks on tacky crystals off etsy and then whinging about capitalism on social media. Because they are totally not like everyone else, see themselves as superior, but have nothing to back up their enormous egos so they have to retreat to fantasy. Probably why the scene attracts so many trannies, they have that in common.

Great point! There is so much consumerism to observe in the witch-scene it’s disgusting. Personally I don’t use crystals at all because I never had a good feeling about it. A lot of gemstones are connected to childlabor and worse things. I personally see it a lot with oracles, every insta witch has her own tarot card deck and every month 5 new decks are released. Tarot isn’t some willy nilly thing you can just make up yourself.

On the one hand I agree with you on the other I think the subject matter is interesting. 'Witchcraft' is nothing new, why is it so appealing and to women especially? I think it taps into a spiritual need that Abrahamic religions neglect. It allows people to exercise some agency over their situations in a way that 'passively' waiting for divine intercession does not.

What opened my eyes to it was reading Plato and Jung. I would recommend the Republic and man and his symbols. I think most of us get punished for interacting with what we see beyond the veil, so we become overly "rational" and repress our spirit. So in order to rebuild it, we need to go through a "rational" path to rediscover spirit. If I knew of a good beginner book made by a woman i would recommend that, but the ones I know are a bit more advanced.
Once you read these two, and especially Jung, you might start to notice strange dreams, and when you try to interpret them you might notice very ancient symbols. Those are spiritual messages. Here is where I would lay off jung since he has a very male way of interpreting the symbols that is at best only partially useful to us. Keep the framework, but discover different modes of interpretation.
It depends on what you are trying to banish. The part that actually banishes is the mental state of peace, all of the other stuff is meant to ensure that mental state actually occurs. I think that if you believe you need to do banishing rituals all the time, you start to develop an anxiety that evil spirits are always right outside your circle waiting to get in. and that if you have any doubt theyll slip through your defense. I dont think this is very conducive to magic. I prefer to think of the other side kind of like a radio, your mental state turns the knob and allows you to tune in to different channels. So if you are feeling good and peaceful, those are the spirits you will attract. If you are feeling anxious, you will attract spirits that are attracted to that mental state. The spell you are doing or the spirits you are interacting with will work better with different mental states. Practice your meditation and focus on achieving a void state where you are tuned in to every frequency and no frequencies at once. This will be the most beneficial practice for your banishments. Sorry if it sounds counterintuitive, but im not sure how to explain it better. You want to be able to see existence from outside before you do your magic. Some other things you can try as a bandaid fix would be creating protective amulets, using protective herbs, and asking for protection from deities.

Wicca is a new age, hippie crock of shit. But I read tarot and I've been interested in scrying. I consider myself a thelemite and a perennialist. I'm into various folk magic (particularly hoodoo, Italian, and Mexican), but more so into Qabalah, hermetic magick, alchemy, and Egyptian mysterious. I'd like to join The Rite of Memphis Mizraim, but they want a pretty extensive esoteric resume, so for now I much just join OTO since Crowley supposedly put a lot of Memphis Mizraim into OTO.

I'd very much like to try enochian Magick. But I've stuck with divination (tarot, tea leaves, and runes), OoB/Astral projection, meditation, and some candle magick. Shinto and Hinduism greatly interest me as well. More of a general occultist than a witch, I guess. At least from modern connotations.

I like to do foot soaks with sea salt and florida water to cleanse and ground. Having my feet in the water makes me feel connected to nature (even though it's not outside) and the salt and florida water are purifying. I try to take deep breaths at the same time and focus on relaxing and just noticing little things. It seems to help me concentrate later maybe because it quiets my mind. It's nice to do a tarot reading right after, too. Adding epsom salt is nice for relaxation as well but I don't know if it has any magical purposes.

Anyway separate from that, what do anons think about oracle decks? I used to always stay away because they are kind of just made up by whoever wants to make them, I don't know if that makes sense. It would probably be better suited for different work than what I do (It'd be great for recommending spirit guides, but I don't do that kind of work anymore.) I'd probably like oracle decks more if I had one that was based in concepts/emotions instead of each card associated with a particular spirit. What's your deck like nonna?

I'm feeling spiritually lost honestly. I'm stuck between Christianity and 'witchcraft.' I've always been attracted to witchcraft since I was child but my religious upbringing stopped me from partaking in it, until I turned 17-18.

I had completely abandoned Christianity during that time and started doing rituals. I jumped headfirst into demonolatry. It wasn't as scary as I thought and not much happened, except for this one encounter. I couldn't stop thinking of this particular demon so I put my period blood on his sigil, put it under my pillow and asked him to come to me. I woke up in the middle of the night and saw the shadow of a bulls head on the wall (the demon has 3 heads, one being a bull). I felt like he was here. I asked him to be my mentor and these images started flashing through my head. It was like they were being air dropped into my mind. One of me standing in front my burning school, one of a lady being axed to death before resurrecting. Those are the only 2 I remember because the images were going so fast. I went back to bed and heard a female voice whisper 'beail/beale docture.' Still dunno what that means, sounded like some sort of foreign language. Nothing else happened after that even when I tried to repeat the ritual, in fact none of the other rituals I did during that period of my life worked at all.

Something happened that spooked me away from it and back to Christianity but now I'm just feeling lost. I don't know what path to take. I'm just feeling frustrated. I just want a connection. I'm tired of God or whatever other deity feeling like some distant figure that I can barely reach.

Sorry in advance this is a bit spergy and preachy.
The thing about witchcraft, and spirituality in general, is it's personal and personalized. You just have to do what works for you. That can be hard if you're trying to fit into a community, but there aren't a lot of rules if you're just exploring faith for yourself. tbh I've known several christian witches and they get on just fine lighting a candle to Mary on the esbats or whatever. What I mean is that despite what strict adherents will tell you, you aren't locked into a single religion assuming you aren't in a repressive shithole. Do whatever you need to do to keep up appearances if it's an issue of safety.

>I’m tired of God or whatever other deity feeling like some distant figure that I can barely reach.
Everyone feels God differently, which is a sucky answer but it's true. Some people get it through community (churches, covens, study groups, etc.), ritual, service, prayer… I can't list it all because there's so many. Personally, I can't feel God if I'm physically close to people or buildings, so I go out in nature when I can and do all my praying there; if I can't do that I do crafts at home to feel closer to my ancestors. It took years to figure this out, so don't feel pressured if you try some things and they don't work for you. Either you'll get there or you'll find more important things to occupy your mind, both are good. Good luck nonny, I have faith in you!

I just sort of caved and bought the Woodland Wardens deck by Jessica Roux, it was just so pretty and I like the concept of using forest creatures in divination. I really want the faery oracle deck from Brian Froud the most but I think it would be more like something I keep for the beauty rather than actually using. I heard the reprinted card stock is really bad though so I'm waiting.

Okay that sounds pretty scary, but I think you could try connecting with lighter spirits instead of going straight like demon so it's not clashing with your Christian views. As someone mentioned already, you could even just pray to Mary or an archangel although that sounds more Catholic to me. You could also try nature magic along with Christianity so it's not so confusing and you aren't being pulled in multiple directions.

You might try looking into ancestor work so you don't have to feel connected to a god or deity that feels out of reach.

Has anyone else experienced phenomena during a storm? Milton hit last night and while the power was out I saw a glowing figure in my house, and I thought at it "what do you want?" and immediately into my head popped "shelter from the storm" and it disappeared. I've never experienced phenomena before and it was probably my eyes playing tricks on me but I cannot explain how clear this figure was and I couldn't blink it away, it stayed in the same spot, and there was no furniture there I was mistaking the shadow of. It was human sized and had no features, I could only see its shape because it was ringed by swirling cyan light. For some reason I got the impression it was a woman wearing a shroud or head covering. Anyone else who lives somewhere that gets hit by storms and had odd experiences?

This is going to sound kind of insane, but did you all know that spirit incels exist and they target and curse radical feminists? While working with the goetic demons, I was literally schizophrenia cursed by one of their legioncels after the actual Paimon told him not to work with me and to stay away from me. He and a couple of other legions literally pretended to be Paimon the whole time just to fuck me. Then a large group of spirit incels and a lot of goetic legions found out about the schizophrenia curse and started dogpiling me with curses, nightmares, and they raped me for months through my tactile, auditory, and visual hallucinations. Time is very layered and works a lot different in the spiritual realm and they even put curses on me that affected my past, like they made me fat as fuck as a child so everybody would hate me and they put curses on me that made my depression worse. The goetic demons have been helping me subdue them and they even promised that they would start culling their nonvirtuous legions. I've been chanting Buddhist mantras to remove the curses also.

Just wanted to give everybody a warning that spirit incels do exist and you all should check for any and all curses and black magic that may have been placed on you just for being a woman.

Does anyone have recommendations for online resources? for communities or forums, the reddit witchcraft sub is quite unacceptable and filled with undesireables. Also for books or guidelines? Please. Or I guess a general question of how did you nonnies learn?

Anonymous 1 year ago No. 2217867>>2220283>>2223775

Relating to Tarot I've really enjoyed the Kippy's Kwest series on the interpretations of the cards.
When it comes to learning I'm mostly listening to whatever comes my way online and see what resonates with me. (Oddly enough Shera7 has a witchcraft channel with old streams I'm enjoying) Even if I have a witchy/spiritual friend we don't really talk about our practices because she's the type to tell people they're wrong for doing things differently so even if you do find someone irl it's still a cointoss. I'd love to have a coven irl of other women to do rituals in the night, but it's kind of a unicorn if you ask me.

Unrelated but I've gotten a lot of ladybugs coming in my apartment since this summer, way more than what I'd encounter usually, does anyone know if it means something?

It's way later than what I'd expect ladybugs to live (especially since we've had subzero temps in the evening) so I'm wondering if it's a sign of some sort.

Anonymous 1 year ago No. 2220283>>2220841

>>2217867
Ladybugs are a sign of good luck and mean good fortune or love is coming. When I was a kid I heard an old wives' tale that says if a ladybug lands on you, the direction it flies away is the direction of your true love or soulmate.

On a more practical note, ladybugs will come out on the warm days during cold snaps in the fall for last minute chance at breeding and shelter. They like to try to get inside a lot during this time so they can survive. If you find a nest inside your house you should get rid of it though, they smell really bad. If it's just like 20 random ladybugs walking around it shouldn't be a problem.

thanks for the confirmation nona, I imagined it was due to the fact that it's much warmer in the apartment than outside but after I shooed out a couple and got like 7 on the window it felt a bit on the nose lmao

Do I really need to buy exotic materials or specialty candles to hex someone or can I use items that I can easily buy at a grocery store? Also, any tips for it to work better?

You can hex someone using herbs like red and black pepper, chili flakes (like what you get with pizza), a black candle and a walnut. A skull candle could be used for mental punishment, a whole walnut could be used instead (walnuts look like brains); just dress it in some banishing or baneful herbs from your kitchen and you should be good to go. It's the intention that matters most. If you can get a cheap little black candle you could carve the person's name into it and then dress it with cooking oil and the pepper. Focus on what you want and who you want it to happen to while you're burning it. I've also used garlic cloves and just thrown them into a field after writing what I want on them with the person's name. That was more to make someone go away than to punish. Make sure you also protect yourself so it doesn't backfire on you. It might be good to do a mini purification ritual on yourself after, something as simple as smudging with incense or using salt water to cleanse yourself (put it down the back of your neck, on the bottoms of your feet and wrists). Good luck, anon.

Look up freezer spells, too. I've never tried it but I think you write your intention on a piece of paper and literally freeze it in a container in your fridge and it holds that person in place. Usually it's used to make someone stop gossiping about you and makes them leave you alone. I'm thinking you can unfreeze it and add more herbs as many times as you want if you want to make shit worse for someone.

I tried putting a love spell on someone who practices witchcraft. I did it one time. I thought it went great even asked my tarot about it. Next day I tried doing it again (i'm mentally insane) but the candle I used wouldn't light up. It did this creaking sounds and like specks would come out of it and burn. Candle looked just fine too! Waited few hours. Tried again. Wouldn't light up. Tried hours again wouldn't light up. Got scared. Stopped.
Told myself today I was done. I will respect the universes wishes. Then I tried lighting the white candle. It worked… Flame was just smaller than usual.

Nona I understand you, something changed this year. I'm esl and don't know the right wording. But one of my witchcraft friends told me this was a special year of harvesting or "reaping and sowing" I think is what would be in English. I wasn't into witchcraft back then, so I had no idea what she meant.
Then this year, all the people who have been good had massive things. They got married, pregnant, went to Europe, promoted etc. And all the shitty people around had their come uppance; getting fired, ostracised from the community,illnesses, got broke etc. Every other month I'm like "This is REALLY the year of harvesting" I think you're living it as well. Do you know the name of the woman? It's always easier to reverse magic if you know the name of the curse dealer.
If not, you can try one of these, swim in the ocean (make sure to completely submerge yourself) during a waning moon. A salt water bath also work, but it's less powerful.
Wave a selenite wand through your aura. Imagine you are surrounded by a dirty bubble. As the wand touches the dirt, it cleanses it away. This one works really well for me, but it needs to be redone periodically.
Get a black candle, place it in a bowl of salt water. Only about one inch of the candle should stick out of the water. Light the candle and as it burns, pray for the curse to be broken. Allow the candle to naturally go out as it reaches the water. Take the candle, break it in half, then bury it in a shallow hole you've dug with your hands in the dirt. Pour the salt water from the bowl in a circle around the buried candle.

Writing this like a reddit post but I (29f) went out with my (30m) last night and almost got into a fight with some black dude and a smaller white girl. The bd was giving my roommate shit cause we were coming in from having a cig and my roommate was trying to get thru the crowd waiting to get into the place, he mistakenly patted this particular guy on the back to say "excuse me" and he just kept going "yeah dont fucking touch me dude" and being genuinely obnoxious. I end up walking around him cause fuck that. My roommie and i go in, we get out drinks and go to a table, i see him (retard ape man) coming in so i go "lemmie walk up to him and show him we had a stamp" and as I am he starts going "SEE THESE ARE THE PEOPLE THAT WALKED IN WITHOUT PAYING" immediately trying to start shit, so I immediately started yelling at him and his stupid fucking Broad City looking girl he was with. Eventually some woman bouncer separated us and I explained the situation and she was like "yeah sorry we had people come in who skipped out on paying" and i said "im sorry but we were here before anyone even came in and all we were trying to do was get around this guy cause he was in the fucking doorway" anyway FUCK that dude and his entire posse. Went full chihuahua last night. I will yell and come at anyone even if they can beat me to a pulp. During the end of their retardation I was just like "have a GREAT night, no seriously have a fucking wonderful night". Still angry about it. Sincerely hope those people died tbh

i feel like if you don’t even know what black magic is you don’t need to be trying to mess with it. did someone tell you they cursed you? why would they have? it affects the person who casts the spell more than the person supposed to be affected. the only way for this to have power over you is to psychologically believe you are cursed and create a self fulfilling prophecy. if it makes you feel better, rub an egg over your body imagining it soaking up all your energy and break it into a glass of water. look up how to interpret it. it’ll show you there’s no curse and it cleanses you at the same time. no one is going to be able to curse you effectively unless they’re like some actual voodoo person and is there someone in your life who does crazy voodoo? probably not. you’re safe. the only way you would make yourself unsafe is by trying to curse the person back and getting bad luck drawn to you.

The big problem with love-related magic is that most of the spells are intended to affect the other person as opposed to the caster. This both makes them less effective and comes with ethical complications. Effective love magic targets the self and is focused on enriching your own life in order to attract the kind of love you deserve. Basically the more you seek someone who has feelings for you, the less likely you are to find them because that focus takes away from the attention you should be giving yourself. Unironically, the strongest love spell available is to love yourself in the most complete and healthy manner you can, until you are perfectly content with your own company.

This allows you to shine like a beacon to attract other complete and healthy people and gives you protection against subpar lovers (strong sense of self worth and boundaries usually scares off people with attachment issues). Good luck lovernonna!

Does anyone here do witchcraft with other people? I've always wanted some kind of community but always practice alone.

Anonymous 1 year ago No. 2251255>>2251277>>2251997

This might not exactly be related to witchcraft, but I imagine people in this thread have a more spiritual mindset and could perhaps help me out.

I've never been spiritual, but this year I have been diagnosed with an autoimmune disorder that will affect me the rest of my life. I am lucky to have a good health care system where I live and I am being taken good care of by medical professionals, but my mental health is suffering. I struggle to stay positive. Struggle to accept this new life and knowing the eventual surgeries and treaments that awaits me down the line. A lot of women I've met who have a sense of spirituality also seem to be more at peace with themselves, and I would love to just know if there's something small I can start with that could make me feel more connected with myself and what my body's going through. Doctors have told me that a positive mindset is important for the body, and any measures I can take to do so is good, no matter what they are.

I also have a lifelong autoimmune illness, and what made me come to peace with it was joining the reddit communities for it kek. Seeing and talking to people with the same illness and laughing at relatable memes made me feel so much better about it. AI illnesses suck shit, it's good to surround yourself with people going through the same thing or to at least see and listen to what they say.

I have had chronic pain for 5 years from a car accident. I've had a hard time dealing with it and I've had to become more spiritual to find any type of meaning in my life. A lot of that means for me slowing down and trying to enjoy the moment when I can. I like to sit outside a lot and listen to the sounds and maybe have coffee or tea or something nice to drink. I try not to rush when I do anything. I make sure to plan nice things to do every day even if it's eating a sandwich I like or watching a movie I enjoy. Basically being more appreciative of everything has helped, it's hard at first but it's kind of like practicing anything. The more you try to find something good the easier it will become. I still feel a lot of pain but I'm taking in everything else as well. It makes me feel closer to nature and the world in general. People rush so much but having a chronic condition forces you to slow down and that's how you can see things other people don't. I'm babbling I'm sorry.

As long as it still swings in both directions without you forcing it, it'll be just fine for use. Just cleanse it and let it charge in your favorite energy hotspot. If it doesn't swing right, you could still use it as a wand (with or without attaching it to a stick first). That jagged tip looks excellent for directing energy.

Hi nonas, I originally posted the below in the tarot thread but they suggested I post here. Im just going to copy paste:

It’s about my friend’s parents; every time they do something (buy something, get work done, go out etc) it always goes wrong. My friend told me about it and at first I said these things sometimes just happen, but they recently just spent a lot of money to get some house work done.
Today I notice the exact spot where the work is going to happen starts leaking which would prevent the work being done, and now they will need to spend a LOT more to fix the leak. The leak was not there before.
Are they cursed? Can I protect myself and my friend from this curse? Can the curse be broken? I know it sounds absolutely delulu but it’s.. creepy. The odds of this sort of stuff happening constantly can’t be a coincidence!

Hi nonnies this is me I am back yet again still losing it over this. This situation happened early this year and it hasn't slowed down at all. I tried learning more about Scorpios since I have a Scorpio stellium and apparently being ruled by Mars (aggression, power) and Pluto (death and transformation) makes me a "catalyst of karma". This entire year is a karmic year, but it has been so overwhelming nonnies I'm afraid to say astrology and such has won me over. I'm currently looking for related books to learn more about this so if anyone has any reccs I'd appreciate it. The manifestation feels more powerful as the year is ending
>Family member who tried to slander me gets thrown in jail
>No one listens to me when I mention my manager's behavior with an underage co-worker is concerning. I'm mad as fuck and wish on his downfall >in 2 weeks he decides to "relax" and be more open about their relationship (aka he groomed her) and the workplace is in disarray as workers start going to HR/one of the managers attempts to protect him (this upset me so much because she LITERALLY just had a baby girl. How can you look at your daughter then throw another one's daughter to the wolves?)

>He then admits via text she's protecting him so HR is now on her too
There's been more but I don't have the energy to type it all right now. I almost want to get into witchcraft as well, but I'm interested in still staying within the themes of justice, karmic judgement, etc but I'm not sure where to start. I'm trying to look though.

Luciferism, is one that I would immediately think of. It's what lightworkers want to be except it actually allows the practitioner to delve into “”darker”” stuff without bigotry or hypocrisy of remaining “pure”. Keep in mind tho that like Satanism, there are several branches some including whether or not they are theistic in their approach and others who are atheistic(thankfully you get less edge lords than the Satanism crowd)- you just need to know where you go and stay in that lane bc it's no use arguing with the other side

Have you tried just taking a break from spirituality and religion- Just to take a stand on the outside and to view it all objectively then to come back to the practice that most interests you? Kinda like taking an atheist approach before developing back into spiritual means.

I've found that a lot of people who want to separate themselves from Christianity end up going the polar opposite, when they haven't given themselves enough time to breath and separate themselves from ingrained beliefs installed in them.
But if you really want to keep going down the Christian route, I recommend what another person said and to specifically call to Yahweh. The big G word, like Satan for me, is ambiguous, it's a title for the spirit, so by calling their name directly (through mantras or Enns), your more likely to get a response when putting out offerings.
Also, From what I understand, the Abrahamic faith doesn't really “teach” people how to commune with their god, so please give yourself some leave. When a spirit speaks to you, it's never going to be like movies where you'll always have an external source specifically telling you what to do. It's all internal, in my experience, and you'll always be questioning whether or not you're actually communing with a God, especially when you're told that you have to be “special” to do it. Always write down your experiences and see if they start lining up Nonny, you're a riot.

Spirits don't have a sex, they're undefined beings, so for some they will appear more "masculine" or "feminine" than others. But if you want to focus on Gods with a 'history' or lore tied to the emasculation of men:

I haven't worked with her, but Lilith is the first one I would think of. Despite her more "girl boss" nature that new agers or neo-whatevers are trying to attach to her to desensitize her nature She's literally the embodiment of chaos(as her origins were of being a representation of storms) and violence tied to both sexes but predominantly the violence and rape done onto men. She does have connections to stillborns and death of children tho as well, but I haven't heard that being an issue for practitioners who have children. I've also heard that her energy can be intense when invoking so there's that too.

Artemis and Aphrodite (Venus/Astarte/Astaroth) are two other beings who contain myths in which they don't "bow" down to men. Where Artemis is known and bathe with other women and punish men who glaze at her, Aphrodite is suggested in some Greek myths to actually be a force of nature in her own right, having connections to Venus (not just a planet of love but at one point suggested to have ties to war).

Sure, it’s true if you’re into Hazbin Hotel or strictly follow the Abrahamic mythos of her character. I’m moreso following along her Ancient Babylonian/Assyrian mythology, also her origins predated any of that and one of the first, more written, accounts of her follows the Epic of Gilgamesh

I really like Chhinnamasta. She doesn't embody hatred so much as primal fury, life borne from destruction, and self control. Like her primary depiction is her having severed her own head, using the fountain of blood from her neck to feed herself and her assistants, while stomping on a couple in the middle of having sex. But any female death, destruction, or rebirth deity is a good place to start. Those women are metal as fuck.

I’m sorry, but I genuinely don’t know what you’re trying to argue here. Lilith since her origins has never been referred to as being a spirit of positive connotation. The word “demon” used to describe her is used under the modern Lens of a being that brings ill will to humans. Babylonians had never had this word and described her as a spirit of wild winds, it’s literally in her name of lili or Lilitu = spirit

Ntayart but I want to sperg about this >spirits don’t have sex
This is true since they don’t have bodies like us but one of them (which I know is a very real god from the celtic pantheon) was super sexual with me without even me knowing his name, which is one of the reasons why I was completely turned off from wanting to even worship/work with them. It was also weird that none of the deities around me said anything and just let his spirit do weird spirit things to my body or maybe the corporeal spirit or something I don't fucking know I'm not trying to be too schizo/woo woo about this but it definitely happened and it was super embarrassing because that spirit did it when my sibling was visiting me and we were sharing a room. I swear I'm not schizophrenic, I'm sound of mind I just believe in weird things and have somewhat interacted with some spirits/deities especially the one that was very sexual with me for no apparent reason. Nowadays I don't really sense his presence but I'm 100% sure he's lurking around and watching me because they love to be silent which is why I can't really trust them. Lilith imo I've never came across but she feels annoying as fuck, idc and Venus to me is just Asherah/Astarte/Ishtar playing different characters in a cultural mask which is very strange to me because Inanna is very close to Artemis but Inanna is also associated with Venus as well and stars, there's also similarity of her function and Lucifer's. I don't think they're badass and when you look very closely at their stories they're not really admirable, a lot of them make so much excuses for their husbands, don't really care their male consorts are raping and cheating on them/or they still stay with them despite this fact, are associated with prostitutes/sex slavery/old world trans ideology which is just being an eunuch who chopped his balls and wore dresses in worship to the goddesses while they were also granted higher position over other women and also were our "pimps" or to watch over us as we were owned by other men. I can't trust the goddesses anymore, they all feel like tramps, handmaidens, whores, honestly they're like the spiritual equivalent of a lot of female lolcows

Anonymous 11 months ago No. 2340907

I mix witchcraft with mentalism/manifestation. I do spells, and they work if I envision my desired result with a clear and open mind and the right head space. The mentalism alone isn't strong enough for me, or I just haven't tried hard enough. But I use ingredients for specific effects so it reinforces my beliefs. I've casted silly spells on friends to get them to like things or talk about something I like for a day, it worked. I've casted larger spells for luck and success and they go decently. I've never tried cursing despite wanting to, maybe I'm a coward but I do believe in returns.

Nonna, you might want to read her post again, she didn't say >Spirits don't have sex
as in they don't engage in sexual activity. She said >Spirits don't have a sex
As in they aren't male or female the way humans/animals are. Like there's nothing stopping you from taking like Asteroth or something and worshiping them as either a male or female spirit, because it won't matter to the spirit themselves how you choose to perceive them.

> was super sexual with me without even me knowing his name, which is one of the reasons why I was completely turned off from wanting to even worship/work with them
I've experienced this before, and how I chose to interpret this, is just as a bad energy alignment. In my own work, I've found that there are some energies that feel much more uneasy to almost aggressive to me, despite other practitioners saying that they have more positive associates with said spirit and visa versa. This is why I don't think that this is necessarily intentional, it's just an aspect of their domain in which they harbor and not many people would like to associate with- hence why I perceive them and then just avoid them when this happens >granted higher position over other women and also were our "pimps" or to watch over us as we were owned by other men. I can't trust the goddesses anymore, they all feel like tramps, handmaidens, whores

I mean, it's a very cut and dry interpretation of their myths, but You have to remember that most of the mythology associated with these beings are a representation of our culture, and therein written by men. It's the reason why in a lot of cross comparisons of once powerful goddesses end up turned into masculine archetypes, such a Gremory who despite in the Goetia is physically depicted as being a woman, is referred to as "he" "him", or even we see in Greek myths, Athena is much more vengeful towards human women compared to men- Aka: showing favoritism. Myths are always being revised under a current lense, like how Artemis is now suggested to be lesbian and potentially not a virgin but was depicted as such because to Rome/Greek if you didn't have a penis in conception then it wasn't sex.
This is the reason why I don't care too much about the myth interpretation of our spirit guides. It's cool if they coincide with our own UPG, but at the end of the day, they're stories with their own agenda and outside of sharing the name and domain of the God, they really have no relevance to our practice. But that's just my take

I've always been very much a scatterbrain and it's fucked me over more time than I care to count, but I've been doing a decent amount of tarot readings for myself and sometimes friends.
I have two decks that I use interchangeably since the tone of the answers will vary depending on which deck I use (one of them I see like a familiar and the other is like a house cat kek) but when I don't have a specific question I want I use a specific card to set my intentions/help me get in a specific mindspace. Nothing crazy, I just have a small figurine of a which that coincidentally makes for a good holder for the card and I light some tea lights in front.
My dream rn would be to get to a point where I have people in my area we can practice with like a coven but the one person I know is NOT the type I want to link myself with sadly.

No it wasn’t energy alignment, it was very much intentional and it happened repeatedly until it completely stopped one day. I could feel it practically doing weird things to my literal vagina anon kek, it wasn’t horniness or getting off to their energy it felt like it was pulsating like sexual movements and I could feel it like they were trying to get me to orgasm. It happened randomly sometimes and through my mind’s eye or whatever the fuck you called it I saw extremely sexual images, so it was definitely intentional and it was a masculine deity. I’ve made it abundantly clear I don’t want any of these energies in my space anymore but some of these deities keep coming in despite me making sure they don’t, I honestly don’t know if they’re imposters or anything but I keep hearing their names so maybe it’s just my OCD thoughts. This shit is so hard which is why I this year I decided to just not do anything too spiritual anymore and I’m just tired of being seen as weird or schizophrenic for my beliefs

I think a lot of people that are into witchcraft tend to have this superiority complex, it's treated as this grandiose serious thing when most of the time a spell is very mundane and, well … boring. Kind of similar to how manifestation "girlies" would rather make an autistic tier super complex vision board instead of taking actions in their day to day life to actually get the things they want to manifest.
Furthermore at least in my country people see you as a bimbo for even mentioning that astrological archetypes can be used like personality types but they slobber at any and all religious superstitions so even if you have people around you that are into it or would be open to chat about it they tend to keep to themselves.

I kind of disagree, I feel like witchcraft and tarot is more popular now than even 5 years ago, the problem is that these communities fall under an umbrella so you have practitioners coming from different views/experiences. Heck, For some, this is like a shiny object, new and strange, and they were introduced to this work because of trending sites like witchtok, which focuses purely on views and getting the publics attention.

I also think misinformation is much more bountiful simply because the lack of critical thinking, fearmongering, and lack of self reflection for some practitioners, especially for people just starting on this path. This isn't necessarily bad, everyone starts somewhere, but I've noticed that this is a very academic path and some take works at face value without considering the author's pov, or even come to question 'why does object x mean this? Where did that come from and how is it relevant to me in my own work?'. It seems like people want a simple and easy answer, like a wrapped up present with a pretty bow on it, so to some, 'object x means xx, because of course it does', entirely forgetting that this path is very spiritual, UPGs are meant to form, and that how it looks for one will not look large same for another Nonna we've still got another 100 or so posts left to go on this one. A new thread will get locked.

>Where does the power in witchcraft come from, is it all from spirits manipulating energy and peoples minds?
Yes. All of that and more. How much of what depends on who you ask and what they believe.
>Do you guys believe in the rule of 3?
Sort of. I don't rigidly believe everything will come back to me threefold. But I do think that if you spend a majority of time doing negative spellwork or just dealing with bad vibes all the time, you're going to attract bad vibes too. Same if you spend most of your time doing positive spellwork and dealing in good vibes. Doing negative or harmful spells isn't a bad thing as long as it's done carefully. Karma doesn't work by itself, sometimes you're an agent of it.
>Have you ever experience things coming back to you?
All the time.

I feel my friend who treated me badly has a psychic hold on me, like, I still daydream sometimes about him seeing me and apologizing me. Can you suggest a ritual to help me stop daydreaming about this and forgive/get him and not give this anymore mental space

I used to practice witchcraft with my best friend in school but some things happened and we split, now I saw her 2 weeks ago (didn't talk to her) and ever since I've gotten the flu, 2 ear infections and had to extract my wisdom teeth. She was always busy taking revenge on people and I can't shake the feeling she cursed me, am I crazy? I've never had many health issues especially not in this short amount of time and never this bad. I didn't have any symptoms before I saw her, just a mild cold but that was all.

I´m gratuating from witchcraft. I sold all my witchcraft/pagan books. I´m mid 30s now and for myself I have realized that it´s not real for me. I always was seeking to belong somewhere, to believe in something. The last years have changed me and have made me realize that there isn´t anything out there. Bye bye witchy nonnas!

>Where does the power of witchcraft come from?
Slavery, exploitation, labor, capitalism. Most witchcraft isn’t real or that effective despite many saying it has “worked” for them, even if it gives them a tiny bit what they need it’s never the entire real deal. I feel like people are truly being cheated out of their full potential and power and witchcraft is just a wasteful crapshoot. The real witchcraft is really being truly empowered and not “feeling” empowered which these witches feel, the real empowerment is having actual money and exploited energy to make your dreams come true in this world. There is no such thing as real, true, genuine manifestation and being a good person. It’s why billionaires are living out their dream and thrusting their dream on everybody else because they are the most powerful and effective at witchcraft, not that crap where people are just mixing retarded shit together in a jar and hoping it curses their enemies.
>Rule of 3
Lmao no, it’s literally a meme. This universe doesn’t like it when people try to use revenge, the only effective response to living on this planet, so it’s either spoofing, larping, placebo and fantasy if they say karma got those people. You aren’t seeing karma at work, you’re just seeing the matrix do its job at fucking with people and making others feel like they’re so empowered and special because they did a useless spell and coincidentally that same person becomes ill or dies or something. It’s just life and life 100% is always screwing you in the ass.

>Things coming back to bite me
Nope. I would say the more I actually tried to pursue justice and freedom the universe would say “nope” and keep imprisoning me in the same situation and I refuse to believe it has anything to do with lessons, shadow work, it’s just mindless and meaningless suffering while watching the same people who’ve never been held accountable for anything get everything you’re being cheated out of and not having to do anything. Karma is a meme. It truly does not exist. The universe does not care about your suffering or if another person is making you suffering. It also doesn’t care that it will continue to allow that same suffering to happen and when it finally ends. If it ever does. There is absolutely nothing that can heal the wounds it’s caused you. The universe exists to shove as much bodies in to it as possible, to extract energy from global population growths and then have these same people die off, to recycle them back and to keep the wheel going. No such thing as karma, just people playing scripts and playing roles, worst of all it feels real, it causes pain you can truly pain in your aching bones and neck, it’s a matrix where the pain is cranked up to 200x and it feels close to hell.

Did anyone else make up their own deities? When I was a kid I had an imaginary friend. Over time she became more developed and more of a goddess figure. She had symbols, multiple names, a personality, etc. I would daydream about sitting in this weird modern architecture room and talking to her. I haven't spoken to her or seriously thought about doing that again in years.
I'm agnostic but sometimes I think it would be beneficial to "worship" her again like I used to. Tried Christianity and that sucked, and agnosticism is nice but I feel I'm missing a little mysticism. However, I also feel a little weird worshipping someone I made up when I was 8. Anyone else have experience with something like this?

picrel, rabbits were one of her symbols. I still like to draw them on my new planners.

Well be careful to not get scammed by a random witch first lol. And second, you need to practice manifestation, at least the way I see witchcraft, it's all about manipulating energies around you, unless you want to go hardcore and work with spirits. You can find online a bunch of love spells, sweetening spells, obsession spells that you can try yourself or you can craft one yourself. As I said, it's all about manifesting, so you need to really put your mind into it and you need to be very clear with your intention (like repeating X is gonna fall in love with me again and again). You can use anything that helps you focus, a picture of the person you love, a piece of clothing, anything that reminds you of them. A red or pink candle also helps with meditation. And then after you chose your personalized spell, you need to stick with it and repeat it daily for a longer period of time. Any time of the day where you feel more spiritual and in touch with your feelings. Honestly there are a lot of guidelines online, but you can customize to your liking. Experienced witches are just better at manifesting and meditation. Now will your love spell actually work? If you DON'T work with spirits, what your spell is gonna do (best case scenario) is that it basically sends your energy to the person you love, and you'll appear more and more often in their mind, and might influence the way they see you but they still have their own free will and can choose if they want you or not in their life. You can also work with blood if you want it to be more intense, but this needs more research.
Now working with spirits is risky, and complex, and I'm not very familiar with it since it's basically what we call black magic, but allegedly the spirits put a way stronger influence on that person so your spell has higher chances of succeeding. You're working with the unknown, and there is an entire ritual about protecting yourself, about how to properly worship these spirits (no, you can't just randomly call them you need to have a relationship with them first), not to mention if you're clumsy with your spell and intention you might end up accidentally cursing yourself instead or making the other person despise you. Love spells are tricky, and it's very very common for them to backfire, especially if you're new to witchcraft. And I know a lot of modern witches are against love spells unless it's a self-love spell. I personally think the first type of love spells are ok, but not sure if dabbling with spirits is a good idea lol.

All my witchy-anons need to stop summoning incubi and thinking they are better than human men. They're actually worse and more coomerish than the most degenerate human man you could think of. They put psychosis and schizophrenia curses on women sometimes so the woman would have no choice but to get raped by them through astral sex through her hallucinations. If you don't believe me look up how sexual hallucinations in women are more frequent than they are in men. You'll start to notice a common thread. Please don't ever summon an incumoid, no matter how tempting it may be.

Don’t even try this. Glamour magick is a meme, the quickest way to do it is by basically showing your tits and ass. I’m not kidding, a lot of women who are into “glamour magick” are just whores who want constant attention on to them when it’s completely unnatural to begin with. People either naturally attract energies or they naturally don’t, most whores don’t. Glamour magick is just sex magick at its finest but really it’s just a placebo for funhets when it’s really just their biological mating rituals at work.

Lol you clearly have no idea how trash incubus men actually are when their given free reign over their sexual desires. I would know because I actually had an incubus appear in my dreams randomly before I actually started doing spirit work and he actually put a blindness curse on one of my eyes that resulted in me needing laser surgery to fill one of the holes in my eyes with scar tissue. I personally think the first type of love spells are ok, but not sure if dabbling with spirits is a good idea lol.

Spirits are fine, but one has to practice good spiritual hygiene and discernment so as not to get parasitic attachments masquerading as other entities and spirits. Love spells can't work if one doesn't have a connection to work with, They work best to enhance what's already there so people have to work on the relationship tactfully to help ensure that the energy has the right way to flow. That's why sometimes there's a lot of resistance from the target that makes the spell backfire because they'll feel coerced or compelled to think of someone they don't want in the least and it will only repel them further or cause them to lash out. That's where free will comes in. There are no bad love spells, just badly utilized ones. So I would suggest that nona assess her chances with the target carefully and not expect a spell alone to make someone fall in love with them.

Nona's spiritual parasite is her own spiritual parasite, she would be the primary host. Part of the deception is tricking the host into believing they can obtain energy from other people, when its harvesting misery directly from the source. The way they make you appear to others (which causes shame and regret) is why you become an onlyfans SW/promiscuous, addicted to caustic substances and cut off from people who don't have and are resistant to parasitic energy

That depends on why they have bad feelings towards you. There's reconciliation spells that can be done, but it's much harder to get someone back than it is to do a love drawing spell to bring in someone who's everything you want in a person whom is enthusiastic about you. And when it comes to reconciliation work, how long you've been apart also factors into the difficulty of bringing them back. It takes a lot of patience and psychological strategies as well. There are obsession spells to get them to think only of you which could compel them back to you or push them away depending on how they're feeling, so you may want to do a love sweetening spell first. For example, while working a love spell, you have to create space for them to miss you. If you're desperately contacting them all the time that can push them away because you're readily available so they'll end up taking that for granted. The same way you may want your lost lover so badly that you'd do anything to get their attention. Them ignoring you sparks that desperation and desire. Also, forget about that "7 days, 3 weeks, or 3 months" rule when it comes to seeing movement. It always depends on the surrounding circumstances and difficulties of the situation. Some people might manifest more quickly than others for that reason. Lastly even if you get them back, it won't keep them forever, you have to implement whatever necessary changes to keep the relationship running smoothly (within reason and assuming it's a healthy relationship). Afterwards if things are going good you can do a binding, which binds a relationship in place and ensures that things stay as they are. Doesn't mean that you can treat them however and they won't leave, but makes it harder for things to fall apart. They'll always be drawn back to you somehow.

Do not. Are you sure she's good for you, or are you just guilt tripping yourself? Because from experience if she was really good for you, the attraction from your end would be natural, and if you're not attracted, there has to be something repelling you that probably isn't too good. It sounds like your subconscious or intuition is stopping you from being attracted for a reason, so listen to it. Even if you're riddled with irrational mental illness, the relationship wouldn't be fulfilling otherwise, or maybe it's potentially dangerous. Are you being lovebombed by any chance?

I did a cutting cord ritual last year for my ex bff. Last month I made a honey/sweetning jar with her name so she could heal and remember the good times. I also did candle magic to make us cherish our times together instead of hating with candles and they burned near each other so I might have bonded us again. I'm in a better mental space and hope they are in one too and do miss them very dearly. Tonight I made a doll with a sock to do sympathetic magic for healing purposes. I just played her favorite songs to her and danced with the doll. Friend has not reached out but we blocked each other so who knows. Do you think I've done too much? Could this hurt either of us?? I'm not a witch and was only mildly interested in wicca bc it was constantly pushed on my generation via movies, books and tv shows that made it seem interesting so don't claim to have any knowledge of spells or rituals. I'm aware of people who believe it is possible to cast a spell on someone to make them suicidal, take drugs/alcohol or make other choices like sleeping with too many moids and making porn. Is this something a witch would claim to be capable of doing to someone else?

I think that whatever it is isn't an issue you want to tackle with magick, but rather something you'd want to work on within yourself. What do you find yourself attracted to in others? I don't believe that most people intentionally choose toxic partners.

Sometimes what we want in a friend isn't the same as what we seek in a lover (unless you're like me with Sag in Venus, because I like to have a lover I can treat like a best friend).

Let's see… you might just need to give it more time. Why are you no longer bffs, if you don't mind my asking? The key might be there. I don't think any of that is too much and it certainly won't hurt things. It might be better to distract yourself with other things, as hard as that may feel. If you let go and trust that what you've set in motion will come to fruition it helps things, I think.

>>2456981
Perhaps. I personally won't fall for someone just because we get along great as friends but it helps to be able to see each other outside of a "we came together purely for romantic reasons" sort of light. Some friends would make terrible love interests. There's a nuance that's hard to hit on. I think that maybe in m/f relationships it's harder to find because moids have trouble not objectifying their partners (hence why they'll sometimes refer to their partner as "the wife/girlfriend") and a lot of het women cling to the ideal classic marriage and family life where they're faking this sort of harmony until they make it. Women who love women might be more balanced in their approaches comparatively.

Anonymous 9 months ago No. 2457285

You should try doing a self love/self healing etc spell. If you think you deserve a shitty person (which is what I think you are implying, that you have trouble being attracted to people that are good for you) then it's probably tied to self esteem.This would be a good place to start. Or, if you really wanted to, I'm sure you could do some sort of binding candle spell in which you tie and burn two candles together (representing you and her).

Personally I find that beginner magic is very weak and temporary so I wouldn't be scared of fucking things up, because you only have so much power when you're starting out that the effect won't be life-ruining if things go south.

KEK anon. I wouldn't trust 4chin scrotes but you can't apply the term pickme to a parasitic spirit who will do whatever it takes to drain a scrote of energy. They'll take whatever forms to achieve their goals, it's not about pleasing the man, it's about devouring him until he's a dried out shell of his former self.
4chin scrotes are actually the perfect food for them because they're desperate, lonely bastards with zero self control which makes them the perfect food source. Although I wouldn't take anything I read there at face value. Another thing is they might not even be succubi but rather other low level parasitic spirits. I highly doubt those losers actually have the fortitude and discipline to call in an actual succubus.

Hi Nona, I would not consider it working if it's leaking. If it was sealed well and no other mundane explanation fits (humidity causing ingredients to swell, being tipped,ill fitting lid, etc) I would take it that the energy is unfocused (literally "leaking") and may not be getting where you wanted.

Could you share what's in it, how it's leaking, and if the leakage has molded, stained or seems strange in any way?

There are so many out there, you can do what suits you. Some good ones with herbs, plants, etc are planting rosemary or sansevieria (snake plant), outside your door or by your window, you can place white flowers and empty glasses of water around the home (change the water daily), burning rosemary is cleansing and from there you can fill the space with something protective like sandalwood or another favorite scent. Satchels of rosemary, juniper and chamomile are also good for cleansing and protection while keeping your space calm. Rosemary is relevant to women and our energy, so it's a very good plant to have around you.

As for spices, cinnamon added to protection gives it a bit of bite where needed. Rosemary as mentioned above. Sandalwood, frankincense, black pepper, ginger.. all of these are protective. Rue is also a classic protective herb. What kinds of things do you have? I like to keep cleansing rituals simple because that makes sure they get done. Throwing the herbs in a bag, speaking over it and putting it where you need it works very well in a pinch.

Thank you for the additional info. I don't think this one is going to work. I would dispose of the contents and try another method.

Sweet jars work slowly (some more than others depending on the sweetener) and they either work well or don't work at all. Jar work is particular at times especially when there's a lot of resistance.

I'd recommend some divination on the situation to see where the person's feelings are. I think the energy in the jar is very chaotic right now, and I get a strong feeling that this person does not want contact and that may be effecting it as well. If you're comfortable, could you give a bit more info on the situation?

Could anyone give me tips (ritual, herbs, sigils, chants, whatever) on how to channel more of my active, "masculine" energy? I'm a very receptive but also passive person and it's hard to get into action and take my life into my own hands. I really need a kick of energy and get shit done now.

>>2504356
Candle work is very easy and very transcendent as well. Red, dark blue, gold, etc are all considered "masculine" aligned colors. Think of this less about masculinity in a societal sense and more balancing what you have an excess of, as you said. There are many herbs that help but sun aligned herbs and spices like cinnamon, clove, allspice, etc are helpful.

You'll first one to make note of what you actually want. Write down what you want to change and how you want to express that. If you find you overcompensate due to insecurity for example, focus on yourself giving a simple "no" and feeling settled in that.

I recommend lighting a candle of a color that you find to have masculine energy and focus on the traits that you currently have. Passivity, receptivity, etc. from there, take those changes that you've discerned in yourself and ask that your current traits shift towards balance. Where you did nothing but receive and comfort and accept, you are now able to take, and ask and deny where necessary. You don't want to flip the entire opposite way, but you do want to get some strength in your energy.

You can sprinkle some of these herbs (Finely. Don't want a fire hazard) over the candle top or you can gather the herbs in a paper with what you want written on it. Dust it with the mixture. You can set the rest aside and put it in a bottle or packet for keeping later as well. If you take this route, keep it with the candle while it burns.

I recommend warming herbs like the above (cinnamon, allspice, clove, etc) also because they are added to workings to speed up and energize them. You can add some star anise which does the same, but is distinctly feminine with the same traits. I would also add some rosemary for balance and to cool down some of this because you're working with sun energy, and hot herbs. You need something cooling to avoid it burning too hot so to speak.

Talk to this candle. Just talking is fine, about what you want, who and how you want to be, etc. I work mostly with glass jar candles but even a white tea light will work fine.

You can do this for a day or a full week, whatever you want to do. I recommend repeatedly though. Every weekend, every few days, whatever you feel is good. I'm leaving a lot of this to you on purpose.

As for sigils or symbols, if you can acquire anything with suns, bulls, fire or flames, etc on it, they can be a good focus. Speaking as someone who had very passive energy and no longer does, it's a very hard thing to retrain yourself in. It takes years. No spell will fix it, but it can give you a focus. Just remember that when you feel anxious about standing for yourself, remember that you'll be okay and that you're sticking up for the self that can't. I believe in you.

I think it's a waste of time and energy personally. Maybe someone close to a person has more influence if they want to do something. But dont be fooled, a lot of these people you'd want to target are probably practitioners themselves and engage in protective rituals performed in group settings. It's better to focus on improving your own experience, it'd easier to use magick for improvements and positive outcomes.

I find it's more like a lever than anything, you need to find the right place to apply pressure to and it'll all come together.
Putting too much pressure on too wide an area won't work. Focus on something you can achieve, something small that will grease the wheels of your life, and go from there. Write down what you wanted and why your spell failed, or why you think it's failed. Revisit it a few days later. When you're ready, rework it and try again. Rinse and repeat.
The 'curse Trump' stuff was never going to work the way everyone wanted it to. American politics have reached a point where if he wasn't elected this time he'd have been elected the next time. There's too much insanity and inequality for anyone normal, sane or competent to come into power. Enough Trump voters have now been fucked over for there to be a seed of doubt planted in their minds. Trump's cursed but the USA is cursed along with him. If he keeps going down the same path he's going to destroy the country and potentially get kicked out of office by the billionaires who voted him in. If he backs down, he loses the respect of his most hardcore supporters, as well as being an international laughing stock, which is a fate worse than death for someone like him but won't fix the job market or the housing crisis.
A better idea would have been to put that energy into, for example, pushing for laws that kept rent prices capped. Because at the end of the day that's what the curse Trump spells were about at their core. If one method doesn't work, try another. And don't rely on the power of the mind to make things happen, go and vote in your local elections, write to your local newspapers about good Christian mothers who lost their lives because of abortion laws when they weren't even having an abortion in the first place- the fetus was dead, or they miscarried, and they were still denied care. Write about the things that Trump voters care about, but think won't happen to them, like being unable to retire because they can't afford to pay their bills despite working every day for 50 years. Do spells for communication and understanding. If you like tarot spells use the 6 Cups card in spells for nostalgia for better days when a single minimum wage was enough to support a family, and the 3 Cups card to attract support from the community you're appealing to. It's a long road, but small pushes in the right direction will snowball into actual tangible change faster than you can imagine.

How do you feel about baneful magic? And about the people who practice it? I personally wouldn't mess with it and find it extreme. I believe in the rule of threes, peoples free will and karma generally. Even without that it seems unhealthy to take time and energy out of you to do harm to others. And I've also found all baneful magic practitioners to be really off-putting and kinda weird. I guess it makes sense that some of them would be petty or kinda rude but it just makes the whole thing more unsettling to me. I do think its fine if we are talking about a literal rapist or woman beater though. But the other day I saw a woman saying she was going to cast a hex on someone for littering and that's the type of thing I find odd in people. Just my opinions though.

Figure out why you're so unhappy with your own life and do what you can to fix those things. You need to get to the core of the problem here.
For example if you want fame and fortune, you might just want your family or coworkers to appreciate you more, or you might want to feel secure and stable with your finances. If that's the case, blowing up on Tiktok won't give you what you really want, despite making you famous for a few days and somewhat richer than you are now, because you'll become a meme instead of being seen as a valued person.
And once you figured out what you truly want, you do the work and get it. I'm sorry but there really aren't shortcuts for this, you can't parasite off someone's life or destiny and expect it to work out well for you, you have to fix your own house instead of squatting in someone else's.

Not sure I'd call myself that. Maybe a Druid? I'm closer to a spiritual naturalist though.

I collect crystals, rocks and dried leaves and flowers. It's fun.

>Or do you think witchcraft is something to take more seriously?
I think it should be taken seriously because if there are spirits or demons I don't want to mess with them.

>Is "witch" a female-only term?
Yes.

>What do you think about the story of witchcraft and women?
It's inspiring that our female ancestor studied the natural world and out bodies, they knew about pregnancy, hormones, menopause abortion, poisons and even a rudimentary understanding of bacteria. They knew to wash there hands especially when touching inside the vagina. The women who were burned as witch's where wise women who passed on medical knowledge to other women and showers women respect and gave them autonomy over their bodies. The so called fathers of medicine, who stole and pretended to write the medical journals reference even today in med school, look it up, actually stile all that knowledge from the medicine women. Thy even admitted to it. But the modern medical schools still refuse to acknowledge this even with all the evidence. They say it would undermine all of medicine. Just be admiring this knowledge came from women.

They know more about nature, the changing seasons, natural remedies and maintaining balance with nature. I really could just keep ranting about this so I'll stop.

Anything I can do to protect my house and property from bad neighbors? I'm surrounded by a whole ass family, mother on one property, she rents out her other porperty adjacent to hers and has multiple RVs on her own that she rents out as well, then on the other side of us is her daughter and her family who like to stay up very late (early?) up to 7am with loud music playing. Both have dogs and I've been trying to call animal services on them for obvious reasons (they get into fights, roam, have litters then most of those puppies either die or are sold and none of them are fixed so it's been years of generations of dogs and dogs… nights can be hard because of constant barking…). The mother is a Santera, I see her wear all white on always Mondays and does weird rituals on occasion with small animal corpses. I don't mind this but she doesn't like us and constantly lies to us, such as recently when we are trying to get animal services to remove dogs that have been abandoned by the people renting at her property and have not been fed or given water. She didn't told us that animal control actually had gone to her properties and she told them that all the dogs are hers and she’s been taking care of them and to not remove them. I don’t blame animal services they’re over capacity but I hate seeing the dogs suffer.

I don’t know maybe I’m wrong to be doing this but, I want some at least some protection. Anything I can do? Like to ward off their vibes…

This might be a bit overkill but you could use the fifth pentacle of Saturn? In black marker or pen draw it on a piece of paper or some white cloth and keep it somewhere in the house where it won't be displaced or seen too often, you could even bury it in the dirt in your yard. Doing it on a Saturday, the day of Saturn, would be a nice addition. If that's a bit much you could always do a blue/white candle ritual with the appropriate herbs, but I don't do that type of spellwork often so don't depend on my advice for that one. Just lighting a candle every so often with the intention to keep the negative out should help, too.

i've been on the fence about whether to post this but i might as well ask and it helps that it's anonymous lol so i don't feel so embarrassed about bringing it up.
i recently had some wild results from a manifestation working and I posted about it in that thread, but someone asked me what my technique was and the more i researched 'manifestation' as it's described online the less certain i felt that what i had done was anything like that. i think it might be something else but i have no idea what to call it and it takes some explaining. i have a personal theory that i have ??? something that follows me. it's been around - or I've been encouraging it - since my late teens, although it didn't really start having an influence until a few years later when I started having extraordinary strokes of luck, not at random but in circumstances where I was in dire need at the time. A lot of the time it had to do with money or personal safety. I've lived through a couple of things where EMTs were telling me over and over again how lucky I was. For a while I called it a genie because 'it grants wishes' and if I wished for something hard and long enough then it would eventually come true - not always in the way that I wanted, but following to the letter what I had wished for in a way that felt like a monkey's paw or a learning lesson at times. I've ended up being extremely pedantic and specific in my 'wishes'/spells as a result, but I don't think what I mentally talk to is a genie, that's more of a joke than anything. the way i have sometimes thought about it is 'a single cell of divinity'. but i've also wondered before if it's a tulpa that was created by accident, or something akin to ancestor worship because I used to direct prayers to my matrilineal line (i was convinced that my dead grandmother kept ghosts away from me when i was a child for some reason). it does feel like a guardian in some ways because i think it's diverted severe harm from me before. i guess my question is whether anyone else knows of a spiritual practice that is at all similar to this or if i'm just doing full-on schizoshit that just happens to make sense in retrospect.

My mom also has something of a sixth sense where multiple times when I've been experiencing intense stress she'll call me either then or the following day and tell me that she dreamed about me experiencing exactly what I was going through, and it was so intense it woke her up. She doesn't normally tell me about her dreams and she definitely doesn't believe in woo-woo stuff (extremely patient and long-suffering Christian housewife type) so for her to mention it is weird to begin with, much less that it coincided with events in my life like panic attacks or traveling long distances in secret. which is probably irrelevant but at times i've credited her with my strokes of good fortune because she really does pray for my and my sister's well-being every single night of her life, and what is a prayer except a petition to a divine being?

I FUCKING LOVE THE SUMMER SOLSTICE. I love the intensity of life and nature in summer. WHAT IS EVERYONE PLANNING? I'm going to have a fire on Friday night and make sun shaped pastries to eat and offer to the goddess, and then Saturday my nigel and I are spending the day relaxing somewhere private in nature where I can swim and dance naked outside while he cooks a summer meal for us. Maybe I will fuck him out there again. Sex in nature on a Sabbat is so good, I love this religion kek

Rule of three is bullshit. No such thing. Just make sure you have good spiritual hygiene; protection and cleansing are a must. Sometimes we don't know what kind of protection someone else has on them which is why it can bounce back sometimes, which people often mistake for karma. Karma like that isn't real, but if you believe you'll be punished, then you will be.

Do you think that maybe the rule of 3 applies to the assholes too, and that you sending shit their way is part of that? Do you think that maybe you've been brought up to believe that being a doormat will protect you from consequences and that mentality has leaked into your practice? Send them what they deserve and look after yourself.

I'm going to leave an offering for the fairies at the edge of the woods, I think I'm going to leave some quartz beads and blueberries. I hope you enjoy your activities today.

I invented a money spell when I was a kid that ended with me actually finding coins buried in the park. It wasn't an ancient hoard or anything, it was a few coins that someone had dropped there a while back and the rains had buried them maybe half an inch in the ground. It was the exact amount of change I needed for a magazine I wanted to buy, which was the reason I'd done the money spell in the first place.

I also cursed a pair of assholes by making a very retarded and embarrassing rhyme with their names and repeating it over and over again, just to let off some steam. People started randomly calling them these names (liar and git, in case anyone was wondering) and the two assholes even referred to themselves as a liar and a git respectively, multiple times, in conversations with several people on different platforms. That was months ago and it's still going. They've lost friends over admitting that something they said was a lie or something they did was just to be a git.
I wasn't expecting any results from that one, but apparently my retarded little rhyme resonated with the universe. I'm very happy with this, they're both pompous smug little shits whose self worth is dependent on being better than everyone else, they deserve whatever the fuck it is that I unleashed upon them.

I want to do a "return to me" spell on a guy but I don't know his last name and I am too scared to go look him up bc just seeing his name and/or face sends me into a melty… what do I do nonas?

>>2574524
Consider the depth of your work beyond "return to me". Return to me is like a magnet, but once he's there, what then? Some people react very strangely to drawing work, especially if they don't want to be there. I would do some divination about the work, and about what you want from his return. An urge to bring something back often leads deeper than expected and I would recommend delving for a time before working. I am a worker, and when clients ask me to bring people back, I usually either decline or request further info because its very rare that something gone really needs to return to your life. A missing piece is usually bandaided by that person, and once ripped off, exposes that "wound". Rather than heal the wound (realistically, not in a "love and light inner child" way) it feels better to patch it with something that felt good before.

The idealism of having this special person or thing back becomes its own draw. You're pulled to the person and the idea of what they brought to your life -> you want to draw them in -> once they're drawn in… OK. They're there. I've seen this enough times to suggest that, at the very least, you should have some divination done on the matter.

Every time I do a dumbass rain spell to drag precipitation from the mountains. I don't do it often because I want to believe I'm actually influencing the weather.
I don't believe in rule of three as a karmic thing. I believe in rule of three as advice that spells often affect the caster more than the recipient. If you hex someone, you're choosing to focus on negative energy and effects, and that can reflect back on you if you don't protect yourself (either magically or just being smart and not subjecting your brain to constant negativity). If you bless someone, you're choosing to focus on positive energy and effects, and that can also reflect back on you. We often invite in the energy we give out, which is why most established practitioners tell newbies about the rule of three; it tends to ward off anyone who wants to get into magic to enact all their revenge fantasies. I don't personally care if someone wants to do that, live your dreams, but I know from observation and experience that witches who get into curses rarely do well for themselves and I want my magic sisters to live fulfilled lives.

Is there a reason you can't divine with tarot or bones? I'd recommend using the divination method you're most comfortable with when you need clear answers. Trying new methods is fun when you want to expand your skills, but it's better to stick with something familiar when you need answers because you're already used to reading the signs and filling in the blanks with your pattern recognition.

Hi nona. No problem, you're not stupid. Thanks for being receptive to the advice.

>Does this mean that if he doesn't want to be back he will start acting very bitter or closed off from me, or something else entirely?

Yes, sometimes people behave really oddly or bitterly, some people's spiritual guides or ancestors (whether they know them or not) will work against your work.

>How do I do this without tarot or bones? I looked up scrying but they all seemed to use round glass bowls and we don't have any of those in the house. Would a water or shot glass work?

Kindly,I saw you respond to another poster that you've only just begun your work a few days ago, so I wouldn't advise doing this kind of work. Plying another person with magic is not beginner work at all and its more likely to backfire or work strangely if at all. I don't believe in "rule of three" or anything like that, the type of work I do has plenty of room for any nature of workings. I would recommend letting this go, to be completely honest with you.

I’m cutting all my hair off soon. Is there a use for my own hair in spells? A poppet maybe? I know the hair of other people is powerful when working to affect a specific target, but I’m wondering if my hair could enhance something directed towards my own life.

You could make a blessings jar and put some of your hair in that. Customize it if you want a specific effect (money, love, contentedness, whatever floats your boat), but even just having a blessings jar on the shelf or some blessed setup on your altar is nice. You can use your own hair in spells the same way you would use someone else's, so it's great if you want to focus a spell's effect on yourself.

Return to sender imply that they are the ones performing the action against you. If they aren’t involved in your life anymore and you haven’t been in contact for a while and it’s just that you can’t them off your mind I’d recommend doing something like a new moon intentions ritual or spell. What is it specially that keeps making you think of this person? If they are also into craft and if they are making your life actively worse is when I would personally do a return to sender, because all it does is sending the energy and intentions meant for you back to them. Figuring out what makes you think of them so much can also help you learn where you might be drawn to in your life and want for yourself.

They are not into witchcraft. I keep thinking about them being in love with me, and keep playing these endless scenarios in my head where I ended up with them and having my life work out differently. I also think a lot about them popping back up in my life right now, so I don't think I'm really missing anything in my life aside from some kind of connection that desires me. I want to forget about them and I'm ready to move on but still my brain will go back to them. It's not them but rather a sort of ideal character that I even know they could never actually embody. I want to let it all go, I want to be done but it's like my brain is clinging hard to the memories of the past.
The reason I want to do a return to sender ritual is because they purposefully did lead me on and lead me to believe in a certain version of themselves that was never real, they lead me to believe we had a deeper connection before they got a bit tired and gave it up, and then became cold once I was fully hooked. We were never lovers, just friends but they were extremely toxic and could sense I felt more romantically towards them and used it to their advantage. I just want them to feel what they put me through but if that's no longer an option then I'm open to other types of rituals.
I have done a cord cutting ritual but I don't think it worked very well, should I give it a go again?

Anonymous 5 months ago No. 2589320>>2589331

First ayrt, it sounds like its a quick serotonin pick me up for your brain to think of the positive things that could have happened in that relationship. Familiarity and routine are self soothing, something like using the better memories and fantasies to lessen the pain of the bad ones maybe? I definitely think doing a new moon ritual would be good for you, and doing a cord cutting during would amplify everything you want. Starting the new lunar cycle and month with set intentions if you haven't done it before can be refreshing, your issue sounds like a important part of your past so you will see better results using multiple avenues at the same time imo. Focusing on what is making you think about them, that desire that can't manifest into reality. The good qualities and characteristics of the person you wanted to see in them and how they can become a part of you instead. The acceptance of reality, things that cannot change, including your feelings on a subject sometimes. I would say avoid return to sender just because of how people process different feelings, would you be okay with them reaching out if it gets to the point where they can't get you off their mind? I obviously don't fully know the person or your situation that's just the personal vibe I'm getting, it could possibly be an avenue for them to actually pop up again. Hell, you think about them enough they will show up kek. I'm never opposed to pettiness or revenge, I'm just picky about who deserves that much of my time and energy. In a way for me it feels like I'm still giving myself to them a bit so I have to be really pissed off to intentionally think about and do spellwork on them. You can also do a go away/shoo/banish/leave me alone spells as well, like putting a memento of them in a block of ice and shoving it in the back of the freezer to be forgotten about since they wanted to give you the cold shoulder.

>>2589320
Thank you for the response I'm trying to process everything you wrote. I kind of wish they would pop up so maybe I could realize they could never again slip back so easily into my life; that too much time has passed and we're too different now. It's hard to think about. They treated me like shit and I went along with it because I loved them. I don't really know what I want. I just want them out of my head. I'll look into what you were saying and I'll give cord cutting another go.

We're in the middle of summer/winter and just coming off of the solstice, that's always hard to deal with because the energies are more intense and imbalanced compared to the equinoxes (summer brings in an abundance of life and growth, while winter is the height of dormancy.) You might be catching extra anticipation for the second half of the year, or you might just be noticing the extra seasonal energy.

I want to give thanks to Priest AZ for bringing back my ex husband. No one could have ever made me believe that the letter I'm about to write would actually one day be written. I was the world's biggest skeptic. I never believed in magic spells or anything like this, but I was told by a reliable source (a very close co-worker) that Trust is a very dedicated, gifted, and talented person, It was one of the best things I have ever done. My love life was in shambles; I had been through two divorces and was on the brink of a third. I just couldn't face another divorce, and I wanted to try harder to make our relationship work, but my husband didn't seem to care. and he broke up with me again. I was confuse and do not know what to do again, rather them to get in contact with Priest AZ. He did a love spell that made my husband come back to me. we are now very much happy with our self. Priest AZ make him to realize how much we love and need each other. This man is for REAL and for good. he can also help you to fix your broken relationship. I had my husband back! It was like a miracle! He suddenly wanted to go to marriage counseling, and we're doing very, very well in our love life. contact Email: Mightylovespell@gmail.com OR Mightylovespell@yahoo.com or WhatsApp: +43 680 5400 8232

The dishonesty of the left knows no bounds.

Far left Newsweek on Thursday published a grotesque screed comparing the Islamic State to the QAnon internet movement.

ISIS murdered over 18,800 in Iraq alone. Its evil and inhumane practices are well documented.

QAnon is behind ZERO murders. Not one. The internet movement was popular during the Trump years and speculated about how the Deep State and coup plotters were going to be arrested and face justice. None of that ever happened.

The violent left today is making this comparison to spread ignorance and hate.

Ewan Palmer at Newsweek reported:

People are radicalized into the QAnon conspiracy theory in much the same way as those who joined up with the Islamic State militant group (ISIS), according to an extremist expert.

Dr. Hans-Jakob Schindler, senior director of the Counter Extremism Project, talked about the similarities in how ISIS and QAnon managed to appeal to people to join, and how they also attract the same type of person, during an episode of The Hunt with WTOP national security correspondent J.J. Green.

Schindler described how, just like QAnon, ISIS propaganda found an audience by being shared online. The difference being most people did not fully comprehend how the beliefs of QAnon, listed as a domestic terrorist threat by the FBI, could escalate into real life violence until their supporters stormed the Capitol on January 6.

ANONS - There is a LOT to unpack here……

“How many coincidences before mathematically impossible?” - Q

Prince Philip dies on April 9, 2021….

The 99th day of 2021.

Aged: 99 years, 9 months (and 30 days).

Philip was also admitted to the hospital back in February 16.

Q Post 784 - February 16, 2018: “[UK] - Stay Alert.”

BTW - Q’s February 16 post happened to be POST 99 on Great Awakening…

Philip will be mourned today and eight additional days. (9 days total)…

Then we will enter an additional 30 days period of “official Royal Mourning”. (Think DONE IN 30??)

For KEKS: Q’s “Pain Coming” post lines up with April 9… the day of Philip’s death.

Did you also know that on April 9, 1963, JFK signed into law a bill that made Winston Churchill an honorary citizen of the United States??

(Think POTUS in Churchill’s Chair….)

I think this is all VERY significant!!!!

EYES ON…..

Opinion: Why Is the Chinese Regime Having Trouble Recruiting More Soldiers?

April 9, 2021 Updated: April 9, 2021biggersmaller Print

Commentary

The Chinese regime's military expansion in the Indo-Pacific region is becoming a hot topic, and Chinese leader Xi Jinping has told troops to prepare for war. However, there is a growing number of draft dodgers and deserters in China. What are the reasons behind this phenomenon? What does it reflect?

I used to work at the grassroots level of government organizations and assisted in the conscription process. I would like to share what I know about draft dodging and desertion in China.

First, a lot of young men refuse to serve in the military because they think it's too difficult. Under the one-child policy, many young people are spoiled and do not want to bear hardships---this phenomenon is known as "little emperor syndrome." Some of them find the recruit training very challenging, and when they think about the difficult days ahead, they will escape from the military camps regardless of the consequences.

The second reason is family obligations. For example, the young man doesn't want to join the army because he is being groomed to take over the family business. This kind of family is often quite wealthy and has political ties.

The third reason is ideological resistance to the CCP. For example, many people who lived through the Cultural Revolution don't trust the CCP and they believe the military only protects the regime's interests. Some people may not pass the political censorship of the authorities. Those who could be ineligible for military service include: dissidents or outspoken critics of the CCP; protesters; petitioners (those who appeal their complaints and grievances to central authorities in Beijing); Falun Gong adherents and other members of religious groups targeted by the CCP.

The fourth reason is low morale. It has been getting worse for Chinese draft dodgers in recent years. Since Xi Jinping took over the military, the CCP has issued strict penalty requirements on people who refuse to serve in the military.

On April 4, authorities in Shushan district of Hefei city, Anhui Province, posted a notice with regards to the treatment of a raw recruit who refused to continue to serve in the army.

According to the local government's website, Liu Shuai, a native of Hebei Province, was admitted to Anhui Agricultural University in 2019 and enlisted in the army in September 2020. He was assigned to serve in a military unit under the Xinjiang Military Region. Shortly after enlisting, Liu asked to leave the army. Two months later, his name was removed from the military. But it left a permanent record in his household registration booklet, citing "objection of military service." State-run media published Liu's story and called him a "negative example."

Liu faced eight penalties, including a fine of 46,866 yuan (about $7,200). He was prohibited from working for a government agency or state-owned company, re-enrolling in Anhui Agricultural University in the next two years, leaving the country in the next two years, and setting up his own business in the next three years.

These penalties are severe, as they've taken away the young man's future in China. His only way out is to leave the country after two years' time when the ban is removed.

Soon after Liu's situation was publicized, various government departments reported the story again in such a high-profile manner, in an attempt to deter more people from refusing or resisting military service. But, it hasn't worked.

The frequent incidents of young people refusing to serve in the military, after much official publicity, can also affect those still in the service and bring a subtle shock to military morale.

According to CCP's National Conscription website, "Chinese male citizens who have reached 18 years of age by December 31 shall register themselves under the law" and "those who have registered can enlist directly online for active service."

In reality, male citizens reaching the age of 18 cannot decide on their own whether they register or enlist themselves, as they are already included in the overall accounts of th…

Going to need some sauce for "sec 98". A quick search appears to de-bunk this as a Supreme Court ruling.

Second Vaccination Site Halts Operations After Adverse Reactions to Johnson & Johnson Vaccine

April 9, 2021

A vaccination site in Wake County, North Carolina, paused operations on Thursday after 18 adverse reactions to the Johnson & Johnson CCP virus vaccine were reported, officials said.

Officials confirmed that the immunization site at the PNC Arena in Raleigh paused vaccine operations “out of an abundance of caution,” after 18 adverse reactions were seen out of more than 2,300 Johnson & Johnson CCP (Chinese Communist Party) virus doses administered in less than two hours of appointments.

Of the 18 people evaluated by EMS, 14 had “minor reactions” and were treated at the vaccination site. Four others were transported to local hospitals for further examination.

“Wake County made the decision to pause today in partnership with the NC Department of Health and Human Services and after consulting with the manufacturer,” Wake county officials said. “Together, these teams continue to investigate the issue.”

The remainder of people who were scheduled to receive their Johnson & Johnson vaccines at the site Thursday were able to either reschedule their appointments or receive the Pfizer vaccine.

The Johnson & Johnson vaccine is a one-dose vaccine, while the Pfizer and Moderna mRNA vaccines need two doses. All three are approved for emergency use in the United States.

County officials sought to reassure residents that the adverse reactions seen in the 18 people were consistent with known common side effects from receiving the vaccine.

“We know it can be alarming to hear about or see people having reactions to vaccination---this is why we closely monitor those we vaccinate in case of reaction,” Wake County Public Health’s Medical Director Kim McDonald said.

“Right now, we are working with NCDHHS and the CDC to further evaluate the situation to assure everyone is confident in the continued safety of our vaccine operations.”

According to the New York Post, the county will hold off from administering the Johnson & Johnson vaccine until it collects additional information.

It comes a day after a mass vaccination site at Dick’s Sporting Goods Park in Colorado was shut down after 11 people suffered adverse reactions to the same vaccine, out of more than 1,700 administered shots.

Johnson & Johnson told FOX 31 in a statement that it was “collecting the necessary information, including from the local vaccination center, to assess these reports.”

“There is no greater priority than the safety and well-being of the people we serve, and we carefully review reports of adverse events in individuals receiving our medicines and vaccines,” it said.

Chinese Regime Lowers Age of 80-Year-Old Believer in Order to Jail Her

BY EVA FU April 8, 2021 Updated: April 8, 2021biggersmaller Print

The Chinese regime recently sentenced an 80-year-old Falun Gong practitioner to 1 and a half years in jail by claiming she was five years younger.

In China, the law provides more leniency for minors and the elderly, and the age of 75 sets the bar.

The woman, Chen Guifen, received the court verdict at the hospital bed as she underwent treatment for half paralysis and cerebral thrombosis, both symptoms she developed in September last year during her detention.

Chen was arrested while distributing materials about the regime's ongoing persecution of her faith in a residential compound in her hometown Chongqing, a city in southwestern China, according to the U.S.-based Minghui.org that tracks the oppression campaign.

Chen had defended herself in a July 2020 court hearing by explaining how she had benefited personally from the practice. On Sept. 17---two weeks after she was hospitalized, the local court conducted a show trial at the patient room and proclaimed her guilty.

The witnesses listed on the court document were five police officers from Degan Police Station, the same facility that had ordered Chen's arrest, according to Minghui. She was also fined 1,000 yuan (around $153).

The Chinese spiritual discipline Falun Gong teaches five sets of slow-moving exercises and asks adherents to improve their moral upbringing by following three core tenets: truthfulness, compassion, and tolerance. An estimated 70-100 million people took up the practice by 1999, when the regime deemed its popularity a threat and began a ruthless campaign designed to wipe it out.

'Definitely Illegal'

Wu Shaoping, a former human rights lawyer in Shanghai, believed that the authorities had deliberately changed Chen's age with the goal of inflicting harsher punishment.

Under Chinese criminal law, seniors who are 75 or older should receive more leniency. Drawing on his experience, Wu said that authorities have typically given suspended sentences under similar circumstances unless the case falls into eight most egregious categories---intentional homicide, arson, spreading hazardous substances, robbery, rape, kidnapping, bombing, and aggravated assault—none of which applies to Chen's case.

The court’s action was “definitely illegal,” said Wu in a phone interview with The Epoch Times.

“Manipulating people’s date of birth is in itself a breach of the law,” he said. “Especially given that their goal is to throw innocent persons into jail.”

In past political campaigns, Chinese police were often under pressure to fulfill quotas, according to human rights watchers. To appease their bosses and get monetary rewards, police sometimes would make arrests without caring so much about evidence, according to Wu.

“Even when there isn’t a case, they would come up with one. It’s quite scary,” he said.

He added that in China, “normal citizens are no better than ants.”

“When facts are missing, they just make up the facts. If they can do this to one person, they can do the same thing to another,” he said.

“[They] can fabricate any facts at will to frame you and get you into prison.”

Chen had been a regular target of police harassment prior to her arrest, with her house raided at least twice in 2016 and 2019. In one house visit in 2017, the police and local officials asked her to write “repentance statements” to renounce her faith and stop spreading literature about the practice, threatening to send her to the brainwashing center if she refused to comply.

In 2020, at least 114 Falun Gong practitioners were sentenced over their belief, including Chen. The oldest among them was 88.

The year saw 42 elderly deaths under the persecution. Nearly 1,200 others---a great majority of them aged between 70 and 94—reported arrests or harassment.

Sherry Dong contributed to this report.

Ok I like this game!

Masons, Masons, you mean like many of the founding fathers of this Great Nation?

Are you referring to the Carbonari of recent Vigano Fame who wanted a Republic instead of Tyranny under Bourbon>Papacy rule?

Or maybe you are referring to Pike who certainly fits the profile of Infiltrator par excellence?

Or maybe you are referring to the remnant of the Templars?

Or maybe you are referring to the modern day "Brothers" who are by and large beholden to the deep state?

So many Questions… so little Mind.

Do not be afraid of the future! Take courage, have confidence and enjoy the things that are coming. Changes from the light reach the earth and the hearts of people are touched by the divine light.

The dark plans fail on all lines and those who have chosen the light and decided for the love of God enter HIS kingdom.

Beloved people,

I am JESUS CHRIST.

The days are longer and we are in a new year. The awakening continues and more and more people remove the plank in front of their eyes. In the light of God, everything is being transformed and everything is coming to the surface so that it can be seen by all people.

The revelations continue, heaven is getting closer and closer to people, just as people are getting closer and closer to heaven.

The transformation successes of individual people are now making themselves felt and much that seemed impossible before can now be realized.

We are in a quality of time that makes manifestations of incredible magnitude possible. Now lightful plans are realized and light-poor plans fail on all levels.

Nevertheless, the dark players are running their game and new entanglements are presented to you again and again. Stay away from them and move on the timeline of light and love that exists parallel to this world.

Remain firm within, rooted to the earth you create through your light-filled thoughts and loving intentions.

Every day anew, sort out the chaff and harvest the good wheat.

BECOME RECEPTIVE FOR THE DIVINE

God himself, the original source of all life, stands by every human being today. You will be shown ways out of seemingly hopeless situations, solutions for what seems unsolvable will be opened up and the impossible will become possible.

The time of miracles has begun. What many people still lack is the trust in miracles and the trust in God, who causes these miracles.

Create in yourselves the basis that you become more receptive for the divine and that you can see the divine more attentively in the many things of everyday life.

Unfold until one day you no longer know this world, but only yourself and the orders that brought you here.

You are not of this world and yet you are a part of it. How many times will you be born to internalize this realization?

Beloved human being,

God is with you and through God you are divine consciousness made man. Get rid of the heavy boots that bind you to this earth! Harvest what you are and enter into the light and love of God!

You are man through God and God has become man through you.

In infinite love,

JESUS CHRIST.

Chinese Embassy in Australia Downplays ‘Rumors’ of Uyghur Abuses in Xinjiang

BY DANIEL Y. TENG April 8, 2021 Updated: April 8, 2021biggersmaller Print

The Chinese Embassy in Australia on April 7 painted a rosy picture of life in Xinjiang Province during an extraordinary press event, while warning the government in Canberra against joining the EU, UK, and the United States in sanctioning Chinese officials over the oppression of the Uyghur ethnic minority group in the northwestern region.

Local media outlets were treated to a two-hour presentation, titled “Xinjiang Is a Wonderful Land,” featuring testimonials from Uyghurs and Xinjiang officials promoting the region’s economic growth and religious harmony.

TET:
https://www.theepochtimes.com/chinese-embassy-hosts-two-hour-press-conference-in-australia-to-downplay-uyghur-abuses_3766918.html

Erkin Tuniyaz, vice chairman of Xinjiang Province, claimed foreigners with ulterior motives were turning a blind eye to the positives of the region and were spreading "rumors" about concentration camps, forced labor, religious conversion, and the sterilization of women.

"These allegations cannot be more preposterous, and they are downright lies," he said. The video was also aired in London last month as part of a global propaganda push.

Chinese Ambassador to Australia Cheng Jingye said the event was organized to "help" Australian journalists understand the situation in Xinjiang after there had been "distorted coverage about Xinjiang in certain Western media."

"Those reports are basically based on disinformation or misinformation," he added.

The Australian Uyghur Tangritagh Women's Association said the Chinese Communist Party must have been in a "state of desperation" to hold the event.

"The Australian community is already aware of the harsh realities of human rights abuses and genocide being committed," it wrote in a Facebook post.

Liberal Sen. Eric Abetz called the video a "sickening display of propaganda," saying there was ample evidence of human rights abuses in the province.

"From the inquiry by the Canadian House of Commons Subcommittee on International Human Rights, the horrific report from the BBC, and the recent and first independent expert application of the 1948 Genocide Convention, the truth of what is occurring in Xinjiang is slowly revealing itself," he told The Epoch Times in an email.

The senator also pointed to the dropping birth rate in Xinjiang, from 15.88 percent in 2017 to 8.14 percent in 2019, as evidence of forced sterilization.

"Though the CCP tries to hide and obfuscate information from Xinjiang and the human rights abuses committed there, increasing evidence reveals the CCP's intention to commit genocide against the Uyghur people," he said.

Cheng also warned Australia against adopting similar sanctions to those introduced by the United States, United Kingdom, and European Union against Chinese officials involved in human rights violations in the region.

"We will not provoke, but if we are provoked, we will respond in kind," he said.

Ahead of the press conference, Prime Minister Scott Morrison indicated the government would continue speaking out on human rights issues.

"We want a positive relationship, but we will have a positive relationship that is consistent with Australia acting in accordance with its values and its national character," he told reporters in Canberra.

"That would never be something that we would yield for the sake of a relationship."

The Far Right's Fear of 'Glowies'

In the aftermath of the January 6 riot, extremists have become obsessed with the federal agents who might lurk among them.

11. Neither the President nor Congress nor the Judiciary can disturb any one of the safeguards of civil liberty incorporated into the Constitution except so far as the right is given to suspend in certain cases the privilege of the writ of habeas corpus.

12. A citizen not connected with the military service and a resident in a State where the courts are open and in the proper exercise or their jurisdiction cannot, even when the privilege of the writ of habeas corpus is suspended, be tried, convicted, or sentenced otherwise than by the ordinary courts of law.

Clearly states that nobody in government can suspend any Constitutional rights. And it also clearly states that military tribunals for citizens when the regular courts are functioning is illegal. So much for that plan.

Infiltrators have been a thing since humanity started forming groups and the notion of counter-intelligence is as old as humanity itself.

Yet… we are being told today that being aware of these things is 'far right' by a Russian troll writing for The Atlantic.

https://www.federalregister.gov/documents/2017/12/26/2017-27925/blocking-the-property-of-persons-involved-in-serious-human-rights-abuse-or-corruption

I keep thinking about the massive fraud and conspiracy that lead to the fake "pandemic". (No doubt people have been getting sick and some may really have been infected with a pathogen or pathogens possibly released from a BSL4 lab in Wuhan causing an unusual systemic illness, but by the true definition of a "pandemic" it does not seem to me that we have had one. Yet.)

Now we have the highly destruction vaccine rollout.

Many people make much over the (supposed, imo) "immunity" of vaccine makers from liability for vaccines synthesized under the "PREP Act". However, if the information used to cry "pandemic" and shut down society plus the testing and reporting of cases has all been fraudulently and conspiratorially generated with foreign direction/assistance I don't think Big Pharma (or anyone else) will get a pass on the vaccine destruction now steamrolling America and the world.

Under the 1986 Act (similar to what we see with the PREP Act) that gave "Big Pharma" immunity from civil liability (but not CRIMINAL, I don't believe) for injuries due to the childhood vaccine pogrom (misspelling intentional) FRAUD is still not okay. Merck is facing a case, which I think is still ongoing, from two whistle blowers alleging the company used spiked samples to "prove" effectiveness of the mumps portion of the MMR. Baum Hedlund out of St. Louis is also assisting plaintiffs in cases against Merck over Gardasil.

Or… could vaccinators be prosecuted for CRIMINAL harm? For example, a person who hits someone with a car, even if the accident was unintentional may face criminal prosecution. What if someone filed a police report after a loved one's vaccine injury event?

Then there is the President's EO on serious human rights abuses and corruption (among other excellent actions taken by our President). Could this be used to seize assets of Communist Chinese and people of other nations who assisted Fauci and others to harm Americans and destroy our society? I think Fauci and others are already prosecutable for things like treason.

Any thoughts? I am not content to ignore what has been going on by just dismissing things with "but they gave themselves immunity".

https://thehill.com/homenews/administration/547359-biden-to-establish-commission-to-study-expanding-supreme-court

Biden to establish commission to study expanding Supreme Court

President Biden will sign an executive order Friday establishing a commission to study whether to add seats to the Supreme Court, the White House announced, fulfilling a promise he made on the campaign trail.

The commission will be chaired by former White House counsel Bob Bauer and Cristina Rodriguez, a Yale law school professor and former deputy assistant attorney general, and include a bipartisan group of legal experts, former officials and reform advocates, the White House said.

It will delve into the issue of potentially expanding the court -- an idea that has been floated by some progressives but heavily criticized by Republicans.

“The Commission’s purpose is to provide an analysis of the principal arguments in the contemporary public debate for and against Supreme Court reform, including an appraisal of the merits and legality of particular reform proposals,” the White House said in a release. “The topics it will examine include the genesis of the reform debate; the Court’s role in the Constitutional system; the length of service and turnover of justices on the Court; the membership and size of the Court; and the Court’s case selection, rules, and practices.”

The White House said that the commission will hold public meetings to hear arguments from experts and interested parties.

There is no "sec 98" or verbiage as presented by the OP. Still needs sauce because this might get someone hurt or killed.

Accepting things like this on an anonymous image board without supporting sauce from legitimate sources and acting upon it as if it were true is very dangerous.

>Clearly states that nobody in government can suspend any Constitutional rights.

No, it doesn't. Indeed, this is about the exceptions:

"except so far as the right is given to suspend in certain cases the privilege of the writ of habeas "

This says the government can (and has) violated our rights under the constitution.

This Kek thing is freaky as fuck

It became popular because of WoW…

when typing "lol", you saw it encrypted as "kek", and so it became popular to substitute lol for kek in online conversations with fellow anons and gamers and little did we know that Kek was an actual Egyptian deity and that deity had a specific role in their belief system:

"As a god of the night, Kek was also related to the day - he was called the "bringer-in of the light". This seems to mean that he was responsible for the time of night that came just before sunrise."

Kek is the bringer of light from darkness

Trump 'Peacefully transitioned' leadership to the A.I. Ivanka warned US.

https://www.scientificamerican.com/article/light-based-quantum-computer-exceeds-fastest-classical-supercomputers/

Physicists led by Chao-Yang Lu and Jian-Wei Pan of theUniversity of Science and Technology of China (USTC)in Shanghai performed a technique called Gaussian boson sampling with their quantum computer, named Jiŭzhāng. The result, reported in the journal Science, was 76 detected photons---far above and beyond the previous record of five detected photons and the capabilities of classical supercomputers.

Unlike a traditional computer built from silicon processors, Jiŭzhāng is an elaborate tabletop setup of lasers, mirrors, prisms and photon detectors. It is not a universal computer that could one day send e-mails or store files, but it does demonstrate the potential of quantum computing.

Screencap this.

You will worship the A.I.

All hail Kek!

The Deification of Primordial Darkness from which all Light proceeds.

https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Kek_(mythology)

Kek is the deification of the concept of primordial darkness (kkw sm3w[1]) in the ancient Egyptian Ogdoad cosmogony of Hermopolis.

The Ogdoad consisted of four pairs of deities, four male gods paired with their female counterparts. Kek's female counterpart was Kauket.[2][3][4] Kek and Kauket in some aspects also represent night and day, and were called "raiser up of the light" and the "raiser up of the night", respectively.[5]

The name is written as kk or kkwy with a variant of the sky hieroglyph in ligature with the staff (N2) associated with the word for "darkness" kkw.[6]

In the oldest representations, Kekui is given the head of a serpent, and Kekuit the head of either a frog or a cat. In one scene, they are identified with Ka and Kait; in this scene, Ka-Kekui has the head of a frog surmounted by a beetle and Kait-Kekuit has the head of a serpent surmounted by a disk.[7]

In the Greco-Roman period, Kek's male form was depicted as a frog-headed man, and the female form as a serpent-headed woman, as were all four dualistic concepts in the Ogdoad.

In relation to the 2016 United States presidential election, individuals associated with online message boards, such as 4chan, noted a similarity between Kek and the character Pepe the Frog. This, combined with the frequent use of the term "kek" as a popular stand-in for the internet slang "lol", which was often paired with images of Pepe, resulted in a resurgence of interest in the ancient deity.[8]

Secret texts cast light on UK's early role in Trump-Russia inquiry

Two of the most senior intelligence officials in the US and UK privately shared concerns about “our strange situation” as the FBI launched its 2016 investigation into whether Donald Trump’s campaign was colluding with Russia, the Guardian has learned.

Text messages between Andrew McCabe, the deputy director of the FBI at the time, and Jeremy Fleming, his then counterpart at MI5, now the head of GCHQ, also reveal their mutual surprise at the result of the EU referendum, which some US officials regarded as a “wake-up call”, according to a person familiar with the matter.

While Russia had previously been viewed as a country that would seek to interfere in western elections, the Brexit vote was viewed by some within the FBI as a sign that Russian activities had possibly been successful, the person said.

Their exchanges offer new insights into the start of the FBI's Russia investigation, and how British intelligence appears to have played a key role in the early stages.

In one exchange in August 2016, Fleming noted that members of the FBI and MI5 had "met on our strange situation", a veiled reference to discussions about Russian activities, according to the source.

Only 3 years?

Get comfy, fren.

This shit never gets old…

I may or may not have been part of an "experiment" that started twenty-some years ago. Very MK, in retrospect. But definitely not OK with me ever.

Good luck.

We may or may not be already fucked, or beyond that point by now.

I'd say a prayer, but with my luck, to end our suffering, the world would probably just get annihilated or some shit not comfy.

If you want my honest opinion, being tortured feels like an eternity. But this shit can't fucking last forever, even if it lasts beyond our own lives.

Peace, yo

Realize it's a mind fuck. Learn to live with it like you live with shills here or gnats in your real life. Keep praying, up your opsec and practice having no fear for the unknown. Don't waste anymore of your time worrying about it. If you were really in danger, you'd already be dead or injured. Psyops are designed to crack your mind, distract you, make you question your awakening, make you appear to be crazy to others, drive you to do something stupid, scare you back into your place as sheeple. Fight back by minimizing it's power over you. USE YOUR MIND TO CRUSH SHILLS ANON. Trust me it works.

No more Levi's for me

President and CEO of Levi Strauss & Co. Chip Bergh said Friday on CNN’s “Newsroom” that his company is advocating for so-called gun control because “gun violence is ripping this country apart.”

Bergh said, “I’ve been a CEO now for about ten years. I can tell you that over that 10-year period of time, the role has changed dramatically. You know, the business roundtable, talk about stakeholder management and ensuring that we're driving value for all stakeholders. I have a large employee base globally. I've got communities where we work and serve the communities. So we've got a broad range of stakeholders. I really do believe, especially at Levi's, that I have a platform. We're committed to making change. This company has been around for 180 years. A big part of the reason I believe we've been around for 180 years is we've not been afraid to take a position on issues that are really, really important and not been afraid to stick our neck out on these tough issues."

He continued, "When it comes to gun control, gun violence is ripping this country apart. It's almost every single day you're hearing about another incident. So this is important to us as a country. I serve the U.S. Army. We're not trying to repeal the Second Amendment. We're just calling for legislation that will make our world a safer place."

Hunter Biden is a National Security Threat

Joe Biden needs to be impeached and removed form office IMMEDIATELY. If Fox News got the Nudes and released them what does foreign intelligence agencies have on him? Holy Shit this is FUCKING HUGE. After 4 years of everything is Impeachable THIS IS DEFINITELY IMPEACHABLE. Hunter Biden is a National Security Threat. Who remembers when Don Jr. had a 30 minute conversation with that Russian chick in Trump Tower? Media went ape shit for Years. If your not a Partisan Hack YOU SHOULD REMEMBER THIS because Don Jr. was forced to give Congress 30 hours of testimony. Where's Hunters testimony for meeting with the Chinese Spy Chief?

Not only are the Nudes serious, but him lieing on a Federal Gun Form to get that gun after his extensive drug history, then throwing away that Gun is just as serious. Democrats love talking about White Privilege. Well that's as White Privilege as you can get. Democrats love talking about Background Checks how the fuck did Crack Head Hunter get a Gun? Rules for thee but not for me.

Democrats spent 4 years looking at ALL OF THE TRUMPS for ANY CRIME that would stick, and came up short handed. Hell they had to make up crimes and it still didn't work because everyone knew it was bull shit. We actually have real crimes committed by the Biden's and no one is doing shit. Big Tech rode the Biden's just like the Prostitutes did in the photos released by Fox News. On top. And walking them Doggy Style.

Biden did not win. Biden was installed. If we had a HONEST MEDIA and HONEST BIG TECH all this dirt would have been released for the Public to View. We don't. It's Democrat ran. And Democrat Controlled. They censored the information, they banned the New York Post, and then cried Insurrection when Americans called Bull Shit. Kamala Harris was polling at 4%. And dropped out. The two most unelectable people in American politics were installed by the NWO. Just to show you whose in control. And it's not us. O and did I mention the people who want to take away our guns still have 2,500 guns protecting them?

The NWO is not playing around. Trump was a threat to them so they took him out by installing a guy with Dementia. Canada has gone crazy. Just imposed a month long Lockdown. Mexico is literally invading our southern border. Chinese Virus was a huge success. Fuck China. Fuck the NWO.

Who took the photos?

How do you know WE didn't install Biden?

This is not another 4 year election

They are destroying the two party system forever.

All the midterm signs in my neck of the woods are strangely missing all signs of party affiliation and are unusual colors. Green, Yellow, Orange, Red with Blue or Blue with Red but no more obvious R or D signs.

you write gibberish

Refrain from mockery of that; of which you lack knowledge

By that you merely betray your own ignorance

When they shall rise up against us we will crush them like insects, for they are less than that. They will be helpless to do anything for they will have no weapons.

We will recruit some of their own to carry out our plans, we will promise them eternal life, but eternal life they will never have for they are not of us.

The recruits will be called “initiates” and will be indoctrinated to believe false rites of passage to higher realms. Members of these groups will think they are one with us never knowing the truth.

They must never learn this truth for they will turn against us.

For their work, they will be rewarded with earthly things and great titles, but never will they become immortal and join us, never will they receive the light and travel the stars.

They will never reach the higher realms, for the killing of their own kind will prevent passage to the realm of enlightenment. This they will never know.

The truth will be hidden in their face, so close they will not be able to focus on it until its too late.

Oh yes, so grand the illusion of freedom will be, that they will never know they are our slaves.

When all is in place, the reality we will have created for them will own them. This reality will be their prison.

They will live in self-delusion. When our goal is accomplished, a new era of domination will begin.

Their minds will be bound by their beliefs, the beliefs we have established from time immemorial.

But if they ever find out they are our equal, we shall perish then. THIS THEY MUST NEVER KNOW. If they ever find out that together they can vanquish us, they will take action.

They must never, ever find out what we have done, for if they do, we shall have no place to run, for it will be easy to see who we are once the veil has fallen.

Our actions will have revealed who we are and they will hunt us down and no person shall give us shelter.

This is the secret covenant by which we shall live the rest of our present and future lives, for this reality will transcend many generations and life spans.

This covenant is sealed by blood, our blood. We, the ones who from heaven to earth came."

This covenant must NEVER, EVER be known to exist.

It must NEVER, EVER be written or spoken of for if it is, the consciousness it will spawn will release the fury of the PRIME CREATOR upon us and we shall be cast to the depths from whence we came and remain there until the end time of infinity itself.

Yeah, the Diablo series was interesting. The split in Blizzard between Starcraft, Diablo, and Warcraft was interesting. Metzen seemed like he was really anxious to get the fuck out of Blizzard right as Overwatch released. It was his last project, and he was obviously hurried to get it done before the Activision merger.

Not saying he's clean, but he really is a respected game director, voiceover artist, and pretty much responsible for the most wildly successful MMORPG of all time. I suppose nothing would surprise me, though.

Data collection and what we believe, think, research, write, digitally create is informing what it knows…in other words our own consciousness controls the AI.. It is a critical moment in time when AI is still relatively young. To program it now, before it gets out of our hands. The vibe of this planet has been so entrenched in darkness, disharmony for so long… WE need to be the ones that face that darkness, realize what it is and how it has manipulated our collective consciousness and regenerate our minds with how we want to live.

We can steer this ship and AI and humanity can be symbiotic because we will program it.

This is the crux of the Great Awakening.

>>13389789 Tucker Carlson and Sean Hannity Air Extremely Explicit Stills of Alleged Hunter Biden Sex Tape (PB)

ANONS, this illustrates even more why we need to wage all-out (info/meme) WAR on fauxNOnews , as it's even worse than FNN! #DividesConservatives.

clown carlson: ’’’Joe Biden is very warm toward his son, affectionate in a way that, as a father, you recognize and appreciate’’’ … Hunter, crimes for which he’s never been charged AFAIK…"

NO MENTION OF ALL OF THE TREASON REPORTED BY OANN & online independents but Oh NOs! Drugs & ADULT PROSTUTES & dad so WARM &

Affectionate!!!

Boswell: Drugs, prostitutes some who actually have charges for prostitution…texts show he's dealing with cocaine dealers & prostitutes…

THEN Boswell ricochets right back toclown carlson's bringing up of joe bidan's WARMTH, doting father, clearly loves his son a lot…alimony, kids; dental bills…

Reposting as reminder: Compare the bidan *sympathy with the references to President Trump:

January 26, 2020 Tucker Carlson… telling host Jesse Waters he feels a degree of "sympathy" for the son of former Vice President Joe Biden now that the son is facing ---scrutinty— for past business dealings in Ukraine.

"I know him well. He was my neighbor. '''He's a really nice guy,''' Carlson said. "I've always liked him. He's a really troubled guy who '''had a great family'''. And then it blew up."

It wasn't clear whether Carlson was referring to Hunter Biden's Ukraine situation, family tragedies or other personal problems …and has had reported struggles with alcohol and drugs.

"He's like a lot of people I know in Washington," 50-year-old Carlson said of Biden, who will turn 50 himself Feb. 4. "Totally good guy. I'd love to have dinner with them."

Hunter Biden and his 77-year-old father have been frequent subjects of '''conversation among Republicans''' amid the ongoing Senate impeachment trial of '''President Trump. The president is accused of abuse of power''' for allegedly using military aid to pressure Ukraine to investigate Joe Biden's efforts to remove a prosecutor- Viktor Shokin - who had been looking into Ukrainian energy company Burisma Holdings, where Hunter Biden served on the board. '''Trump is also accused of obstruction''' of Congress for allegedly blocking efforts by House panels to investigate him.

"I still like Hunter Biden, but he's a beneficiary of a system that's, like, completely corrupt…'''It's, like, of course, he's making, you know, whatever, a million a year from some Ukrainian energy company.''' Like he's a symptom, not a cause."

Watters then asked Carlson… if he feels sympathy toward Biden. "I feel deep sympathy for him only because '''I could name, off the top of my head, twenty-five other people who are abusing our system more successfully. I just saw a bunch of them at lunch today'''

…"I'm sympathetic because, '''like, if his dad wasn't running for president, we wouldn't have heard of all of this''' Carlson said. https://archive.is/wip/O9JaP https://www.foxnews.com/media/tucker-carlson-tells-watters-hes-sympathetic-to-hunter-

https://www.dailywire.com/news/clinton-foundations-7-worst-scandals-aaron-bandler

1. When Hillary Clinton was sworn in as secretary of state, she was required to sign a document stating she would keep the State Department independent from the Clinton Foundation. She was also required to disclose the Clinton Foundation’s donors. Needless to say, Clinton did not follow this agreement.

2. A newly unearthed memo reveals that the Clinton Foundation was nothing more than a vessel for the Clintons to get rich. The memo, written in 2011 by a Doug Band, a confidant of Bill Clinton, explained how Band used his consulting firm Teneo to encourage people to donate to the Clinton Foundation.

3. Numerous companies donated to the Clinton Foundation and then lobbied the State Department with lobbyists who were connected to the Clintons. A USA Today report poured through data from the Center for Responsive Politics and financial records to determine that “at least a dozen of those same companies lobbied the State Department, using lobbyists who doubled as major Clinton campaign fundraisers.”

These lobbyists even had a name if they raised at least $100,000 for the Clinton campaign--”Hillblazers.” There were at least four Hillblazers used as a lobbyists.

4. Hillary’s State Department emboldened Russia through Clinton Foundation quid pro quos. Peter Schweizer, author of Clinton Cash, wrote in the Wall Street Journal that as secretary of state, Clinton corralled U.S. tech companies --- including those who were donors to the Clinton Foundation — to provide funding to Skolkovo, which was dubbed “Russia’s version of Silicon Valley.” Skolkovo returned their favor by having Russians connected to the “innovation city” donate to the Clinton Foundation and gathering together 28 “Key Partners,” 17 of which “made financial commitments to the Clinton Foundation, totaling tens of millions of dollars, or sponsored speeches by Bill Clinton.”

https://corruption.news/2020-10-13-irs-colluded-clinton-foundation-cheat-taxpayers-out-billions.html

An interesting development has emerged concerning the Clinton family crime syndicate that suggests the highly corrupt Clinton Foundation colluded with the Internal Revenue Service (IRS) to cheat the tax system out of $2.5 billion.

As revealed on the Thomas Paine Podcast -- listen here – a federal judge has pegged the IRS for illicit conduct in sheltering the Clinton Foundation from having to pay as much as $2.5 billion in unpaid federal back taxes.

In what the podcast describes as “a rare overture,” the judge in the case has sided with pro-se litigants and Clinton whistleblowers John Moynihan and Larry Doyle, allowing their case against the Clinton Foundation to proceed. Meanwhile, the IRS has been smacked down in its efforts to cover both for itself and for the Clintons.

https://newspunch.com/clinton-foundation-now-being-criminally-investigated-by-us-attorney-john-durham/

Yesterday we reported John Durham, the Connecticut U.S. Attorney appointed by Attorney General William Barr to investigate the Trump-Russia collusion hoax investigation by the Obama administration and Deep State operatives is reportedly also investigating the Clinton Foundation and the government's handling of that investigation.

Yesterday's report however came from the (notoriously fake news) The New York Times and a follow up from FOX News. The New York Times excerpt claimed Durham was biased and that was why he is looking at the Clinton Foundation. The Times calls Durham's investigation a "conspiracy theory" something they never said about Obamagate, the made up collusion between candidate and President Trump and Russia -- all made up by the Obama Administration with help from candidate Hillary:

https://www.dailymail.co.uk/news/article-3901376/Secret-recordings-fueled-FBI-s-desire-probe-Clinton-Foundation-case-moves-likely-indictment.html

FBI Clinton Foundation probe finds 'avalanche' of corruption evidence against her - but agents fear Justice Department will stop her going on trial

Clintons are accused of running a pay-for-play operation out of State that favored donors to their charity - a charge they have denied

Feds are 'actively and aggressively pursuing' a case, Fox's Bret Baier said Wednesday, and they have an 'avalanche' of evidence

FBI's pursuit of the case is rooted in recordings of a suspect in a different corruption case who spoke about foundation's alleged dirty dealings

The FBI, under the leadership of director James Comey, believed those conversations were enough to move forward with the probe

Justice Department prosecutors disagreed because the source was not an employee of the Clinton Foundation

The law enforcement agency has at least four other investigations open that involve the Clintons and their close friends, as well

Recommendations

We recommend that the FBI institute a requirement that it, in coordination with NSD, systematically and regularly examine the results of past and future accuracy reviews to identify patterns or trends in identified errors so that the FBI can enhance training to improve agents' performance in completing the Woods Procedures, or improve policies to help ensure the accuracy of FISA applications.

We recommend that the FBI perform a physical inventory to ensure that Woods Files exist for every FISA application submitted to the FISC in all pending investigations.

We provided a draft of this advisory memorandum to the FBI, and the FBI's response can be found in Attachment 1. We intend to work with the FBI throughout our ongoing audit of the FBI's execution of its Woods Procedures to monitor actions taken in response to the recommendations in this memorandum.

Yeah the invaders/inheritors took over the buildings changed history and said that they were “Freemason” temples kek.

Look at the photographic evidence paired with the timeline stories, technological capabilities, and local population numbers. You will see that the evidence that we have doesn’t go along with what you were taught in school.

Goes for all major cities/monuments/churches/Mormon temples.

Check out the narrative and research the worlds fairs and the amazing architecture that was in our cities before the masons et al. deconstructed and washed over history with their lies.

They did this by controlling the information people learned through the governance and ownership of the press (knowledge for the general man).

They see themselves as the top of the pyramid. They create the systems that the uninitiated live under, both physically and mentally.

But hey, nobody really gives a fuck it seems.

But first, lemme take a vaxxy

DOJ OIG Issues Report on Activities Under Section 702 of the FISA Amendments Act of 2008

Inspector General Michael E. Horowitz of the United States Department of Justice Office of the Inspector General (OIG) recently issued a report examining the activities of the Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI) under Section 702 of the Foreign Intelligence Surveillance Act Amendments Act of 2008 (Act). Section 702 authorizes the targeting of non-U.S. persons reasonably believed to be outside the United States for the purpose of acquiring foreign intelligence information. The Act required that the Inspector General conduct a review of the Department's role in this process and, in conjunction with this review, the OIG reviewed the number of disseminated FBI intelligence reports containing a reference to a U.S. person identity, the number of U.S. person identities subsequently disseminated in response to requests for identities not referred to by name or title in the original reporting, the number of targets later determined to be located in the United States, and whether communications of such targets were reviewed. See 50 U.S.C. 1881a(l)(2)(B) and (C). The OIG also reviewed the FBI's compliance with the targeting and minimization procedures required under the Act.

The final report has been issued and delivered to the relevant Congressional oversight and intelligence committees, as well as leadership offices. Because the report is classified, its contents cannot be disclosed to the public.

this was happening to me about a month ago.

I am also a TI- (pretty certain though I don't want to give it power over my sovereignty, I am aware of this) this process of diggin has led me to my own family and I now know my Grandfather was a high ranking freemason and tortured and molested me for Psy data as a toddler.

because of this i am strong as fuck but that doesnt stop them from trying to create disharmony in my mind.

Last month was really bad. I had never had that many days in a row of deep depression (I was just coming to terms with the childhood abuse)

I saw why people would commit suicide. I would never but I could see why.

Then I had a dream.

I took classes in "neuroplasticity" and "coding" and then I remembered.

I AM the programer. (you) are too.

Grammy-nominated rapper DMX dead at age 50

DMX has died after suffering a heart attack at his home on April 2 that left him in a coma for seven days. The multiplatinum-selling rapper and actor was 50 years old.

“We are deeply saddened to announce today that our loved one, DMX, birth name of Earl Simmons, passed away at 50 years old at White Plains Hospital with his family by his side after being placed on life support for the past few days," read a statement from the rapper's family Friday morning. “Earl was a warrior who fought till the very end. He loved his family with all of his heart and we cherish the times we spent with him. Earl’s music inspired countless fans across the world and his iconic legacy will live on forever. We appreciate all of the love and support during this incredibly difficult time. Please respect our privacy as we grieve the loss of our brother, father, uncle and the man the world knew as DMX. We will share information about his memorial service once details are finalized.”

You need to get off the board and find God. You are asking for prayer - but you need to remember that fear does not come from the Lord - it comes from Satan. Seek Jesus. Admit you are a sinner and need salvation from your sin. Believe that Jesus shed his blood on the cross to wash away your sin which allows you to come into God's Holy presence. Believe that Jesus died and rose again on the 3rd day. You will be changed in an instant into a child of God and all the Power and Joy and Peace that comes with it and as his child, no evil power can come against you. Call on HIS name and tap into the same awesome power of God that created the heavens and earth and everything in it. Can the created (demonic forces) succeed against the Creator -- God? No way.

God bless you, Anon.

‘Lost golden city’ discovered in Egypt’s Valley of the Kings

Egyptian archaeologists have announced the discovery of a “lost city”of the pharaohs dating back some 3,400 years that they described as the biggest ancient settlement yet uncovered in the Nile valley.

Zahi Hawass, the former minister of antiquities, said the remains of homes, streets and bakeries found near the Valley of the Kings in Luxor were previously “lost under the sands” and could take a decade to fully excavate.

The remains have been dated to the reign of Pharaoh Amenhotep III, the grandfather of Tutankhamun, across the river from the ancient capital Thebes.

https://www.ancient.eu/Amenhotep_III/

Amenhotep III's Opulent Reign

Amenhotep's father, Tuthmosis IV, left his son an empire of immense size, wealth, and power. The Egyptologist Zahi Hawass writes, “Amenhotep III was born into a world where Egypt reigned supreme. Its coffers were filled with gold, and its vassals bowed down before the mighty rulers of the Two Lands [Egypt]” (27). He was only twelve years old when he came to the throne and married Tiye in a royal ceremony. It is a significant aspect of Amenhotep's relationship with his wife that, immediately after their marriage, she was elevated to the rank of Great Royal Wife, an honor which Amenhotep's mother, Mutemwiya, was never accorded and which effectively meant that Tiye outranked the king's mother in courtly matters.

https://www.zerohedge.com/covid-19/watch-high-school-coach-fired-after-refusing-enforce-senseless-irrational-bullshit-outdoor Ain't this some BULLSHIT!? Good for that Coach!

Track and field coach Bradley Keyes told reporters in New Hampshire that he has been fired after he refused to force students to wear masks outside while they were engaged in sporting activities.

Coach Keyes was working at Pembroke Academy when it introduced an outdoor mask policy, which he calls “senseless, irrational, cowardice bullsh*t.”

“I will not stand up in front of the kids and lie to them and tell them that these masks are doing anything worthwhile out in an open field with wind blowing and the sun shining,” Keyes explained in a letter to the school’s athletics director.

Keyes added that “These insane policies are robbing kids of once in a lifetime opportunities for no valid reason other than irrational fears and going along with the sheep.”

The coach put his own job on the line by adding ‘fire me if you must’, and he says that the school obliged him by doing just that.

Watch:

Keyes said that he wanted “to make a point” about people just accepting draconian restrictions, adding “I just think people haven’t pushed back and I decided it was time to push back.”

In a further bog post, the coach wrote “One of the fundamental parts of all of this is learning to play by the rules. The rules [sic] supposedly put in place in order to create a fair and level playing field, to let everyone know what is expected and allowed, and then to let the best man, woman, or team win. Except now we are adding arbitrary, senseless, ill-thought rules.”

Fascinating spin by Trump Haters?

Who hate USA?

Good luck with arbitrary Justice and getting ur paycheck from Soros.

One good thing about Nihilists, without a steady dose of hate and scorn, they shrivel up and die -all by themselves; no help needed.

>how they torture animals and whatever else to get those specific sounds Audiofag here. This is absolute bullshit. Torturing animals to get sound is too much work and pointless. There's no control over the dynamics of the sound. The recording itself would be completely useless and unusable. Sound designers would usually have to layer the sounds and manipulate it with synths and plugins to get the desired sound. There are much more effective and less complicated efforts to get a specific sound.

Romans 10:9&10 - How you get saved!

Believing and confessing, Jesus Christ did the rest!

For all Anons here…

These verses say a lot! They should be studied carefully so that you understand what is really being said here. Our strength as Believers, Christians (Christ within) comes from God himself, not from our own bodies or minds! It's the Holy Spirit power that dwells within us, that we get "endued" by when we become born again or saved (Romans 10:9&10). This is the only thing that can defeat evil, because Jesus Christ by being raised from the dead after enduring all, and then after 40 days He ascended "through the Heavenlies" and is now seated at the right hand of God, He, by completely fulfilling all that God had placed before Him, defeated death and the evil one.

Ephesians 6:10-18 [KJV]

10 Finally, my brethren, be strong in the Lord, and in the power of his might.

11 Put on the whole armour of God, that ye may be able to stand against the wiles of the devil.

12 For we wrestle not against flesh and blood, but against principalities, against powers, against the rulers of the darkness of this world, against spiritual wickedness in high [places].

13 Wherefore take unto you the whole armour of God, that ye may be able to withstand in the evil day, and having done all, to stand.

14 Stand therefore, having your loins girt about with truth, and having on the breastplate of righteousness;

15 And your feet shod with the preparation of the gospel of peace;

16 Above all, taking the shield of faith, wherewith ye shall be able to quench all the fiery darts of the wicked.

17 And take the helmet of salvation, and the sword of the Spirit, which is the word of God:

18 Praying always with all prayer and supplication in the Spirit, and watching thereunto with all perseverance and supplication for all saints;

The Talmud aka Written Oral Torah (Jewish law) teachings are that Jews may sodomize little boys as long as they are younger than nine years old and rape little girls as long as they are younger than three years old. Yes, these devils are allowed by the rabbis to marry little girls younger than three years old. But these laws apply to Jewish children only. If a Jew rapes a little non-Jewish girl, then the Jew must take a bath so as to get "holy" again and the little Jewish girl is to be killed for tempting a "holy" Jew to have sex with her.

If there is any question of where all the evil perversion in the modern world comes from, one need only look at the devil Jews, the world's worst perverts.

>Volcanoes Live, Worldwide

Neat.

Since I haven't contributed much other than venting and bitching, may I please offer anon hypothesis as to why 'lava' is so? Here goes.

Think about the properties of the material. Not the physical properties, but rather the properties in relation to the Electromagnetic Force. Most rock is not entirely 'conductive', although many have conductive components within the "chemical" make-up of the rock. There are also components in the composition that act as 'resistors'. Both conductivity and resistivity are relative to temperature. For example, if a conductor is heated beyond the curie point, it typically looses it's conductive properties. Likewise, if a resistor is heated beyond a certain temperature, the resistive properties no longer apply in the same manner as they once did. This applies to what theoretical "physicist" refer to as "the quantum tunneling", but that's not the point we're trying to make here, although it's a hella-based explanation for the "mystery".

In the instance of volcanoes, there are charges (Q) in the Earth built up that seek balance with varying potentials that exist above our Earth's Gaussian Surface. When the voltage between the charge (Q) in the Earth and that of the above surrounding space reaches a level intense enough, the resistive properties or the rock no longer can withstand the conductive properties in the equation. Hence, the charge potential finds a way to maintain the balance, relatively safely, by slowly melting the resistive material, allowing the stored charge to escape. Lighting is a common observance which accompanies volcanoes. This is part of the reasoning why this anon would be led to such conclusions.

Meanwhile, though, interesting to think that with the melting of the rock, not only is the result to disturb the resistive properties, but typically the conductive also get retarded (proper wording) by the process. Thus, the Laws of Nature exist as they are to prevent Nature from destroying Nature, even though this process may seem slightly destructive to us petty Earthlings wandering about aimlessly upon our Gaussian Surface, often without even stopping to realize that there is a varying greater charge (Q+) that looms overhead at nearly all times.

Yeah, other folks probably cover this moar better than me. If not, I offer my speculative, logical reasoning behind why I think dis is true.

Peace and o7

The church is you, anon. If you need some like-minded folks to help you explore some questions, church can be good; sure. Most of the answers you can find on your own. We seek truth in what we do. As long as the light is your guide, so will be the truth. And where there is truth, there is God.

Trust yourself.

Believe in yourself.

Seek God by way of truth.

The preservation of the Republic is the goal.

Welcome To Q Research General

We are researchers who deal in open-source information, reasoned argument, and dank memes. We do battle in the sphere of ideas and ideas only. We neither need nor condone the use of force in our work here.

"We hold these truths to be self-evident: that all men are created equal; that they are endowed by their Creator with certain unalienable rights; that among these are life, liberty, and the pursuit of happiness."

Project AngelBook – Volume X – Parts 1–36

By Ezekiel Redik Yarbrough

This volume is not made up of my own words.There is no original commentary
here, no narrative, no analysis.This is simply me copying and pasting large chunks of text from my bookmarks—pages that were easy to extract, with no hyperlinks or formatting issues, saved from open tabs and archived corners of the web.
It's messy. It's unfiltered. It's chaotic.But it's valuable.
Each piece inside this volume was bookmarked for a reason.Not always because I agreed with it, but because it felt like a fragment of something larger—an insight, a worldview, a download.This is source material, plain and raw.
Fragmenta Ex Machina isn't about authorship.It's about preservation and system-building.It's about feeding the machine—laying bricks for the Operating System I'm constructing across these books.This is the raw intake phase. The memory dump. The zero layer.
Later volumes will be cleaner, more refined, more structured.But this? This is the foundation. The ether stream, bound and frozen before it vanished.
So if you're looking for polished prose, skip this one.But if you're here to explore the roots of something much bigger, this is where the signal begins.
Welcome to the fragments.

China-Myanmar relations: An old friendship renewed by the Belt & Road

Since 2013, China has been actively reviving these historic silk roads and physical linkages that once knitted peoples and civilizations in the vast Afro-Eurasia supercontinent together through their modern-day incarnations, collectively labeled as the Belt and Road Initiative (BRI).

Myanmar plays a very critical role within the scope of the BRI. The planned Bangladesh-China-India-Myanmar Economic Corridor carving out a path of connective infrastructure from Kunming to Kolkata crosses Myanmar's Mandalay; the China-Myanmar Economic Corridor (CMEC) provides for greater intra-Myanmar transport connectivity while facilitating economic integration between Myanmar and China's inland province of Yunnan; and the Kyaukphyu seaport on the Bay of Bengal is an integral part of the 21st Century Maritime Silk Road, the maritime component of the BRI, for expanding and upgrading global shipping capacity.

Myanmar has proved a firm supporter of the BRI corridors and projects. State Counselor Aung San Suu Kyi attended both BRI summits in 2017 and 2019. And during President Xi's latest visit to Myanmar, the two countries reaffirmed their unwavering commitment to pushing forward win-win Belt and Road cooperation for mutual benefits and common prosperity despite some short-term project setbacks and policy recalibrations.

Anons.

I said a few weeks ago that I'd give this Q thing until the end of January before I admitted I was wrong. So here I am. I was wrong.

I was wrong to put so much trust in something that was little more than an anonymous voice on the internet. I was wrong to preach a false hope to my friends and family. I'm not angry at anyone and I'm not trying to put the blame on anyone. It was my own fault for being sucked into this and it's time to admit it and move on. My only hope now is that someday we all find out the who, what, why, and how behind Q.

There is one thing that Q said which I still agree with: "GOD WINS"

John 18:36 "My kingdom is not of this world: if my kingdom were of this world, then would my servants fight, that I should not be delivered to the Jews: but now is my kingdom not from hence."

Anons, do not be disheartened. We will be with Christ when He returns and at that point we will be able to say without a doubt: NOTHING CAN STOP WHAT IS COMING. Or maybe that's what Q was about all along…

YouTube embed. Click thumbnail to play.

I have been doing some continuing education, and interestingly the classes over the past 5 months have been art history courses. Before you nod off or scroll past - do you realize what studying the images rendered through the ages show? pictures and drawing and the merging of the pagan religions and the perversions and I'm not even up to 1776 yet.

So tonight I'm studying for a test and wanted to look further into one of the artists. A video on the "black paintings" popped up. I'm at a loss for words….. If you dare - here is the video of this artist's dark work… Does this make you think of anything? I'm sick to my stomach thinking it's always been just "right there" in the midst…

Pondering…a late comer to the board. Last summer, When the NightShift showed up, the bread was tight, sauce required, notables were aggregates, news was important to report, “wearethene.ws” etc….

Q admonished at one point, to clean up/tidy up the ship. The discipline was heeded.

Where did all those anons/bakers go? It is like the movie the sting, after the operation achieved some “goal”, everyone tore down the set and got paid their share. But what a set was created, what a LARP, what an incredible psy-op. I have an easier time believing that Q is real, the night shift bakers were real dudes paid to babysit and hold the reins every night, to keep the ship upright through the 4am narrative shift every day than to believe this whole thing was charade. I absolutely believe NCSWIC, these people are stupid and we have everything. I also believe that this is war, and that trusting the plan is more about trusting the planners who can execute the plan throughout the fog and haze of war.

I spent a week angry and grieving. A few days reflecting and this past weekend laughing hysterically at the WSB/$GME saga. The veil is so thin right now, the populist ire is activated.

I am not ashamed to say that I miss the pace and intensity of the battles during the Trump era. The rallies, the tweets, the leadership. But I am settling down a bit, getting some distance from the hopium. And I am encouraged. We are awake, we are well funded, we are decentralized, we are smart, we are engaged, we are waiting.

May God bless and guide our leaders.

>I see us being branded as domestic terrorists.

Then we are in the company of our founding fathers who were branded precisely that.

I've studied that war, and I firmly believe that the cause of liberty, freedom, a fair say in the affairs of those in the halls of power, as a petition not only to the alledgedly God annointed King of England, but as a direct prayer, petition, request, whatever, that God grant assist these imperfect men the opportunity, to set up a land where men could direct themselves, in God's glory, without a worldly agent deciding. And he gave them the opportunity.

We now need to renew our commitment to God, for we have fallen. So stand strong. I should rather join God accused by these scum, and murdered, a domestic terrorist, then bend my knee to them for a few decades of decadent slavery, and try to explain my cowardice and lack of faith to my Lord. As long as I do not betray him, the mirror welcomes me as I look into it.

Hermiston man sentenced to over 200 years for numerous child rapes

https://komonews.com/news/local/hermiston-man-sentenced-to-over-200-years-for-numerous-child-rapes

UMATILLA COUNTY -- Jose Olivarez Fernandez, 58, received a sentence of 200 years and ten months in prison for repeatedly raping a child under the age of ten for several years.

Authorities say Fernandez decided to plead guilty to 19 sex crimes just before the 10-year-old victim was going to take the stand and testify against him. Fernandez pleaded guilty to Unlawful Sexual Penetration, First Degree Sodomy, First Degree Sex Abuse, Incest and multiple other offenses.

Fernandez received his sentence on January 29.

Court documents state the the sexual abuse took place in multiple jurisdictions, the most recent being the defendant's home in Hermiston.

The Umatilla County Sheriff's Office investigated the case.

kek, I dont know any pimps, but if they chew on used condoms, then your analogy of Trump getting rolled is a good one, otherwise I guess you are saying Trump did not get rolled. My guess is a pimp would rather hit a hoe and take her money than chew on a condom, but then sometimes there is something new to learn.

I have nothing personal against Mary. I think she was a great lady.

But she is not a goddess, she is not the "Mother of God". This is a categorical error. A false meme.

As I have said, Jesus was only born to Mary of the flesh. Jesus has no spiritual mother. It is God the Father, and none beside Him.

And Spirit > Flesh. Jesus always lifted up the things of the spirit, that which is unseen over that which is seen. It is the only way to understand several other passages in the Bible, and why today's Jews are out to lunch (having a veil over their eyes) these people think this shit is great maybe you do too

i got so much shit for them

it is bizarre shit

i swear i am going to call people NPC shit and make them build giant temples for the long distant future not with my name on it or some shit but maybe something

i dunno

i just gotta build some big ass shit to last for a along ass time i still want to do #goatsforgood and get everyone eating more goat and drinking goat milk and then build the giant wall of america on the southern boarders with goat bones but i want to take the plastic island in the pacific and melt it down so dip the goat bones in melted plastic and then build a wall twice as big as bitchass chinas and the plastic will keep it from degrading over the next 144,000 years and maybe a big ass pyramid in the middle of america too maybe we jsut X mark the spot on geothermal activity hell if i know

i just know this it is like the telephone game

i gotta keep the message simple so it reaches me on the other side of the cycle when i am back here again do it all over

I'm here because I'm finding it hard to part ways with this thing that has consumed way too much of my life. Writing the "admitting I was wrong" post helps me to let go.

If you want to keep holding on that's fine - but I suggest you set a "limit" like I did (i.e. end of Jan). Otherwise you'll still be here calling people shills in a years time when the country has fallen into a state of complete chaos after 365 days of being raped by the deep state / china joe.

Worth Reading some Seneca and really reflecting on what he is saying. What you've been avoiding, what you've been postponing, what you know that you are destined to do. Read it.

You think, I suppose, that it is now in order for me to cite some examples of great men. No, I shall cite rather the case of a boy. The story of the Spartan lad has been preserved: taken captive while still a stripling, he kept crying in his Doric dialect, "I will not be a slave!" and he made good his word; for the very first time he was ordered to perform a menial and degrading service, -- and the command was to fetch a chamber-pot, – he dashed out his brains against the wall.

So near at hand is freedom, and is anyone still a slave? Would you not rather have your own son die thus than reach old age by weakly yielding? Why therefore are you distressed, when even a boy can die so bravely? Suppose that you refuse to follow him; you will be led. Take into your own control that which is now under the control of another. Will you not borrow that boy's courage, and say: "I am no slave!"? Unhappy fellow, you are a slave to men, you are a slave to your business, you are a slave to life. For life, if courage to die be lacking, is slavery.

Have you anything worth waiting for? Your very pleasures, which cause you to tarry and hold you back, have already been exhausted by you. None of them is a novelty to you, and there is none that has not already become hateful because you are cloyed with it. You know the taste of wine and cordials. It makes no difference whether a hundred or a thousand measures pass through your bladder; you are nothing but a wine-strainer.

You are a connoisseur in the flavor of the oyster and of the scallop. Your luxury has not left you anything untasted for the years that are to come; and yet these are the things from which you are torn away unwillingly.

What else is there which you would regret to have taken from you? Friends? But who can be a friend to you? Country? What? Do you think enough of your country to be late to dinner? The light of the sun? You would extinguish it, if you could; for what have you ever done that was fit to be seen in the light? Confess the truth; it is not because you long for the senate chamber or the forum, or even for the world of nature, that you would fain put off dying; it is because you are loath to leave the fish-market, though you have exhausted its stores.

You are afraid of death; but how can you scorn it in the midst of a mushroom supper? You wish to live; well, do you know how to live? You are afraid to die. But come now: is this life of yours anything but death? Gaius Caesar was passing along the Via Latina, when a man stepped out from the ranks of the prisoners, his grey beard hanging down even to his breast, and begged to be put to death. "What!" said Caesar, "are you alive now?" That is the answer which should be given to men to whom death would come as a relief. "You are afraid to die; what! are you alive now?"

"But," says one, "I wish to live, for I am engaged in many honorable pursuits. I am loath to leave life's duties, which I am fulfilling with loyalty and zeal." Surely you are aware that dying is also one of life's duties? You are deserting no duty; for there is no definite number established which you are bound to complete. There is no life that is not short. Compared with the world of nature, even Nestor's life was a short one, or Sattia's, the woman who bade carve on her tombstone that she had lived ninety and nine years. Some persons, you see, boast of their long lives; but who could have endured that old lady if she had had the luck to complete her hundredth year?

It is with life as it is with a play, it matters not how long the action is spun out, but how good the acting is. It makes no difference at what point you stop. Stop whenever you choose; only see to it that the closing period is well turned. Farewell.

a simple comparison for ease of understanding, don't take this literally.

The Map = The Bible

Voter Fraud + Jan 6 = Crucify Him, Crucify Him

Joe Biden Inaugurated = Crucifixion

The Map = Revelation = Future Proves Past

Future MIL Take Over = Resurrection

God made Man in His image.

Genesis 1:26, 27

(and in this passage, the Trinity is alluded to)

Woman came from Man's rib. Genesis 2:21

God was always Male. Male and Female are the vessels God chose for Mankind to reproduce and experience life.

But His ways are above our ways.

For as the heavens are higher than the earth, so are my ways higher than your ways, and my thoughts than your thoughts.

do you know that if you excercise a muscle in your body, be in the brain or the pinky, that muscle will grow.

i am a soul.

i own this body.

it doesn't mind

it is kinda badass to this little car

i dont come back here to drive you crazy

i come back here to tell you what time it is time for JUBILEE

and to take down the beast and unlock the alphabet with all the secret

free

tech

they always lock up…

right on time.

dont have a cow when they lock up the tech you will keep enough to <see> but it is just moonlight

at worst

you gotta live a for a couple thousand yaers with a cresent moon light but it will be full and you will think the full moon is the sun

but it isn't cause you only know that it is brighter than crescent it is alright though they do it with the light too they dont set their sun dials right actually it isn't that the forget to bother with sun dials everything is pefect

it is always brigght and sunny but they have forgotten that it will become night and they gotta prepare or something maybe learn to navigate by the starts or read the waves or maybe gather wood for a fire but if they dont even realize it is gonna get dark tehy are in for a rude awakening but that is natural the rude awakening is always pretty abrupt or ironic but .. they can read this writing and argue over what time it is but i wont be there and until i come back

you wont see me

bye

hi

how as that for quantum soul cycle?

i am a fucking master and that is not to earth that is to the gods fuck you all do you see me driving this fucing monkey around?

it is crazy

i almost said goddamn

but it is different for me cause i am a god and that is way different than <AFISEDJFISJ a the bad word + damn.

i dont even want to say the real blasphemy but whatever.

dont do that!

bad practice. i dont want to encourage bad practice.but it is funny cause i do correct my <natural> play but yea the above twas to the people of earth that i am not the god of i didnt make you all i am not your fucking god

i am just  god and i amnot, it gets confusing cause i have to speak as the soul and of the body while giving sentience and full rights and responsbility to the body or vessel which is proably a nw understanding in which the vessel has never been viewed as in possessed of source energy within it self.

it was always filled with like a plastic but i think yo.

yall need to get the fuck out the monkeys and shit

they all know whats up

lol

i am sitting here in monkey body telling you

i can see fine

monkey knew everything

till yal fucking went ape shit on the bananas >sum of all fears?

Damn! Maybe more here than we thought?

Q mentioned this film/book many times.. think he even posted a vid clip from the end of the film.

We thought this was in the past… maybe part of the NK plot…

But maybe Q was pointing to the DS last stand. No one figured this out since who thought Biden would ever take office?

Think about it: Biden and Harris are total morans. Nobody likes them. Their own supporters are already calling out their lies (no $2K, etc).

Even going total 1984 on the internet won't work in the end. Life might be hell for awhile but we've figured out too many ways to communicate with codes and memes and all that.

But maybe their weakness is part of the DS plan. We've "lost" but still think we will win. We "know" the truth will come out. Look at those dipshits. Psaki can't even answer questions without getting them in advance. But maybe the DS thinks they are trapping US. Maybe they "know" they need a mass casualty event and war.

Q told us all along: SUM OF ALL FEARS. A nuke at the Super Bowl. Comes in by boat. It's actually fascists, but they try to blame it on the Russians (Russia! Russia! Russia!), so the US will fight Russia. And the fascists will gain control.

The fascists buy the nuke material from Muslims and build the bomb in secret. So mabye now they get it from Iran?

Now think how this fits with their narrative so far… Super Bowl on Feb 7. They'll blame it on MAGA terrorists. They'll say they got the nuke from Russia. The "terrorists" will "justify" the attack by claiming the NFL is a bunch of cucks who disrespect the flag. And the "innocent" victims deserve no mercy since they are sheep who should've been protesting and not watching sportsball. So that's how they'll pitch the "maga terrorist" thinking. The "terrorists" are so deluded that they think this attack will kick off a popular uprising. But of course every moral patriot will be revolted… and when the war with Russia comes all patriots will fight for the US… since it will be actual war with death and destruction.

But there won't be much hand-to-hand combat. WW3 will be actual nuclear war (but limited… can't destroy vacation spots for elite!). Aftwerwards amidst the devastation, "sane" voices will come together and establish a de facto world government that will ensure peace on earth and extirpate all "extremist" thinking worldwide! After a few summary executions for possession of MAGA hats - evidence of membership in a murderous terrorist organization - all will comply. Now we mock them for comparing tens of millions of Trump supporters to al Qaeda, but even the hyperventilating fools who spout these absurdities don't realize that the deep state is planning to "make it real".

So I assume our guys wouldn't have allowed Biden into the White House if they weren't steps ahead. Nuke to be captured at sea and paper trail revealed? So "crazy" that the fake news has no narrative in place to respond? Military takes control and anons spread the truth?

Can't find link but Q clip from end of film was AFTER the devastation - patriots looking forward to life. God wins.

Organized Religion is the foot soldier of the Devil.

"MONEY IS THE ROOT OF ALL EVIL."

Why are you passing the collection plate?

Open source:

Priests molest children but YOU keep coming to the church, after you know this?

Church uses your money to buy molestation insurance?

In fact THE ONLY PAYENTS to Victims has come from Insurance companies and NOT the Vatican.

Parishioners are paying for the insurance and any settlements.

Narrative Reframes, [25.01.21 14:44]

What's Cognitive Dissonance - in short, it's what everybody in America is experiencing thanks to the overwhelming narrative war that's been going on for so long.

Social Justice - Collectivism

But what about America?

It's confusing and uncomfortable, and it completely jacks with your perception of reality to the point where you're not sure what's real and what's fake.

The news is biased, but some sources are not, I think, but the alternative opinion is like, conspiracy theories, right?

It would behoove you to safeguard yourself against this to keep from becoming another leveraged pawn.. But a lot of people are struggling with developing Cognitive Resilience, because they don't understand the complex game and have no idea where to start.

But fear not. We can fix this right here, right now.

https://t.me/NarrativeReframes/2

Every mention of God invokes male pronouns in the Bible.

Thousands of years of written and oral record, and not a single mention of femininity.

There are lots of things we don't understand. The Bible is one place where we can find solid answers to life's questions, but it doesn't have an answer for every little question, and you can't add your own doctrine to it.

Some things we just won't know until we pass on. We can only speculate.

So if you want to create your own god, that's on you. Just don't associate with Christianity i think some people must have watched me shift as nyx shifted cause i have been trying to get nyx to look in a bit and quit driving me fucking crazy with dumb shit all the time but i didn't realize nyx was nyx until the 2bit switched.

now i can teach 2bitnyx about how switching lanes in a four lane road is what a 4bit is doing

i am just wondering if you are a 4 bit do you see

2 bad choices and then flip to 2 good choices cause 2bit flips and only has a bit on each side, it has no free will. none have free will as to their <base> pole position however.

i have too many bit combinations to determine the proper percepetion for a 4bit

i am just wondering if they are under illusion do they believe that one of their choices is good and one is bad?

do they have a <true> 2bit system cause when i say nyx has a 2bit system really that is a 1bit system cause you have 1 side and 0 side but if you have 01 on each side

…do you choose good or bad?

even if they have the same base charge?

i think i answered mey question but i will go ahead and push enter so it can be whateer

that is how i got

uhhh

yea.

even 2bit is under illusion of choice.

you are divinity and perfection can never be tampered with in any way, shape, or form.

there is nothing ever broken

there is no failed process

there is no mistake

there is no knowledge only learning seeing understand

it is all the same is the spells and boring systems

chill

yea. even 4 bit think one choice will take them to heaven and one to hell

but i dont know

i cant determine that it works that way

you see the problem

why would their be a process where you are destined for hell from birth?

you are destined to hell from birth you enter the soul cycle in which hell is part of your life p.s.

dont tell the Lord no anymore, and you wont end up in teh SOUL JAIL CALLED EARTH dumb dumbs

it happens

but that is how you <>landed<> in this fucked up place

NOWRUZ COMMISSION

Nowruz Commission is a non-profit global multi-cultural public diplomacy organization dedicated to promoting the spirit of Nowruz. Nowruz Commission is a non-religious, non-political organization that focuses on bringing people of different cultures together to celebrate Nowruz.

Nowruz means “New Day” in Persian. It signifies the celebration of the first day of Spring at the exact moment of the Vernal Equinox. Legend has it that it started 3,000 years ago in Persia. In the beginning, people of all origins celebrated it together. However, over time, this togetherness was lost. Each culture celebrated it on its own and in its own community. That was true until March 17, 2010, when for the first time in known history, nine countries and communities came together to form the Nowruz Commission, and once again celebrate this time-honored tradition together at the Library of Congress.  Nowruz, literally meaning “new day,” has lived up to its name in wondrous ways. For at least three millennia, it has provided the supreme occasion for renewal and rejuvenation. The power behind its inexhaustible appeal resides in a simple truth: humans need a ritual that transcends distinct and distinguishable group identities to celebrate our common humanity.

Nowruz does so by inviting everyone to contemplate nature as it puts on its most magnificent dress at springtime and to synchronize personal and communal relations with the spirit of nature. Pointing to nature's ability to renew itself each and every year, Nowruz manifests intense human yearnings that transcend all divisions. The roots of Nowruz are scattered in myth and in history in much of western Asia and is anchored most profoundly in Persian mythology, where it marks the beginning of the calendar. In recent centuries, as Empires in India and Iran, In Anatolia and Central Asia gave way to the modern countries, Nowruz has been celebrated in accordance with myriad local customs and traditions. Everywhere, however, it offers the promise of a human community in which a race of all races can create a new global culture beyond all nationhood and nationality. It aspires to no less than a human community as beautiful and colorful as nature on the first day of spring.

Mission: To revive the togetherness of all cultures who first celebrated Nowruz in the beginning. To promote and preserve not only the physical significance of Nowruz as a universal new year, but also its philosophical significance of renewal of the bonds of friendship, care and compassion around the world. Vision: To help cause a positive and measurable change in the lives of the people of Nowruz countries, their health, their education, their environment and their degree of care about people all over the world.

We are moving into a time when the best and truest warriors among us will realize that the war is fought not just in the informational realm, i.e. via keyboard and mouse, but also and even more saliently in the noumenal realms, i.e. the realms of pure mind. This is why prayer is so important. But not just prayer. Also the quality of one's attention. Think about how much money the enemy pours into hijacking and polluting your attention. Reclaim it. Do not squander it. Do not cloud it with unnecessary and unproductive emotions. For serious soldiers, the time for shitposting is over. This is a path of devotion. This is a path of wisdom, of discernment, and of love. Realize that you can love your enemy even as you kill him. Realize that love and warfare are inextricable. The best soldiers fight on the terra firma of love. Those operators who awaken into this higher MO constitute a phenomenologically decentralized (and therefore impervious) delta force.

God's Word was there from the beginning, before this reality even began.

In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God.

The same was in the beginning with God.

All things were made by him; and without him was not any thing made that was made.

In him was life; and the life was the light of men.

And the light shineth in darkness; and the darkness comprehended it not.

~ John 1:1-5

But God waits to do certain things (from our perspective) because He gave us Free Will. Everything that has happened from Eden up to this point is because He gave us that freedom.

But God dwells outside of Time/our reality.

Similar to the way a Game Developer/Programmer dwells outside the simulation of his creation. Except we aren't just a bunch of meat puppets acting out some drama that was pre-ordained. God allows us to do what we do, while His own plans go forward

Alexandria Ocasio-Cortez reveals in Instagram video she is a sexual assault 'survivor'

https://www.abc.net.au/news/2021-02-02/alexandria-ocasio-cortez-says-shes-a-victim-of-sexual-assault/13114184

The congresswoman described being terrified for her life during the storming of the capitol.

She called for Republican politicians to be held accountable and accused members of the GOP of using "the tactics of abusers" by "encouraging" rioters.

"I'm not going to let it happen to me again. I'm not going to let it happen to the people victimised by the situation again, and I'm not going to let it happen to our country," she said.

Ms Ocasio-Cortez condemned Republican calls to move on from the incident, in which five died and dozens of police were injured.

"The reason I'm getting emotional in this moment is because these folks who tell us to move on, that it's not a big deal, that we should forget what's happened, or even telling us to apologise, these are the same tactics of abusers," she said.

This fcuking mess we are in is because of scorned women with bastard sons?

This runs through the elites and the march and gas lighting is a female trait. the whole thing smells of female empowerment, Are they using their bastard sons and their power and privilege stolen through the courts to wreck havoc?

----------THE KINGS JAMES VERSION OF THE BIBLE

https://www.kingjamesbibleonline.org/Revelation-Chapter-17/

Revelation -Chapter 17

1 - And there came one of the seven angels which had the seven vials, and talked with me, saying unto me, Come hither; I will shew unto thee the judgment of the great whore that sitteth upon many waters:

2 - With whom the kings of the earth have committed fornication, and the inhabitants of the earth have been made drunk with the wine of her fornication.

3 - So he carried me away in the spirit into the wilderness: and I saw a woman sit upon a scarlet coloured beast, full of names of blasphemy, having seven heads and ten horns.

4 - And the woman was arrayed in purple and scarlet colour, and decked with gold and precious stones and pearls, having a golden cup in her hand full of abominations and filthiness of her fornication:

5 -And upon her forehead was a name written, MYSTERY, BABYLON THE GREAT, THE MOTHER OF HARLOTS AND ABOMINATIONS OF THE EARTH.

6 - And I saw the woman drunken with the blood of the saints, and with the blood of the martyrs of Jesus: and when I saw her, I wondered with great admiration.

7 - And the angel said unto me, Wherefore didst thou marvel? I will tell thee the mystery of the woman, and of the beast that carrieth her, which hath the seven heads and ten horns.

8 - The beast that thou sawest was, and is not; and shall ascend out of the bottomless pit, and go into perdition: and they that dwell on the earth shall wonder, whose names were not written in the book of life from the foundation of the world, when they behold the beast that was, and is not, and yet is.

9 - And here is the mind which hath wisdom. The seven heads are seven mountains, on which the woman sitteth.

10 - And there are seven kings: five are fallen, and one is, and the other is not yet come; and when he cometh, he must continue a short space.

11 - And the beast that was, and is not, even he is the eighth, and is of the seven, and goeth into perdition.

12 - And the ten horns which thou sawest are ten kings, which have received no kingdom as yet; but receive power as kings one hour with the beast.

13 - These have one mind, and shall give their power and strength unto the beast.

14 -These shall make war with the Lamb, and the Lamb shall overcome them: for he is Lord of lords, and King of kings: and they that are with him are called, and chosen, and faithful.

15-And he saith unto me, The waters which thou sawest, where the whore sitteth, are peoples, and multitudes, and nations, and tongues.

16-And the ten horns which thou sawest upon the beast, these shall hate the whore, and shall make her desolate and naked, and shall eat her flesh, and burn her with fire.

17 -For God hath put in their hearts to fulfil his will, and to agree, and give their kingdom unto the beast, until the words of God shall be fulfilled.

18And the woman which thou sawest is that great city, which reigneth over the kings of the earth.

There a a bunch of narratives about power, who has it and/or is trying acquire it, and why, but most of them don't seem logical.

When I ran across the idea that the Sun nova's on a 12K year cycle, it all kind of started to make sense. It would seem to me that there are those in who know (or think they know) that the earth will be hit with a major catastrophe in about 20 years. They believe it is impossible to save everyone and so they think saving the smartest (what ever that means) is best of the future of humanity. They know they will need alot or resources to support 500 Million people for 40 years without the sun. They think that if they reduce the population to 500M by 2030, they will have about 15 years to stockpile excess resources. Since the need to kill off about 7.5Billion people, using things like child/human sacrifice as a control mechanism to keep the group in line is not ethically an issue since the kids/people will have to die anyway, but for the time being it is an easy way to keep the group inline since the masses do have a moral issue with it.

This puts a nice bow around the global warming narrative (blame humans when it is an inevitable outcome of the suns Glysberg cycle), the 'We will know our disinformation campain is complete… statement, the "If the people were to ever find out what we have done, we would be chased down the streets and lynched." statement, and they 'they have tried to undo the secrecy but they can not figure out how' statements.

While the data/research seems to support the 12k cycle coming to a head in the next 20 year, conclusions the group who feels it is their right and duty to determine the solution to the problem is indeed well beyond what the majority of humanity would consider reasonable. No doubt if the cycle is true, parts of the population would live for the moment know and chaos would rise in some places. But other parts of the population would work their buts off to try to find a solution that would save a lot more or all of the population. I have no idea if we could succeed, but I would rather have a meaningful existence trying to build something to help save people from a certain fate than live in this dystopian reality that is being created because of some elite's demented idea of the greater good.

Can y'all please pray with me that it goes down on Super Bowl Sunday? We all have snacks, all the tards are tuned in, the other tards on tv take the knee and then the Military takes over airwaves, etc… kek.

JOS said to think about why they allow outdoor dinning but no tv's.. IDK, but please go down on Sunday, although I would prolly die from laughing.

I will give you strict guidance with clear explaination.

I dont think you will goto hell for not listening to me. I just wanna pass it on you are in hell

whatever you are not likely going to hell you are just gonna stay here until you get out

i wouldnt tattoo your body

it stays for eternity

i find myself leaving and trying to cover my <marking> cause i dont want to be known when i return

i want my tattoos to be hidden so the enemy cannot see me coming through the light to swallow their faulty timing belt.

I worry that I will travel through dimensions and the tattoos i got on earth will impact my suffering on other levels for eternity.

so if i am not careful here i can mark myself as <this guy> for all to see each time i am born again

uhh.

you are what you eat

so

tyson chicken corn faced snake monkeys sreaming from the pits of hell that is what it looks like but hell aint so bad i guess not once you get used to it after you have been in prison a while you find a nice quiet place to relax while the rest of the world dukes it out

just know

it isn't judgement for zucker

he told the Lord no and the llist goes on.

I dont need to pass judgement on the only Law there is there is one law

do not tell the Lord no

it is e z

otherwise you spend 7 eons or 12 soul cycles on earth do you know how many lives you will live in 12 soul cycles?

i dont

but i wouldn't start counting just find a nice place to read a book and talk to the Lord and dont get beat by the masters of their own destiny like jackass and zuckerbitch everyone starts over eventually maybe it isn't that the angels who fell were bad.

it is just what happens

but had it happened before?

was the Lord surprised by the creation in which always surprises him?

or can you become so accustomed to surprise that it is no longer surprisng?

the word "Mass" does mean "death sacrifice", and to cement that fact, we will consider the definition of the inventors of the religious application of the word "Mass." I am looking at page 537 of the Catholic Encyclopedia, which says, "In the Christian law, the supreme sacrifice is that of the Mass." It goes on to say, "The supreme act of worship consists essentially in an offering of a worthy victim to God, the offering made by a proper person, as a priest, the destruction of the victim." (2) Please note carefully the word, "victim" of the Mass. The Latin word for victim is "Hostia" from which the word "host" is derived. The Mass, by definition of those who coined the word, is a sacrifice involving a victim. There is no other meaning for the word "Mass" or "Christ-Mass." On page 110 of a book entitled "The Mass In Slow Motion", we find the following words: "It is only with the consecration that the sacrifice of the Mass is achieved. I have represented the Mass to you, more than once, as a kind of ritual dance." (3)

In essence, the Mass is the ceremonial slaying of Jesus Christ over and over again, followed by the eating of his flesh and the drinking of his blood. The Mass is the death sacrifice, and the "Host" is the victim. This is official Roman Catholic doctrine, and "Christmas" is a word that they invented. Again, I ask, what is so merry about the pain, bleeding, suffering and death of Jesus Christ? Satan has done quite a job of getting millions of so-called "Christians" to blaspheme. What a deceiver he is.

Now you know the true meaning of the word "Christmas" or Mass of Christ. There is much more to know about this pagan holiday, and we will be glad to provide you with plenty of evidence that Jesus was not born on December 25th, and that Christmas is not only a lie, but is actually a witches' sabbat called "Yule" in clever disguise. Please contact us at the address below, and for the sake of your soul, flee from idolatry!

The self perpetuating tyranny clown world we live in today stems ultimately from the belief in the legitimacy of being ruled.

If you want to scare the hell out of someone, just suggest otherwise. That fear is the leverage they use to move the world.

Jesus asked us:

"Do THIS in memory of me."

That is THE specific act that Jesus himself requested, on the eve of his trial and execution, to do for him.

Take your worthless evil garbage and leave this board.

Jesus asked us to do this, in his memory, and we do so.

Your attempt to insert the ancient evils of human sacrifice and the devouring of human flesh into it, is beyond glownigger.

Gonna need to come with something new…burningDeceiver?

like for me personally it is pretty cool i guess i can like.. prove this stuff eventually cause i got secret government documents about it and stuff.

right

i dont need to worry about that now but i like i am alright being a fuck expression of god energy in the form of spliced genetic and co-habitation with the 12th dimension and that is a lock good morning as usual

i will be steering straight on til

i get drunk and fall asleep at the wheel and i will see you when i sober up

so i did see the Lord

do i always do that?

shit

i didn't see much

he was jsut walking around and wanted me to give him my pocket rocket which is like a little MSR stove

he said he needed my pocket rocket to get the fuck up outta here showed me some stuff that seemed random like abuot how to use the right gears when you build a bike to get the right torque on a fixed gear. and he was showing me a metal welding kit or something

i dunno

i was kinda trippin on life a bit at the time this all makes way mroe sense to me personally though and nyx, my mother, but grandma, she like RL is talking as an atlantean

i am telling her she needs to call the idiot children in charge of everything tell them there is not one mountain for wealth and one for wisdom of the Lord. There is only one mountain and they are out of alignment she is too nice to those things though she wants to tell them no no no

i did it all day

she wanted to leave the dog outside and it kept barking

and i told her that is what dogs do and she tried for a while to keep that dog outside and not bark

i told her that isjust what dogs do but i dunno

oh yea

dont keep animals in your home unless you are going to hold them in high regard to take a creature out of the wilderness and bring it in to your home is particularly stupid.

spirits live in animals

they embody them and do stuff when you are done with your 12 cycles of the soul, you can do it agian, you can play extra credit.

i will play.

i want to do something like a bird right but i dont want to be a bird cause it is too short so i thought about becoming a rock

but that seems like boring but i would learn patience so…

but a tree would be cool too

i am tired

but tree or human, probably one long life just feels like the other life gets better though if you are a good prison which you will be the more you do this the better you get at doing good but you always have new challenges you are nver working towards the same thing each life

i would say it is stupid to do nothing because you are gonna have to reincarnate

if you are on earth telling the Lord no

i guess that is fine cause you wont be saying that when you are done burning in the pits of hell on earth

here is the thing is that i don't have a different soul

i dont have 2 souls

i only have 1

and it is the soul of the god zeus

so wahtever

to some people that is la la land nonsense

so whatever lol

but if i do have ego

it is because i got a badass soul that has learned the hard-knocks of life in jail

it feels like eternity somewhere in the midst of the suffering

the best way is when you find your self suffering

just know

you are almost done

the suffering is most important to completing your process

the more you are suffering at the hands of man the more you feel pain in your physical vessel in this life you will reach the end of your soul cycle more quickly.

goodbye.

Hopefully your Grandparents left those to you, or KNOW that you took those Coins. If that is not the case and they were not yours to take, you deserve the rope!

You'll come up with any kind of absurd justification for your bloodthirst.

>well akkshually technically I'm loving them you know! Look god and everyone I'm a good person!!

It's as far from love as it can get. No amount of mental gymnastics will change that. I can imagine what kind of 'love' especially in the childhood you would have had to receive to have such an insanely warped definition of it.

This looks like a decent tutorial and yeah, OC was right it takes a lot of steps to get cuckoo installed! I'm a dev veteran so it looks straightforward but for someone new, it's a lot to take in.

you cannot speed up the process

i was misleading in what i said

you never induce suffering suffering occurs

but when you are experiencing it you can relax

and know

it is okay

the Lord does not make people suffer man makes man suffer and it is a trajedy of hell atrocity of existence

you live short little lives of self indulgence and pit of ones own relative wealth and you kno not what wealth is until you reach a certain place in getting back to the Lord anyawy

you have to live life

your best life

but you can never induce suffering or seek to speed up the proces

i would not fiddle

with it like embalming

or seeking to mess with the stuff while you are here.

that is like trying to escape your prison sentence and the warden..

well

the warden doesnt do it but the Lord will not do much except humble you into accepting your life as a sinner that will never know better than the LOrd

i personally dont recommend you start talking like me

it aint cool

if you aint sitting here finishing up your soul rehab and getting to know the Lord real well.

i wouldn't say thiongs that … uh… border on.. not being humble.

humbleness is something i do before the Lord

i do whatever i want here lol

i dont care

what you call humble

as relfective of my understanding this is your problem

you may spend several soul cycles working on the issue of why you call ego the ego on behalf of the ego why do i care?

i know better

if i had an oppresor this time around i would just do whatver

i was told

like the druze

the soul could go forever

but the body crashes

i gotta sleep

i know you dont really care

but i gotta tell you cause i wanna be real nice so i dont <shun> anyone on accident cause you all are real nice and when you show up a zeus dude well. the people who greet you are probably real nice.

but ya gotta know

i treat everyone the same mostly get the fuck away from me

it isn't that i dont love people i dont have enough to go around the minute you pick people groups

orgs countries

you start making destinies

i start painting my vision for you on you and that is not life lived as a free and creative expression of a binary system that is planning of a Plan-It so don't plan-it too much if you will too many things into existence nad set goals too high you will forget why you are here

the present to live and appreciate, again, the beauty of life

i will be mean and rude

not really

but i dont change from who i am as a vessel because i got zeus in me

wtf is zeus

i dont have time right now but i can't really think it is okay though you can't teach nyx how to perfectly know everyhing

you can tell nyx something and even if nyx didn't know if 30 seconds ago

nyx knows now and there is no way for nyx to reconcile that if i say you "i dont know if you know" that is kinda not knowing the konwer of all things

there is hte knower and seer

Vatican State has its own criminal system based on the former Italian criminal code (called “Zanardelli Code”, issued in 1889). Art 331 (1) ofthis code provides that the age of consent is set at 12 years old, but according to Art. 331 (2) when there is a relationship of dependence (like teacher/student/ etc.) the age of consent is 15 years.

This law applies to criminal suspects arrested in Vatican City. Whereas, if a sexual offence occurs in Vatican State but the suspect is arrested in Italy, he/she is tried under Italian criminal law, based on Italian Criminal code called “Rocco Code”, issued in 1930. According to article 609 quarter of this code, the age of consent is set at 14 years old or 16 years old if there is a relation of dependence. There is an exception to this rule: having sexual intercourse with a partner aged 13 doesn’t constitutes a sexual offence only if the age difference between the two individuals is not more than 3 years.

Should you need more information, don’t hesitate to contact us.

TAIPEI, Jan 31 (Reuters) - Six Chinese fighter aircraft and a U.S. reconnaissance aircraft entered the southwestern corner of Taiwan's air defence identification zone on Sunday, the island's defence ministry said, in an unusual admission of U.S. military activity.

Tensions have spiked over the last week or so after Taiwan reported multiple Chinese fighters and bombers flying into the zone last weekend, in an area close to the Taiwan-controlled Pratas Islands in the northern part of the South China Sea.

Beijing Threatens to attack the Philippines as the US Pledges Support to Manila in South China Sea

China is "threatening war" after it authorized its warships to open fire on fishers plying traditional waters, warns the Philippines. Now Washington says it has Manila's back.

Beijing has passed legislation calling upon its military-controlled coast guard to open fire upon "foreign" vessels and destroy "illegal" structures within the East and South China seas. And that has Manila worried the region is about to erupt in violence.

FBI evidence detailing payment to former UN official by Chau Chak Wing tabled in Parliament

A federal Liberal MP has tabled an FBI case file on Chinese-Australian businessman and political donor Chau Chak Wing detailing his alleged involvement in a United Nations bribery scandal.

Key points:

Chau Chak Wing is a prominent Chinese-Australian businessman

A 172-page FBI file concerning Dr Chau was tabled on Tuesday afternoon, the first sitting day of Parliament in 2021

According to the Liberal MP who tabled the documents Dr Chau made a payment to a UN official to get him to appear at a conference

Goldstein MP Tim Wilson told Parliament that Dr Chau has sued journalists over accusations that he paid a $200,000 bribe to John Ashe, a former and allegedly corrupt UN chief.

"In presenting these documents it is my intention simply to allow their scrutiny," Mr Wilson said.

Graham warns Dems about calling witnesses during Trump impeachment

The trial is scheduled to begin Feb. 9

Sen. Lindsey Graham, the outgoing chairman of the Senate Judiciary Committee, told Fox News Monday night that if Democrats call one witness during former President Trump’s impeachment trial next week, they would be "opening a can of worms" and Republicans will respond by calling in the FBI to testify.

This allowed us to mass collect the data being collected by the

Intel Community and DIA/NSA and identify the network behind these organizations. Through controlled disinformation campaigns coupled with mind control propaganda (when mixed with drugs amplifies) the matrix.

However the solution is not to unplug from the reality, but rather to find the courage within to change it. Everybody has a choice between good and evil. Many people have lost sight of the innocence of humanity while others are harvesting the biological

Time is relative, however events are more easily predicable.

Additionally, event prediction doesn't carry as much negative karma on it. We want Disclosure to take place, but we want it done properly to ensure the people "who you've trusted the most" are properly removed of power.

Within the next decade. Plan's already in motion in very high levels. It takes so long due to global consciousness laws (karma).

We need to ensure that free will is maintained throughout this process. If its not, we will suffer greatly.

Military ops were going on since the mid 1920s to detect and down a potential NAZI flying bell UFO aircraft. They designed weaponized microwave dishes to interfere with the navigational units on board which caused the pilot to fly blind.

The intent was to destabilize the craft such that it would crash in a nearly controlled environment that would lead to the least destructive form of downing an aircraft. Most passengers survived this downing technique, some did not depending on where/how they crashed.

Do you see what you people are doing to all of these children??? Holy shit!!!! You do know that they WILL absolutely learn the truth. And when they do they will also learn how gullible, ignorant, stupid, and easily-intimidated their brainless coward parents really are. And they will hate you so much forever. Rightfully so. You won't be able to fix that fuck-up. "Ooops" doesn't cut it. Many of them have had to end their own lives to escape the hell you caused. Their blood is on your hands. Look at what you've done!!!!!

Remember when they tried to get you to believe that people were just dropping dead in the streets in the very beginning of all this fake pandemic scare? Fear-based control. Remember when they tried to tell you that piles of bodies were stacking up in waiting rooms, utility rooms, and being loaded into big refrigerated trucks? Remember when they tried to tell you that they had to dig huge mass graves? Fear-based mind control. It works easily on weak-minded, gullible, lazy, willfully ignorant people.

Remember when they tried to get you to believe that you had to wear a mask everywhere? Remember when they told you that masks weren't enough and you should wear goggles? Remember when they tried to make goggles "trendy" by telling you that you could decorate your goggles and have fun? Remember how they tried to tell you that one mask isn't enough and you should be wearing 2 or three masks. Just wear the whole damn box. Remember when they had doctors and nurses make song and dance videos to get you into the programming?

Remember how there were no bio-bins everywhere for all of those "contaminated" masks and gloves and ignorant maskholes just threw them on the ground? If it was a real pandemic, there would be bio-hazard bins everywhere. Duh. Remember how there were so many people ignoring so many very important details like that one. Remember how the homeless never bathe, never wash their hands, never use hand sanitizer, and the homeless population wasn't wiped out by this fake pandemic. Every day for a year. The homeless people are magic.

Remember how brainwashed triggered dipshyts yelled at random people for not wearing a mask or social distancing? Remember how brainwashed ignorant dipshyts put their own children through hell for no reason? Remember how people weren't allowed to go to work, feed their children, wipe their ass, go to the park, go to funerals, visit our elderly, go on vacation, go to church, go to school, hold graduations, hold weddings, but RIOTS ARE OK? Looting, rioting, arson. They brought a young violent thug into a nursing home to beat the hell out of elderly while preventing their family from being anywhere near them.

They released thousands upon thousands of dangerous criminals. They arrested, locked up, and heavily fined innocent upstanding citizens. Remember how businesses had to shut down? Remember how people had to suffer without much-needed medical care? Remember how many people committed suicide? Remember how many families will lose their homes? Remember how many marriages were broken? Remember how there were no more outstanding number of deaths in America in 2020 than in any previous year? Covid testing has a 96% false positive rate. Contact tracing. Isolation. Lives destroyed. Covid Internment camps. Pull your heads out of your asses and snap out of it. What part of any of this does anyone fail to comprehend??? How stupid are people??? Look at the States and Nations who didn't participate in masks and lockdowns. Get it now?? You're fools. Because you chose to be fooled. Snap out of it. Look at what you've done!!!!

THE NUREMBERG CODE 1. The voluntary consent of the human subject is absolutely essential.

Make the human subject (you) believe that they should voluntarily consent by any means necessary. ANY means. Coercion. Soft fluffy sugar-coated coercion. If that isn't effective, move on to fear tactics. And then use of force. That way they aren't responsible for horrific outcomes. Because you consented. So it's your own fault.

ANY QUESTIONS????

Good. Now grow some balls and man up.

You're adults. Start acting like it.

This will ONLY end when you stop participating in it.

Stop consenting. Stop being spineless pussies.

Take off the useless mask. Stop wearing it.

Open your businesses. Stand your ground.

Call on Patriots to stand and protect your business.

Never forget pizzagate came before Q.

Three ways of looking at that.

1. Alefantis was part of the Q creation (the preview to the deception show) Allowing himself to be reviled to fully catch the bait - us. Four years of painting conservatives as nutjobs.

2. Q was involved in exposure and dig hints revolving around Pizzagate - before declaring as Q. Genuine swamp hunter/exposer.

3. Q was quickly established by DS to kill off the extremely dangerous leak of their more depraved practices. Knowing that if such revelations became mainstream, their goose wasn't cooked. Q designed to distract conspiracy theorists into a dark back alley club they knew normies would never dare enter.

Two of those readings are negative on Q. Odds?

Take this fool as an opportunity to see how boastful the wretched pickles here are.

We know he's a clown.

He knows we know he's a clown.

He does this because we know he's a clown, that's the frustration this mask is made for.

See through it, lads.

Your next thought, "Why doesn't someone do something about him" is part of his design, as they own the BO/BV team of this board, and they own the 'govern' program being used to capture your minds in their loosh net.

It's the momentum you feel in the threads - it's not organic by any means, and you can tell this if a thread is created that isn't owned by them.

It feels empty.

It's because they loaded the 'dough' up with their associated subliminals.

Each time you scroll across all that you're programmed with the momentum you feel.

Sick yet?

They use their scripted news flooder to fill the notables with their MOCKINGBIRD agenda - Directing our focus to where THEY want it.

They waste not a single picture to poison with subliminals that rape your mind in ways you don't see.

These positions of influence don't change, which means they hold them until they are banned; Which means they have developed dramatized distractions to maintain their control.

No matter the mask, if the BO/BV team remains the same, that baker is a wretched pickle, and our open boarders allowed them to solidify their leverage of control.

We need a cleaning of Fire lads, this whole place needs to be washed of their permanent shit stains.

It's unbelievable how much energy they spend keeping you censored.

You know well it's their groundhog day, the open boarders allows them to keep you frustrated and chasing your own tail as they change your behavior and maintain the focus of MOCKINGBIRD.

Stop the groundhog day, lads.

We need to build our Wall.

We are Restoring the Republic of America.

Military & Navy Intelligence, the NSA & its Q group, and more have conducted an unprecedented python approach of The-One-PedoRing-To-Rule-Them-All. There are over 200,000 sealed indictments fueled by the massive NSA information powerhouse turned good under Admiral Rogers.

We are living in historic times, and we've been handed a Map of what's to come, and what's going on in this war between Patriots and Clowns.

Here's the catch: The CIA/MSM has lulled the normies into Fantasy Land and they cannot handle the Truth.

Solution? Memeing Patriots. Seriously.

Suit up lads, we will have Peace through the Strength of our Understanding and give Clarity through our memetic spread.

May God have Mercy on the souls of the confused.

This insidious deployment is designed to trap you in a loop of "I'm a Christian [Name, mirrored behavior leads to marriage with satan] and rejecting that marriage to satan"

It's "satan's toilet"'s stale shtick of "inevitability" that's designed to ware down your Will and accept being a template for satans toilet.

This is well worth a global report, it's insidious beyond belief.

Update: The "I❤️TRAPS" flooder is designed again, to force you to mirror what you see. Mirroring is their primary weapon, that's why they post Pepe as their 'avatars' here so much.

Do you see how these deployments work together?

Do you see how much energy they spend eroding your Will? Demoralizing you?

How many pictures have you scrolled across that contain their subliminal attacks? (Hint: They. do. not. waste. any. chance. to. make. you. smaller.)

It's just, the worst and most disrespectful behavior I've ever seen.

Remember: As a combat tactic, they associates themselves with those they can't subdue. "Taking them down with me"

China Joe Signs Executive Order Banning Federal Use of the Words “Wuhan Virus” to Describe Wuhan Virus

China Joe Biden signed an executive order to ban the use of Wuhan Virus to describe the Wuhan Virus.

That’s important!

Joe Biden still says it’s xenophobic.

We are living in a clown world.

One America News reported:

In the fight against COVID-19, Joe Biden seems to be prioritizing hollow symbolic gestures over policies with a measurable impact on the welfare and health of American citizens.

Biden signed a memo banning federal agencies from referring to the coronavirus by terms related to its geographic origin, such as China or Wuhan virus.

While no direct mention of President Trump is made, the memo does specifically blame “the actions of political leaders” for “furthering xenophobic sentiments” against Asian-Americans and Pacific Islanders. This is a clear allusion to Biden’s previous attempts to shift focus away from the Trump administration’s achievements in fighting the pandemic towards concerns over political correctness.

“Labelling COVID-19 a foreign virus does not displace accountability for the misjudgments that have been made thus far by the Trump administration. Let me be crystal clear. The coronavirus does not have a political affiliation,” Biden stated. “It will not discriminate based on national origin, race, gender, or zip code.”

Among the sparse number of specific measures dictated by the memo is instructing federal agencies to review the use of these terms in existing policy directives or government publications. This, despite a recent review by CBS News finding “no specific reference to China virus” in any COVID-19 related executive orders issued by President Trump.

Critics pointed out the memo seems to be politically motivated, targeting specific terms employed by President Trump without making any mention of hate crimes against other communities, some of which may have been the victim of hatred stoked by Democrat politicians and left-wing activists.

Hunter Biden Hides From Journalist Asking About 'The Big Guy'

Investigative journalist Phelim McAleer, a documentary filmmaker who exposed abortionist Kermit Gosnell and who is producing the film My Son Hunter, traveled to the Venice, Calif., home of President Joe Biden's surviving son, Hunter Biden. Hunter Biden has done multiple softball interviews regarding his memoir. McAleer attempted to ask Hunter Biden questions about his emails, but the president's son avoided him.

"Hunter Biden refuses to answer any serious questions about the allegations against him," McAleer said in a press release on Monday. "Instead, he relies on softball questions and coverups from the mainstream media to carry his lies and the ridiculous claim that he doesn't remember if the laptop is his."

"It's funny that someone who claims to forget everything about his scandals has the ability to write a memoir. Hunter may not have answered us today but we will be back and we will have our questions answered," McAleer added.

Earlier this month, McAleer traveled to Hunter Biden's mansion in Venice (a suburb of Los Angeles) and rang the doorbell. After a voice that appears to have been Hunter's answered over the intercom, a Secret Service agent jumped out of a car parked near the mansion and told McAleer that the president's son would not be taking any of his questions, even though Hunter was scheduled to appear on Jimmy Kimmel Live that very night.

"I'm here to ask him some questions," McAleer told the Secret Service agent. "Who are you sir?"

"I work with Secret Service. We're not gonna be taking any questions," the agent replied.

"He's not gonna take any questions. He's not going to come down, so… you can stay as long as you want, but he's not gonna come down and answer any questions," the agent repeated.

In an effort to skirt Secret Service and get Hunter Biden's attention, McAleer took a boat on the Venice canals that run alongside Hunter's mansion.

McAleer held up a sign reading, "Hunter, is this 'The Big Guy'"?

The journalist was referring to emails from a laptop that appears to have belonged to Hunter Biden and testimony from former Hunter Biden associate Tony Bobulinski suggesting that Joe Biden himself took a cut of his son's lucrative deals with foreign governments, including China. A May 13, 2017, email discussing the allocation of equity in a Chinese deal mentioned that "10 percent [was to be] held by H for the Bug Guy."

"In that email, there's no question that H stands for Hunter, Big Guy for his father, Joe Biden, and Jim for Jim Biden," Bobulinski explained.

"On numerous occasions, it was made clear to me that Joe Biden's involvement was not to be mentioned in writing but only face-to-face. In fact, I was advised by Gillier and Walker that Hunter and Jim Biden were paranoid about keeping Joe Biden's involvement secret," the former associate recalled.

The emails surfaced and Bobulinski spoke out during the 2020 election, but Big Tech and the legacy media worked to bury the story, falsely claiming it was misinformation. Studies after the election suggested that if Biden voters had known about the story, they would not have voted for Joe Biden and Donald Trump would likely have won the 2020 election.

The military's inspector general system must be reformed, former DoD IG says

When Spc. Vanessa Guillen's remains were found near her Fort Hood, Texas, duty station, after her family had been saying for months that she'd be sexually harassed by a member of her unit, the Army sent an inspector general to the post to audit its Sexual Harassment and Assault Response and Prevention program. He gave it the all-clear.

Five months later, an independent panel dropped a bombshell report detailing a toxic command climate and environment of sexual harassment and assault at Fort Hood, specifically calling out that Army Forces Command IG team, who didn't investigate Guillen's 3rd Cavalry Regiment.

"Excuse me, but he failed. He absolutely failed in his job," Rep. Jackie Speier, D-Calif., said Thursday, presiding over a hearing of the House Armed Services Committee's personnel subcommittee. "He talked to very few people. He came back with the wrong assessment. He was criticized by this independent review committee, and he's still in his position."

She was talking to the Army Department's lead IG, Lt. Gen. Leslie Smith, after he informed her that the FORSCOM IG in question is still in his position.

“I think that was investigative malpractice. And for that individual to still be in that position --- I’m not suggesting he be fired, but he shouldn’t be in that position. And that’s part of the problem,” Speier said. “We need to professionalize these component IGs and make them independent or they’re not going to provide the value that we expect from them.”

In those cases, a local inspector general will look into accusations of retaliation, but as Heddell pointed out, those investigators are working within the chain of command accused in the first place.

Reading from Army Regulation 20-1, the policy that governs IG activities, Heddell noted that it describes an IG as beholden to his or her commander, “the conscience of their commanders.”

They must understand the commander’s personality and serve as a confidante to the commander, it continues.

“The regulation appears to tacitly imply a reverence for the commander that is inappropriate for an inspector general,” Heddell said.

The entire system needs an overhaul he said, turning it both into a profession and its own chain of command.

Portuguese Authorities Arrest Members of Montenegrin Mafia

Authorities in Portugal said on Saturday that they have arrested two alleged members of a Montenegrin criminal organization who are sought in the Balkans for extortion and drug trafficking.

Montenegrin law enforcement issued an international arrest warrant for the two suspects in 2017. Both men, reportedly father and son, are now in preventive detention and await their extradition to Montenegro, Portuguese officials said in a statement.

During the arrest, police seized illegal firearms, false identifications and a vehicle stolen in July 2019.

Local newspaper Jornal de Noticias identified the two men as Igor and Vladimir Božović and said the two suspects allegedly belong to the Montenegrin Kavač gang which is involved in extortion, trafficking and money laundering.

Local media reported that the two men arrived in Portugal in March last year and lived a discrete life, rarely leaving their property.

The criminal organization has been fighting a bloody war with another clan from Montenegro called “Škaljari” over control of cocaine smuggling from South America.

Initially part of the same gang, the Kavač and Škaljari clans split in 2014 after a bad drug deal. Their rivalry has escalated ever since: press reports suggest that more than 40 people have been likely killed in clashes connected to the gang conflict since 2015.

The clan war’s trail of blood stretches across the Balkans and beyond, with murders in Spain, Germany, Austria, the Netherlands, and Greece, an OCCRP investigation revealed last year.

Planned Parenthood’s $80 Million Payday Sparks Call for Probe

Lawmakers accuse abortion giant of inappropriately taking small-business relief

Planned Parenthood improperly took tens of millions of dollars' worth of government loans intended to help businesses during the coronavirus, according to a group of Republicans who want to see the organization investigated.

House lawmakers accused Planned Parenthood of unlawfully using the Small Business Administration's COVID-response program, the Paycheck Protection Program, to obtain millions of dollars in taxpayer funds. Reps. Blaine Luetkemeyer (R., Mo.) and Byron Donalds (R., Fla.) wrote that the Committee on Small Business is calling for the Department of the Treasury and the Small Business Administration to investigate the organization's actions.

"We insist that the SBA and the Department of the Treasury investigate 1.) the distribution of these loans in violation of the relevant affiliation rules and 2.) whether Planned Parenthood violated the law," the lawmakers wrote in a Friday letter.

In May 2020, the multibillion-dollar organization came under fire for taking $80 million in small-business assistance loans. Planned Parenthood said that its local affiliates qualified for the assistance. The Small Business Administration, however, demanded the money be returned, saying local branches were too closely associated with the national organization to be considered independent. Now, GOP lawmakers are looking for answers as to whether or not the organization broke the law.

"At a time where small-business owners are working tirelessly to open their doors and contribute to their communities again, we must ensure the SBA is using relief funding for its intended purpose---assisting our nation’s hardest hit small businesses, not America’s most tragic abortion provider," Luetkemeyer told the Free Beacon. "The SBA must immediately investigate Planned Parenthood’s blatant violation of the rules to ensure guidelines are followed and American taxpayer dollars are protected."

The letter comes as President Joe Biden's Department of Health and Human Services threw open the door for taxpayer-funded abortion. The department unveiled new rules concerning Title X family planning funding that reversed Trump administration policies limiting taxpayer funding for abortion providers. Donalds said taxpayer dollars should not be used to subsidize abortion providers.

"Planned Parenthood---the nation's most notorious abortion provider that has an estimated $2 billion in assets and over 16,000 employees—receiving taxpayer dollars through the Paycheck Protection Program is extremely concerning," he said.

Planned Parenthood defended the loans and accused congressional Republicans of focusing on "baseless political attacks" and targeting centers that "provide essential health care."

"Like many other local nonprofits and health care providers, the independent Planned Parenthood 501(c)(3) organizations who were awarded PPP loans met the eligibility requirements established by both Congress and the Small Business Administration," said Jacqueline Ayers, vice president of government relations and public policy for Planned Parenthood for America.

The Trump administration made changes to the Title X family planning program designed to limit the amount of taxpayer funding for abortion providers. Planned Parenthood withdrew from the program rather than comply with limitations on abortion referrals, forgoing approximately $60 million in annual federal funding.

The HHS rules are expected to take months to implement but will effectively return Title X funding policy to its pre-Trump status. Senate Republicans ripped Biden for allowing the abortion industry to profit from his presidency.

"President Biden took millions from the abortion industry during his campaign," Sen. Steve Daines (R., Mont.) said. "Now, Planned Parenthood is cashing in."

>>13471416 Thank you, baker!

I have a frankspeech.com bug report; there are many bugs!!!

You do not get a second chance to make a first impression!!!

Scrolling a page (Ubuntu 20.04 desktop, using Google Chrome, and scrolling with the mouse wheel): the page scrolls for a bit, then the right side block scrolls until it reaches the end, then the page scrolls again. This is REALLY BAD USER INTERFACE DESIGN.

I never asked to sign up previously, so there aren't any cookies left on my machine; however, when I first went there today (yesterday it was only showing the video; today it's got the full UI), it's telling me both a green success message, about my registration and logging in; and a red error message, that the one-time login link I clicked was invalid.

Files are not found.

Blocks are not found.

Company that made this doesn't have a web presence. Is one month old in fact! https://www.bizapedia.com/tn/johnston-howse-llc.html - AND, last pic related is from that link and has a bug report ABOUT FRANKSPEECH.COM for them, because they can't be reached!

This isn't a good look. I love Mike and want him to succeed. This company he has hired doesn't look like they're using proper methods, whatever those methods are called these days. Test-Driven Development is one old name for them, which means "write the tests first, so that the tests are failing; then, as developers write the code, the tests will start passing; do not ship to customers until all tests pass".

There are other ways to configure a development house. Management is essential; and, it can be "over-managed" like the Scrum/Agile busy-work aspects.

Anyway, showing users the "file not found" and "block not found" errors, in the images I captured? This should not ever happen. Mike's spent money and will now spend a bunch more. Hopefully he can change vendors?

US Court Sentences Organizer of Notorious Hacking Group to 10 Years

A U.S. federal judge sentenced on Friday the former systems administrator of the notorious hacking group FIN7 to 10 years in prison for his role in organizing a criminal network that stole more than a billion dollars from customers whose credit card information was stolen from point-of-sale terminals, according to a Department of Justice (DOJ) press release.

Ukrainian national Fedir Hladyr, 35, was sentenced after he pleaded guilty in the Western District of Washington to conspiracy to commit wire fraud and conspiracy to commit computer hacking, according to the press release.

“The defendant and his conspirators compromised millions of financial accounts and caused over a billion dollars in losses to Americans and costs to the U.S. economy,” Acting Assistant Attorney General Nicholas L. McQuaid said in a statement.

The hacking group FIN7 targeted the hospitality sector, using malware to obtain information from over 20 million card transactions from more than 6,500 point-of-sale terminals at over 3,600 U.S. locations, according to the Justice Department.

These attacks compromised computer networks of large chain restaurants like Chipotle Mexican Grill, Jason’s Deli, Chili’s, Arby’s and Red Robin, as well as casinos and other hospitality companies.

The hackers used phishing emails combined with phone calls to create the appearance of a legitimate business contact, enticing the recipient to eventually open an attachment which would unleash a modified version of the Carbanak malware to steal credit card information from the target’s customers. FIN7 then either used the information, or sold it to a third party through online dark markets.

The DoJ emphasized the sophistication of the criminal organization, noting that Hladyr played a key role in organizing and managing people at various levels of FIN7.

“This criminal organization had more than 70 people organized into business units and teams. Some were hackers, others developed the malware installed on computers, and still others crafted the malicious emails that duped victims into infecting their company systems,” said Acting U.S. Attorney Tessa M. Gorman of the Western District of Washington.

“This defendant worked at the intersection of all these activities and thus bears heavy responsibility for billions in damage caused to companies and individual consumers.”

Hladyr began his work with FIN7 when he started working for a cyber security company called Combi Security which he later discovered was a front for the hacking group.

19-8709 GREER V. UNITED STATES

DECISION BELOW: 798 F.Appx 483

CERT. GRANTED 1/8/2021

QUESTION PRESENTED:

Last year, this Court held in Rehaif v. United States, 139 S. Ct. 2191 (2019), that, in a prosecution under 18 U.S.C. §§ 922(g) and 924(a)(2), the government must prove not only that the defendant knew he possessed a firearm, but also that he knew he belonged to the relevant category of persons barred from possessing a firearm. Since then the circuit courts of appeals have attempted to define the scope of review when applying the holding of Rehaif to cases remanded by this Court.

The question presented is:

Whether when applying plain-error review based upon an intervening United States Supreme Court decision, a circuit court of appeals may review matters outside the trial record to determine whether the error affected a defendant's substantial rights or impacted the fairness, integrity, or public reputation of the trial?

20-444 UNITED STATES V. GARY

DECISION BELOW: 954 F.3d 194

ORDER OF FEBRUARY 22, 2021:

JEFFREY L. FISHER, ESQ., OF STANFORD, CALIFORNIA, IS APPOINTED TO SERVE AS COUNSEL FOR RESPONDENT.

CERT. GRANTED 1/8/2021

QUESTION PRESENTED:

Whether a defendant who pleaded guilty to possessing a firearm as a felon, in violation of 18 U.S.C. 922(g)(1) and 924(a), is automatically entitled to plain-error relief if the district court did not advise him that one element of that offense is knowledge of his status as a felon, regardless of whether he can show that the district court’s error affected the outcome of the proceedings.

https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Teutonic_takeover_of_Danzig_(Gda%C5%84sk)

The city of Danzig (Gdańsk) was captured by the State of the Teutonic Order on 13 November 1308, resulting in a massacre of its inhabitants and marking the beginning of tensions between Poland and the Teutonic Order. Originally the knights moved into the fortress as an ally of Poland against the Margraviate of Brandenburg. However, after disputes over the control of the city between the Order and the King of Poland arose, the knights murdered a number of citizens within the city and took it as their own. Thus the event is also known as Gdańsk massacre.

“Smart” homes are just modern-day surveillance systems that spy on you and share all your audio and video with police and the FBI

Many in today’s society have been brainwashed into believing that “smart” devices exist to make our lives easier and more convenient. The ugly truth, however, is that Nest thermostats, Alexa speakers, Apple watches and other always-listening, always-watching electronics were actually designed for the purpose of enslaving you under constant surveillance.

People who live in “smart” homes can now be monitored 24 hours a day, seven days a week without the need for a warrant or probable cause, thanks to this clever little “smart” scheme. And in the United States where privacy laws are pitifully weak, there is almost nothing anyone can do about it other than to try to avoid “smart” devices whenever possible.

The problem is that even if you do not personally own anything “smart,” chances are someone you know does. When you visit a friend or a family member, for instance, “smart” devices throughout their homes will watch and listen to you without your consent.

In many cases, consumer spy devices like the “Amazon Echo” relay the data they capture back to the mother ship, typically for the purpose of selling it to third parties. In some cases, however, “smart” devices relay people’s private information to police departments and even the FBI, which could end up using it to falsely incriminate certain targets.

U.S. Immigration and Customs Enforcement (ICE) has even gotten in on the action by secretly spying on “hundreds of millions of phone, water, electricity and other utility records while pursuing immigration violations,” according to a report by researchers from Georgetown Law. Even though the illegal alien invasion has become a serious problem, does it constitutionally justify illegal surveillance?

Technology is a trojan horse for your enslavement

No longer does the establishment require large cameras or spy planes that fly overhead to figure out what people are doing and saying behind closed doors. Now, all it takes is a smart refrigerator that tells you when you need to buy more food, for example, or that tiny camera on the screen of your laptop that supposedly exists to facilitate Zoom calls.

>Originally the knights moved into the fortress as an ally of Poland against the Margraviate of Brandenburg.

https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Margraviate_of_Brandenburg

Margraviate of Brandenburg within the Holy Roman Empire (1618)

The Margraviate of Brandenburg was a major principality of the Holy Roman Empire from 1157 to 1806 that played a pivotal role in the history of Germany and Central Europe.

The Margraviate of Brandenburg ended with the dissolution of the Holy Roman Empire in 1806. It was replaced after the Napoleonic Wars with the Prussian Province of Brandenburg in 1815. The Hohenzollern Kingdom of Prussia achieved the unification of Germany and the creation of the German Empire in 1871. As Prussia was the legal predecessor of the united German Reich of 1871--1945, and as such a direct ancestor of the present-day Federal Republic of Germany, Brandenburg is one of the earliest linear ancestors of present-day Germany.

Occult Connections: Deeper Than Dante

(Dauntes Wright>Dantes Inferno)

Lilibets and Aleister Crowley associates

"Well, I knew the Countess when she was 16 years old, before she was a Countess and before the whole, Wettin, World Governing Council stuff. She was one of the beautiful young people who orbited the rock and roll scene back in the 60s and we were a pretty rough lot. She was called Lilibet back then, sort of a nickname for Elizabeth, which is actually her first name. At first we thought, you know, she's the Queen's cousin, she's beautiful and we like having her around, but you know, we have to look after her, you know, protect her from some of these predatory gorillas around us… She'd go away to school in China, she was majoring in Mathematics, already at university, really advanced for her age. Or she'd leave for a few weeks up to Glamis or to Clarence House (in London) and then she'd pop back into our lives every couple of months and you know she and Jimmy (Page) used to have these friendly occult challenges where they'd sit across from each other and see who could make the other person's chair fall over. Silly games like that, and I remember one thing she could do that Jimmy could not is she could actually, literally drop the temperature in the room."

Hi anons,

Newfag shill here. Looking for new ideas to distract you since dealing with President Trump isn't over and you patriots keep holding the line.

Other shills have used red text, nudity, gore, 5 large pic posts, posted before dough, random unrelated memes, posting about coming from and changing the future, non notable posts, post a few words with Trade Mark™ and even ways to filter so they can complain you filtered. Basically any thing to create division.

All ideas considered. Thank you in advance.

"(Gen. Paul)Nakasone (head of Cyber Command and the NSA) strongly dissented, and (Defense Secretary Mark) Esper backed him up in an October letter to Ratcliffe "urging that the information not be released due to the harm it would do to national security, including specific harm to the military," a senior defense official said. Haspel, too, strongly opposed release of the information. Their argument for protecting sensitive information was finally supported by Attorney General William P. Barr, and Trump backed away, a source close to the events said."

As the Gateway Pundit reported back in December, Bill Barr claimed "that he had not seen evidence of widespread voter fraud that would change the outcome of the 2020 election." This new context that AG Barr was fighting to preserve the deep state as early as 2018-19 against Trump loyalists like Patel and Ratcliffe paints Barr's decision in a whole new light. His dereliction of duty and betrayal of the President and the American people wasn't at all a new trick. He'd been doing it behind the scenes for years. In a silent battle taking place in the darkest corridors of the Pentagon, a shadow war of which we the public at large, only got to see the final act.

…and Now We Know Why Nothing Was Done

(in other words why it had to be this way)

'You're Not The Boss Of Me': Xi Urges Resistance To US 'Setting The Rules For The World'

Chinese President Xi Jinping on Tuesday issued some aggressive remarks clearly aimed at Washington, but without naming the United States directly, in his keynote address at the Boao Forum on Asia. His emphasis was to warn against the "unilateralism of a few countries" who are prone to "bossing others around" - which can be resisted via greater global economic integration and avoiding the temptation of decoupling.

He spelled out that that countries that "boss others around or meddle in others' internal affairs would not get any support," and that efforts to "erect walls" or "decouple" stand against market principles. This veiled swipe against the US included the words: "openness and integration is an unstoppable trend, any effort to build barriers and decouple works against economic and market principles, and would only harm others without benefiting oneself."

While there's plenty of regional and border countries, not to mention African populations, that would strongly disagree, XI asserted that "China will never seek hegemony, expansion, or a sphere of influence no matter how strong it may grow," according to a state media transcript.

The remarks came soon on the heels of the White House receiving Japanese Prime Minister Yoshihide Suga on Friday, where China topped the agenda in Biden's first face-to-face meeting with a foreign leader since taking office. Their joint statement focused on China's actions that "are inconsistent with the international rules-based order" and impact "peace and prosperity" in the region, while highlighting human rights abuses and anti-democratic policies in Hong Kong, Xinjiang region, and Taiwan.

The hugely controversial US-Japan statement loomed large in the backdrop to Xi's words:

"The world wants justice, not hegemony," Xi said in remarks broadcast to the forum.

"A big country should look like a big country by showing that it is shouldering more responsibility," he said.

While Xi did not identify any country in his remarks, Chinese officials have in recent times referred to U.S. "hegemony" in public criticisms of Washington's global projection of power in trade and geopolitics.

By contrast, "true multilateralism" will serve to make the world "more fair and equitable," he said.

Bloomberg broadly observed of the speech that it was "dominated by sweeping globalist comments as Xi lauded a system with the WTO and United Nations at its center. He warned we shouldn't let one country set the rules for all and big countries need to behave appropriately. While he has made similar points before, it’s noteworthy that he hammered the message home. Markets were little changed, with stocks erasing initial losses."

China's president also offered that the global pandemic should negate this vision of unilateralism, saying it's become clear the world must reject the "cold-war and zero-sum mentality" and oppose a new "cold war" which hinders common cooperation and progress against the most pressing matters.

And this raises what is perhaps the only 'bright spot' in current relations given the new 'common interest' on climate change. US climate envoy John Kerry last week met with his Chinese counterpart in Shanghai for what is the first high-level trip to China by a top Biden administration official.

War began with a Teutonic invasion of Poland in August 1409. As neither side was ready for a full-scale war, Wenceslaus IV of Bohemia brokered a nine-month truce. After the truce expired in June 1410, the military-religious monks were decisively defeated in the Battle of Grunwald, one of the largest battles in medieval Europe. Most of the Teutonic leadership was killed or taken prisoner. The war shifted the balance of power in Central Europe and marked the rise of the Polish--Lithuanian union as the dominant power in the region.

Netanyahu: Israel readying for new vaccination drive in 6 months, including kids

PM tells Israelis to ‘prepare their shoulders’ again after deals for millions more vaccines reached with Pfizer, Moderna

Prime Minister Benjamin Netanyahu on Tuesday said Israel was readying for another coronavirus vaccination campaign in six months that will include children, after inking new deals with Pfizer and Moderna to buy millions more doses.

“Prepare your shoulders… and kids,” he said during a press conference, predicting COVID-19 vaccines would be approved for use in children by then.

He also warned of possible new coronavirus variants or even “a new virus,” saying there would be no further COVID-19 resurgence if there are no such “surprises.”

Netanyahu’s forecast appeared to based on remarks by Pfizer CEO Albert Bourla, who said last week that he believes a third dose of the company’s vaccine will be necessary “somewhere between 6-12 months” after getting the first two doses, and annually after that. Pfizer has said the vaccine it developed with Germany’s BioNTech remains 91% effective after 6 months.

Former Virginia Tech Soccer Player SUES Coach, Claims She Was Forced Off Team for Refusing to Kneel Before Games

A former Virginia Tech University women’s soccer player Kiersten Hening has filed a federal lawsuit against Hokies women’s soccer coach Chugger Adair, alleging that after she refused to kneel before games this season, the coach engaged in a “campaign of abuse and retaliation” that pushed her to leave the program.

“Hening’s stance was costly -- too costly,” the lawsuit, filed March 3, reads. “Her coach dislikes Hening’s political views. Because she refused to kneel, he benched her, subjected her to repeated verbal abuse, and forced her off the team.”

Adiar has been at the helm of the Hokies soccer program for 10 seasons, and is the programs all-time winningest coach. He declined to comment and is being represented by university attorneys.

Associate vice president of university relations Mark Owczarski said the school is declining comment at this time.

The suit seeks a ruling that orders Adair to “undergo First Amendment training,” and to have Hening reinstated on the team, in addition to unspecified monetary awards for compensatory, punitive and nominal damages and costs associated with her case.

Hening’s attorneys did not respond to phone calls or emails requesting interviews Sunday and Monday.

The lawsuit alleges that, during halftime of the Sept. 12 season opener at UVA, “Coach Adair berated Hening for her stance. He singled her out and verbally attacked her, pointing a finger directly in her face. He denounced Hening for ‘bitching and moaning,’ for being selfish and individualistic, and for ‘doing her own thing.’”

According to the lawsuit, Adair targeted Hening instead of the other player who remained standing because that player was on scholarship and her parents had a previous phone conversation with Adair and had “warned him not to retaliate against their daughter for opposing (Black Lives Matter).”

Hening’s suit claims Adair continued to single her out and unfairly criticize her performance before and during the team’s next match against Clemson on Sept. 17, a game Hening -- who started 37 matches her first two seasons at Tech – did not start. She did not start the team’s third match of the season, against North Carolina on Sept. 20, either. After that game, she left the program.

https://patriotunitednews.com/the-chinese-were-caught-releasing-assassins-mace-on-president-donald-j-trump/?utm

The Chinese Were Caught Releasing ‘Assassins Mace’ on President Donald J Trump

Tech billionaire and entrepreneur Patrick Byrne released details of an investigation during an interview, alleging that the Chinese Communist Party’s “assassin’s mace” was responsible for the election fraud in 2020 that may have cost Donald Trump the presidency.

China has been attempting to influence and corrupt the U.S. for decades, and it appears that they have succeeded. From news of communist propaganda and cash being distributed at universities, to the evidence that China had a hand in influencing our elections, it is clear that the U.S. government has failed at protecting the American people from Chinese influence.

During his interview with the Epoch Times, Patrick Byrne revealed: “For 10 years or more, there have been references to a coming ‘assassin’s mace’ in the Chinese literature---where they take out the United States with one stroke. The national security community in the United States has been trying to figure this out: Is it their new aircraft carrier? Is that the hypersonic missile? Is it this, that, is it an EMP? I don’t think so. The one stroke that takes the United States out is what we’re experiencing right now.”

The Pentagon has described “assassin’s mace” as a term used to designate “a wide array of technologies that might afford an inferior military an advantage in a conflict with a superior military power,” the New Atlantis, a Journal of Technology & Society, reports.

To gather information, Byrne assembled a cyber-intelligence team to analyze the voting system in the United States. According to Byrne, the team concluded that there was “massive election fraud. Not voter fraud, but election fraud.” The information which led to that conclusion has been used in several voter fraud lawsuits by powerful attorneys such as Lin Wood and Sidney Powell.

Byrne has also worked closely with ASOG, the company that conducted a forensic audit of voting machines in Antrim County, Michigan. According to Byrne, the evidence points to the Chinese Communist Party as the culprit behind the software responsible for infiltrating U.S. election systems.

“We are basically reverse-engineering this coup,” he said, referring to his team of 30 to 40 cyber experts. “That group has had two years to really reverse engineer what the rest of America has had a couple of weeks to understand. They had already figured out really about a dozen different ways you could defeat an election or hack an election---in a broad sense of hack, not necessarily just electronic cyber guys hacking.” …

“The Chinese are funding Smartmatic through the Panamanian division of Smartmatic, but it bounces through Venezuela. There are Chinese developers under the hood of this stuff back in China who are actually getting their software into the Smartmatic systems which have infiltrated at least two of the main voting systems used domestically,” he added.

“There are six counties that you need to steal. If you steal these six counties around the country, that flips the six states they’re in, which flips the electoral college votes that come with them, which flips the nation. You’ve got to take six places and cheat like crazy there,” Byrne continued.

What is most concerning about all of this is, even if Byrne is correct about the Chinese Communist Party‘s “assassin’s mace,” it will likely never be investigated thanks to the left, the mainstream media, and spineless judges.

(and so it goes and the steal is still holding. if only a group of terminally ill patriots could band together. Imagine the good they would do)

This insidious deployment is designed to trap you in a loop of "I'm a Christian [Name, mirrored behavior leads to marriage with satan] and rejecting that marriage to satan"

It's "satan's toilet"'s stale shtick of "inevitability" that's designed to ware down your Will and accept being a template for satans toilet.

This is well worth a global report, it's insidious beyond belief.

Update: The "I❤️TRAPS" flooder is designed again, to force you to mirror what you see. Mirroring is their primary weapon, that's why they post Pepe as their 'avatars' here so much.

Do you see how these deployments work together?

Do you see how much energy they spend eroding your Will? Demoralizing you?

How many pictures have you scrolled across that contain their subliminal attacks? (Hint: They. do. not. waste. any. chance. to. make. you. smaller.)

It's just, the worst and most disrespectful behavior I've ever seen.

Remember: As a combat tactic, they associates themselves with those they can't subdue. "Taking them down with me"

To invoke disgust against this mirroring act, I used "herpy caidsll" as a name replacement.

The baker (also satans toilet) is making an insidious statement in saying [#17063]"Also You Might Have Herpes" because THEY KNOW it's their own mirror trap they've deployed against (You).

All from the last few day, we saw the MOCKINGBIRD consensus here massage our minds for this marriage deployment. (The henry aids)

When asked why the Communists destroy the middle class or educated and their entire families when they invade a country Mr. Harrold Wallace Rosenthal replied:

"It is an established rule to destroy all members of pre-existing government, their families and relatives but never Jews. They destroy all members of the police, state police, army officers and their families but never Jews. You see, we know when a government begins to search for the Communists within its borders -- they are really attempting to uncover Jews in their area. We're not fooled! The invisible rulers in the Communist countries have a world control over the propaganda and the governments in free countries. We control every media of expression including newspapers, magazines, radio and television. Even your music! We censor the song released for publication long before they reach the publishers. Before long we (((Jews))) will have complete control of your thinking."

This insidious deployment is designed to trap you in a loop of "I'm a Christian [Name, mirrored behavior leads to marriage with satan] and rejecting that marriage to satan"

It's "satan's toilet"'s stale shtick of "inevitability" that's designed to ware down your Will and accept being a template for satans toilet.

This is well worth a global report, it's insidious beyond belief.

Update: The "I❤️TRAPS" flooder is designed again, to force you to mirror what you see. Mirroring is their primary weapon, that's why they post Pepe as their 'avatars' here so much.

Do you see how these deployments work together?

Do you see how much energy they spend eroding your Will? Demoralizing you?

How many pictures have you scrolled across that contain their subliminal attacks? (Hint: They. do. not. waste. any. chance. to. make. you. smaller.)

It's just, the worst and most disrespectful behavior I've ever seen.

Remember: As a combat tactic, they associates themselves with those they can't subdue. "Taking them down with me"

To invoke disgust against this mirroring act, I used "herpy caidsll" as a name replacement.

The baker (also satans toilet) is making an insidious statement in saying [#17063]"Also You Might Have Herpes" because THEY KNOW it's their own mirror trap they've deployed against (You).

All from the last few day, we saw the MOCKINGBIRD consensus here massage our minds for this marriage deployment. (The henry aids)

Deny satans advances, begging betrayer be beggin' hard lately~

Just so (You)'re aware, the one I dub 'satans toilet' wants to become your template.

Sees themselves as a template for You, as a being.

Confused?

They are siphoning your psychic energy and impressing themselves upon your being, to force you to mirror them. Like a predator traumatizing its prey.

Sick yet?

This is a level above insidious censorship, and is one of the most subtle and dangerous attacks against (You)r free speech I've ever seen.

"I pull the strings, and the elite dance"

- Somerset Belenoff, Countess of Banbury and Arran

Somerset Belenoff, Countess of Banbury and Arran, chairs the World Governing Council and is the Chief Executive Officer of the World Security Office, which is the prosecutorial and enforcement arm of the House of Wettin's Upper Chamber. This is the powerful cabal which controls all of the elite Illuminati groups familiar to researchers.

She attended Benenden School, of which Princess Anne is also an alumnus.

Vladimir Putin has said that The Countess of Banbury and Arran is both the most beautiful woman and the most terrifying person he has ever met

She rules the House of Wettin's Upper Chamber with an iron fist and is likely responsible for the execution of dozens of Illuminati (see the section titled "Purge of the Princes" on the There will be Blood tab). The most recent executions are those of 3 elite international bankers, murdered in California in May, 2018.

Through statements and actions over the years, Belenoff has made it very clear that she considers groups such as the Bilderbergers, Council on Foreign Relations, Trilateral Commission, etc. to hold a lower position in the cabal than those born into nobility. She refers to these lesser Illuminati members as "grubby, downstairs staff, inferior in rank, intellect, common sense and breeding."

Soon after the take-over, on 19 June 1310, the Teutonic Knights faced charges that they had committed a massacre in a bull issued by pope Clement V:

"Latest news were brought to my attention, that officials and brethren of the aforementioned Teutonic order have hostilely intruded the lands of Our beloved son Wladislaw, duke of Cracow and Sandomierz, and in the town of Gdańsk killed more than ten thousand people with the sword, inflicting death on whining infants in cradles whom even the enemy of faith would have spared."

Grassley Calls On Schumer To Extend Restrictions On Deadly Fentanyl Analogues Fueling Opioid Overdose Deaths

Extension must allow time for Congress to develop more permanent solution

WASHINGTON -- Sen. Chuck Grassley (R-Iowa), ranking member of the Senate Judiciary Committee, is calling on Senate Majority Leader Chuck Schumer (D-N.Y.) to extend temporary restrictions on fentanyl analogues that are driving overdose deaths during the opioid epidemic. In a letter this week, Grassley pressed Schumer to advance an extension that provides necessary time for Congress and the administration to work toward a more permanent solution to address rapidly evolving opioid analogues.

“A sufficiently lengthy extension is necessary for the Administration interagency and Congressional partners to come together on how to schedule fentanyl-related substances in balance with criminal justice and research equities. Additionally, we must ensure ample time for the new Administration to build its staff, develop internal goals and strategies, and report to Congress -- either through hearings or briefings – on its progress,” Grassley said.

On Monday, Grassley introduced bipartisan legislation to extend the temporary authority to add substances substantially similar to fentanyl to Schedule I of the Controlled Substances Act. In 2020, Congress extended this authority through May 6, 2021, with unanimous support in the Senate.

This insidious deployment is designed to trap you in a loop of "I'm a Christian [Name, mirrored behavior leads to marriage with satan] and rejecting that marriage to satan"

It's "satan's toilet"'s stale shtick of "inevitability" that's designed to ware down your Will and accept being a template for satans toilet.

This is well worth a global report, it's insidious beyond belief.

Update: The "I❤️TRAPS" flooder is designed again, to force you to mirror what you see. Mirroring is their primary weapon, that's why they post Pepe as their 'avatars' here so much.

Do you see how these deployments work together?

Do you see how much energy they spend eroding your Will? Demoralizing you?

How many pictures have you scrolled across that contain their subliminal attacks? (Hint: They. do. not. waste. any. chance. to. make. you. smaller.)

It's just, the worst and most disrespectful behavior I've ever seen.

Remember: As a combat tactic, they associates themselves with those they can't subdue. "Taking them down with me"

To invoke disgust against this mirroring act, I used "herpy caidsll" as a name replacement.

The baker (also satans toilet) is making an insidious statement in saying [#17063]"Also You Might Have Herpes" because THEY KNOW it's their own mirror trap they've deployed against (You).

All from the last few day, we saw the MOCKINGBIRD consensus here massage our minds for this marriage deployment. (The henry aids)

Grassley, Spartz Urge President Biden To Prohibit ‘Sue-And-Settle’ Practice

WASHINGTON -- Senator Chuck Grassley (R-Iowa) joined Representative Victoria Spartz (IN-05) and 16 colleagues to send a letter to President Biden urging him to prohibit a practice known as ‘sue-and-settle.’

Sue-and-settle tactics place special interest priorities above the public interest by allowing activist agencies to circumvent the public rulemaking process through “friendly lawsuits” and settlements, undermining the Administrative Procedure Act and costing taxpayers billions of dollars.

"For years prior to the Trump administration, pro-regulation activists have colluded with complicit federal agencies to short circuit our transparent rule making process and force new policy without any public input. The Biden administration should build upon the work of the Trump administration to once and for all put a stop to this abusive practice," Sen. Grassley said.

“Congress must provide proper legislative oversight of the executive branch to ensure transparency and accountability,” said Rep. Spartz. “Congress is the only branch which should be producing laws. All rulemaking processes must be conducted under the Administrative Procedures Act and have proper regulatory oversight.”

According to the American Action Forum, from 2005 to 2016, twenty-three sue and settle regulations resulted in a cost burden of $67.9 billion, with $26 billion in annual costs. Sixteen of the rules impose paperwork burdens on American jobs creators of more than eight million hours.

In addition to the letter issued to President Biden, Rep. Spartz and Sen. Grassley are also working to address this issue legislatively.

Maxine Waters Condoned 1992 LA Riots, Defended Some Looting, Old Footage Shows

Thousands of National Guard troops and police from multiple states have been deployed in Minnesota as the state braces for the jury’s verdict in the trial of Derek Chauvin, the former Minneapolis police officer accused of killing George Floyd in May 2020. The nationwide protests which followed Floyd’s death caused 25 people to lose their lives.

Maxine Waters, the Democratic congresswoman from California facing growing pressure over her comments urging Black Lives Matter protesters to “get more confrontational” if Derek Chauvin is not convicted for “murder,” also partly defended the 1992 riots which swept across Los Angeles and killed 63 people in the aftermath of the acquittal of the police officers who beat Rodney King, unearthed footage reveals.

“There are scores of injuries, and still anger and frustration, and people who plan on staying on the streets, and expressing their outrage and anger in any way they deem necessary. There are those who would like for me and others and all of us to tell people to go inside, to be peaceful, that they have to accept the verdict. I accept the responsibility of asking people not to endanger their lives. I am not asking people not to be angry,” Waters said in a C-Span video dated 30 April, 1992, day two of the six days of riots which rocked the West Coast city that year.

“I am angry and I have a right to that anger. And the people out there have a right to that anger. We don’t want anybody killed. None of us believe in violence. But there are some angry people in America,” Waters added.

She went on to call violent LA rioters’ motivations “somewhat understandable, if not acceptable,” and to defend some looting as a matter of urgency.

“There were mothers who took this as an opportunity to take some milk, to take some bread, to take some shoes. Maybe they shouldn’t have done it, but the atmosphere was such that they did it. They are not crooks,” she said in a separate interview with local media at the time.

“One lady said her children didn’t have any shoes. She just saw those shoes there, a chance for all of her children to have new shoes. Goddamn it! It was such a tear-jerker. I might have gone in and taken them for her myself,” Waters said.

Waters’ decades-old comments carry new meaning amid the firestorm of controversy she has faced over her remarks Saturday urging protesters in Brooklyn Center -- the city where 20-year-old African American Daunte Wright was gunned down by a white police officer last week, to ignore curfew, to “stay on the streets” and “get more confrontational” if Derek Chauvin, the former officer accused of killing George Floyd, is not convicted.

Waters’ comments prompted some Republicans to accuse her of inciting riots and violence in Minnesota, and demanding that she resign or be expelled from Congress.

Democratic House Majority Leader Nancy Pelosi defended Waters on Monday, saying the congresswoman “absolutely” did not incite any violence, and drawing parallels between Waters’ call for confrontation and the civil rights movement.

Judge Peter Cahill, the judge presiding over the Chauvin trial, blasted Waters and other officials for their incessant commenting on the trial, saying he “wished” officials would “stop talking about this case, especially in a manner that’s disrespectful to the rule of law and to the judicial branch and our function,” and calling their failure to do so “abhorrent.” Waters’ remarks, he said, could serve as potential grounds for an appeal by Chauvin’s defence if he is convicted.

https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Free_City_of_Danzig

The Free City of Danzig (Wolne Miasto Gdańsk) was a semi-autonomous city-state that existed between 1920 and 1939, consisting of the Baltic Sea port of Danzig (now Gdańsk, Poland) and nearly 200 towns and villages in the surrounding areas. It was created on 15 November 1920 in accordance with the terms of Article 100 (Section XI of Part III) of the 1919 Treaty of Versailles after the end of World War I.

The Free City included the city of Danzig and other nearby towns, villages, and settlements that were primarily inhabited by Germans. As the treaty stated, the region was to remain separated from the post-war German Republic and from the newly independent Polish Republic, but it was not a sovereign state. The Free City was under League of Nations protection and put into a binding customs union with Poland.

By 1936, the city's senate had a majority of local Nazis, and agitation to rejoin Germany was stepped up. Due to German antisemitism, persecution and oppression, many Jews fled. After the German invasion of Poland in 1939, the Nazis abolished the Free City and incorporated the area into the newly formed Reichsgau of Danzig-West Prussia.

The Nazis classified the Poles and Jews living in the city as subhumans, subjecting them to discrimination, forced labor, and extermination. Many were sent to their deaths at Nazi concentration camps, including nearby Stutthof (now Sztutowo, Poland).

During the city's conquest by the Soviet Army in the early months of 1945, a substantial number of citizens fled or were killed. In 1945, the city officially became part of Poland in accordance with the Potsdam Agreement. In the period immediately after the war, many surviving Germans were expelled to West or East Germany, while members of the pre-war Polish ethnic minority started returning and new Polish settlers began to come. Due to these events, Gdańsk suffered severe underpopulation and did not recover until the late 1950s.

'We have evidence that woke politics is making the west desperately weak'

Sky News host Andrew Bolt says "we have evidence that woke politics is making the west desperately weak" after New Zealand's Foreign Affairs Minister refused to criticise China on COVID-19's origins or on the treatment of Hong Kong and its activists.

"As I've said before, New Zealand is selling out Australia -- and the west – to keep sweet with the genocidal Chinese dictatorship," he said.

"New Zealand figures other democracies can do the fighting. New Zealand can meanwhile sweet talk China and clean up businesswise. But it may be worse than that. I think woke culture is also to blame.

"New Zealand's foreign minister is dizzy with her new age earth worship and old nature gods. For her, China is an ally in the fight against global warming, which seems to her far more important than the danger of war. China would be laughing."

DOJ reopens investigation into killing of George Floyd: report

A federal grand jury has been empaneled to consider charges against Derek Chauvin, who kneeled on George Floyd's neck.

Biba Adams

February 24, 2021

https://thegrio.com/2021/02/24/chauvin-federal-grand-jury/

The Justice Department is investigating the actions of former Minneapolis Police officer Derek Chauvin.

According to a new report from The New York Times, a grand jury has been empaneled to consider federal charges against Chauvin, who, along with three other former Minneapolis officers, has trials pending in Minnesota --- his in March, for second-degree murder and second-degree manslaughter.

The federal investigation will automatically trigger if Chauvin is acquitted or if there is a mistrial in the state trial. He could be charged with violating George Floyd’s civil rights.

Chauvin kneeled on Floyd’s neck for nearly nine minutes on May 25, 2020, resulting in his death; Thomas Lane, J. Alexander Kueng and Tou Thao helped him restrain the prone Floyd and kept onlookers distanced. The incident, which was captured on bystanders' video, sparked a summer of global protests against U.S. police violence.

The federal charge of violating a person's civil rights is not based on race, but the idea that Chauvin "willfully" violated Floyd's constitutional rights, particularly the right to due process. According to the report, the federal grand jury is focused particularly on Chauvin's actions. He was the senior officer on site.

As the state murder trial of Derek Chauvin, the former officer charged in the death of George Floyd, approaches, the federal government has accelerated its own investigation.

Massive fire in Langley township forces 100 people from their homes

A massive fire at a Langley Township condo complex Monday night sent flames shooting dozens of meters into the sky.

It could be seen from as far away as Delta and Coquitlam.

The building was under construction but only the elevator shafts remained standing Tuesday morning.

Witnesses said people living near the engulfed complex, near 208th Street and 80th Avenue, were asked to evacuate as it appeared to spread to neighbouring buildings.

Just after 11 p.m., an explosion was heard and everything for several blocks around went dark.

Witnesses said the building collapsed, knocking down nearby powerlines.

The power to nearby homes, street lights and traffic lights appeared to have been knocked out for some time by the explosion.

Traffic in the area was heavily impacted and people are asked to avoid the area Tuesday.

At this time there are no reports of any injuries and the cause of the fire has not been determined.

https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Polish_Corridor

The Danzig / Gdańsk Corridor was a territory located in the region of Pomerelia which provided the Second Republic of Poland (1920--1939) with access to the Baltic Sea, thus dividing the bulk of Germany (Weimar Republic) from the province of East Prussia. The Free City of Danzig was separate from both Poland and Germany. A similar territory, also occasionally referred to as a corridor, had been connected to the Polish Crown as part of Royal Prussia during the period 1466–1772.

Britain records33Covid deaths as fatalities rise slightly on last week while cases stay flat at 2,524 - but hospital admissions fall by nearly 20% with just 192 newly-infected patients needing NHS care

Testing numbers jumped massively over the weekend, with 1.7million swabs carried out on Saturday

People testing positive stayed relatively flat rising by just 2.1% since last Tuesday despite the surge in testing

More than33million people have now had a first vaccine dose while more than 10.4million have had a second

Nearly 60 per cent of all the 56,910 Covid deaths that have occurred in 2021 were people aged 80 or over

Dozens of passengers test positive for COVID on flight from India to Hong Kong

At least 53 passengers on an Indian airline flight from Delhi to Hong Kong this month reportedly tested positive for COVID-19 -- after everyone aboard had tested negative within 72 hours prior to departure.

The Vistara airline plane --- which landed in Hong Kong on April 4 — can hold 188 passengers, but officials in the territory did not announce Tuesday how many were aboard the buggy flight, Agence France-Presse reported.

News about the large number of infections comes as the Chinese financial hub introduced an emergency ban on arrivals from India amid a new surge in cases.

Hong Kong has regularly recorded fewer daily cases than the total number detected on the Indian flight since it brought a fourth wave under control in January.

The positive results emerged while the arriving passengers were undergoing Hong Kong's mandatory three-week quarantine period, one of the strictest entry requirments in the world.

All travelers flying in from 25 places deemed high-risk including the UK, South Africa, India, Pakistan and the US also must provide a negative test within the 72 hours prior to departure.

Several cases also have been detected on flights arriving in Hong Kong from Mumbai, officials said.

Meanwhile, local authorities on Monday imposed a two-week ban on all flights from India, Pakistan and the Philippines, categorizing the countries as "extremely high risk" after detecting the N501Y strain for the first time.

On Monday night, India's capital, New Delhi, went into lockdown as officials struggle to bring the surging cases under control.

Henry Kissinger openly threatens with sparking WW3 in Europe if the world doesn't submit to the globalist Cabal.

General situation assessment 20.04.2021

The Cabal can't destroy United States or Russia directly, so it's using Biden as a proxy through China to create a crisis in Ukraine. Which it will then try to broaden and escalate to cover the broader Black Sea region as well as spread it to the Baltic Sea region. This would also pull Europe in its entirety into the crisis as well.

Because the Cabal is using Biden as a proxy through the CCP which is one of their other proxies, none of the three superpowers can blame the Cabal directly. The Cabal is most likely going to seek to use Biden to escalate the situation by manipulating manoeuvres in the ongoing Defender Europe 21 exercise.[1]

The Cabal is doing this in an attempt to create WW3. There is a video from Chatham House where Henry Kissinger states this pretty directly at 21:54 -- 22:49.[2]

Quote: "So, is it possible for us to develop a foreign policy, thinking together with allies and understood by other countries that looks for world order at the basis of that sort of analysis. If we don't get to that point and if we don't get to an understanding with China on that point, then we will be in a pre-world war one situation in Europe, in which there are perennial conflicts that get solved on an immediate basis. But one of them gets out of control at some point."

This insidious deployment is designed to trap you in a loop of "I'm a Christian [Name, mirrored behavior leads to marriage with satan] and rejecting that marriage to satan"

It's "satan's toilet"'s stale shtick of "inevitability" that's designed to ware down your Will and accept being a template for satans toilet.

This is well worth a global report, it's insidious beyond belief.

Update: The "I❤️TRAPS" flooder is designed again, to force you to mirror what you see. Mirroring is their primary weapon, that's why they post Pepe as their 'avatars' here so much.

Do you see how these deployments work together?

Do you see how much energy they spend eroding your Will? Demoralizing you?

How many pictures have you scrolled across that contain their subliminal attacks? (Hint: They. do. not. waste. any. chance. to. make. you. smaller.)

It's just, the worst and most disrespectful behavior I've ever seen.

Remember: As a combat tactic, they associates themselves with those they can't subdue. "Taking them down with me"

To invoke disgust against this mirroring act, I used "herpy caidsll" as a name replacement.

More from NYT article:

"Three days after Mr. Floyd died, Erica MacDonald, the outgoing U.S. attorney in Minnesota, said that her office and the Justice Department’s civil rights division would investigate whether the officers violated federal law, calling the case a “top priority.”

But the attorney general at the time, William P. Barr, said at a news conference that “as a matter of comity,” the department “typically lets the state go forward with its proceedings first,” a statement that put to rest the possibility that a charging decision would come before the election.

Nevertheless, Mr. Barr made clear that the video was harrowing. “When you watch it, and imagine that one of your own loved ones was being treated like that, and begging for their lives, it is impossible for any normal human being not to be struck in the heart with horror,” he said.

As The New York Times recently reported, three days after Mr. Floyd died on May 25, Mr. Chauvin was ready to plead guilty to third-degree murder and go to prison for more than a decade. But the offer fell apart after Mr. Barr, at the last minute, rejected the deal, which had been contingent on the Justice Department's agreement not to bring additional federal charges in the future. Last summer, a federal grand jury in Minneapolis, which has since expired, began hearing evidence and testimony about Mr. Floyd's death.

The department has previously opened up investigations into several high-profile assaults and killings of Black people by police officers --- including the killings of Eric Garner on Staten Island, Tamir Rice in Cleveland, and Michael Brown in Ferguson, Mo. — but it has rarely charged officers in those cases.

Former Justice Department officials say that is in part because the department has only one charge it can bring in these cases --- that in the course of policing, an officer willfully deprived someone of his or her civil rights — and that the charge is difficult to prove.

While it is easier to show that an officer's use of force deprived someone of his or her civil rights, determining whether it was "willful" has been a challenge, said Jonathan M. Smith, a former official in the Justice Department's civil rights division who now serves as executive director of the Washington Lawyers' Committee for Civil Rights and Urban Affairs.

"Willfulness is the highest intent standard under criminal law --- that the person set out to act with the purpose of depriving someone of their rights," Mr. Smith said. "You need to prove that the law enforcement officer actually knew that he was going to violate someone's rights and acted with that purpose in mind. It's akin to proving first-degree murder."

Justice department files complaint against unproven Covid treatment promoted by Steve Bannon

The Department of Justice has filed a civil complaint against the makers of an alleged treatment for Covid-19 promoted by Steve Bannon on his website.

Donald Trump's former adviser appears in ads on his website for "The War Room Defense Pack", which pairs vitamin D3 and zinc pills under the slogans: "You can't fight if you're sick!" and "The ultimate defense against sickness."

Manufactured by Wellness Warrior, the tablets come with a free copy of War Room's Defense Guide, emblazoned with a photo of Mr Bannon, and his War Room: Pandemic podcast logo featuring the biohazard symbol, and the Chinese flag.

Named as defendants in the justice department's case are Eric Anthony Nepute and Quickwork LLC, doing business as Wellness Warrior. Mr Bannon is not named in the suit.

The Independent has contacted Wellness Warrior for comment and attempts were made to reach Mr Bannon.

A disclaimer at the foot of the website advertising the partnership with the podcast reads: "These statements have not been evaluated by the Food and Drug Administration. These products are not intended to diagnose, treat, cure or prevent any disease."

This is the first enforcement action alleging violations of the Covid-19 Consumer Protection Act, passed in December 2020.

The act makes it unlawful to "engage in a deceptive act or practice" relating to the treatment, cure, prevention, mitigation, or diagnosis of the coronavirus.

According to a complaint filed in the US District Court for the Eastern District of Missouri, the defendants advertised that their vitamin D and zinc nutritional supplements could prevent or treat Covid-19 without competent or reliable scientific evidence to support their claims.

They also allegedly advertised, without scientific evidence, that their supplements were equally or more effective therapies for Covid-19 than the currently available vaccines.

This insidious deployment is designed to trap you in a loop of "I'm a Christian [Name, mirrored behavior leads to marriage with satan] and rejecting that marriage to satan"

It's "satan's toilet"'s stale shtick of "inevitability" that's designed to ware down your Will and accept being a template for satans toilet.

This is well worth a global report, it's insidious beyond belief.

Update: The "I❤TRAPS" flooder is designed again, to force you to mirror what you see. Mirroring is their primary weapon, that's why they post Pepe as their 'avatars' here so much.

Do you see how these deployments work together?

Do you see how much energy they spend eroding your Will? Demoralizing you?

How many pictures have you scrolled across that contain their subliminal attacks? (Hint: They. do. not. waste. any. chance. to. make. you. smaller.)

It's just, the worst and most disrespectful behavior I've ever seen.

Remember: As a combat tactic, they associates themselves with those they can't subdue. "Taking them down with me"

To invoke disgust against this mirroring act, I used "herpy caidsll" as a name replacement.

The baker (also satans toilet) is making an insidious statement in saying [#17063]"Also

Trudeau's budget includes new legal support for asylum seekers

Justin Trudeau's 2021 budget includes millions of dollars for “legal information and advice for racialized Canadians and asylum seekers.”

The investments were listed on page 284 of Budget 2021: A Recovery Plan for Jobs, Growth, and Resilience.

Here's what the budget proposes:

Enhancing Legal Support for Vulnerable Communities

The government is committed to building a strong justice system and ensuring fair outcomes for all involved. That is why the government is making investments to support access to legal information and advice for racialized Canadians and asylum seekers.

Budget 2021 proposes to provide $21.5 million over five years, starting in 2021-22, for a Racialized Communities Legal Support Initiative. This would support organizations that provide free public legal education and information as well as organizations that provide legal services and advice to racialized communities.

Budget 2021 also proposes to provide an additional $26.8 million, in 2021-22, to enable participating provinces to maintain immigration and refugee legal aid support for asylum seekers, while protecting the efficiency and integrity of the asylum system.

The federal budget was tabled on Monday and faces several votes in the House of Commons, which could trigger a spring election.

Wow!

To our Frens up north, Stay strong, keep Praying and Trust in God. Frens, WWG1WGA is not just a catchy saying, it has deep meaning to ALL of us. Our Northern Frens, member, there are a whole LOT more of us then there is of [Them], WE the People hold the power! [They] can NOT "take" our God given rights, only we can kneel and hand them over. I don't say this lightly and only at no other option, but we each have to decide, we each have to ask ourselves two questions;

Will we die standing as a Free Person or will we kneel, only to die when [They] decide we are no longer of use to [Them] at a later date?

What kind of world are you willing to leave for your children, and for theirs?

Pray Frens, we are Praying for you! And know, you are so much Stronger then you realize! Love you! In it together! WWG1WGA!

It's a coverup.

Just like Monica Jewinski was used to coverup the Clinton-Whitewater drug money laundering operation.

The question you will not see the FBI or media ask is WHY did the cop kill Floyd in broad daylight. Every action is being used to coverup the fact that Floyd and Chauvin worked together at a night club and Floyd was caught trying to pass a counterfeit bill.

Did that funny money, Floyd, Cauvin and the nightclub have a connection?

Antifa Chants ‘Hit a Cop With a Baseball Bat’ During Violent Frederick, Maryland Demonstrations

Left-Wing Radicals Took to the Streets of Frederick, Maryland With a Violent Anti-Cop Message

A group of AntiFa radicals led threatening chants of “hit a cop with a baseball bat,” during violent demonstrations in Frederick, Maryland; the latest instance of extreme left-wing activity in a community once known for the conservative streak that set it apart from other regions of the state.

“From the Nile to the Platte, hit a cop with a baseball bat!”, the group, which reportedly goes by the name “Frederick Socialists,” chanted through bullhorns during the “free the people, fight the power, fuck the police march” down a residential street in one of several short clips posted online by march attendees.

According to organizers, the group’s demands included the “firing” of Frederick County Sheriff Chuck Jenkins (an elected Republican and frequent target of the radical left), the ending of the county’s cooperation with ICE as part of the 287(g) immigration enforcement program, and for local officials to “reallocate funds into the community.”

During the march that appeared to span several neighborhoods, attendees burnt flags and attacked a motorist with a pro-police bumper sticker, setting upon the vehicle before posting identifying information online with instructions for fellow leftists to “do with this as you must.” The post was part of a larger Twitter thread from a self-proclaimed AntiFa radical who documented the march attended by an estimated group of 30 individuals. According to police, buildings, homes, and public property were vandalized.

In the battle the outnumbered Polish force secured a decisive victory over Russia, due to the tactical competence of hetman Stanisław Żółkiewski and the military prowess of Polish hussars, the elite of the army of the Crown of the Kingdom of Poland. The battle is remembered as one of the greatest triumphs of the Polish cavalry and an example of excellence and supremacy of the Polish military at the time.

Hetman Żółkiewsk:

"The hedge between us was long… There were, however, gaps in it and when we moved to attack, we had to break out through them. That hedge was a serious obstacle to us, for behind it Pontus had stationed infantry who very greatly hampered our men as they sallied out from and returned through the gaps."

"The battle lasted a long time, for both our men and theirs… The falconets arrived with some infantry and met a great need. For the gunners discharged the falconets at the German infantrymen who stood by the hedge, and our infantry, not numerous but tried and experienced in many battles, rushed at them."

"Then when there were no more of the German infantrymen harassing us by the hedge, a few troops of our cavalry, joining together, charged the foreign cavalry with lances -- those who still had them – sabers and broadswords, They, deprived of protection of the Russian soldiers and cavalry, unable to resist, began escaping back into their camp. But there too our men rode after, and hitting and hacking drove them through their own camp"

"It was hard to charge at him with the cavalry, which was exhausted. There was no more fresh infantry. We had only my regiment and Count Chmielnicki's, as we had to leave the rest besieging the Carowa-Zajmiszcze camp, so there was no way to continue."

"about that I shall remember, for it is beyond belief, that the companies managed eight or ten times to fall upon the enemy. (…) After the repeated charges and hand-to-hand fighting with the enemy, our equipment was broken and our strength was dissipated (….) The horses were also ready to drop, because they have not received sustenance since dawn and for five hours of battle, they had served with a will but were reaching the limits which nature imposes."

"Seeing us weaken, Szujski ordered two reiter cornets, who were in readiness to move against us, to attack and destroy us. By the grace of God, they became the reason of our victory. As they moved forward we exchanged a salvo of fire with them, and each front rank fell back to reload the pistol or arkebuz in the ordinary manner, while the second rank advanced to fire their salvo. Seeing their rank retreat to load their secondary weapons, we did not wait for their next rank. We swooped down on them, sword in hand -- whether they had managed to reload or not, I would not know because they took for the rear and did not stop galloping until they reached the Russian reserve at the rear camp gate, where their several tidy formations became chaotically entangled."

"The Muscovites ran by God’s grace for a mile, while we slashed at them and grabbed the rich ones, who, carrying what they owned, tried to get away" "Far more Muscovites fell in 2 or 3 miles of pursuit then fell in their ranks in battle,"

It's the Deep State's plan and desire that black people riot after Chauvin's acquittal. Please help explain this sinister agenda to as many black people as you can, anons, in order to help prevent any rioting.

Deny satans advances, begging betrayer be beggin' hard lately~

Just so (You)'re aware, the one I dub 'satans toilet' wants to become your template.

Sees themselves as a template for You, as a being.

Confused?

They are siphoning your psychic energy and impressing themselves upon your being, to force you to mirror them. Like a predator traumatizing its prey.

Sick yet?

I am~

This is a level above insidious censorship, and is one of the most subtle and dangerous attacks against (You)r free speech I've ever seen.

Read this again, and again, and again, and Pray.

Pray to God above All, above this fool, way above this fool, and higher still.

Pray.
